Judge Jails Fourth of Reds' Bondsmen on Contempt Charge

By the Associated Press

New York, July 28.—A fourth Civil Rights Congress bail fund trustee, Abner Green, was in jail today for refusing to assist the Government's hunt for a quartet of fugitive, top-rung Communists.

Jailing of Mr. Green on a contempt conviction yesterday was the top development as United States authorities pushed a home-front offensive against domestic Bods.

Another action was a motion to force William Z. Foster, the ailing titular head of American communism, to supply a new $10,000 bail or go to jail. He currently is free on Civil Rights Congress' bail, which has been outlawed by a Federal judge.

SCHNEIDERMAN FAILS

The 12th secondary Communist, William Schneiderman, failed to get his $100,000 bond reduced before a Federal commissioner here. Schneiderman, the party's California chairman, reportedly has assumed the national leadership with other Red bigwigs in jail or hiding. Unable to put up the bond, he himself remained in jail.

Altogether there are 34 American Communists under indictment on charges of conspiring to teach violent overthrow of the United States Government.

Eleven more, the party's "first-team" hierarchy, have been convicted on the same charge; but only seven surendered to serve prison terms of three to five years.

The other four—Robert Thompson, Gus Hall, Gilbert Green and Henry Winston—jumped a total of $80,000 Civil Right Congress supplied bail, starting the current legal actions against the Reds' bail "angels."

FUND TRUSTEES BALKED

Federal Judge Sylvester Ryan opened the hearings, seeking to find out the identities of subscribers to the bail fund. He said that such a course might provide a clue to the missing Reds.

But the bail fund's trustees balked, and Judge Ryan sentenced three to jail for contempt. He gave Millionaire Leftist Frederick Vanderbilt Field 90 days and Mystery Writer Dashiell Hammett and W. Alphaeus Hunton each six months. All are appealing.

months. All are appealing.

Federal Judge John F. X. McGoney (McGohey) meted out Green's six month contempt sentence yesterday when Green flatly told him "I will not obey" court orders to produce Civil Rights Congress' records before a Federal grand jury.

Green had been ordered to produce the records as well as those of a related group, the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born. Both outfits are on the United States Attorney General's list of subversive organizations.

Obviously, prepared for the judge's action, Green's attorney carried into the courtroom a prepared notice of appeal from the contempt sentence.

Judge McGohey scheduled a further hearing for Green Monday and posed the threat of a second contempt sentence at that time.

THREE WOMEN COMMUNISTS ORDERED TO POST HIGHER BAIL

San Francisco, July 28.—Three women arrested here in an FBI roundup of California Communist leaders remained at liberty this morning, but were ordered behind bars by noon unless they raise additional bail.

Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman yesterday set $50,000 as bail for each of the three women and four men arrested here. That lowered the bail for the men, who had been held in lieu of $75,000. Two of the women, however, had been admitted to $2,500 bail and the third to $7,500. They contended the increased amount was "outrageous."

Judge Goodman gave them until noon to raise it.

In addition to the seven persons arrested here, five were held in Los Angeles and New York.

The Justice Department officials said they will ask indictments on all 12 in Los Angeles on charges of plotting to teach and advocate violent overthrow of the United States Government.

In increasing the bail for the three women, Judge Goodman said the charges call for "substantial" bail and he could see no reason for the women to have a different amount than the men

New York Committee Annual Conference Meeting, in Special Session, Votes Merger of New York and American Committees

On September 8, 1955, meeting in a special reconvened session, the Annual Conference of the New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born voted unanimously to merge the NYCPFB with the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The merger was voted to assure that the work in behalf of the rights of foreign born residing in New York State would be maintained at the highest possible level.

In August, New York State Attorney General Jacob J. (K.) Javits initiated action in the New York Supreme Court to force the production of the books and records of the ACPFB and NYCPFB. A subpena was issued bearing the names of Mrs. Anita Block, Hugo Gellert, Capt. Hugh Mulzac, NYCPFB cochairman, along with Alex Jones. NYCPFB executive secretary, and Abner Green, ACPFB executive secretary.

The attorney general used as a pretext that the ACPFB and NYCPFB were in violation of the State law dealing with charitable and philanthropic organ-

Only Abner Green was served with the subpena, and he must appear before the New York State Supreme Court on October 11 to answer.

In view of the fact that two organizations were involved, as well as officers of both, the Conference delegates felt that by merging the two organizations one concentrated defense would be planned instead of two.

The entire staff of the NYCPFB was amalgamated with that of the ACPFB. The campaigns and issues initiated by the NYCPFB are being continued, with special emphasis placed upon the challenge of the Walter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole provisions scheduled to be argued before the United States Supreme Court on October 19.

The New York Beacon will continue to service New York State, and the former NYCPFB staff will likewise devote its major attention to work in New York State.

Fight Deportation Month, March 1951

American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born: Houorary Cochairmen: Dr. Thomas Mann, Bishop Arthur W. Moulton; Cochairmen: Rev. John W. Darr, Jr., George B. Murphy, Jr.; Executive Secretary: Abner Green; Administrative Secretary: Harriet Barron.

MEMORANDUM ON FIGHT DEPORTATION MONTH

March 1951 was designated as "Fight Deportation Month" by the National Conference to Defend the Bill of Rights, which met in New York City, on December 2 and 3, 1950.

Despite decisions by 14 Federal District Court Judges, as well as the United States Court of Appeals in San Francisco, that the Attorney General does not have the power to arbitrarily hold noncitizens without bail, seven noncitizens are in their third month of illegal imprisonment in Detroit, Duluth, Seattle, and Los Angeles. The Justice Department continues to use legal tricks to hold these seven noncitizens without bail, while appeals are pending in their cases.

In addition, the Justice Department is holding more than 50 deportation hearings in all parts of the country in an illegal star-chamber manner. These deportation hearings have no semblance of democratic process and are an insult to decent and self-respecting noncitizens. The Justice Department is rushing deportation hearings with indecent haste, trying to get speedy orders for the deportation of noncitizens so that it can arrest these noncitizens, under the McCarran law, and try to hold them for 6 months without bail after the order of deportation is entered.

Under the McCarran law, all noncitizens were ordered to report their current address to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization—in police-state style during the first 10 days of January 1951. This now becomes a yearly occurrence, and is one more attempt to make a police-state procedure a permanent fixture in American life.

These and other attempts to destroy the democratic rights of foreign-born Americans must be widely publicized and fought during the coming year. Fight Deportation Month—March 1951—can serve the important function of guaranteeing maximum mobilization of all forces in the fight against the deportation hysteria, to register special protest during that month, and to prepare for a continuous campaign for the balance of the year to expose and defeat these vicious attacks on the democratic and constitutional rights of noncitizens.

In order to bring to the attention of the American people the seriousness of the current deportation hysteria and the danger it presents for all Americans—native as well as foreign born—we suggest below several activities during the month of March 1951. Those suggestions should not in any way preclude any ideas local committees or local communities may have which may be more applicable to a community, a national group, or an individual case.

MARCH 1-10, 1951

1. Local community conferences, or national group conferences, or conferences developed on the basis of a specific case should be organized for a thorough discussion of McCarran Law deportation, the star-chamber deportation hearings, the illegal rearrests and unconstitutional denial of bail, as well as the general persecution of foreign-born Americans and its meaning and significance to organized labor, the national groups, and all other sections of the American people, with special emphasis on its meaning to native-born Americans.

2. Meetings or parties should be arranged in honor of the families of the deportees in preparation for their joining with the families of other deportees in Washington and present protests on the treatment of members of their families. Funds should be raised at these meetings or parties to pay for the expenses of the families going to Washington, or for the general fight against deportation. The meetings of parties should be widely publicized in the local press. Leaflets with photographs of the deportees and their families should be distributed.

MARCH 10-25, 1951

The campaign around the families going to Washington should continue until the time they leave. Local organizations should be contacted for time on the agenda of their meetings to take up the whole question of the deportation drive, the brutal treatment of the American citizen families in the attempt to separate fathers and mothers from children, and husbands from wives, as well as the general danger to all Americans in this attack on the foreign born.

MARCH 26, 1951

1. A press conference should be held with invitations sent to the local metropolitan press, foreign language, labor, church, community, and civic newspapers and publications. The families of deportees—especially those going to Washington—should be present to be interviewed by the press as well as a few prominent members of the community, national group, or defense committee.

2. On the day of departure the press should be informed and a delegation organized to go to the railroad station and/or airport with the families.

MARCH 27, 28, 1951

The families of the deportees will meet in Washington on March 27 and 28 to protest to the President, Attorney General, Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Congressmen and other government officials. A program of activity in Washington is now being organized and details will be sent to you soon.

MARCH 29-31, 1951

The weekend of the return to their homes of the families should be utilized for meetings and parties to report on the Washington visit and plans for continued activities around the deportation victims.

Additional plans and suggestions will be sent to you. In the meantime, it may be a good idea to meet with the deportees and start canvassing which relatives of the deportees will be able to join the Washington mobilization. (See special questionnaire enclosed.)

Please keep us informed on all plans for activities around Fight Deportation Month. We feel that if plans for activities are worked out immediately a great job can be done throughout the country by presenting the issue of deportation to American families who are directly affected but that these deportations are a forerunner to the curtailment of democratic rights and liberties for all.

National Conference Elects ACPFB Officers

The National Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans, held in New York City on December 11 and 12, was attended by 323 participants from 16 states and the District of Columbia. The Conference elected as officers of the ACPFB for the coming year: Honorary Co-Chairmen: Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, Salt Lake City; Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith, New Haven; Co-Chairmen: Rev. Kenneth Ripley Forbes, of Philadelphia; Mr. George B. Murphy, Jr., Washington, D. C. (The resolutions and program adopted by the National Conference serve as the basis of the ACPFB program for 1955 reported on Page 3.)

APPEAL TEN-YEAR SENTENCE IN CASE OF KNUT HEIKKINEN

Oral argument took place in the U. S. Court of Appeals in Chicago on January 21 in the case of Knut Heikkinen, 65-year-old editorial writer of "Tyomies-Eteenpain," Finnish-American daily newspaper of Superior, Wisconsin. Heikkinen was sentenced to ten years' imprisonment for allegedly violating the self-deportation provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. Heikkinen, who has been a resident of the U. S. since 1916, was ordered deported to Finland in 1952 on the ground of past membership in the Communist Party. In 1953, he was indicted for "willfully" failing to apply for a passport after having been ordered deported. The appeal challenges the contsitutionality of the self-deportation provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. It was argued by M. Michael Essin, Milwaukee attorney. Kenneth Enkel, Minneapolis attorney, is associated with Mr. Essin in Heikkinen's defense.

U. S. SUPREME COURT ACCEPTS APPEAL ON WALTER-MCCARRAN LAW PROVISION

On January 31, the U. S. Supreme Court accepted the appeal in the case of 14 noncitizens, all New York City residents, challenging the reasonableness and constitutionality of the Supervisory Parole conditions of the Walter-McCarran Law. No date has been set as yet by the Supreme Court to hear oral argument in the appeal from the decision by Court of Appeals Judge Medina, who held that the 14 had no case since no one was being "harmed." Blanch Freedman and Gloria Agrin, New York attorneys, are representing the 14 noncitizens. No decision has been made as yet by the Supreme Court on the petition for certiorari filed by William Heikkila, 48, of San Francisco, in his deportation case. Heikkila, who was born in Finland while his parents were visiting there and was brought into this country when three months old, was arrested in deportation proceedings in 1947 on the basis of former membership in the Communist Party. Lloyd McMurray, San Francisco attorney, is representing Heikkila.

ACPFB Tours of Major Centers

Harriet Barron, administrative secretary, ACPFB, toured the Midwest in February in preparation for the National Legislative Conference. Mrs. Barron s tour schedule was: February 4—Pittsburgh; February 6—Cleveland; February 7—Detroit; February 13—Minneapolis; February 15—Chicago.

WALTER-MCCARRAN LAW SPELLS GREATER HARDSHIPS

Many cases active during the past few months served to emphasize the harshness and cruelty of the Walter-McCarran Law deportation provisions. We list only four of these cases as examples.

On December 31, Robert N. Galvan was deported from San Diego, California, to Mexico, leaving behind his wife and five children, all native born citizens. Galvan entered the U. S. in 1918 and was deported on the charge of past membership in the Communist Party.

Meanwhile, the Immigration Service was preparing to deport John Schedel, of Galveston, Texas., to West Germany. The German consul in Houston promised to issue a passport for Schedel. John Schedel is 70 years old, suffering from angina pectoris, high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries and glaucoma. Writing to the ACPFB, Schedel says, "I can only walk 100 or less yards at a time then I get those terrible pains in my chest. * * *" Schedel's wife, to whom he has been married 46 years, would have to stay in the U. S. So would his 5 children, 12 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren.

In Seattle, Walter Baer was arrested for deportation to Germany. In the 1930's, the Immigration Service tried to deport Baer, at that time a resident of Portland, Oregon, on the ground that in his youth he had committed crimes involving "moral turpitude." Baer's deportation was prevented by action taken at that time by Oregon Senator McNary and Governor Snell. But, 20 years later, Walter Baer was arrested for deportation—because he had failed to report to the Attorney General a change in address when he moved from Portland to Seattle as required by the Walter-McCarran Law.

In January, the Board of Immigration Appeals heard argument in the case of Leon Callow, of Niles, Ohio. Callow, father of nine American-born children, faces deportation to Greece. His oldest son, Carl, 19, has been a member of the U. S. armed forces since September 1954.

State Legislatures

The Walter-McCarran Law is Federal legislation, adopted by the United States Congress. There is, therefore, nothing that any State or local legislature can do about the provisions of the Law since only Congress can repeal or amend it.

State and local legislatures, however, can make important contributions to the fight to repeal or amend the Walter-McCarran Law. This can be done by the legislature adopting a Memorial to Congress, or perhaps a special Resolution to Memorialize Congress.

It is suggested that you try to carry out the following program:

(1) Find out the appropriate legislative action that can be taken by State and local legislatures in your State.

- (2) Arrange to see as many members of the State and local legislatures as possible before the next session to discuss with them introducing appropriate legislation.
- (3) As soon as legislation is introduced, please notify us and send us a copy of whatever is introduced.
- (4) Communicate immediately with all contacts, organizations, and individuals in the State or community to get communications to members of the State or local legislatures supporting adoption of the Memorial to Congress.

(5) Plan and carry out other suitable activities and campaigns to publicize the pending legislation and to get support for its enactment.

We enclose, as guides, copies of legislation introduced in State and local legislatures in the past. This is intended as a guide to you, and also to help convince State or local legislators to take action. Attached are copies of legislation from:

(1) The Commonwealth of Massachusetts, State Legislature

(2) City Council of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

(3) New York State Assembly

(4) New Jersey State Senate

(5) Pennsylvania State House of Representatives

THE COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

House Resolution No. 317 (Adopted January 1953)

Resolutions Memorializing Congress to investigate and consider the feasibility of amending the Immigration and Nationality Act, commonly known as the McCarran-Walter Act, or to repeal the same

Whereas the Immigration and Nationality Act, Public Law 414, being chapter 477 of the acts of the 82nd Congress, second session and commonly called the McCarran-Walter Act, is unduly restrictive in its effects upon certain ethnological minorities; and

Whereas such restriction is inimical to the welfare of our country and contrary to the high concept of the founders of this nation of freedom, liberty and justice for all; and

Whereas the terms of this act are such that they have been denounced by enlightened leaders of the clergy, the press and those in public life: Therefore be it

Resolved, That the general court of Massachusetts hereby urges the Congress of the United States either to amend said Immigration and Nationality Act, so as to broaden its scope in order that it might be less exclusive in regard to its quota of certain nationalities, or else to repeal the act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be transmitted forthwith by the state secretary to the President of the United States, to the presiding office of each branch of Congress and to the members thereof from this commonwealth.

CITY COUNCIL OF PHILADELPHIA, PA

Passed March 18, 1954

Resolution Memorializing the United States Congress with respect to the modification of the provisions of the National Immigration Act

Whereas on December 24, 1952, the new Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952 became effective; and

Whereas the plan to codify and consolidate the immigration and naturalization laws presented our law-givers with an excellent opportunity to remove from our laws pertaining to this important field various features generally felt to be inconsistent with our democratic tradition and to enact a truly modern immigration and naturalization law; and

Whereas the said 1952 National Immigration Act does make an important contribution to human relations within the United States by eliminating all racial barriers in naturalization proceedings; and

Whereas the new law has unfortunately missed the opportunity to remove discrimination among would-be emigrants to the United States by asserting, in effect, through the quotas established therein, that immigrants from northern Europe are more desirable to the United States than immigrants from southern and eastern Europe; and

Whereas the 1952 National Immigration Act violates the American ideal of complete equality of all citizens before the law by providing special tests and penalties for naturalized citizens which do not apply to native-born citizens; and

Whereas both the Republican and Democratic Parties, in the election campaign of 1952, felt impelled to call for a revision of the 1952 National Immigration Act, since the new enactment has been generally described as a "racist, discriminatory and retrogressive measure," and there is every evidence of concerted belief that the law should be rewritten and a law presented to strike an "intelligent, unbigoted balance between the immigration welfare of America and the prayerful hopes of the unhappy and the oppressed"; and

Whereas although it is necessary and proper that our immigration laws contain provisions to prevent the entry into our country of persons who might engage in espionage and other subversive activities, they should not be used as a device for erecting an iron curtain around our shores and excluding many people who might well contribute greatly to the strengthening of our country:

Therefore

Resolved by the Council of the City of Philadelphia, That the Congress of the United States is hereby memorialized to revise the 1952 National Immigration Act, and to provide a modern and democratic immigration system.

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, to the presiding officers of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, to the two Senators from Pennsylvania, and to the members of the House of Representatives from Philadelphia.

NEW YORK STATE

Assembly Resolution No. 11 (Adopted by Assembly, 1953)

Whereas the people of the United States have always recognized the contribution which so many Americans of foreign birth and descent have made in the growth, progress and development of the United States of America; and

Whereas these peoples have earned the respect and confidence of all Americans in their effort to recover from the devastating effects of World War II without relying upon self pity; and

Whereas the freedom-loving peoples of the world have courageously and with determination applied themselves to the rebuilding of their beautiful, friendly and industrious nations; and

Whereas it is increasingly evident that the McCarran-Walter Immigration Law, which Congress approved over President Truman's veto, is in several of its provisions discriminatory against the freedom-loving people on account of their foreign birth or national origin; and

Whereas the American principle of equality before the law is violated by some provisions of the Act referring to naturalized citizens; and

Whereas the restrictions enacted in this law against former members of totalitarian organizations, who have been converted to democracy, are detrimental to the interests of the people of a free world; and

Whereas the Democratic Party in its 1952 campaign platform pledged "Continuing revision of our immigration and naturalization laws to do away with any unjust and unfair practices against national groups which have contributed some of our best citizens. We will eliminate distinctions between native born and naturalized citizens. We want no 'second-class' citizens in Free America';

Whereas our recently elected President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower gave pledges to the people during the election campaign of 1952 that he would favor and support a revision of the discriminatory clauses of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, and revise the present unrational and unjust quota system so as to reestablish before the law equality of all citizens, both native and naturalized, and to allow admission of former members of totalitarian organizations who have proven convincingly, over a reasonable period of years, that they have become valiant fighters for freedom and against all kinds of dictatorship; and

Whereas our immigration laws and regulations are necessarily an integral part of the requirements of the foreign policy of the United States, these laws should be administered to provide a haven for the downtrodden victims of political, racial, and religious persecution so that our nation will stand out as a beacon light of liberty and freedom at the court of World Public Opinion, therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Congress of the United States be and it is hereby respectfully memorialized to enact such legislation as to make available to the people of such nations as are friendly to the United States, the unused wartime immigration quota of such nations; and be it further Resolved (if the Senate coneur), That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Secretary of the Senate, and the Clerk of the House of Representatives of the United States and to each member of Congress of the United States duly elected from the State of New York.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

Senate Joint Resolution No. 11 (not passed)

Joint Resolution memorializing the Congress of the United States and the Joint Congressional Committee on Immigration and Nationality Policy to rewrite the "Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952"

Whereas the Eighty-second Congress of the United States, in its second session, passed on June twenty-sixth, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, the "Immigration and Nationality Act"; and

Whereas we must guard our legitimate national interests and be faithful to our basic ideas of freedom and fairness for all; and

Whereas the said Immigration and Nationaliy Act in fact and in law discriminates against persons by reason of this national origin, race and color; and

Whereas the said law must be rewritten from beginning to end so that reasonable requirements on the character and the number of the people who come to share our land and our freedom can be humanely set forth; now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. The Congress of the United States be, and it hereby is, respectfully memorialized to rewrite the laws relating to immigration, naturalization, and nationality as set forth in the "Immigration and Nationality Act" and to enact a new law that shall not discriminate against persons by reason of their national origin, and that shall contain humane and equitable provisions concerning immigration and naturalization.

2. A copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Secretary of State to the Clerk of the House of Representatives, the Secretary of the Senate, each member on the Joint Congressional Committee on Immigration and Nationality Policy, and to each member of Congress duly elected from the State of New Jersey, and that the latter are urged to devote themselves to the task of accomplishing the purpose of this resolution.

3. This Joint Resolution shall take effect immediately.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA

House of Representatives, Resolution No. 16 (not passed)

Resolution memorializing Congress to repeal the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. In the House of Representatives, February 17, 1953

Whereas the McCarran-Walter Immigration bill as enacted by Congress over presidential veto contains many inequitable provisions which are of great concern to fair mined and thinking citizens of this nation, and

Whereas it is of utmost concern to this nation that a modern immigration system be instituted which reflects the desire of the majority of Americans that many present residents of other areas of the world be admitted to this country on a basis which gives full recognition of the desirability of admitting properly qualified persons to this country without imposition of strict quota limitations to persons from certain areas, and without limitation in regard to their racial or national background: therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States to repeal the provisions of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules, February 17.

Harassment of Naturalized Citizens Stepped Up As Cases Mount

Immediately preceding Attorney General Herbert Brownell's St. Patrick's Day threat that 10,000 naturalized citizens would have their citizenship taken away in the next few months, naturalized citizens by the hundreds received letters to appear at the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Coupled with the letters, there was a rash of denaturalization proceedings started. Constantine Radzi, Louis Weinstock, Isidore Begun, V. J. Jerome, were among those against whom proceedings were initiated. In each case, court action is pending. In the case of Salvatore Laurenti of Akron, Ohio, his case will come to trial on June 5th. As the Justice Department seeks full implementation of the Walter-McCarran Law, it has attempted, as one phase, the complete intimidation of naturalized citizens through calling them for "interviews." The American Committee pointed out in its recently issued Fact Sheet on Denaturalization Provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law: "Naturalized citizens have the right to refuse to appear in response to such a communication from the Immigration and Naturalization Service, which has no authority over American citizens."

CHARLES DOYLE AND HARRY YARIS VICTIMS OF DOUBLE PUNISHMENT

Charles Doyle and Harry Yaris, whose bail had been cancelled were suddenly removed from Ellis Island on April 7 and taken to the West Street Federal House of Detention. The transfer took place following the men's refusal to eat meals in an unclean and airless warehouse. The food incident was the culmination of a series of indignities accorded political detainees on Ellis Island. When Doyle and Yaris were removed to West Street, eight remaining political detainees on the Island refused to eat in the warehouse for two days as a protest against the treatment accorded to Doyle and Yaris. A delegation headed by Professor Ephraim Cross, Professor Emeritus of the College of New York, and Ewart Guinier, Chairman of the Greater New York Negro Labor Council, visited Edward J. Shaughnessy, District Director of Immigration and Naturalization, to protest the treatment accorded political detainees. A writ of habeas corpus was argued in the Federal District Court demanding that, if the two are to be continued to be held without bail, they be accorded the same treatment as other detainees. On April 29 Judge Edward Dimock dismissed the writ because the treatment accorded Doyle and Yaris was "not sufficiently inhuman" to warrant judicial action. In the meantime, Yaris suffering from an acute gall bladder condition, was removed to the Prison Ward at Bellevue Hospital in New York, while Doyle continues to be held in the West Street Federal House of Detention.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT SEEKS TO EXTEND DENIAL OF BAIL

The Justice Department is consciously trying to create the basis for denying bail to all persons arrested in deportation proceedings because of alleged nig ball to all persons arrested in deportation proceedings because of alleged political beliefs. To date the following are held without bail: Katherine Hyndman, County Jail, Crown, Point, Ind.; Harry Yaris, Charles A. Doyle, Federal Detention Center, New York City; Giacomo Quattrone, Immigration Detention Center, East Boston, Mass.; Herman Nixon, Goldie Dayidoff, Israel Blankenstein, Gilberto Ruiz, Ellis Island, New York. In the Carlson case, decided by the Supreme Court, March 10, 1952, that body ruled that active Communists could be held without bail pending determination of deportability. However, in the Nixon and Davidoff cases, Nixon is charged with PAST membership in the Communist Party and Davidoff with AFFILIATION with the Communist Party. These cases become extremely important for here the Justice Department's attempt at extension of the Carlson decision is most obvious. Coupled with this extension, the Justice Department tries to speed through hearings and appeals before the Board of Immigration Appeals, to create a situation whereby the time a Judge has ruled on the issue of denying bail, a final order of deportation will have been handed down mooting the question. For, after a final order has been handed down, the Justice Department can try to hold the non-citizen for six months thereafter. Such is the calculated intent of the Justice Department to lay the basis for complete denial of bail throughout denortation proceedings.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT THREATENS WIFE OF LOS ANGELES DEPORTEE

On March 31, Mrs. Consuelo Espinoza was ordered to appear before the Immigration Service concerning her status. Mrs. Espinoza, a non-citizen, is the mother of eight American-born children and has been active in defense of her husband, Elias, U. S. resident for 48 years and World War I veteran, who faces deportation to Mexico on political grounds.

GOVERNMENT WITNESSES HELD TO HAVE LIED

On April 20, the Board of Immigration Appeals terminated deportation proceedings in the case of Frederico Domingo, Filipino-American of Portland, Oregon, on the ground that the witnesses appearing against him could not be believed. However, the same government witnesses were believed in the case of six other Filipino-Americans last year when the Board of Immigration Appeals sustained their deportation.

CONGRESSIONAL CONSPIRACY AGAINST AMERICAN PEOPLE

On August 3, thirty-two members of the U. S. Congress sponsored the Lehman-Celler Bill providing for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law and proposing a new immigration and naturalization law for the country. It was expected that the House and Senate Judiciary Committees would hold public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill when Congress reconvenes in January 1954. However, on September 24, "The New York Times" reported an agreement existed between Senator McCarran and Republican leaders that Congress would not consider any amendments to the Walter-McCarran Law in 1954. This Congressional conspiracy aims to table the Lehman-Celler Bill in committee without any public hearings or any consideration of publicly-demanded changes in the Walter-McCarran Law. This conspiracy, directed against the best interests of the American people, must be defeated as a first step toward repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

Disclosure of the Congressional conspiracy brought immediate nationwide protests as well as intensification of repeal efforts in all parts of the country.

In New York City, on November 11, Senator Herbert H. Lehman announced the formation of the National Committee for the Revision of the Immigration and Citizenship Laws. Senator Lehman is serving as unofficial coordinator of the Committee until it is set up on a permanent basis.

In Los Angeles, on November 1, a Conference on Immigration and Naturalization voted to form a permanent citizens committee to amend the Walter-McCarran Law, Participants included AFL, CIO, Council of Catholic Women, Episcopal Diocese, Jewish War Veterans, American Association of University Women, Eutheran Welfare Service, American-Italian Democratic Council, YWCA, Mexican Chamber of Commerce.

In Pittsburgh, on October 21, twenty-five Alleghany County organizations established the Immigration and Naturalization Study Committee to bring to public attention the injustices in the Walter-McCarran Law.

On November 2, the National Committee to Repeal the McCarran Acts made public an Open Letter to President Eisenhower urging him to support the Lehman-Celler Bill. Signers of the Open Letter included Emily Green Balch, Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, Prof. Arthur L. Swift, Jr., Prof. James Luther Adams, Prof. Kirtley F. Mather, Bishop Edward L. Parsons.

On October 8, the San Francisco membership of the Marine Cooks and Stewards Union went on record urging that public hearings be held by Congressional committees on the Lehman-Celler Bill.

In New York City, on October 15, the West Side Committee for Revision of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act held a Public Rally, Participants included Congressmen Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., and Adam Clayton Powell, Jr., Canon Darby Wood Betts, Rabbi Ira Eisenstein, and State Senator Julius A. Archibald.

In New York City, on November 11, Rabbi Louis S. Gross, editor of "The Jewish Examiner," made public a petition for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law signed by 20,000

UE Issues Pamphlet On Otto Miller Case

An excellent pamphlet, "Democracy in Danger — the Story of the Deportation Case Against Otto Miller," has been issued by UE District 8, 2700 Third Avenue, Rock Island, Illinois. Miller, 50, resident of St. Louis, face deportation to Germany on political grounds.

persons. Signers of the petition included Monsignor John O'Gardy, of the National Catholic Charities; Clerence Picket, of the American Friends Service Committee; Walter Van Kirk, of the National Council of Churches of Christ in America; Irving Engel, of the American Jewish Committee.

On November 18, the 15th National Convention of the Congress of Industrial Organizations urged that the Walter-McCarran Law be repealed. The CIO called for a 'new policy on immigration and naturalization' and for 'equal justice for alleins and citizens alike."

ACPFB Campaign

A nationwide campaign to support the demand for public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill was launched by the ACPFB:

A printed post-card addressed to the Senate and House Judiciary Committees to be sent by individuals urges public hearings.

A Petition to the Congress of the U. S. calls on Congress to hold public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill when it reconvenes in January.

A special folder on the Walter-McCarran Law discusses the importance of the Lehman-Celler Bill and the conspiracy against public hearings.

A round-robin Open Letter to Congress, now being signed by prominent Americans, calls for public hearings for the Lehman-Celler Bill. Next steps in the ACPFB campaign will be Next steps in the ACPPB campaign will be developed by the National Conference for Repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law and Defense of Its Victims, which is to meet in Chicago, Illinois, on December 12 and 13.

Good Enough To Die for This Country But Not Good Enough to Live in U.S.

Two Japanese-Americans, both with wartime service in the Office of Strategic Services, both of them serving for the U. S. during the war in Japan with the U. S. Strategic Bombing Survey, were arrested during the past month for deportation and exile from the U. S. under the Walter-McCarran Law. In Chicago, George Hiroshi Nishi, 49, husband of an American citizen, and former official of the Japanese Gardners Association of Southern California.
In Los Angeles, Paul Shinsei Kochi, 61, resident of U. S. for 35 years, member of the AFL Building Service Employees Union and the Okinawa Relief Committee.

Mother of 8 Arrested for Deportation For Second Time in Eighteen Years

On October 28, 1935, Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, cancelled deportation proceedings against Mrs. Stella Petrosky, a young 34-year-old mother of 8 children. The charges alleged she was a member of an organization advocating the forceful overthrow of the U. S. Government. On August 12, 1953, Mrs. Petrosky, now 52, mother of 8 children and 16 grandchildren, was arrested once again in deportation proceedings. This time Walter-McCartra Law charges allege she held past membership in the Communist Party and Young Communist League. Re-arrest of Mrs. Petrosky shows the vicious retroactive use to which the Justice Department is putting the Walter-McCartran Law Despite the fact the Secretary of Labor cancelled deportation proceedings against Mrs. Petrosky, the Walter-McCartran Law permits rearrest today.

Comment

We wonder whether historians will record the fact that Attorney General Brownell probably sprained his wrist on July 21 patting himself on the back for his "outstanding achievement" that day in saving the United States government from "imminent destruction" at the hands of an "alien" force. For, on that day, two burly Justice Department agents swooped down on Mary Baumert ather home in Elsinore, Califofnia, and arrested her in deportation proceedings. The record, however, relates that Mrs. Baumert, once active in Jewish women's organizations, is 73 years old and has lived in the U. S. for 52 years. Mrs. Baumert never threatened the United States government, even when much younger and more vigorous. But, on July 21, the Walter-McCarran Law rode again with the Attorney General astrick, supported by two burly Justice Department agents.

100 Prominent Americans Sponsor National Conference

One hundred prominent Americans have joined in serving as Sponsors of the National Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans, which is scheduled to be held at Yugoslav-American Hall, 405 West 41st Street, New York City, on Saturday and Sunday, December 11 and 12, 1954. The National Conference, initiated by the ACPFB, will consider plans to promote speedy repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law in 1955 and to guarantee adequate defense of the 400 deportation and denaturalization cases now pending under this law. Conference Calls, and other material, are now available and can be obtained by writing to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, 23 West 26th Street, New York 10, N. Y.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT REVERSES ITSELF AFTER DEFEAT IN THE FEDERAL COURTS

Until recently, the Justice Department took the position that it could legally hold bail posted in deportation cases indefinitely. The ACPFB opposed this position, maintained that the law did not authorize the Justice Department to hold bail indefinitely but that bail had to be returned if a noncitizen could not be deported and was placed on Supervisory Parole. Court action was initiated last year challenging the Justice Department's position in the case of Charles Rowoldt, of Minneapolis. The U. S. District Court ordered the bail returned in the Rowoldt case. The Justice Department appealed and the U. S. Court of Appeals in St. Louis sustained the District Court decision. No appeal was taken by the Justice Department from the Court of Appeals decision and Rowoldt's bond was returned. In districts outside of Minneapolis, the Justice Department refused to return bond when applications were made earlier this year and steps were taken to initiate additional court actions. Last month, however, the Justice Department reversed itself and started return of bond in deportation cases in Cleveland, San Francisco, Milwaukee, and New York.

Scheme to Speed Up Denaturalizations Suffers Defeat in U. S. District Court

On September 23, Federal District Court Judge John C. Knox, in New York, denied the Justice Department's motion to consolidate ten denaturalization cases on the issue of the character of the Communist Party. This move by the Justice Department, if successful, would have meant speedy denaturalization and would have facilitated the drive to revoke the naturalization of 10,000 naturalized American citizens. Judge Knox, in his opinion, stated that such consolidation would "be most prejudicial to each defendant" and that "The dates on which the (10) defendants are charged with having become members of the Communist Party * * * range from 1919 to 1937 * * * cannot be said with any degree of certainty that the aims and objectives of the Communist Party over a period of years were identical." The 10 cases are: Isidore Begun, Daniel Boano, Louis Braverman, V. J. Jerome, James Lustig, Paul Novick, Saul Almazov Pearl, Constantine Radzie, Isaac Ronch and Louis Weinstock.

METHODIST FEDERATION COMMENDS WORK OF ACPEB

The Methodist Federation for Social Action in its 1954 Program adopted at its Annual Membership Meeting in Chicago on August 14th, states that, "We heartily commend the work of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born in their defense of the victims of the Walter-McCarran Act." In addition, the 1954 Program urged "local chapters to aid in the defense of Walter-McCarran Act defendants in their respective conferences and communities."

ORGANIZATION ESTABLISHED ON JOINT IMMIGRATION POLICY

On October 2, announcement was made of the organization of the American Immigration Conference, to effect cooperation among organizations interested in an humanitarian and non-discriminatory immigration policy. Former Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization Earl G. Harrison, of Philadelphia, was named president. Vice-presidents include Edward Corsi, Mrs. Mildred McAfee Horton, Dr. George N. Shuster, Walter Bieringer, and Dr. Walter W. Van Kirk.

COMMITTEE PUBLISHES PAMPHLET ON DEPORTATIONS TO MEXICO

"The Shame of a Nation," 56-page pamphlet on the Justice Department's treatment of Mexicans in the United States, was released last month in Los Angeles. A copy of the pamphlet can be obtained by sending 25¢, in stamps or coin, to the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, 326 West 3rd Street, Los Angeles 13, California.

EDITORIAL REPRINT

"David Hyun, a successful and respected Korean architect who has lived in the United States since he was 7, is under order of deportation. It is strongly evident that such deportation would mean physical persecution and perhaps execution for David Hyun * * Under such circumstances, deportation would appear unthinkable and illegal."—San Francisco Chronicle, September 7, 1954.

Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law

(An editorial)

With the battle for presidential nominations being waged within both the Republican and Democratic Parties, it would appear that, as in 1952, the matter of Walter-McCarran Law revision or repeal is being saved as an election year issue. Prior to his saying yes, I will be a candidate, President Eisenhower sent to Congress a special message purporting to ease provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. The Presidential message contained a host of recommendations for possible revision of certain of the Law's provisions affecting prospective immigrants; unused quotas to be used the following year; quotas based on 1950 census; lifting of fingerprinting when reciprocated, etc. However, the President's message ignored completely the plight of the more than 14 million foreign-born Americans residing within our borders.

Deportation, denaturalization, supervisory parole, harassment by Justice Department agents of both native born and foreign born Americans were issues not even mentioned by the President.

The President did see fit to include a recommendation which, if enacted, would have serious implications. For he urged that there be a limit to the judicial review afforded those who fall victim to the Walter-McCarran Law. In what may be deemed an effort to make acceptable his proposal to limit the judicial review of Walter-McCarran Law victims, the President declared: "some of these persons have been found to be criminals of the lowest character, trafficking in murder, narcotics, and subversion."

The ACPFB holds no brief for criminals of any ilk. It does, however, hold that there are enough laws on the statute books to deal with criminal offenses, and neither denaturalization nor deportation should be the punishment.

President Eisenhower's proposal would, in effect, limit the time-honored right of any person to avail himself fully of legal recourse. If such a proposal were ever enacted into law it could easily be extended from its original pretext to a limiting of judicial review for any individual, be he native born or foreign born.

There can be no doubt that it was the pressures exerted by individuals and organizations which led the President to make his February 8th address. It would also appear that the message was carefully designed to make it appear that the question of immigration was the only issue in which the wide repeal movement is interested.

One must understand that in the event every proposal of the President were enacted there would not only remain the inherent racism and discrimination of the Walter-McCarran Law but an additional abrogation of the rights of the foreign born

It is alarming that the highest governmental official proposes to further curb the rights of the foreign born at a time when those rights need careful preservation and extension.

The Walter-McCarran Law need not become the 1956 political football it was in 1952. Almost four years of its existence has shown it for what it is: unworkable, undemocratic, dictatorial, and, in general, against the best interest of the American people. Its drastic revision or repeal is long overdue. Protests against it mount daily, and such protests are sound in that the Justice Department has sought to wield the Law as a club over the heads of foreign-born Americans across the width and breadth of the land.

The ACPFB urges that all individuals and organizations use the remaining months of Congress in a concerted effort to seek revision of the Law in this session of Congress. A vehicle for such revision does exist in the fact that Congressman Victor Anfuso (D., N. V.) is circulating a Discharge Petition to bring his Bill, H. R. 501, from the House Judiciary Committee to the Floor for vote. Congressmen must be urged to sign the Discharge Petition as the first step toward winning a revision of the Law.

ROBITSCHER CASE

The American Jewish Congress has filed a suit in the Washington, D. C., Federal District Court to challenge use of confidential information in deportation proceedings. The AJC took the action on behalf of Thomas Otto Robitscher, a Czechoslovak, who came to the United States on a student visa to study medicine. Upon completion of his studies, he overstayed his visa and the Justice Department initiated deportation proceedings against him. Unable to practice medicine in New York unless naturalized, he had asked for preexamination that would permit him to go to Canada and then return under the Czechoslovak quota. Preexamination was denied on the basis of information not disclosed to Mr. Robitscher. The current suit is undertaken to force the Justice Department to produce the "evidence" on which deportation proceedings are based.

WHOSE LIFE?

On Wednesday, March 28th, viewers of the program "This Is Your Life." witnessed an effort to glorify the life of one Marion Miller. Marion Miller, Los Angeles housewife and FBI-inspired informer, became a "volunteer" worker in the office of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. She was brought to Washington as a Justice Department witness against the ACPFB during the recently concluded hearings before the SACB. She testified that upon receipt of a Los Angeles Committee Conference invitation, her husband sent the invitation to the FBI. The FBI prevailed upon her to attend the Conference, became involved in the L. A. Committee's work and report periodically to the FBI. Upon election as LACPFB recording secretary, Mrs. Miller stole material, records, and correspondence from the files and turned it over to the FBI. the community learned of her role as informer she was shunned and bypassed and the March 28th program sought to portray her activities as patriotic. The LACPFB has asked equal TV time to answer charges made on the program.

SENATOR EASTLAND

Special to the New York Post

WASHINGTON, March 30-Senator Eastland (D. Miss.), bitter foe of more liberal immigration laws, today was reported to be the only member of Congress directly benefiting by the Refugee Relief Act.

Administrators of the refugee program reported that he had brought two families-Hungarian and Russian-born-to this country for work as share-croppers on his Mississippi plantation.

Eastland consistently has fought attempts to modify the controversial Mc-Carran-Walter immigration law on grounds the U.S. would be flooded with "criminals and Communists."

In a Post interview only 2 months ago, he said:

"Figures of European governments show that there is a great need for more than 600,000 workers in Europe. Why is it that they cannot stay there and work and rebuild the devastated cities of that continent?"

Walter-McCarran Law an Election Issue

By Abner Green (Executive Secretary, American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born)

With the 83rd Congress drawing to a close and due to adjourn next month, it becomes clear that the McCarthyite conspiracy to prevent consideration by Congress of any changes in the Walter-McCarran Law this year is succeeding.

The Republican leadership in Congress, and the Administration, bear major responsibility for this consuracy. The Democratic Party leadership, however. bears some responsibility for its failure to fight strenuously for repeal or revision of the Law, hoping apparently to be able to use this issue to embarrass their Republican opponents in the 1954 elections. But this demonstrates a callous disregard for the welfare of those suffering as a result of this Law. It would weaken the fight for repeal of the Law by making it a political football or partisan issue.

The Lehman-Celler Bill, introduced in August 1953, remains the most comprehensive revision of the Law. The fight for public hearings for the Lehman-Celler Bill reflects a continuing and growing public opposition to the provisions of the Law. As a result of the growth of this opposition, nine Republic members of Congress, on April 12th, introduced legislation proposing some revisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. This Ives-Javits Bill, however, is extremely limited in its provisions and its introduction appears to be motivated by purely political considerations.

The Republican Party wants to have available a bill to which it can point during the 1954 election campaign as indicative of its "opposition" to the Walter-McCarran Law, in order to win votes. If the nine Republicans who sponsored the Ives-Javits Bill wanted to do something about the Walter-McCarran Law, they could better have demanded public hearings for the Lehman-Celler Bill or have joined even in sponsoring the Bill rather than introduce a comparatively meaningless bill that may serve to detract from the general pressures for Congressional consideration of the Lehman-Celler Bill.

When Congress adjourns next month, the Lehman-Celler bill dies automatically. A major objective of democratic forces will be to maintain the fight during the election campaign and to guarantee introduction of repeal legislation in the 84th Congress, when it convenes in January 1955. It is therefore essential to maintain continued and increased demands for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

A special area of activity can be utilized effectively during this coming period by all organizations and individuals that want to participate in the fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. All House of Representatives seats are to be filled in the November 1954 elections.

All candidates for Congress should be visited in person by delegations from their own District for the purpose of getting a commitment, if possible, that, if elected, he will sponsor the Lehman-Celler Bill or appropriate legislation to repeal or revise basically the Walter-McCarran Law.

Once the 83rd Congress adjourns, all efforts in the fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law must be shifted to fully utilize the 1954 elections. The main objective must be to guarantee introduction of repeal legislation of 1955 and to register with candidates for Congress the popular demand for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

The Deportation Drive

During the past month, deportation hearings were held in 16 cases in Los Angeles, New York City, Seattle, Cleveland, and Detroit. The Commissioner ordered two non-citizens deported. The Board of Immigration Appeals heard argument in the Callow case. But completely new hearings will have to be held in all these cases, as a result of the February 20th Supreme Court decision, in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act. Continued arrests of non-citizens brought the total of deportees to more than 140 in 20 states.

ARRESTS

Detroit: On January 18, two non-citizens were arrested. Mrs. Blaga Poprovska, 46, native of Yugoslavia, entered the U.S. in 1923. Mrs. Popravska is the wife of an American citizen and mother of four American-born children, one of whom served overseas in the U.S. Army and one of whom has served in the U.S. Marines for the past 7 years. Antonio Papadimitrou, 60, is a native of Greece, entered the U.S. in 1911 and is married to an American-born citizen.

Boston: On January 9, Giacomo Quattrone, 61, native of Italy, resident of U. S. for 44 years, and father of 8 American-born children.

Dallas: On January 30, Jose Estrada, 55, native of Mexico, and resident of U. S. for 45 years. He is married to a native-born citizen and the father of ten American-born children, three of whom served in armed forces of the U. S. during the second World War.

CROCKETT JOINS LEGAL DEFENSE IN THE CASE OF CLAUDIA JONES

George W. Crockett, Jr., noted Negro attorney of Detroit, has joined Carol King, general counsel of the ACPFB, in serving as co-counsel in the case of Claudia Jones. Crockett, one of the defense attorneys in the trial of the 11 leaders of the Communist Party, is a graduate of the University of Michigan. In 1939, he served in Washington with the Department of Labor and later with the President's Committee on Fair Employment Practices. In 1944 he founded the CIO Auto Workers Fair Employment Practices Committee and served as its executive director for two years. Since 1948, he has served as local counsel for the ACPFB in Detroit. Claudia Jones, 35, a native of the British West Indies, is secretary of the Women's Committee of the Communist Party.

THE FIGHT AGAINST POLICE-STATE PROCEDURES

The Justice Department is continuing in its efforts to force non-citizens to "voluntarily" agree to report in person regularly, despite clear decisions by Federal judges in many sections of the country to the effect that any such procedure violates the law.

ANNA GANLEY

On January 23, the Justice Department released Anna Ganley, of Detroit, from her agreement to report once a week in person. This action was taken by the Justice Department after court action was initiated and it became clear that the Judge was going to rule against the Justice Department. Meanwhile, more than 20 other non-citizens in Detroit are forced to continue to report weekly. An appeal to Washington in many of these cases is pending.

LOS ANGELES

In January, Mrs. Esther Sazer and Victor Armando Davila, of Los Angeles, sent the Justice Department a letter to the effect that they would refuse in the future to report twice at month as they have been doing in the past. * * *

ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN FIGHT AGAINST DEPORTATION

A national conference of representatives of deportee defense committees will be held at the Hamilton Hotel, in Chicago, on Saturday afternoon, March 18. The conference will consider present problems in the fight against deportation and develop organizational campaigns for the coming period.

The Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born is sponsoring a Midwest Conference, which will be held at the Hamilton Hotel, Chicago, on Sunday morning and afternoon, March 19. The Midwest Committee is also holding on April 8 a Testimonial Banquet for Pearl M. Hart, Chicago attorney and noted fighter for civil rights, on her 60th birthday.

A Michigan Committee For the Protection of Foreign Born has been established with offices at Room 424, 140 Cadillac Square, Detroit, Michigan. Saul Grossman is serving as secretary. The committee has scheduled a Michigan State Action Conference, which is to be held at the Park Avenue Hotel, in Detroit, on April 2nd.

City-wide councils for protection of foreign born have been established in New York, Cleveland, and Philadelphia. The councils meet monthly to discuss local and national issues and plan local activity for the defense of the rights of foreign-born Americans.

The Freedom of the Press Committee Against Deportation has issued a special folder, "An Attack On Freedom of the Press," which discusses the deportation cases of five non-citizens associated with foreign-language newspapers.

The Finnish American Freedom Committee held a Testimonial Banquet on January 6 in honor of Knut Heikkinen, who faces deportation because of his political opinions, on his 60th birthday. The Committee has also issued a folder and petition on Finnish-American deportation cases and held a mass meeting in New York City on February 19.

The Andrulis Defense Committee has held two mass meetings in Chicago and one in Detroit during the past month. The Committee has issued a special folder on the case of Vincent Andrulis and has scheduled a conference of Lithuanian-American organizations in Chicago on March 12.

The Podolski Defense Committee, of Detroit, has issued a special folder on the case of Henry Podolski, Polish-American leader who faces deportation because of his political opinions.

A New York chapter of the American Yugoslav Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was established last month. William Milson was elected Chairman. Other officers are: Joseph Brayuha and Agnes Vukcevich, vice chairmen: Victor Kobilca, Treasurer; George Wuchinich, Secretary; Harry Justiz, counsel.

Two special defense committees have been established in Minneapolis on local cases. The committee for Otto Skog has held several meetings and the committee for Charles Rowoldt has organized special protest action during the past month.

Two conferences of local organizations will be held in New York City—in the Bronx on March 15 by the Neighbors Committee for Benjamin Saltzman, and in Brooklyn on March 23 by the Neighbors Committee for Defense of Peter Harisiades and Anna Taffler.

[The Lamp, No. 94, July-August 1956]

Democrats and Republicans Include Immigration Plank in Platforms

Both major parties meeting in convention to nominate top standard bearers in the 1956 Presidential election included in their Platforms a plank on immigration. The Democratic Party Platform, adopted in Chicago on August 16, contains a special section "Progressive Immigration Policies." The Platform states, "We favor elimination of unnecessary distinction between native-born and naturalized citizens. There should be no 'second-class' citizenship in the United States." The Platform calls also for revision of the immigration procedures and the immigration quota system, and charged mismanagement of the Refugee Relief Act of 1953.

The Republican Platform, adopted in San Francisco on August 22, called for an immigration policy "which is based on equality of treatment, freedom from implications of discriminations between racial, nationality, and religious groups and flexible enough to conform to changing needs and conditions." It supported "the President's program submitted to the 84th Congress to carry out needed modifications in existing law and to take such further steps as may be necessary to carry out our traditional policy." The Platform then praised the Refugee Relief Act and pledged support to its extension.

While the Democrats at least were specific on matters of citizenship and quota revision, neither Party's plank was extensive enough to encompass the mountain of Walter-McCarran Law revision sought by hundreds of organizations and individuals. In the event that both planks were amalgamated and passed in the first days of the 85th Congress, many of the harshest features of the Walter-McCarran Law would yet exist including: yearly registration of noncitizens, deportation for "crimes" which were not crimes when committed, Supervisory Parole.

TESTIMONIAL BANQUET TO BE HELD FOR ATTORNEYS DEFENDING CHARLES ROWOLDT

A Testimonial Banquet honoring Attorneys Joseph Forer and David Rein, of Washington, D. C., will be held on October 11 in New York City's Hotel Belmont Plaza. Occasion for the Testimonial is their appearance before the United States Supreme Court, tentatively scheduled for the following week, to argue the case of Charles Rowoldt. On March 26, the high court agreed to take a new look at political deportations by granting certiorari to Mr. Rowoldt. Originally briefs were to be submitted to the Court on August 20th, but an extension of time has been granted, until September 7. The Executive Board of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union has gone on record to file an amicus curiae brief as has the National Lawyers' Guild. Mr. Rowoldt, 72, a resident of Minneopolis, Minn., was arrested in deportation proceedings on the Walter-McCarran Law charge that at one time, after entry to the United States from his native Germany, he had been a member of the Communist Party. Mr. Rowoldt has lived in the United States for more than 42 years. An appendix to the main brief to the Court will seek to show that persons, like Mr. Rowoldt, who have lived their mature years in this country should not be considered "aliens" and should likewise not face deportation for any reason.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Agents of the Justice Department are continuing their campaign of harassment of foreign-born Americans. Noncitizens and naturalized citizens in large numbers are being visited, stopped on the streets, or sent letters urging them to come to offices of the I&NS on an "official" matter.

It is to be recalled that a recent United States Supreme Court ruling (Minker-Falcone) forbids such questioning where naturalized citizens are concerned. The ACPFB recommends that any person having problems arising out of foreign birth should contact a capable immigration or civil rights attorney, the ACPFB, or any of the offices listed below:

Pittsburgh: 806 Renshaw Building Detroit: 920 Charlevoix Bldg.

Chicago: 431 S. Dearborn—Room 325 Minneapolis: 302 Lumber Exchange Bldg. Seattle: 538 Second and Cherry Bldg. San Francisco: 948 Market St.—Room 418 Los Angeles: 326 West 3rd St.—Room 318

Peggy Wellman

The Metropolitan Detroit Branch of the American Civil Liberties Union has appealed to Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., to "suspend or cancel" the deportation order against Mrs. Peggy Wellman of Detroit. The request was in the form of a letter signed by Ernest Mazey, Executive Board member, on behalf of the local group. The letter stated in part: "Mrs. Wellman, a life-long resident of this country and mother of two school-age children, has been convicted of no crime. The breakup of her family appears to be cruel and inhuman punishment for the accident of her birth in Canada and her entry into our country while she was still an infant."

CITIZENSHIP RESTORATION

The Justice Department has taken its first step to restore the citizenship of native-born Japanese who renounced their United States citizenship when interned in "relocation centers" during World War II. The action came as the Justice Department withdrew its opposition to a suit filed by 157 persons to regain citizenship. It is expected that more than 1,000 will benefit from the move.

IMMIGRATION INCREASES

It has been reported that more immigrants were admitted to the United States during the first six months of 1956 than in any comparable period since 1929. An average of 26,500 persons a month were admitted for permanent residence according to figures released by the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization

This is the spearhead of a drive against the rights of West Indians, Negroes, women, minorities, labor and all Americans. ## An Attack on Freedom of the Press

Ever since John Peter Zenger was imprisoned in 1734 because he insisted on his right to print the truth as he saw it in his newspaper, the American people have fought to maintain the principle of freedom of the press.

One of the basic principles of a free press is the right of newspaper editors to speak their mind and to report the news without interference.

A free press is extremely important to foreign-born Americans since a large number of them depend upon the foreign-language press exclusively for information and news.

Today the freedom of the foreign-language press is under constant attack as the result of widespread hysteria and discrimination. Certain members of Congress are seeking legislation that would make it necessary for foreign-language newspapers to print exact English-language translations in their columns—a requirement that would make it financially impossible to publish any foreign-language newspaper.

Another basis for attempting to silence a foreign-language newspaper is the threat by the Justice Department to deport its editor or one of its editorial workers. Five non-citizens associated with foreign-language newspapers have been arrested and today face deportation from the United States because of their political opinions.

These deportations are an attempt to intimidate and silence newspaper workers. These deportations menace the freedom of the foreign-language press in the United States.

We call on the American people to condemn these deportations as an attack on the freedom of the press as well as a threat to the liberties of all Americans, native as well as foreign born, citizens as well as non-citizens.

THEY FACE DEPORTATION

Vincent Andrulis, of Chicago, editor of Vilnis, Lithuanian-American daily newspaper. Mr. Andrulis, 60 years old, has lived in the United States for 39 years. He is married to an American citizen and is the father of two American-born daughters.

Peter Harisiades, of New York, formerly on the editorial staff of the Greek-American Tribune, a weekly newspaper. Mr. Harisiades, 48 years old, came here at the age of 13. He is married to an American citizen and the father of two American-born children.

Knut Einar Heikkinen, of New York, is the editor of Eteenpain, Finnish-American daily newspaper. Mr. Heikkinen, 60 years old, has lived in this country for 34 years and is the father of three daughters.

Michael Salerno, of New York, is the editor of L'Unita Del Popolo, Italian-American weekly newspaper. Mr. Salerno, 47 years old, has lived here for 25 years. He is married to an American citizen and is the father of a 10-year-old American-born son.

Alexander Bittelman, of New York, is executive secretary of the Morning Freiheit Association, which publishes the Morning Freiheit, Yiddish daily newspaper. Mr. Bittelman, 60 years old, is a native of Russia and has lived in the United States since 1912.

THE DEPORTATION HYSTERIA

These five newspaper workers are among the 140 noncitizens in 19 states who have been arrested and held for deportation because of their political opinions.

These noncitizens have lived in this country most of their lives. They have raised families here and have contributed—each in their own way—to the welfare of the American people. They have tried to become American citizens but have been prevented from getting their papers because of their progressive or labor activities.

Today these noncitizens face exile from the United States—enforced separation from their families and friends. Many of them face deportation to strange countries whose language and customs they do not know. Some face death if deported to the countries of their birth because of their opposition to the present regimes there.

These deportations threaten to destroy the constitutional rights of 3,000,000 noncitizens in the United States, and the democratic rights of all Americans, citizens as well as noncitizens. These deportations menace the very existence of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution since they would destroy the right to freedom of speech and freedom of belief.

The 140 noncitizens facing deportation are being defended by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, an organization which has carried on the fight for the rights of foreign-born Americans for the past 18 years. The Freedom of the Press Committee Against Deportations is cooperating with the American Committee in its fight to preserve the democratic traditions of the American people and to defeat the attempt by the Department of Justice to undermine and destroy the rights and the liberties of the people of this country.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS COMMITTEE AGAINST DEPORTATIONS

The Freedom of the Press Committee Against Deportations was organized in January 1950 by a group of editors of foreign language newspapers.

The Committee was organized because of the seriousness of the Justice Department's attack on the rights of foreign-born Americans and also because of the arrest in deportation proceedings of five non-citizens who are associated with foreign-language newspapers.

We feel that this attempt to deport our colleagues is unwarranted. We know that these five men have always fought to improve the living and working conditions of the American people.

During the 1930's, they were in the lead in the fight for unemployment insurance and for social security.

They were instrumental in bringing the message of trade union organization to foreign-born workers in all sections of the country.

In their editorial work, they have always fought to defend the rights of the Negro people; they have exposed anti-Semitism; they have always fought antilabor and anti-democratic elements in American life.

Just as they were in the forefront in the fight against fascism, today their newspapers are in the forefront of the fight for peace and for the civil liberties of the American people.

The Freedom of the Press Committee Against Deportations was organized to bring the facts in these cases to the attention of the American people. The five newspaper workers discussed in this folder are being defended by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, which is responsible for the legal defense of these and many deportation cases.

We urge your cooperation for our effort to acquaint the American people with the facts in these cases—to the end that these deportations will be defeated and these non-citizens may become American citizens, and remain in this country, where they belong, with their families and friends.

The Deportation Hysteria

No decision has been made as yet by Federal District Judge Vincent Leibell in the case of Peter Harisiades. All briefs in the Harisiades case were filed with Judge Liebell at the end of August. Meanwhile, continued arrests of noncitizens brought the total arrested to more than 140 in 19 states.

DEPARTURE

Permission was won finally last month for Per Eriksson to leave the U. S. voluntarily and return to his home in Sweden. Eriksson, secretary of the Swedish Seamen's Union, was stranded here during the war, participated actively in our war effort, and for the past two years has been trying to return home. He was prevented from leaving, however, when the Justice Department initiated deportation proceedings against him because of his former membership in the Communist Party of Sweden. Eriksson is scheduled to leave the U.S. in February.

COURTS

On December 9, the Federal District Court in New York heard argument on an order to show cause seeking to secure a review of the deportation order entered in the case of Dora Lipshitz. Decision in the case was reserved. Miss Lipshitz, 56. spent the first 14 years of her life in Russia, where she was born, then spent two days in Germany in order to get a boat for this country, and has lived the last 42 years in the U. S. Now the Justice Department has ordered her deported to Germany, where she spent two days of her 56 years.

BOARD OF IMMIGRATION APPEALS

The Board of Immigration Appeals sustained orders of deportation in three cases: on November 18, in the case of Dora Lipshitz; on December 6, in the case of George Pirinsky, executive secretary of the American Slav Congress, ordered deported to Bulgaria; on December 8, in the case of Morris Taft, of New York, 70-year-old father of four American-born daughters, ordered deported to Antwerp. where he spent three days of his life in order to embark for the U.S. in 1907, or to Lithuania, where he was born.

RECOMMENDATIONS BY PRESIDING INSPECTORS

The Presiding Inspectors in two cases recommended deportation. On November 11, in the case of Frank Carlson, of Los Angeles, husband of an American citizen and father of two American-born children, the Presiding Inspector recommended deportation to Poland on the ground of membership in the Communist Party. On December 16, in the case of Dora Coleman, of Philadelphia, wife of an American citizen and mother of three children, the Presiding Inspector recommended deportation to the Soviet Union on the ground that Mrs. Coleman had been a member of the Communist Party in 1938.

ORGANIZATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS IN THE FIGHT ON DEPORTATION

A Freedom of the Press Committee Against Deportation has been organized in New York by the editors of nine foreign-language newspapers. The Committee will devote itself to interesting editors and journalists in the fight against the deportation hysteria.

A Finnish-American Freedom Committee was organized in November. The Committee will campaign among Finnish-Americans nationally and seek to secure support for the defense of Carl Paivio, Knut Heikkinen, and William Heikkila. The Committee's first public action was the issuing of a special petition and a post card to the Attorney General. Matti Mattson is secretary of the Committee.

A Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was established on November 29th at a citywide conference of organizations. More than 20 noncitizens, residents of Los Angeles, face deportation. The Committee's first task centers around the fight to prevent arbitrary increases in bail.

On December 15, an American-Yugoslav Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was organized in Pittsburgh, where Committee offices have been established. The Committee is composed of 15 well-known Yugoslav-Americans. Officers are Matthew Cvetic, President; Michael Rokich, Vice President; Mane Susnjar, Treasurer; Mary Borich, Secretary. The Committee is preparing special literature and is planning a nationwide tour of Yugoslav-American communities.

tee held its first public protest meeting in Chicago on December 16.

Lenus Westman, Committee secretary who attended the National Conference, reported to the meeting.

The Committee for Defense of Four of Oregon's Foreign Born has issued an attractive folder on the Portland deportation cases. A copy of the folder can be obtained by writing to the Committee secretary, Lawrence Sefton, 4616 S. W.

Corbett, Portland, Oreg.

The Detroit Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, organized in November, held a very successful picket line before the Immigration and Naturalization Service during the Anna Ganley deportation hearings. The Committee is preparing several local campaigns on the 21 deportation cases pending in Detroit.

The Deportation Drive

During the past month, two Federal courts ordered the Justice Department to give noncitizens new deportation hearings. In both cases, the Justice Department had taken the position that the proceedings were initiated before the enactment of the Administrative Procedure Act and that new hearings in these cases therefore need not be held in accordance with the law. On April 24, the Federal Court of Appeals in San Francisco, in the case of Nat Yanish, reversed the Federal District Court and ordered that new hearings in the Yanish case must be held in accordance with the APA. On June 5, Federal District Judge Black, in Seattle, issued a similar order in the case of Julius Blichfeldt.

HEARINGS

New York: New hearings were started on June 21 in the case of Morris Taft. 70-year-old native of Lithuania and father of four American-born daughters. Hearings were scheduled to start on July 11 in the case of Andrew Dmytryshyn, Ukrainian-American leader who faces deportation because of his membership in the International Workers Order, a fraternal insurance organization.

Detroit: Hearings were held on the following dates: Mrs. Anna Ganley (May 16, 17, 18); Fred Wagener (June 1); Russell Emin (June 20). Hearings are Scheduled as follows: Tom Pappas (July 6); Fritz Rust (July 24).

Chicago: Hearings will start on September 12 in the case of Vincent Andrulis, editor of VILNIS. Lithuanian-American daily newspaper.

Seattle: Hearings in the case of Boris Sasief were held on June 2 and June 6. On June 19, the Justice Department attempted to hold a mass deportation hearing in 12 cases but failed to achieve its objective when John Caughlan, attorney for all 12, withdrew from the cases on the ground that he could not properly defend 12 noncitizens simultaneously. Hearings in the 12 cases will be held in the near

Portland: Hearings are scheduled to begin on July 12 in four cases: Casimiro Absolar, Mrs. Lena Halverson, Hamish MacKay, and John Stenson.

San Francisco: New hearings were started on June 13 in the case of William Heikkila, Finnish-American leader, and were continued until August or September to take depositions from Maurice Malkin, expert stool pigeon for the government, in New York City.

Los Angeles: Hearings were started in the following cases: Miriam Stevenson (June 1); David Hyun (June 13); Alice Orans (July 17).

New York: On May 9, Andrew Dmytryshyn, 58, Ukrainian-American leader, was arrested and held for deportation on the ground of membership in the International Workers Order. On May 10, Sam Milgrom, executive secretary of the International Workers Order, was arrested and held for deportation on the ground of alleged illegal entry. (Milgrom and Dmytryshyn were released on $5,000 bail each.) On June 7, Willy Busch, 52, native of Germany who fought against fascism in Spain as a member of the International Brigades, was arrested and held for deportation because of his political opinions.

JUSTICE DEPARTMENT ENGAGES IN UNFAIR HEARING PRACTICES

On February 20, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that the Justice Department was guilty of having held biased and unfair deportation hearings in violation of the law for 3 years. During March, the Justice Department decided to comply with the law (the Administrative Procedure Act). However, since March, it has become clear that the Justice Department has no intention to provide noncitizens with fair or unbiased deportation hearings. The hearing examiners (supposedly impartial judges) appointed to sit at deportation hearings and to rule on the evidence are all individuals who have been working for the Justice Department in some capacity for many years. In Seattle, the Justice Department has decided to hold 12 deportation hearings simultaneously and to have Paul Crouch, one of its favorite stool pigeons, testify simultaneously in all 12 cases. In San Francisco, on June 13, the hearing examiner in the case of William Heikkila granted the government permission to secure a deposition from Maurice Malkin, another expert stool pigeon, in New York City. Mr. Heikkila is supposed to send his attorney from San Francisco to New York to cross-examine Malkin.

WE COMMEND

John Caughlan, Seattle attorney, Lenus Westman, secretary of the Northwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, and the 10 deportees in Seattle whose militant action defeated the attempt by the Justice Department to hold a mass deportation hearing on June 19. By refusing to submit to the Justice Department's demand for a mass hearing, these Seattle residents effectively defended not only their own rights but contributed to the defense of the rights of all foreign-born Americans.

ORGANIZATIONAL ACTIVITIES

The Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born issued a special folder on the case of Irwin Franklin, Chicago resident who faces jail for allegedly falsely claiming to be an American citizen.

The Committee for the Defense of Eulalia Figueiredo, of New Bedford, Mass., has issued an attractive leaflet on the case of the Portuguese-American woman who faces deportation and separation from her citizen husband.

On May 9, the Committee for Defense of Henry Podolski, meeting in Detroit, voted to reorganize itself into an American-Polish Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. Leo Krzycki was elected chairman.

The Pete Nelson Defense Committee, of Everett, Washington, has issued a special 4-page folder on the case of the CIO Woodworker leader who was framed by the Justice Department as part of an attempt to deport him to Norway, which he left more than 40 years ago.

On May 5, the American Yugoslav Committee for Protection of Foreign Born held its first public meeting in New York City. Frank Borich, who faces deportation and Abner Green, executive secretary of the ACPFB, were the principal speakers.

The Sam Sweet Defense Committee of UAW-CIO, Local 51, Detroit, has issued a special Union Defense News discussing the Justice Department's attempt to revoke Sweet's citizenship on political grounds.

On May 14, a conference of organizations in Boston voted to set up a New England Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. Lewis Marks was elected chairman of the Committee.

The Local 7 Defense Committee of Seattle has issued a special 4-page folder discussing the five Filipino-American members and leaders of the Cannery Workers Union who have been arrested and held for deportation.

ACPFB SENDS GREETINGS ON MOTHER'S DAY

Dear Friend:

· Everybody, but everybody - and especially the children - love a rollicking, fun-loaded Ficnic. And that's just what this letter is about ... the July 10th First Annual Festival and Picnic sponsored by New York's Netional Groups.

For the children, there'll be an hour-long hostenamy and special program led by Betty Sanders. There'll be rides and games and movies too - featuring the best of Chaplin and special cartoons.

A termiting, mouth-watering menu from Yugoslav barbecued lamb to a tasty Norgan luncheon will mean that neither mom nor dad mead worry about preparing Sunday dinner on July 10th.

Sound like fun? You bet it will be. And for the whole family!

It'll be a Picnic with a purpose too. You see, while July 10th will be a day of fun and frolic - with a rigid policy of no speechmaking - the National Groups and other Committees are pooling all telents in an effort to assure that the New York Committee has the necessary funds to carry its chellenge of Welter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole conditions to the United States Supreme Court.

Supervisory Parole is that section of the Waiter-McCarran Lew which places stringent restriction's upon non-citizens whom the Justice Department cannot deport since they are stateless. Among its provisions are remaining within a 50-mile radius of Times Square; reporting monthly to a Justice Department agent; answering questions relative to hebits and associates; disassociating oneself from the labor and progressive movement; submitting to medical or paychietric exemination at the will of the Justice Department under threat of fines or jail, or both.

So - rain or shine - plen now to be with us at the First Annual Festival and Picnic on July 10th. And don't forget to bring the children. For them there is absolutely no edmission fee.

We'll be looking for you.

Sincerely yours,

Alec Jones

In tribute to the memory of Carl Paivio, the ACPEB pledged intensified efforts in the fight against the deportation hysteria and the Justice Department's hounding of honest and decent non-citizens because of their political opinions

MIDWEST CONFERENCE TO DEFEND FOREIGN BORN SCHEDULED FOR CHICAGO ON SUNDAY, MAY 18th

A Midwest Conference to Defend the Bill of Rights and for the Defense of Foreign Born will be held at the UE Hall, 37 S. Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, on Sunday, May 18. Under auspices of the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, this will be the first such conference since the U. S. Supreme Court in three separate rulings sought to nullify all constitutional guarantees accorded our foreign born. The Conference is sponsored by such promient midwest trade union leaders as Sven Anderson: Hilliard Ellis, UAW-ClO Local 453: John Bernard: Kenneth Born: Ernest DeMaio: Grant Oakes, UE-FE; Leon Beverly: Samuel J. Parks: Peter B. Brown, United Packinghouse Workers: Coleman A. Young, National Negro Labor Council. Other sponsors include Dr. Edith Abbot, Rev. J. C. Austin, Rev. Joseph M. Evans, Rabbi George Fox, Hon. Robert Morss Lovett, Prof. Robert J. Havighurst.

Central theme of the Conference will be formulation of a program of action geared to alerting the largest possible sections of the Midwest to dangers inherent to the liberties of all Americans in recent Supreme Court decisions. Primary emphasis will be placed on the case of Martin Young, now in his seventh month of incarceration on Ellis Island denied bail, as well as special problems of immigrants from Mexico.

SERVICE USES TECHNICAL VIOLATIONS TO HARASS AND PERSECUTE NON-CITIZENS

The Immigration and Naturalization Service, in the course of its deportation hysteria, is intensifying persecution of non-citizens who face deportation for technical violations of the immigration laws. Non-citizens who have supported labor and democratic causes are denied any consideration by the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

JOE WEBER, against whom the Board of Immigration Appeals has recently sustained an order of deportation, is charged with "illegal entry." Basis for the charge is that Weber, trade union organizer for many years, while enroute to a National ClO Convention in San Francisco, made a four-hour visit to Mexico. A native of Yugoslavia, Weber has been active in organizing rubber, auto, farm equipment and other workers.

NICHOLAS KALOUDIS, also ordered deported by the Board of Immigration Appeals, is charged with having overstayed his time in this land. General Secretary of the Federation of Greek Muritime Unions, he is now held on Ellis Island, denied bail pending final disposition of his case. A native of Greece, he would face death if deported there for the Greek Government has a charge of "high treason" pending against him for activity on behalf of the Federation.

DIAMOND KIMM, also ordered deported, is a native of Korea. He was a member of the O.S.S. Field Unit for the invasion of Korea in 1945 and today is editor of the "Korean Independence," weekly student newspaper of Los Angeles. Kimm, as Kaloudis, is charged with having overstayed his time in this country. Behind these flimsy charges can be seen the whole pattern of the conscious drive to get rid of any person speaking out against war and for peace.

MEXICAN-AMERICANS are undoubetdly the most victimized by the Immigration Service for minor infractions. Thousands and thousands of Mexicans are rounded up and deported far into the interior of Mexico, with little or no regard as to citizenship status. The Immigration Service recently asked Congress for a special appropriation in order to deport 43,600 Mexicans during May and June.

AMERICAN CITIZENS PROTEST DEPORTATIONS

GOLD STAR MOTHER

In a letter to the President, Mrs. Benny Saltzman, of New York, protested the threatened deportation of her husband. Mrs. Saltzman pointed out that two sons, Isidore and Bernard, fought in the Battle of the Bulge during World War Two as members of the U. S. armed forces. Isidore was killed while Bernard received a Purple Heart for injuries sustained in battle. Today their third son, Max, 18 years old, is expecting to be drafted into the armed forces any day. "My husband is a brave loyal father," Mrs. Saltzman says, "who has been tortured by the Justice Department for nearly four years. . . . I ask you to stop this shameful act."

A SOLDIER IN KOREA

In a letter to "The Detroit Times," written in Korea, Pfc. Joseph Ragni condemned the threatened deportation of his father, Louis. "I am a marine fighting with an infantry battalion in the 1st Marine Division in Korea. I have just been informed that my father, Louis, is to be deported . . . He has been in the United States for more than 25 years and has raised three sons, two of whom have fought in Korea. Surely I can expect better treatment from my country." In an interview with a with a Times reporter, Louis Ragni stated: "If I am deported, what can I tell the people in Italy of the democracy I knew in America?"

Report From Washington

No. 2, July 5, 1955.

James Glatis, of Boston, the Justice Department's third witness in the case of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, took the stand on Friday, June 24, and was on the stand June 28 and the morning of June 29. The fourth witness, John Lautner, took the stand at 2:00 P. M. on Wednesday, June 29, and was on the stand June 30 and July 1. Cross-examination of Lautner will be resumed on July 6, when he returns to the stand. The hearings are scheduled to continue July 6, 7, and 8, then recess until after Labor Day.

Note.—"Report from Washington" is a public report. For this reason, it will be necessary on occasion for us to make statements without corroboration. We regret that this is necessary as a part of the defense of the ACPFB. All statements made in this REPORT, countering testimony of Justice Department witnesses, will be supported by testimony and evidence, when the ACPFB presents its case before the hearings in Washington, after the Justice Department completes presenting its "case."

One year ago, on July 8, 1954, the New York Times stated in an editorial: "The process of informing is—as Justice Holmes once said of the not unrelated art of wire-tapping—a 'dirty business.' The tattletale of childhood becomes in adult life the gossip, the tipster, the informer, the keyhole peeper, the agent. Paid or unpaid, it is a distasteful occupation, and one that does not become well a free society. It implies accusation without proof, defamation without responsibility. . . . The informer smacks of the police state . . ."

James Glatis testified that he attended the "founding conference" of the New England Committee for Protection of Foreign Born in Boston in April 1950 and that, while he was attending Communist Party meetings during 1950, the members of his CP branch were urged to support the New England Committee. Glatis joined the CP at the suggestion of the FBI and attended CP branch meetings from April 1949 to October 1950. His testimony was intended by the the Justice Department to show Communist Party support of the ACPFB.

The truth is that the New England Committee was not established until May 1952. Glatis manufactured testimony to fit the Justice Department's charges against the ACPFB.

In his direct testimony, John Lautner identified William Zazuliak as a person he knew to be a member of the Communist Party in Detroit in 1932 and later when he worked for the International Workers Order. It is known, however, that William Zazuliak never worked for the IWO. A John Zazuliak did work for the IWO. Under cross-examination, Lautner stated finally that the person he knew was named Zazuliak and that "Zazuliak" had been a member of the CP. It would appear, therefore, that since Lautner knew a Zazuliak in Detroit in 1932 as a member of the Communist Party, every person in the United States whose name is Zazuliak would therefore be identified by Lautner as a member of the CP.

Nazis May Become Citizens

Eighteen members of such organizations as the Hiller Youth Movement were granted citizenship, according to a story carried in the Houston (Texas) Post recently. The examiner told the federal district judge that the 18 were admitted members of that organization, but, he pointed out, this did not bar them from American citizenship under the 1950 Internal Security Act. "None," said he "had ever been a Communist or a member of a Communist front organization, only Nazi and Fascist."

THE DEPORTATION DRIVE

Continued arrests in deportation proceedings during recent months brought the total non-citizens arrested to date to 290. Three non-citizens, facing deportation, left last month: Frank Corona, of Los Angeles, for Mexico; Mrs. Edunia Ramirez, of Puerto Rico, for Cuba; Mrs. Goldie Davidoff, of New York, for Canada.

Twenty cases were argued on appeal during the past month before the Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington. The Board sustained deportation orders in the cases of: Jack Stachel, at present in the Federal Correctional Institution at Danbury serving a 5-year jail sentence under the Smith Act, who claims to be an American citizen on the basis of his father's naturalization; Charles Dovle, native of Scotland, in whose case an appeal has been filed in the Federal District Court in New York; Matt Blaskovich, of Cleveland, facing deportation to Yugoslavia; Reuben Ship, Hollywood screen and radio script writer, facing deportation to England.

Deportation hearings were held during the past month in the cases of: Felix Kusman, Spanish War veteran, in New York: Leonard Costa, who claims to be a native-born American, in Rochester, N. Y.; Alam McNeil, UE organizer, who also claims U. S. birth, in Pittsburgh; and John Fongerouse, longshore leader of Portland, Oregon, who faces deportation to Tahiti. Witnesses for John Fougerouse in his deportation hearing included Rev. Thomas Tobin, vicar-general of the archdiocese of Portland; Stanley Earl, Portland city councilman; and Al Hartung, president of the IWA-CIO.

Arrests in deportation included the following: (New York) Israel Blankenstein, originally ordered deported in 1925, re-arrested only to enable the Justice Department to hold him without bail on Ellis Island; Felix Kusman, Spanish War veteran, native of Estonia, (Detroit) 72-year-old Themistokles Parashiades, weighing 100 pounds, released without bail; on May 20, Daniel Kiltchak, 64, just as he was making final arrangements to leave the country and return to Poland. (San Francisco) James Zivias, 60, native of Greece, on ground of affiliation with the Communist Party. (Los Angeles) Philip Cherner, 50, native of Russia, suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis: Pinip Cherner, 50, native of Russia, suffering from pulmonary unfections; Herhert Blache, 71, U. S. resident for 44 years, native of England; Elmer Merges, 40, native of Hungary, member of AFL Operating Engineers Union, Local 63: Max Kramer, 59, member of ILGWU for 24 years; Ruby Madeline Hynes, 49, native of Great Britain; Adolphe Larson, 55, native of Sweden, member of AFL Iron Workers Union, Local 509; Thomas Salazar Estrada. 43, farm worker, father of six American-born children, native of Mexico; Mrs. Alice Tucker, 59, resident of U. S. for 48 years, member of ILGWU, Local 266.

MANGAOANG VICTORY HOLDS HOPE FOR MOST FILIPINO-AMERICANS

The Federal Court of Appeals in San Francisco has ruled that Ernesto Mangaoang, Business Agent of ILWU, Local 37, in Seattle, arrested for deportation is the Philippine Islands on the ground of former membership in the Communist Party, cannot be deported since he never entered the United States as an "alien" but came here as a national.

Prior to 1934, there was no restriction on immigration to the United States by Filipinos. The net effect of the Court's ruling is that any Filipino who entered the United States for permanent residence before May 15, 1934, cannot be deported if he has not traveled to a foreign country since that date.

SUPREME COURT RULING IN BRIDGES CASE DEFEATS 19-YEAR DEPORTATION ATTEMPT

The victory in the case of Harry Bridges, President of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, ended the 19 year attempt by the government to jail and deport him. Bridges was convicted for "fraud" in securing his U. S. citizenship, together with his two witnesses, also leaders of the ILWU. The U.S. Supreme Court decision in establishing a three-year statute of limitations against attempts to frame naturalized citizens is of nation-wide importance. The ILWU should be congratulated on its consistent fight to defend its leaders.

Immigration Service Terrorizes Chinese-American Community

On May 15, the Immigration and Natural-ton Service carried out a Palmer Raid operation against the Chinese-American community of Marwoulle, California, Marvin E. Lewis, San Francisco actorney, has reported that 30 immigration agents swooped down on the community at about midnight. "They blockaded all the roads in and out of town," Mr. Lewis reports, "and prevented any Chinese—whether he was a citizen or not—from leaving town. Then they herded everybo into two clubs and held them incommunicado, entered homes, and stopped and questioned all Chinese on the streets. The whole thing last about five hours, and out of it three Chinese were booked for illegal entry." On May 15, the Immigration and Natural-

McCarran Law Provision Means Widespread Deportation

The Justice Department is starting to use a Walter-McCarran Law provision that will affect thousands of non-citizens. Under the old law, non-citizens who entered illegally hefore July 1, 1924, did not face deportation. Under Section 241 of the Walter-McCarran Law any non-citizen who entered illegally at any time faces deportation. Thousands of non-citizens, heretofore secure against departation, now suddenly are threatened after living here for 40 and 50 years.

POLITICAL DEPORTATION BEFORE U. S. SUPREME COURT

Two deportation cases—based on political beliefs and affiliation—are being taken to the U. S. Supreme Court by the ACPFB. A decision by the U. S. Supreme Court in these cases may decide for the first time in the history of the United States whether the Justice Department's attempt to deport long-time residents of this country is in violation of the Bill of Rights of the U. S. Constitution, While the Justice Department ordered Harisiades deported for membership in an organization advocating the overthrow of government by "force and violence," it found at the same time that Harisiades never believed or advocated "force and violence." A decision by the U. S. Supreme Court may determine whether the Justice Department can deport more than 3,400 non-citizens hecause of their affiliations under the McCarran Law.

The Harisiades Case

Peter Harisiades was born in Greece in 1903 and has lived in the U. S. since 1916. He is married to an American citizen and is the father of two American-born children. He faces deportation because of his membership, from 1925 to 1939, in the Communist Party. A petition for certiorari is to be filed with the U. S. Supreme Court in the Harisiades case during May.

The Coleman Case

Mrs. Dora Coleman, of Philadelphia, was born in Russia in 1900 and has lived in the U. S. since 1914. She is married to an American citizen and is the mother of three American-born children. She faces deportation for membership in the Communist Party in 1936. On March 16, a three-man Federal court in the District of Columbia denied an application for an injunction seeking to restrain the Justice Department from deporting Mrs. Coleman. An appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court was filed in the Coleman case during April.

The Issues

In both the Harisiades and the Coleman cases, it is the position of the defense that the 1918 deportation law, providing for deportation for political opinions, is in violation of the Bill of Rightte since it would deprive non-citizens of freedom of speech and freedom of belief. In addition, it is contended that Harisiades and Coleman face deportation under an ex-post-facto law since the 1940 amendment to the 1918 deportation law (making membership at any time in the past a deportable offense) was passed after both Harisiades and Coleman were no longer members of the organization which the government charges with advocating "force and violence."

The Harisiades and Coleman case may determine vital civil rights issues of the content of the content

The Harisiades and Coleman case may determine vital civil rights issues affecting all Americans. The treatment of non-citizens—their status and rights in this country—has always served as a barometer indicating the health of American democracy. The United States, a country built and made up of minorities, cannot long survive as a democracy if its government persecutes minorities. The foreign born would be affected directly by any adverse decision in the Harisiades and Colman cases. The native born, however, would suffer just as much as a result of any reactionary precedents established in these deportation cases by the U. S. Supreme Court. It is the responsibility, therefore, of all Americans—native as well as foreign born—to voice support for the rights of non-citizens and to work for a decision by the U. S. Supreme Court that will firmly establish freedom of speech and freedom of belief for all Americans, non-citizens as well as citizens.

Organizational Activities

The ACPFB issued two folders during the past month: "1798—Thomas Jefferson Fought the First Deportation Drive in the History of the United States" was devoted to the Washington Pilgimage of the American citizen families of deportees; "He Gave His Life. A meeting to protest the deportation hysteria was held in Chicago on March 5 by the Moses Resnikoff Defense Committee. Mrs Lillian Carlson and Mrs. Mary Hyun, wives of two of the Terminal Island Four, were the principal speakers

The Northwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, in Seattle, elected the following officers for the coming year: Chairman—Mrs. Florence Bean James; Treasurer—Mabel Conrad: Executive Secretary—Dr. H. J. Phillips.

NEW YORK CONFERENCE TO DEFEND RIGHTS OF FOREIGN BORN SET FOR MARCH 19

March 19, 1955 has been set as the date for the Second Annual Conference of the New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

Currently there are more than 89 persons being defended by the NYCPFB and the Conference's main objective will be to develop a campaign to help assure that those facing deportation are allowed to remain in the United States and that denaturalization proceedings against 15 are dropped.

From all indications, there will be new attempts in the 84th Congress to scuttle repeal legislation. Our Conference must be prepared to thwart such a move.

Between now and the March 19th Conference it is urged that all organizations and individuals take steps to see that Congressmen are visited and requested to introduce and support legislation for repeal or revision.

The NYCPFB is initiating a poll of both State legislators and Congressmen to determine their position. The next edition of the Beacon will carry poll results.

ARE YOU A SUSTAINER?

In view of increased operational costs, the NYCPFB is calling upon all Beacon readers to become monthly sustainers. Your regular contributions of $1 or more a month can be of great help. (See page four.)

Protests Win Freedom of All Arrested in Political Deportation Proceedings

In the last edition of the Beacon, we reported that Nick and Mary Karman, Clara Oelman and John Billy Zazuliak, had been freed after more than six months in jail, denied bail by the Justice Department.

On November 18, 1954, Frank Ibanez was arrested and denied bail but after a month's detention was freed on $2,000 bail. On December 2, 1954, Nick Marinos was arrested and freed in $1,000 bond after one week's detention. Marinos, a native of Greece, has lived in the United States since 1920.

The plight of those denied bail was first exposed in a letter by Pearl Buck, printed in the New York Times 11/16/54. The New York Times followed with editorial comment and the printing of other letters until finally on Jan. 4, 1955, the New York Times reported that no longer were "detainees" being held in jails but rather a dormitory has been constructed on the ninth floor of the Old Federal Building at 641 Washington Street, New York City.

Edward J. Shaughnessy, district director of Immigration and Naturalization, has stated that the new dormitory quarters are "not cells" and refers to them as "spacious" and "cheerful". In editorial comment 1/5/55, the New York Times declared: "Protests against the jailing of aliens detained by the Immigration Service pending final disposition of their cases seem at last to have taken effect—at least in the New York district.... the incarceration by administrative flat of anyone neither charged nor convicted of crime is deeply repugnant to Americans and should not have been permitted in the first place. Whether the new 'dormitories' for men and women, apparently separating husbands and wives are 'appropriate places' for detainees within the meaning of the law remains to be seen..."

The significance of the campaign in behalf of detainees can be seen in that for the first time since October, 1951 no person arrested in political deportation is in jail denied bail.

January 17 Meeting To Kick Off Repeal Campaign

Gen. Joseph M. Swing, Comm. of Immigration and Naturalization, in a report to Att. Gen. Herbert Brownell, stated that "considerable achievements were accomplished even while changing procedures to humanize service. . ."

These so-called achievements were the upswing of deportation and denatural-ization proceedings initiated in past years.

Gen. Swing seeks to ease the minds of the American people by saying that the only persons being deported or denaturalized are "criminals" and "subversives". However, what Gen. Swing's report failed to mention, as reported in the N. Y. Times, 1/3/55 was that despite the alleged "humanizing" of the Immig. & Nat. Service, thousands of foreign born are still being hounded and harassed. Walter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole conditions are yet in force. And those whom Gen. Swing labels "subversive" are in reality the leaders and members of the labor movement and those who have been active in the peace and progressive movements of this land.

The January 17th Rally will launch the NYCPFB's 1955 campaign for outright repeal or drastic revision of the Walter-McCarran Law. No matter how "humanized" the I. & N. Service may become at some future date, the first step toward "dehumanizing" is repeal of the Law that breeds inhumanity toward the foreign born.

While there will be speakers on hand who have firsthand experience with the Law (see page one), the meeting itself will be different than most rallies in that it will be a planning and programming rally. Material will be given each participant so that immediately following the Rally individual and organizational steps can be taken for repeal. So don't miss the January 17th Rally to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law, 7:00 p. m. sharp in Yugoslav Hall, 405 West 41st Street, NYC. Adm. 50 cents.

Dr. Robert J. Oppenheimer Assails Walter-McCarran Law

In an interview on Edward R. Murrow's "See It Now" CBS television show Jan. 4th, Dr. Robert J. Oppenheimer assailed the Walter-McCarran Law. Although Dr. Oppenheimer branded the Law as a "wholly fantastic and grotesque way to meet the threat of espionage," he also declared that under the Law's regulations "perhaps not even" Dr. Albert Einstein could have entered this land.

The famous physicist declared we were "rightly ashanied by the contempt that the Europeans have for us.'

STANLEY NOWAK DEFENSE COMMITTEE ISSUES 96-PAGE BOOK ON DENATURALIZATION

"The Strange Trial of Stanley Nowak" is the official title of a 96-page book on the Nowak denaturalization case. But while the book deals with the life and work of Stanley Nowak, it is the story of the more than 45 persons today facing Walter-McCarran Law revocation of citizenship.

The book tells dramatically how Nowak as state senator, organizer, lecturer and just plain American worked and fought for labor's rights, the rights of the Negro people, peace and democracy. It tells how his efforts in these directions led to his first denaturalization trial back in 1942.

The 1942 indictment was dismissed as an "error in judgment." Yet today "a decided change has occurred" and Stanley Nowak once again fights to preserve his citizenship.

Written by Konrad Komorowski, the book is a must for all who want to fully understand the meaning of Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell's threat to denaturalize 10,000 naturalized citizens under provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

10,000 naturalized citizens under provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

ference to be held in Washington, D. C. March 27th.

Fight Against Frame-Ups: Support to reverse 10-year sentence of Knut Heikkinen Finnish editor, for alleged failure to apply for travel documents following order of deportation.

terrorization and deportation of Mexicans.

CHALLENGE OF SUPERVISORY PAROLE MOVES ON TO U. S. SUPREME COURT

The challenge of Walter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole conditions has moved a step nearer to the U. S. Supreme Court. Justice Felix Frankfurter has set Jan. 15 as the date for attorneys to submit brief in behalf of 14 New York non-citizens making the challenge.

Involved in these cases is that the Justice Department cannot deport the noncitizens since they are stateless and has applied unconstitutional restrictions upon them. (See folder: The Walter-McCarran Law—Strait-Jacket for American Liberties.)

The N. Y. C. P. F. B. urges that all Beacon readers make immediate contributions so that we may continue this challenge.

FEDERAL JUDGE KNOX UPHOLDS CONSOLIDATION OF SIX DENATURALIZATION CASES

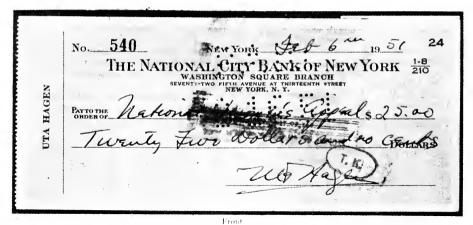

Federal Judge Knox has upheld the consolidation of the cases of V. J. Jerome, Paul Novick, James Lustig, Louis Braverman, Isidore Begun, and Louis Weinstock for the purpose of testing the character of the Communist Party. In an earlier ruling, it had been decided in the cases of 10 citizens that one could not hold the character of the Communist Party to be the same in 1924 as it was in 1945. In the earlier action, Danny Boano, S. Almazoff Pearl, Constantin Radzie and Isaac Ronch had been included. No trial date has been set as yet following the ruling by Judge Knox, who left it up to the trial judge to consolidate the other issues.

SUSTAINING FUND

Due to increased activity, the New York Committee has been forced to seek larger quarters. We will be moving to the 2nd floor of 23 West 26th St. about Feb. 1. LILLIAN DORAN, 526 West 3d Street, Los Angeles, Calif.

DEAR LILLIAN: Your answering my letter was quite all right, as my resorting to the mail since there is no way of being certain that the information would get to you in the near future otherwise.

The information sent to you is all that can be made available by mail. At the same time, there isn't much more except for the manner in which it came to us. However, that information would not reveal a great deal since it actually has nothing direct to do with the stool pigeon.

I suggest that you check back, if at all possible, to see whether the stool pigeon who testified at the Smith Act trial was at the meetings named. If he was, then that was the one who reported. If he wasn't then there is another stool pigeon operating who has not testified.

I have not hesitated writing about this because I loathe stool pigeons and will do everything possible to expose them when they operate in any organization with which I have contact. I suspect the Justice Department knows and, if they intercept this correspondence, it will be no surprise to them.

Best regards.

112 West 9th Street, Los Angeles, California.

DEAR ROSE: Carol King has read to me your letter requesting some assistance in regard to the cases of the four non-citizens before the U. S. Court of Appeals.

I feel that you should consider seriously the position you are attempting to advance in an attempt to rebutt the government's contention that non-citizens who are members of the Communist Party can be held without bail.

The position which you seem to be taking might be regarded as one which says that past members of the Communist Party can not be held without bail but that present members can be. It should be obvious that this would be an extremely dangerous position. The issue of membership in the Communist Party is a false one, in so far as the question of a non-citizens right to bail is concerned. The government has still shown no grounds for holding the four without bail, and the question as to their membership in the Communist Party is a false issue which the government is now attempting to inject into the cases, since that is the only charge against the four.

If the government sustains this position, then all they would have to do is bring all non-citizens into court and establish the basis for holding them without bail just the same as they are trying to do in the cases on Terminal Island.

With best wishes and regards,

Sincerely yours,

ABNER GREEN, Executive Secretary.

The Str Dear Rose:

Could you please send us a biography of Bishop Mitchell, which I amagine you must have.

I discussed with Joe Forer preparations for our defense this week (the Justice Department rested its "case" on Tuesday) and it is important, from the way Joe puts it, to have Mitchell down for live testimony rather than by deposition.

Mitchell can tastify about the work and activities of the LA Committee since he is an officer. He could discuss your program, conference, meeting, banquet,

If Mitchell is to testify in person, we would want to have copies of all communications sent out over his signature, proceedings of conferences he attended, a resume of meetings at which he spoke. (We would want five copies of each piece.)

One other special thing Mitchell could do - he can be asked how come he is Honorary Chairman of an organization of which the Director is Rose Chernin. (They put in a copy of your conviction from the Court record as evidence on Tuesday.) I am certain that Mitchell would make the kind of speech at that point that would be necessary in the record.

These are points in addition to my previous letter.

See you Detroit. Best regards.

Yours,

Almer Green Executive Secretary

Matles, New York, organizational director of UE; Stanley Nowak, Detroit, former Michigan State Senator: Isidore Begun, New York, acquitted Smith Act defendant; Victor J. Yaris has been on Ellis Island since October 24; Mrs. Hyndman has been in the County Jail at Grown Point, Indiana since October 7; and Sam Milgrom, seriously ill, is at Mt. Sinai Hospital, New York, under "protective custody," hounded and harassed by immigration agents. Sixty-four prominent Americans have indicated "grave concern" with the treatment accorded Sam Milgrom. Legal action is pending in the cases of Mrs. Hyndman and Harry Yaris.

FIRST TEST OF DEPORTATION PROVISIONS OF NEW LAW HEARD BY U.S. SUPREME COURT

The first test of the constitutionality of the Walter-McCarran Law deportation provisions was heard by the U. S. Sopreme Court on February 4 in the case of William Heikkila, Finnish-American of San Francisco. Attorneys Joseph Forer, of Washington, D. C., and Lloyd McMurray, of San Francisco, represented Heikkila in the argument. Heikkila, who was brought to the U. S. when he was two months old -4? years ago—was ordered deported on the ground that he was a member of the Communist Party during the 1930's. Attorneys for Heikkila challenged the constitutionality of the deportation provisions on the ground that they were a hill of attainder and in violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution, as well as on other grounds. The decision in the Heikkila case will affect thousands of non-citizens who have similarly lived here most of their lives and now face life-time separation from their families and friends.

Deportation for Affiliation

An appeal to the Federal District Court in Boston on January 10 prevented the immediate deportation to Italy of Giacomo Quattrone, 63-year-old father of eight grown children. Quattrone, who has lived in the U. S. for 46 years, was ordered deported on the ground that he made financial contributions to the Communist Party and attended public meetings held by the organization. The Justice Department contends that, even though Quattrone was never a member of the Communist Party, he was affiliated with the Communist Party and is therefore subject to deportation. It is expected that the Quattrone case may have to be fought to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Other Developments

The Board of Immigration Appeals, the highest administrative body in the Justice Department, sustained deportation on political grounds of Leon Callow, of Niles, Ohio, steelworker, father of nine American-born children; Anna Taffler, of Brooklyn, N. Y., mother of two sons, one of whom is a veteran of World War H; and of Peter Warhol, of Minneapolis, lumberworker, father of four children, and a veteran of World War II with two years' war-time service. . . . Non-citizens arrested in deportation proceedings during the past month include James Makis, of New York, member of the executive hoard of Local 70, Greek Fur Workers Union; George Witkovich, native of Yugoslavia, member of the staff of a Slovene newspaper in Chicago, arrested in Pittsborgh while on a visit to his family over the Christmas holiday; Mrs. Celia Greenberg Fox, in Los Angeles, mother of two daughters, a leader of the Emma Lazarus Federation in Southern California.

FIVE THREATENED WITH DEPORTATION WHERE THEY FACE PHYSICAL PERSECUTION

Eulalia Figueiredo, for 32 years a resident of the U. S., is being held on Ellis Island, although ill, facing deportation to Portugal, where recent reports indicate the mildest opposers to the Salazar regime are imprisoned in concentration camps. Frank Borich and Katherine Hyndman both are threatened with deportation to Yugoslavia, from which reports leave no doubt as to their fate in Tito's prisons. Manuel Diaz, an active fighter against fascism, is being held on Ellis Island, facing deportation to Franco Spain, where punishment awaits him for having deserted from Franco and joined the Lovalists during the Givil War in Spain. Leon Callow, of Nilea, Ohio, father of nine American born children, has had his deportation upheld by the Board of Immigration Appeals and the immigration authorities are rushing his deportation to Greece, where he is certain to face physical persecution and possible death. Legal proceedings challenging their deportation are pending in the Figueiredo and Diaz cases.

PLAN ANNUAL AWARD TO HONOR CAROL KING

Plans to present an Annual Carol King Award were announced by the APPR on January 22, the first anniversary of the death of the prominent woman attorney who devoted her life to the light for the constitutional rights of foreign-born Americans. The Award will be presented during December to that person who contributed most in the course of the year to the defense of the liberties of non-citizens and naturalised citisens.

New Pamphlet

A 36-page pamphlet containing 111 excepts from statements on the Walter-Mc-Carran Law made at public hearings by the President's Commission on Immiriation and Naturalization during October 1982 has been published by the ACFEB A copy of this new pamphlet can be obtained by sending 25c, in stamps or coin, to the ACFEB

REPEAL WALTER-McCARRAN LAW

The overwhelming majority of the American people have expressed their opposition to the racist, repressive, discriminatory and police-state provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law of 1952. The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, as a part of the American people, supports and aids in every way possible the fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. However, until this law is repealed, hundreds of Americans and their families will be victimized and terrorized by its provisions. The American Committee is the only agency that fights for repeal of the law and at the same time defends those who are threatened with dportation or revocation of their American citizenship as a result of the police-state provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

PROGRAM AND WORK FOR 1953

During 1955, the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born will carry forward the many phases of work to which it has devoted testif since 1932. Special attention will be devoted to the points outlined below, based on the program adopted by the National Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans, held in Detroit, Michigan, on December 13 and 14, 1952.

Objectives

- I Any non-citizen who has lived in the United States for two years or more, if entry was in accordance with law, should be per mitted to become an American citizen by appearing in Open Court and taking an oath of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States.
- 2. Any non-citizen who has lived in the United States for five years, or more, should not be threatened with Jeportarion for any reason whatsoever.
- A naturalized citizen should not be threatened with cancellation of citizenship for any reason whatsoever, unless it was obtained by clear fraud; and, then, only if denaturalization proceedings are started within tive years of the granting of naturalization.
- 4. Immigration should be permitted without discrimination as to country of birth, race, colon, creed or political belief, with full utilization of quotas established on the basis of the country's social, economic and cultural requirements.
- 5 At no time should a non-citizen be denied the protection of any provision of the Bill of Rights, especially sections dealing with the right to bail and freedom of belief, speech, and association.
- 6 The Immigration and Naturalization Service should be transferred out of the Justice Department and be established as an independent agency of the government.

Defense

Extend full legal and other assistance to any non-citizen or naturalized citizen who becomes a victim of the deportation or denariralization provisions of the Walter McCarran Law, or who encounters any other difficulties as a result of the widespread attack on the democratical contributional rights of foreign-born Americans. As an essential part of defense, the ACFPB will seek to rally public support since, in our view, attempts to deprise Americans of their democratic rights can be defeated only by an alert and aroused public opinion.

Deportation

Develop a nationwide campaign against the Justice Department's deportation drive, which threatens more than 3.40° non otteress with banishment and life-time separation from their American families and trends. At the same time, extend all possible aid and assistance to every non-citizen held for deportation because of justical opinions, athliation, association, or fabor activities.

Right to Bail

Defeat the Justice Department's attempt to undermine the American right to bail by lighting each attempt to deny bail to a non-citizen arrested in deportation proceedings.

Departation Hearings

Find the untair and biased star chamber proceedings accorded non-citizens facing deportation by the Justice Department

Citizenship

Defeat the attempt to create "second class" sittenship status 1 r manufated. Amerisan sittens his defending in every way possible the 1,700 naturalized citizens who are threatened with invocation of their citizenship (and then deportation) because of their political opinions or activities.

Legislation

Support all efforts to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law

Campaign for the enactment of any legislation in Congress that facilitates the naturalization of non-citizens and for the defeat of legislation that seeks to create hysteria against foreign born. Americans

Naturalization Aid Service

Continue to provide day-to-day advice and assistance to non-cutzens and naturalized our axists in person and by mail in matters of naturalization, deportation, cutzenship, immigation and discrimination. Defect the fusite Department's efforts to prevent the naturalization of non-cutzens because of their association with progressive social and fraternal organizations.

Organization

OTAL LETTER TO DENGRESS -

The House Committee on "In-American Activities has proposed legislation to "control subversive activities".

This bill is a fraud. It is an unconstitutional attempt to silence all individuals and groups who would promote social welfare, economic progress or political lemporacy.

Le call on you to speak and to vote against this bill because it would impose a system of thought control as oppressive as the "azi system in Germany. Providing for "registration" of certain groups and barring members of these organizations from Jovernment employment and from chiaining passports, it would neb American citizens of the right of free assembly and association, parameted by our Constitution. At the same time, it would prevent, by intimidation, the exercise of free stands by these individuals.

Perhers of unions could, by this measure, be prevented from using their most effective means to improve wage and working conditions. Strikes would become gunishable "conspiracies".

Giving the Attorney General power to designate "communist front" or anizations, this proposal of the Un-American Committee places in the Eards of the Administration the power to destroy any, and all, pulitical errorition. This is a final step to a police state.

We handlot preach democracy and at the same time practice fascism. Elections will become idle restures if such legislation is passed. All of a would be derrived on the elementary right to cambaign for and vote for pacidates of our own choosing.

Ехнівіт №. 32С

Therefore, we call upon you, Mr. Congressman, to defeat this bill and any similar ones presented by this Committee.

Respectfully yours,

Dr. Harry F. Ward, Honorary Chairman and George Marshall, Chairman of the Board

A Union Leader FRAMED... the story of Charles A. Doyle

The workers hit the bricks. The strike was on! Thousands of workers struck to win better working conditions at the huge Mellon controlled Carborundum plant in Niagara Falls, N. Y., in 1948.

All workers know that, during a strike, you need every union organizer you've got. You need every union officer and you need them bad.

The bosses know this too—and so does the Justice Department.

If there was any doubt in the great Niagara frontier that such is the case, that doubt has been cleared up. The case of Charles A. Doyle proves it.

And now, with the Walter-McCarran law in effect what happened to Charles Doyle could happen to any good union man of foreign birth. The Walter-McCarran law makes "legal" what the bosses with the help of the Justice Department tried to do to Doyle illegally.

But, turn the page and read the story. The story of a frame-up against a foreign-born union leader.

EXHIBIT No. 35B

IT HAPPENED TO CHARLES DOYLE... it could happen to any trade unionist

Charles A. Doyle was International Vice-President of the United Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers Union, C.I.O., in January 1948 when over five thousand workers at the Carborundum plant went out on strike.

Prior to the strike Doyle was heading the negotiating committee of the union in bargaining with the Carborundum management who were adamant in their refusal to grant any concessions to the workers.

The strike was approved at a meeting of the International Union's Executive Board on January 9th at Windsor, Ontario, just across the Canadian border.

Used to company tricks, Doyle knew the employers might try to get him if he crossed the border, try to keep him away to avoid a strike and if there was one, to be better able to break it, and impose company will upon the workers.

Doyle crossed the border to his union meeting in possession of a Border Crossing Card issued to him by the United States Immigration Service which promised reentry on his return from the union meeting.

But the Immigration Service pulled the same trick on Doyle in 1948 that the Attorney General pulled on Charlie Chaplin in 1952. As soon as Doyle crossed the border into Canada, an alert was sent out to all border stations to prevent him from returning to the United States.

When Doyle sought to return on January 12, 1948, the eve of the scheduled strike, he was informed by the Immigration officials that he was not eligible for reentry to the United States. He found that the "pass card" he carried was worthless.

What was the deal behind the scenes?

Charles Doyle was born in Scotland, Irish by descent. Today he is 48 years old and has lived in the United States for over 30 years.

Like millions of others, he came to the United States in his youth, sweated for low wages in the mines and mills and factories. It was tough to make ends meet and so he joined the union. He found out that it was only through unions that the workers could get a better wage, safety devices and a little bit of job security.

He turned to organizing unions and was a leader in the big organizing drives in steel and auto, drives that developed Niagara Falls, N. Y. from a company union town into the biggest District of the C.I.O. Chemical Workers Union.

That was enough to turn the bosses against him. But when he became key man in negotiating workers' contracts with the employers they really went after him.

That is why on January 12, 1948, Charles Doyle couldn't get back into the United States despite the fact that he had a re-entry permit in his pocket—issued by the United States Government.

For six weeks, Doyle was refused a hearing regarding his re-entry and finally, concerned about his family and his duties, he re-crossed the bridge "without permission."

EXHIBIT No. 35C

Needless to say the strike had been broken.

That was round one. The bosses and Justice Department had won. But they were still out to get Charles Doyle. A maze of legal red tape, in and out of jails, on and off Ellis Island, harassment and persecution was to be Charles Doyle's companion right up to the present date.

In fact, it was only after Doyle, along with four other men illegally held on Ellis Island, staged a hunger strike that the Justice Department released him back in March, 1948.

Doyle was a symbol. He was to be a warning to all trade union men and women who happened to be foreign born, that, if they organized, fought for better conditions, this would be their fate.

The Justice Department initiated deportation proceedings against him and is now trying to send him back to Scotland.

The charge—a typical Walter-McCarran Law charge—is that he was, at one time a member of the Communist Party. Despite the fact he no longer maintains his post in the Union and has left the industry, he's still to be persecuted—a lesson to all!

The charge is the whitewash. Charles Doyle faces deportation because he was a union man—and a good one!

The Walter-McCarran Law Paves the Way

When the Walter-McCarran Law went into effect last December, the bosses were gleeful. They figured that now they could intimidate the foreign born workers. If they fought back the boss could call on the Justice Department to help do the same thing to their "troublesome" workers as happened to Charles Doyle.

Sure, the provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law are so broad and sweeping that any worker the boss doesn't like can wind up in some proceeding or another if he or she is foreign born.

But, it doesn't have to be. The Justice Department has tried for years to throw Charles Doyle out of the country and hasn't succeeded as yet.

But it is to the degree that you join in fighting for his right to remain here with his family and fellow workers that any foreign born American worker can assure that he won't be next.

Boris Shishkin in speaking on behalf of the AFL against the Walter-McCarran Law declared: ". . . in many respects it falls shamefully short of the essential requirements of sound public policy."

The late Philip Murray setting forth the CIO's position declared in part, ". . . reverse this trend of the past two years and establish a new policy on immigration and naturalization which will be consistent with twentieth century conditions and ideals."

Repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law is no idle slogan. Trade union leaders the country over have spoken out against it and hundreds of union bodies have passed resolution condemning it.

Your support today can help repeal it tomorrow. Fight for Charles Doyle to remain here where he belongs. Demand repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

SPECIAL ISSUE

REPEAL THE McCARRAN-WALTER ACT!

40 Million Americans Threatened

A LAW AGAINST THE PEOPLE

In its report on the McCarran-Walter law on January 1, 1953, the President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization concluded thus:

"The immigration and nationality law embodies policies and principles that are unwise and injurious to the nation. It rests upon an attitude of hostility and distrust against all aliens. It applies discriminations against human beings on account of national origin, race, creed and color. It ignores the needs of the United States in domestic affairs and foreign policies. It contains unnecessary and unreasonable restrictions and penalties against individuals. It is badly drafted, confusing and in some respects unworkable. It should be reconsidered and revised from beginning to end."

Former President Harry S. Truman vetoed the Mc-Carran - Walter bill on June 25, 1952, in a sharply worded message to the House of Representatives. Here are a few pertinent excerpts from the message, which was disregarded by Democrats and Republicans who enacted the bill over Truman's veto:

Racist Provisions

"The bill would continue, practically without change, the national origins quota system, which was enacted into law in 1924, and put into effect in 1929. The greatest vice of the present quota system, however, is that it discriminates, deliberately and intentionally, against many of the peoples of the world. The purpose behind it was to cut down and virtually eliminate immigration to this country from southern and eastern Europe. . .

"People from such countries as Greece, Spain, or Latvia were virtually deprived of any opportunity to come here at all, simply because Greeks or Spaniards or Latvians had not come here before 1920 in any substantial numbers.

The idea behind this discriminatory policy was, to put it baldly, that Americans with English or Irish names were better people and better citizens than Americans with Italian or Greek or Polish names. It was thought that people of west European origins made better citizens than Rumanians or Yugoslave or Ukrainians or Balts or Austrians.

"Such a concept is utterly unworthy of our traditions and our ideals. It violates the great political doctrine of the Declaration of Independence that 'all men are created equal.' It denies the humanitarian creed inscribed beneath the Statue of Liberty proclaiming to all nations:

'Give me your tired, your poor, Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free.'

"It repudiates our basic religious concepts, our belief in the brother-hood of man, and in the words of Saint Paul that 'there is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free. . .for ye are all one in Christ Jesus."

"... The only consequential change in the 1924 quota system which the bill would make is to extend a small quota to each of the countries of Asia. But most of the beneficial effects of this gesture are offset by other provisions of the bill. "The countries of Asia are told in one breath that they shall have quotas for their nationals, and in in one breath that they shall have quotas for their nationals, and in the next, that the nationals of other countries, if their ancestry is as much as 50 percent Asian, shall be charged to those quotas. . .

Threat to Liberty

"I am asked to approve the enactment of highly objectionable provisions now contained in the Internal Security Act of 1950 (also authored by Senator McCarran—Ed.)... Some of these provisions would empower the Attorney General to deport any alien who has engaged or has had a purpose to engage in activities 'prejudicial to the public interest' or 'subversive to the national security.'

"No standards or definitions are provided to guide discretion in the exercise of powers so sweeping. To punish undefined 'activities' departs from traditional American insistence EVHIRIT NO. 36C on established standards of guilt. To punish undefined 'purpose' is thought control

"These provisions are worse than the infamous Alien act of 1798, passed in a time of national fear and distrust of foreigners, which gave the President power to deport any alien deemed 'dangerous to the peace and safety of the United States' Alien residents were thoroughly frightened and citizens much disturbed by that threat to liberty.

"Such powers are inconsistent with our democratic ideals. Conferring powers like that upon the Attorney General is unfair to him as well as to our alien residents. Once fully informed of such vast discretionary powers vested in the Attorney General, Americans now would be just as alarmed as Americans were in 1798 over less drastic powers vested in the President.

"Heretofore, for the most part, deportation and exclusion have rest-ed upon findings of facts made upon evidence, Under this bill, they would rest in many instances upon the opinion or 'satisfaction' of immigration or consular employes. The change from objective findings to subjective feelings in not compatible with our system of instice, ."

Advice to Foreignborn

If any person purporting to be an agent of the U.S. Immigration & Naturalization Service, FBI or other government agency starts asking you questions about yourself or others, you have a right to refuse to talk or let him into your home. If you get a letter or form from such agencies, consult a lawyer.

If you are a naturalized citizen, the U.S. Immigration & Naturalization Service has no authority over you If you are not a citizen and are arrested, you have a right to phone or see your lawyer at once. If you need help, consult your union or organizations such as the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, which provides legal defense, or the American Civil Liberties Union or Legal Aid Society, which sometimes handle deportation cases.

Liberal Editor

Confronting Senator McCarthy, Cadric Belfrage, British-born editor of the liberal National Guardian, refused to aid him in his attack on freedom of the press in the United States, McCarthy's aim, according to Belfrage, is "to crush labor and have a supine nation in the fascist yoke." Exactly one day after he refused to aid McCarthy, Belfrage—who has been in the U.S. 15 years—was arrested and rushed to Ellis Island for deport ation. National protests at the spreading attack on press freedom secured Belfrage's release on bail.

Joe Weber was a pioneer CIO organizer in the big drives of the 30s in the Chicago area. He became a subregional director of the CIO Steel Workers Organization of the Farm Equipment Workers, A union man since he was 13, Weber had also organized coal miners.

American-Born

Leonard Costa, president of a CIO Amalgamated Clothing Workers local in Rochester, N.Y., is held "deportable" though an American born citizen. As a boy, seeking a job in a mine, Costa gave his age as 16 instead of 12. This, immigration authorities calculate, would have him born in Sicily—though Costa insists he was born in Yatesboro, Pa., soon after his parents arrived in the U.S. The case of Allan McNeil, UE representative in Pittsburgh, is similar. Though born in Minnesota, McNeil is being threatened with deportation to Scotland.

July 20, 1956

President Dwight D. Eisenhower Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President.

We wish to bring to your special attention the serious problem that faces a lerge number of non-citizens in the United States as a result of the Supervisory Parole provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law of 1952.

Non-citizens who have been ordered deported but who cannot be deported because no country will accent them are faced with having to live the rest of their lives here under Orders of Supervision. Nost of these non-citizens are over 65 years of age. Some of them have lived here for 50 years or more. They know no country other than the United States, where they have agent most of their lives.

Under Orders of Supervision, these non-citizens must report in person to the Justice Department on the average of once a month; give infermation under oath as to their associations and activities; disassociate from any person or organization or group that might be regarded as "wab-versive" by the Attorney General. In addition, non-citizens are desied the right to travel and must not leave the city in which they reside. Failure to comply with any of these conditions is a criminal offense pum ishable by one year in jail.

These conditions creets untold hardships and ere clearly degrading for the non-citizen. They have nothing to do with the deportation procass but are superimposed apparently on an order of deportation for parposes of harassment and intimidation. They violate democratic standards INTERNAL SECURITY I and our American traditions.

We call upon you to use your office, as President of the United the States, to secure elimination by Congress of these Supervisory Parole conditions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

Respectfully your NATURALIZATION SERVICE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

American Committee for Protection of Foreign Form 23 West 26th Street, New York 10, N.Y.

Harriet Barron, Administrative Secretary Chicago Conference of Deportee Defense Committees June 9 and 10, 1951

The agenda for the Conference will take up every aspect that we could think of in the organizational realm, and other aspects that you may think of, to carry on this 'campuign. In this report I shall deal with forms of defense organization and their role in the community. Others will consider their local problems. We are here to gain from the collective experience, to apply the best suggestions to our work in the best cannor possible in our own committees, and to attempt to endicate errors. How can we mobilize the greatest number of American people in the fight against deportation, because the fight against deportation is a fight for American civil rights and liberties? This should be the theme on which we proceed with the Caderence.

Just five years ago, in May 1946, the Justice Department began its offensive against the foreign born. Five years ago Peter Herisiadeswas arrested in deportation proceedings. The war was over. A new period had begun. No longer was there the need to mebilize mangever, regardless of national origin or political opinion. The date for a third world war but correspond - when all voices for teach as the type 1 and 1 and 1. ...

The national groups have made the greatest contribution to the fight against deportations. They relifed to the defense of their members, set up defense committees, miredfunds, joined the picket lines and the delegations. Unfortunately however, only that segment in the rational groups who are most politically conscious have been aroused. We have not yet begin to stir all sections of the national groups. We have a tendency to stay within the reas in which we get the most sympathy. Only in rare instances, have real efforts been made to involve other sections of the national groups, who are also being intimidated and hemasses and who, if properly approached in most instances would respond. In the main the national group defense countities have limited themselves to raising funds. This is a shortcoming and one of the problems which should be discussed very theroughly in this conference. . . .

We know that the American people as a whole can be made aware of the deportion hysteric and its dangers and that they will respond. Fully a third of the American people are second and third generation and are cognizent of the national origin of their forebears. "We are all descendants of immigrants," the late Franklin I. Rossevelt stated. The influence of the national groups in this country is evident everywhere. The fact that our national sponsorship includes Americans of all welfs of life who are willing to sponsor our fight against deportation and sign our open Letters indicates that we can arouse the American people, whose responsibility this really is, to join in the defence of foreign born Americans. How this can and must be done is another problem which must receive our attention at this Conference. Only by mobilitying native Americans to the great responsibility which frees them in defending the rights of the foreign born will we really succeed in our fight to protect the right of the foreign born.

That is the act important took of the defense enginizations, whether in a neighborhood, or a locality, whether around an individual or any other form of defence any minimization, established the rational group defense committees. This can be done an evidenced by the Portland Committee and in some instances by the Midwest Committee.

Organizational Report - 2

There is another group in this country today, on what the attack by the war morgoring forces is even greater than on the ferrightim. That group is the Negro people. The Negro people can become the greatest allies in defense of the ferrigh born. The history of enclavement of the Negro people, of lynchings, of separation of families, the suffering and the serrow which they have experienced, give them a deeper understanding of what deportation means than any other minority. The recting here tonight to hence Fordinand Smith indicates clearly that the Negro cope are a ready ally in this fight. Our delegation of women to Weshington on Mry 17th, which was composed of eight Negro and seven white women is another example of the spirit of the Negro people. They are ready and willing to fight against the break -up of American homes and families, and for democracy and equality for all. In spite of FBI terror Negroes composed the largest part of the group that attended the hearings in Cary for Katherine Hyndman. We could enumerate many other instances where Negro-white unity was achieved in the fight for the rights of the foreign born. But a greater conscious and consistent effort must be made for this unity and this is another proposal for discussion at this Conference.

We have still to involve the trade unions, even progressive trade unions, in the fight against deportations. Even in progressive unions, where leaders of the unions are facing deportation, we have not been able to establish defense Committee There are areas where only recently interest and ecoperation have been stimulated such as the Ford Local in Detroit, where a delegate was sent to Washingtonto participate in the women's delegation; or in St. Louis where UE District 8 has set up a defense committee for Toni Sentner; or in Seattle where Local 7C ILWU, has a defense committee for its nine leaders and members arrested for deportation; but we still lack real cooperation in the sense of stable defense committees operating all the time rather than just for the immediate emergencies. The labor movement must be come involved in the fight against depart tiens if we are to succeed in defeating this attempt by the Justice Devertment to undermine the trade unions. It is our responsibility, and we have not fully made it so, to bring to the trade union movement the understanding that deportation is a weapon to destroy the trade unions It was not just because Ferdinand Smith, former national secretary of the NMU, and Charles Doyle, former international vice president of the CIO Chemical Workers. are foreign born, that they were arrested. The aim was to remove them from them from the trade union movement, to isolate them and to destroy the unions involved. It is obvious that because Local 7C has wen too many gains for the Alaska Cennery workers that nine leaders and members of the union have been arrested for deportation. A conference of this type must discuss ways and means of firmly establishir. defense committees within the trade unions, not only where there are cases of deportation, but in every trade union, because in every trade union there are foreign born mombers who are vulnerable and easy targets of the Justice Department to destroy the trade unions and isolate the progressive members.

There are important industrial areas where there are no defense committees whatever. This is something that must be corrected. All serts of problems are created, as well as retarding the general defense of the foreign born....

While we urge the fermation of defense committees regardless of whether or not they establish contact with the American Committee, it is nevertheless a feet that all defense committees will work better if complete organizational ties will be established end mainteined. Unity in the fight against deportation can be accomplished only in cooperation. The ACTFB has worked to protect the foreign born for almost 20 years. As a result of its work, certain instalurble experiences can assist local and national group defense organizations. The collective experience of all the defense groups are evailable through the American Committee and it is lost if complete cooperation is not maintained. This does not proclume independent activities which will receive our full support. Financial, as well as organizational cooperation should be established. As defense committees in various localities are set up certain financial contacts of the national organization revert their support to the local committees, which is correct. But on the other hand is cuts off the assistance which we have received for many years. This must be have in mind by the local committees. If the committee are working properly and a ng out to new groups which the rational office could never contact, the problem of charing the firancial responsibility of maintaing the national office and support the firancial responsibility of maintaing the national office and support and office do not sit by and wait for your support. We shall always, as we have in the past, continue our national campaigns reaching into areas where there are accommittees and to people who are set in their support of the American Committee. The a staff of six people, who are ready to service the local committees, to send to terial to the attorneys, and keep committees informed of all developments. We are sure that you will home that we have given every possible service and copperation at every time. We shall continue to do so. In addition, we have attempted to maintain the morals of the deportees throughout the country, informing them of every aspect of the fight against deportation in every part of the country.

These are only a few of the organizational aspects which we propose for discussion throughout this Conference. I am sure that many other areas and many other ideas will be presented here by the various defense committees. In the fight against deportation and the general attack against the foreign born no stone must be left unturned. Reactionary forces are using the foreign born and the Negro people as the scapegests in their drive toward war and fascism. We, who have learned the lessons of German fascism, have a serious responsibility. We must shout the charm in the manner of modern Paul R vores, to awaken the American people to the perils. The task is not easy. We are but a few. The iron cuctain of silence is everywhere. But we must do it and do it now because the time is short. The hour is late. It we fail to organize the American people in the defense of the foreign born - in the fight against deportation - we shall fell to fulfill our responsibilities as Americans. In this fight for the rights of Americans - citizens and non-citizens - we will become - we are becoming - many. Your efforts are increasing our numbers. This is our guarantee of safeguarding our democracy.

Summary Proceedings

Conference held October 27, 1951, at Ford Local 600 Auditorium, under auspices of Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and Detroit Chapter, National Women's Appeal for the Rights of Foreign Born Americans organizations and 37 visitors and observers.)

The Conference was opened by Saul Grossman, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, who then introduced the Chairman of the Conference, Tom Dombrowski, editor of Glos Ludowy (People's Voice), leading Polish-American weekly.

Walter Quillico, Educational Director of Ford Local 600, UAW-CIO, brought greetings from the Executive Board and General Council of his Local and reported on the program of the newly organized Workers Defense Committee of the Local. He told the delegates that "The UAW-CIO was built by the foreign born and it will defend its members against government persecution." He further declared that Local 600 would protect the constitutional rights of all workers within the Local and would help the workers seek and get legal aid, bond, etc. The Workers Defense Committee would also work with the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born on immigration and deportation problems.

Anne Shore, Organizational Director of the Civil Rights Congress of Michigan, brought greetings and pledge of support from her organization.

George W. Crockett, Jr., noted Detroit attorney, reviewed the history of the fight for bail and pointed to the victory won locally when the Federal Courts agreed to accept bail money from the Civil Rights Bail Fund when the Immigration Dept. tried to cancel bail. He called for a struggle by all to defend the rights of the American people.

Rev. Charles A. Hill, pastor of the Hartford Ave. Baptist Church, linked the fight of the foreign born with the struggle of the Negro people for equal rights. Illustrating the need for constant struggle for our rights to achieve victory, he told the following anecdote: Two frogs fell into a pail of milk. After struggling for a while to get out, one frog gave up and drowned. The other frog continued to struggle until he churned the milk into butter and then climbed out of the pail.

Carol King, outstanding authority on the rights of the foreign born, reviewed the provisions of the unconstitutional McCarran Act. Pointing out the dangers not only to the foreign born but to all Americans, she stressed the necessity of repealing this law.

Anna Ganley, facing deportation because of her progressive activities and beliefs, spoke movingly about the human side of deportation and what it means to the families involved. She also reported on the activities of the National Women's Appeal and urged all women to join the local chapter.

Harriet Barron, Administrative Secretary of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, reported on the national cases which are now being heard by the United States Supreme Court, such as the Harisiades case and the Terminal Island Four bail case. The Harisiades case may be the test which will decide whether noncitizens can be deported for past membership in the Communist Party. The Terminal Island case, together with the John Zydok case, will decide whether the Attorney General can hold noncitizens without bail. She urged full support of these cases and for the 20th Anniversary Conference of the Committee to be held in Chicago December 8 and 9.

SPECIAL REPORT ON THE POLICY OF THE HAMILTON HOTEL IN DISCRIMINATING AGAINST FERDINAND C. SMITH

Prior to June 8th, the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born had called the Hamilton Hotel and made a reservation for Ferdinand C. Smith for June 8 and 9. On June 7, Lillian Goodman, executive secretary of the Midwest Committee called the Hamilton Hotel and explained that Mr. Smith had been delayed and requested that his reservation be changed to June 9th. She was assured that the reservation would be changed. (Abner Green was present when the telephone call was made.)

•On the morning of June 9th, when Ferdinand Smith presented himself at the Hamilton Hotel, he was told that there was no reservation for him and that no room in the hotel was available for that evening. When this was reported to the Conference of Deportee Defense Committees, a delegation of 10 was appointed to see the manager of the Hotel.

The delegation called on the manager of the Hamilton Hotel during the Conference's lunch recess. The delegation made clear that it regarded the Hotel's failure to provide accommodations for Ferdinand C. Smith as discrimination because he is a Negro. The manager stated that the Hotel has a policy of not discriminating and that the change in Mr. Smith's reservation from June 8 to 9 had not been entered by the clerk who had talked to Mrs. Goodman. The manager stated that he would be glad to give Mr. Smith a room but that the Hotel was filled.

When Abner Green offered to give up his room so that Mr. Smith could register, the manager stated that Mr. Green had indicated that he was leaving the Hotel on Saturday, June 9. Mr. Green did not indicate any date of departure when he registered at the hotel on June 6th. The manager, however, produced the registration card with the clerk's notation of a June 9 departure. Mr. Green maintains that the June 9 was not entered on the card until after Mr. Smith's arrival at the hotel and until after he had offered to give up his room.

At this point, Harriet Barron offered to give up her room so that Mr. Smith could register for Room 1303. The manager had no alternative since Mrs. Barron had stated, when registering, that she was not leaving until June 10. The manager registered Mr. Smith for Room 1303.

When Mr. Smith appeared at the desk to request his key that evening, he was accompanied by a delegation of seven people. The room clerk stated that there was no Room 1303 in the Hotel. Mrs. Barron said that she had stayed in Room 1303 the previous evening and then pointed out the box clearly marked "1303." At this point, the room clerk said that there was no registration for Ferdinand Smith and he therefore could not let him have the room. The delegation protested this obvious discrimination and condemned the clerk's action. Since it was midnight, the manager was not available. Mrs. Rose Chernin checked out of the hotel immediately stating she would not stay in any hotel that discriminated against people because they are Negroes.

The following day the Conference, on receiving a report, voted to condemn the action of the Hamilton Hotel, to send a special protest, to authorize the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to organize a special delegation to call on the manager the following day, and to notify all organizations and individuals in Chicago of the fact that the Hamilton Hotel pursues a policy of discrimination against Negroes. Special action has been taken already by the Midwest Committee and all possible steps are being pursued to expose this discriminatory policy.

Conference For Legislation An The National Anterest

342 MADISON AVE. SUITE 1500 NEW YORK 17, N. Y.

February 25, 1956

Dear Reverend Harrington:

The four of us who have signed this letter would like you to join us in setting up a Watchdog Committee for Legislation in the National Interest. These times increasingly demand that determined citizens must keep Congress under constant pressure lest it continue its performance of the immediate and recent past. We believe that the time has come again when the Congress of the United States ought to stop acting like the board of directors of some super holding company of big business and start to fulfill its function as representative of the interests of all the people.

The hysteria of the past few years, with its accompanying fearful abdication by too many Americans of their most basic and minimum rights and privileges, the invasion of civil liberties by legislative committees, and the "give-away" program have destroyed the natural relationship which ought to exist between Congress and the recople.

Today, too many Americans accept as normal the fact that members of Congress are the private brokers of big business rather than the servants of all the people. We tend to forget how quickly legislators responded in the past to the pressures of a determined citizenry.

When Congress ignominiously surrendered its own power to make war, it in fact turned over our very lives to the Admin-Istration which, through its Secretary of State, admits that three times America was brought to the "brink of war". It is our belief that there lies latent and smouldering in the rublic breast large resentments against a Congress which has been so accommodating to the least whims of big business while ignoring the best interests of the people.

We think the time is at hand when Americans will once again respond to demands in their own public interest instead of agreeing to the shoring-up out of the public treasury of every rag, tag, and bobtailed friend of the State Department.

We believe a Watchdor Committee should keep a sharp eye on men in Congress who are willing blindly to yote away our lives in this hydrogen bomb world. We think it is about time some rood old American eloquence and tough-talking indignation wore brought to bear on the theory that "what's good for General Moters is good for the country."

Until we, the Fublic, speak up, they will continue to give away our treasure, our forests, our oil, our rights, our liberties, our earnings, and gamble with our peace and security.

For a genuine peace policy, a "Point Four" program for the South, expanded aid for health, education and welfare, and for a return to the Bill of Rights, it is high time that the American people get into the maddle of rublic responsibility.

We are therefore initiating a Conference to be held on Saturday, March 31st. at Manhattan Center, to give voice to those who share our indignation and who will carry it forward into the arena of action. If you agree with us, won't you become a sponsor of the Conference by signing the enclosed card and returning it to us within a week?

Conference for Legislation in the National Interest

April 7, 1956

Welcome.

Please go to your panels at once so that they can start on time.

This is a legislative conference. All proposals for adoption must relate to what Congress can do about them in the form of legislation. No other proposals or resolutions will be entertained.

The reporter in your panel is an expert in his field. Please give him your closest attention. There will be 1½ hours of discussion at each panel, a half hour of which is allotted to general discussion. The balance of the time is to be used for discussion of specific bills, or proposals for bills which you will find described in the material enclosed. Decisions to support or reject these bills will be made by vote at the panel. While each panel can recommend approval of as many bills as desired, it is suggested that only one or two bills be specifically recommended for sustained campaigns.

In addition, the Organizing Committee of the Conference recommends:

- ${\bf 1.}$  A Continuation Committee to implement the decisions of this Conference.
- 2. The issuance of a call for the establishment of Committees of Correspondence in every Congressional district of the nation.
- 3. The nomination by each panel, for approval by the general session, of six to ten people as members of the Continuation Committee.

A detailed organizational plan will be presented at the general session.

At the conclusion of the panels, you will have one hour for lunch. Please return promptly so that we can start the general session on time.

This envelope contains:

1. Program of the Conference

2. Technique for effective writing to Congressmen

3. List of key Congressional committees.

- 4. Key assignments of N. Y. City Congressmen and U. S. Senators.
- 5. Bills pending before Congress and proposals for legislation, classified by panels.

This material is of immediate and continuous value to you, your club, your union, your community organization. Keep it for reference.

CONFERENCE FOR LEGISLATION IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST

PANEL: "SURVIVAL OR EXTINCTION"

While the shaping of foreign policy is primarily the responsibility of the President, nevertheless Congress can legislate in many areas—the military budget, conscription, foreign trade, immigration—which can have a powerful effect on foreign policy.

Pressure on Congress in these areas is an important part of the fight for peace.

Bills Pending

S. 3116, H. R. 9696: To provide for the promotion and strengthening of international relations through cultural and athletic exchanges and participation in international fairs and festivals. Introduced by Sen. Humphrey and others; referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. Introduced in the House by Rep. Macdonald and others; referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Recommendation to the panel: To approve.

H. R. 10082: Provides $4,800,000,000 in foreign aid, mostly military. Introduced by Rep. Richards: referred to Committee on Foreign Affairs.

President Eisenhower recently stated that One Dollar's worth of economic aid is worth $5, of military aid. This bill scarcely reflects that viewpoint.

Recommendation to the panel: To oppose, and to ask Congress that all foreign aid should be in the form of economic assistance and technical assistance, without political or economic strings.

For Reveal

The Battle Act: In 1951, Congress passed the "Mutual Defense Assistance Control Act of 1951" restricting the trade of the U. S. and cooperating foreign nations with "any nation or combination of nations threatening the security of the U. S., including USSR, and the countries under its domination." This Act, never in the national interest, has now become a stumbling-block to the easing of international tension through trade. It was passed at the height of the Korean War hysteria, and has no place in the post-Geneva world.

Proposed Legislation

The Annual Convocation of the Oregon Council of Churches held recently in Portland, adopted a resolution on nuclear weapons, here reproduced. We propose that the sense of this resolution be adopted by the Congress of the U.S. as a Joint Resolution addressed to the President.

"Whereas: We view with alarm the competition among nations for superiority in the development of mass-destruction weapons, and

Whereas: Nuclear weapons of astronomical strength are being stockpiled and occasionally exploded for test purposes, and

Whereas: We have learned of the deadly effects of radioactive fallout and of the danger of radioactive contamination of the earth's atmosphere, and

Whereas: The great powers agreed at the Summit Conference in Geneva that no nation can achieve its purposes by engaging in nuclear warfare, and

Whereas: The peace of the world rests precariously on a "balance of mutual terror", with nations possessing the destructive power to annihilate much of our civilization.

"Be It Therefore Resolved: That the Congress of the U. S. memorialize the President to make intensified efforts to reach international agreement on the control of nuclear weapons."

Recommendation to the panel: Write Congressmen to introduce this resolution.

EXHIBIT No. 50D

CONFERENCE FOR LEGISLATION IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST

PANEL: "THE SOVEREIGN CITIZEN"

Bills Pending

Labor:

S. 3187: To repeal Section 9H of the National Labor Relations Act (Taft-Hartley Law) relating to non-Communist affidavits. Introduced by Senator McNamara; referred to the Committee on Labor.

H. R. 6543: To amend section 14b of the National Labor Relations Act so as to protect the rights of employees and employers, in industries affecting commerce, to enter into union-shop agreements. Introduced by Representative Holtzman; referred to Committee on Labor.

Note: This bill would void the so-called State "Right to Work" laws.

Recommendation to the panel on both of the above: To approve.

Legislation Needed

Immigration and Naturalization (see attached sheet):

1. Repeal of the Smith Act. (See folder enclosed.)

2. Repeal of the Immunity Law. The Supreme Court validation of the Immunity Law was a blow at one of the basic protections of the Bill of Rights, the Fifth Amendment. The Immunity Law opens the door to attack upon all other guaranties of the Constitution. Its repeal must be a primary objective of everyone concerned with civil liberties.

Recommendation to the panel: Write your Congressman urging him to introduce a repealer.

- 3. Repeal of the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950. This Act provides for the registration of all organizations found to be "subversive" by a Board, and for the registration of all its members. The penalties are such that it in effect illegalizes political opposition. Under this Act, the Communist Party has been designated as subversive. It is now appealing the case before the Supreme Court.
- A score of other organizations have also been so designated and are now in the midst of legal battles.

Recommendation to the panel: Write your Congressman expressing your strong opposition.

4. Repeal of the Communist Control Act of 1954: This Act penalizes organizations and members of organizations deemed to be "Communist dominated or influenced." This law is so worded that it can easily be applied to labor unions.

Recommendation to the panel: Same as above.

Introduced by Sen. Lehman and others; referred to the Committee on Banking and Currency, Chairman, Sen. Fulbright.

The salient feature of this bill is that it provides for 200,000 dwelling units per year, as contrasted to 35,000 units proposed by the Administration. It also provides for setting aside 10 percent of housing units built, for elderly families.

Recommendation to panel: To approve.

S. 3159: Provides for the establishment in the executive branch of the Gov't. of a Department of Housing and Urban Affairs. Introduced by Sen. Lehman and others; referred to the Committee on Gov't Operations, Sen. McClellan, Chmn. Recommendation to panel: To approve.

$200,000,000, per year in the Administration bill.

Recommendation to panel: To approve, with proviso as proposed by Cong.

Powell, that an antisegregation rider be attached.

H. R. 8859: To amend the Public Health Service Act to provide an emergency five-year program of grants and scholarships for postgraduate education in the field of public health, and for other purposes. The Meaning of Parity.—In 1933, Congress gave recognition to the parity concept by declaring that it was the policy of Congress: "to reestablish prices to farmers at a level that will give agricultural commodities a purchasing power with respect to articles that farmers buy equivalent to the purchasing power of agricultural commodities in the base period." For 17 years, up to 1950, the parity price of a commodity such as wheat, corn, etc., was computed simply by multiplying the average price received for the commodity in a fixed base period by the largest index of prices paid. The base period did not change. For about one-third of the commodities, the base period used was the 60 months between August 1909 and July 1914. For the remaining two-thirds, a post-World War I base period (1919–20, or portion thereof) was used. In more recent years, Congress has tinkered with methods in computing the "parity" price of farm commodities, and a variety of terms have been coined—"new," "old," "Transitional" parity. (Anyone interested in a definition of these might write the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, Wash., D. C., and ask for Information Bulletin No. 135.)

Eisenhower promised to continue Federal price supports at 90 percent of Parity—so farmers understood. But shortly after his election, farmers began to hear about "flexible" supports. By "flexible" parity, the Administration means that instead of guaranteeing the farmers a price not less than 90 percent of parity, the level of support could be varied at the discretion of the Sec'y of Agriculture or on the basis of some arbitrary formula. The farmers have widely denounced this "flexible" maneuver. They point out, what is obviously true, that "parity" is a changing thing, that 90 percent of parity varies according to the prices paid and received by farmers, and that "flexible parity is actually a double-flex.

100 percent Parity is now a fighting slogan over many parts of the country. By it, farmers mean that they want 100 percent parity price support for all farm products grown by small and family-size farms. This demand is endorsed by the Facts on Farmers.—Half of the farm families of the nation had a total money income of less than $1,752 in 1954, as compared to an average income of $4,173 for all families. (U. S. Dept, Commerce.)

In 1955, per capita income of the farm population from all sources was $860 as compared with a nonfarm average of $1,922. (U. S. Dept. Agric.)

"Corporation stockholders received more money from dividends in the second half of 1955 than all of the farmers in the country received from farming." (Rep. Lester Johnson of Wisconsin, 3/22/56.)

Farm income for the year 1955 fell off more than one billion dollars from 1954. For the same period, corporate profits for 1,714 firms rose by 30.6 percent.

Bills Pending

H. R. 12: Of the hundreds of bills on agriculture introduced in both Houses, the major one is H. R. 12, which is now in joint conference committee of both houses. While this bill is not as bad as the one originally proposed by the Administration, it falls short of what the farmers want.

Recommendation: Write your Congressman in support of the inclusion of a 100-percent parity provision in this bill.

S. 3092: A bill to provide for the distribution of surplus food commodities to persons in the U. S. who are eligible for it, by the use of a Food Stamp Plan. (Introduced by Sen. Kefauver; reported to the Committee on Agriculture.)

Recommendation to Panel: To approve.

CONFERENCE FOR LEGISLATION IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST

PANEL "INTEGRATION OR SEGREGATION"

The most important issue now facing the American people is Civil Rights. The Supreme Court decision of May 17, 1954 desegregating the schools has brought into sharp focus the glaring discrimination against the Negro people. The right to vote, personal safety, equality of opportunity in jobs, as well as the right to education, are questions that must be squarely answered. Not since Reconstruction have the Negro people been so firmly united in the resolve to achieve freedom. The overwhelming majority of Americans, regardless of color or creed, are in sympathy with these demands. United action can break the Dixiecrat resistance and win first-class citizenship for the Negro people.

Pending Bills

Hundreds of bills have been introduced in Congress embodying one or another aspect of the Civil Rights program. Two of these bills have been reported out of a subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee and are now before the full Committee of the House. They are: H. R. 627, an Omnibus Civil Rights Bill, and H. R. 259, an anti-lynching bill—both introduced by Congressman Emanuel Celler and others

H. R. 627: 1. Establishes a Commission on Civil Rights under the Executive branch of the Government; 2. Provides for a Special Assistant Attorney General to be in charge of a Civil Rights Division of the Dept. of Justice; 3. Establishes a Joint Committee on Civil Rights of seven members of the Senate and seven of the House with the responsibility of continuous study of matters relating to civil rights, and of holding hearings; 4. Establishes penalties for intimidating or injuring any person in the exercise of his Constitutional rights; 5. Provides for civil suit to recover damages; 6. Includes among Federal rights: (a) The right to be immune from exactions of fine or deprivation of property without due process of law; (b) The right to be immune from punishment for alleged criminal offense except after a fair trial; (c) The right to be immune from physical violence applied to exact testimony or compel confession; (d) The right to be free of illegal restraint of person; (e) The right to protection of person and property without discrimination by reason of race, color, religion, or national origin; (f) The right to vote as protected by Federal law; 7. Spells out the rights of political participation and provides for penalties for those interfering with that right; 8. Prohibits discrimination and segregation in interstate transportation.

Cong. Roosevelt of California and Brownson of Indiana are circulating a Discharge Petition on this bill. 218 signatures of Congressmen are needed to bring the bill out for a vote before the House. The N. Y. Times pointedly said on March 22: "Observers agreed that it would be politically difficult for many members to withhold their signatures in this election year."

Recommendation to the panel: Get After Your Congressman Now to Sign the Discharge Petition!

H. R. 259: 1. Outlaws any attempt to commit violence upon any person because of his race, color, religion, or national origin; 2. Any person who wilfully instigates, incites, organizes, aids, abets, or commits a lynching by any means shall be subject to fine and imprisonment of not less than $1,000 and one year, and not more than $10,000 and ten years; 3. Any peace officer who shall have neglected, refused, or wilfully failed to make diligent effort to prevent a lynching or to protect anybody under his custody shall be subject to $5,000 fine and five years imprisonment.

Recommendation to the panel: Write to Cong. Emanuel Celler, Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, for public hearings on this bill, and to report it out favorably for a vote on the floor of the House.

Proposed Legislation

Powell Amendment: Rep. Powell proposes to amend the Kelly Bill on Federal Aid to Education when it comes up for a vote in the House, to provide that no Federal funds shall be given to States or areas which do not comply with the Supreme Court decision on desegregation. He has on several occasions said that if President Eisenhower would issue a declaration embodying this proposal, he would not press for an amendment. The President has repeatedly failed to do this.

Recommendation to the panel: Write to Congressman urging public support for this amendment.

CONFERENCE FOR LEGISLATION IN THE NATIONAL INTEREST

PANEL: "INTEGRATION OR SEGREGATION"

Excerpts from Speech by Sen. Lehman on Eastland in the U.S. Senate Mar. 2, 1956

Mr. President, I cannot vote for the pending resolution naming the senior Senator from Mississippi to the chairmanship of the Judiciary Committee. I must ask that my vote be recorded in the negative.

The act of electing the Senator from Mississippi chairman of the Judiciary Committee is an act of the Senate, under the rules, making him an agent of the Senate in carrying out the duties of Chairman of the Committee. That committee handles and disposes of more than half the legislation that is submitted to the Senate. That committee handles most legislation dealing with civil rights and civil liberties.

Rule 24 of the rules of the Senate plainly calls upon the Senate to elect its committee chairmen. The act of approving the designation of a particular person as chairman of a particular committee is an act of deliberation and is a conscious act of affirmation.

There is a tradition of seniority. I am informed that it has been breached in the past on a number of occasions without destroying the tradition. In the case of the Senator from Mississippi, in relation to the chairmanship of the Judiciary Committee, I believe that his particular prejudices, views, and activities—to which he may be freely entitled as a private individual and as an American citizen—completely disqualify him from presiding as chairman of the Judiciary Committee

I certainly will not cast my vote, regardless of any tradition of the Senate, in favor of such a designation.

The Senator from Mississippi has said on the floor of the Senate: "We will protect and maintain white supremacy throughout eternity."

He has said on the floor of the Senate: "The Negro race is an inferior race."

He has said on the floor of the Senate: "Let me say frankly that in my judgment the CIO and PAC are Communist organizations."

He has said on the thoor of the Senate: "New York, for all practical purposes, is a Communist State."

He has said on the floor of the Senate that the Supreme Court has become "indoctrinated and brain-washed by left-wing pressure groups."

But the Senator from Mississippi has not confined himself to speeches on the floor of the Senate and to press statements. He has joined in establishing organizations, and is a leader of those organizations, whose purpose is to nullify provisions of the Constitution, as interpreted by the Supreme Court.

He has joined in urging Southern States to declare themselves in defiance of the Supreme Court decision, according to the N. Y. Times, Dec. 14, 1955.

He has associated himself in a leadership role with the so-called White Citizens Councils whose purpose is to organize defiance to the Constitution of the U. S., as interpreted by the Supreme Court, and which have engaged in activities which I consider to be wholly un-American and dangerous to American democracy.

I believe that Senator Eastland is a symbol of racism in America.

I believe that Senator Eastland is a symbol of defiance to the Constitution of the U. S. as interpreted by the Supreme Court.

I believe that Senator Eastland is precluded by philosophy, conviction and activities from presiding over the Senate Judiciary Committee as chairman in an impartial way, and from discharging the agency of the Senate in that regard.

I shall therefore vote against the pending resolution.

PANEL: "INTEGRATION OR SEGREGATION"

Remarks of Sen. Lehman on Pres. Eisenhower's Attitude to the Civil Rights Crisis and the Southern "Manifesto" in the U. S. Senate, Mar. 16, 1956

Only yesterday President Eisenhower spoke of moderation in this matter of civil rights. He warned against what he called extremists. Mr. President, I am for moderation. We are all for moderation. But what does moderation in this instance mean. And who does he identify as the extremists?

Does he picture himself as a mediator between two contending factions, the rights and merits of whose respective positions he is unable to assess? In this situation, is he a neutralist?

Mr. President, I am frankly not a neutralist here. I am a partisan, a participating partisan. I identify myself with anybody and everybody who is suffering from discrimination. While they are suffering and are being denied their basic rights, I am not without pain, and I do not feel my rights to be secure. The extremists are those who deny the rule of law and defy the sanctity of law. I cannot stand above the battle, like Pres. Eisenhower, and say with fine impartiality that both sides must show restraint.

Those who go about obeying the law in an orderly and practical manner are the moderates. Those who defy and resist the law are law violators, and are not to be judged in the same scale with those who suffer from the indignities of the violators of the law.

What are the facts? The fact is that two years ago, the Supreme Court by unanimous vote, decided that segregation in the public schools was unconstitutional and specifically repugnant to the Fourteenth Amendment. This week there was read into the Congressional Record a Manifesto signed by 19 members of the Senate and 77 members of the House on this subject. That action, that Manifesto by these of our colleagues cannot go unchallenged. Oh, I know that the Manifesto calls for the use of all "lawful" means to overturn the decision of the Supreme Court. But these words are in support of action in some States to defy the law and to prevent its enforcement. That is not lawful action.

What is the substance of the situation? The substance is that a vast number of people in the Southern states were and are being denied the equal protection of the laws, and were being set apart and treated as pariahs in our society in access to public facilities supported by general taxes. Who can possibly justify the continuation, for one needless moment, of this intolerable discrimination, of this oppression?

Do I hear it said, as it has been said, that this is not discrimination or oppression? Who says that? It is not the Negro who says that. It is those who practise discrimination and oppression who deny its nature. I scarcely think that they are competent witnesses.

What do our fellow Americans of darker skin say? Today they are crying out that it is discrimination, and it is oppression, and they can bear it no longer. They are the ones who feel pain and indignity, and they are the ones to say what it feels like and what its nature is.

And their cry for equal justice—and no more than that—for the enforcement of the law—and no more than that—is echoed throughout the land by white and black, by the heart and conscience of America which knows no distinctions of race, creed, or color. I am convinced that the deep devotion of all our people, including those in the South, to the ways of democracy will prevail in the end.

It should be encouraging to all of us how much compliance there has already been with the Supreme Court decision. Of the 17 states and the Dist, of Columbia in which segregation was practiced in the public schools on the date of the decision in May 1954, five states and the Dist, of Columbia are already well along in the integration process; more than one-fourth of all. Seven states are either divided internally as to what to do, or just engaged in watchful waiting, permitting, in some few cases, some school districts to go ahead and integrate. Five states are at this time actively resisting the Supeme Court decision—less than a fourth of the original total number. So in a sense, we can see how the battle is going. It is only a small minority of the states which seek actively to defy the Constitution.

"Dear Congressman"

When you write your Representative, show him that you understand that he must act in the public interest. He wants to know what you think because it is his best gauge of public opinion. A well-considered letter is your most effective weapon for good government.

HOW A DILL BECOMES A LAW

1 It is introduced in either or both houses and assigned to the appropriate committee

2. Public hearings are held by the committee. Let the committee hear from VOIL

3. Executive sessions of the committee may "kill" or "bottle up" the bill (fail to report it): report it with or without amendments; draft a new bill and report that.

4. If reported, debate may be held followed by a vote of the full house.

your legislator hear from you.

5. If passed by both houses but with major differences, a "conference committee" must reconcile the bills which must then be repassed by both houses.

6. When finally passed by both houses it is sent to the President who may sign or veto it. Let your Executive hear from you.

7. It may be passed over a veto by a two-thirds vote in each of the two houses of the Congress.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEES

Each bill introduced is referred to the appropriate committee. Final passage depends upon who introduced the bill, what groups favor it and how vigorough they support it.

The majority party of a house controls the majority and chairmanship of each committee. A legislative body seldom rejects the findings of its committees. A legislator's vote in committee is more important than his vote in the full legislative body.

If a committee fails to issue a report, the bill can only be brought to the floor by a discharge petition. In the House of Representatives, 218 signatures of Congressmen are needed to discharge the bill from the committee.

PANEL. "THE SOVEREIGN CITIZEN"

Memo on the Walter-McCarran Act

Public Law 414, commonly referred to as the Walter-McCarran Act, became the law of the land on June 27, 1952.

On the eve of enactment, the French liner "Liberte" docked in New York harbor and the crew was not permitted ashore since they had refused to answer questions about their political associations and affiliations. The French Chamber of Deputies was considering a retaliatory resolution of denunciation, till mounting pressure forced a relaxation of questions.

The storm of national and international criticism of the Law since its enactment has consistently swelled. An idea of the national organizations opposed to the Law can be gleaned from the attached folder.

During the Presidential election campaign in 1952, both Eisenhower and Stevenson made a big issue of the Law and pledged to work for its drastic revi-After inauguration, President Eisenhower did submit a 10-point program which Congress ignored, and on Feb. 8, 1956, in a message to Congress he made a major pronouncement purporting to ease the Law. (N. Y. Times, 2-9-56). He dealt with immigration at great length and made many proposals: basing quotas on 1950 census; easing fingerprinting requirements; preferential status to certain individuals; unused quotas of one year carried to the next, etc. But seriously lacking was any revision of the deportation, denaturalization and registration provisions of the Law. In short, the only proposal as far as the 14 million foreign born in this land are concerned, was to limit the judicial review of those who fell victim to the Law.

In effect, what the President proposed was to further curb the rights of the foreign-born at a time when those rights need to be safeguarded and extended.

Today, more than fifty bills are pending in the House and Senate Judiciary Committees for revision or repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law. The late Sen. Kilgore called public hearings on the Law last November—the first since its enactment—but with the ascension of Sen. Eastland to Chairmanship of the Senate Judiciary Committee, hopes of Senate action during this session were severely set back. The picture in the House is similar, in that Rep. Walter, co-sponsor of the Law, is Chairman of the Immigration and Naturalization sub-Committee of the House Judiciary Committee.

The most positive act in the House to force a bill to the floor was the circulation of a Discharge Petition by Rep. Anfuso (D. Brooklyn) to bring his bill H. R. 501 out of Walter's hands and to the floor for a vote. Signatures to the Petition have been slow in coming, but at last reports, the number had increased. Rep. Anfuso's bill is similar to the Lehman-Celler bill which died in the 81st Congress.

Action.—The most positive approach at the moment would be a legislative campaign urging all Congressmen to sign Rep. Anfuso's Discharge Petition to bring H. R. 501 to the floor for a vote.

It was the job of the informers to "prove" that the words of the defendants—which did not advocate "force and violence"—actually meant something other than what they said.

Chief among the informers was ex-Communist Louis Budenz, who produced the concept of "the Aesopian Language of V. I. Lenin." Thus the informers charged that the words of the defendants were "Aesopian language" and had hidden sinister meanings. In short, the defendants were prosecuted not for what they said, but for what someone said they really meant. This truly fabulous line of argument reads like a page from the topsy-turvy world of "Alice in Wooderland," not the proceedings of a court of law in the United States.

Judge Harold R. Medina instructed the jury that it could find the Communists guilty not because what they taught but because of their purpose in teaching it, that is, the "intent" to overthrow the Government. Later, reviewing Medina's theory, Supreme Court Justice Douglas termed this a dangerous doctrine. He said it means that "the crime then depends not on what is taught but on who the teacher is. That is to make freedom of speech turn out on what is said, but on the intent with which it is said. Once we start down that road we enter territory dangerous to the liberties of every citizen."

There are many pitfalls in the use of informers' testimony. First, the informers themselves appear to be unreliable. Their testimony is often self-contradictory. The affair of Harvey Matusow, who confessed to a whole series of lies, shows the danger of accepting the word of the FBI's paid informers.

Matusow, speaking of his part as a witness in the second Smith Act trial against Communist leaders, later revealed:

"Part of my task as a witness was to conrince the jury that when they said one thing they meant another. One might say, surely the Government's case was stronger than that. But it wasn't. It depended also upon outside forces, such as McCarthy and the Cold War atmosphere."

Again, Matusow confessed:

"I went on to twist (Communist leader Pettis) Perry's remarks about building a stronger newspaper, a stronger Communist Party, into remarks of violence. Perry actually had spoken about ending discrimination against the Negro people, he himself being a Negro I turned this into a sinister plot of the Communists. . . ."

Second, the prosecution made little or no attempt to prove that the defendants understood or interpreted the Marxist books as advocating "force and violence." Many of the books were written under tyrannical conditions, such as those of Czarist Russia. As the Supreme Court noted earlier, in 1943, when it reversed the denaturalization of Communist official William Schneiderman:

"Political writings are often over-exaggerated polemics bearing the imprint of the period and place in which written."

Third, because the number of books introduced as evidence was so great, it would take months to read them, years to understand them. It may be safely inferred that the jurors decided on the nature of Communist theory not by full study of the books themselves, but either on prejudice or on the biased testimony of paid informers.

The decision of the jury was not suprising in the circumstances. Prospective jurors had been asked such intimidating questions as "What or ganizations have you belonged to?" and "Has any of these organizations ever made any 'expressions' of advocacy or of friendliness to Communism in general?"

At least one juror was virulently anti-Communist and openly explained during the course of the trial: "These God-damn Communists! If anyone ever mentions Marxism-Leninism to me, I'll knock his block off." This was the atmosphere in which a verdict of guilty was handed down.

WHAT WAS THE SUPREME COURT'S VERDICT ON THE SMITH ACT?

In 1951 the Supreme Court upheld the Constitutional validity of the Smith Act by a vote of six-to-two. However, the dissenting opinions of Justices Douglas and Black were in strong protest, and in the country at large a sharp and questioning protest was voiced.

The New York Times called the decision "one of the most momentous in the recent history of the tribunal." it continued:

"The Court has given the Department of Justice a long-avaited green light to go after suspected groups and individuals.... This undoing of the Communist Party has been achieved only by a violent upheaval in our judicial concepts. The disenfranchisement of a political party is not an easy price for Americans to pay for any sort of security." (June 10, 1951)

Justice Black in his dissent declared:

"I want to emphasize what the crime involved in

Legislative Conference Called by 46 Notables

A Conference for Legislation in the National Interest will be held in Manhattan Center, April 7, it was announced yesterday by the sponsoring committee of 46 distinguished citizens.

The conference will focus attention on the failure of Congress to act in the interest of the people.

"Too many Americans," the committee declared, "accept as normal the fact that members of Congress are the private brokers of big business rather than the servants of all the people. We tend to forget how quickly legislators responded in the past to the pressures of a determined citizenry."

Chairman of the sponsoring committee is Angus Cameron, publisher. The secretary is Albert L. Colloms, attorney.

In addition to a program of action on specific proposals, the conference is expected to set up a Watchdog Committee for Legislation in the National Interest.

A partial list of sponsors follows:
Rev. Lee H. Ball; Carleton Beals, author; Prof. Shepard B. Clough; Prof. Ephraim Cross; Dr. W. E. B. DuBois; Arnaud D'Usseau, playwright; Prof. Henry Pratt Fairchild; Simon Federman, businessman; Rev. Kenneth Ripley Forbes; Milton H. Friedman, attorney; Dr. Ralph H. Gundlach, psychotherapist; Dr. Joseph B. Furst, psychiatrist; Dashiell Hammett, author; Peter K. Hawley, State Chairman, ALP; Robert W. Justice, chairman, Harlem Affairs Committee; Rockwell Kent; Al Kuchler, Northeastern Farmers Union; Florence H. Luscomb; Clifford T. McAvoy; John T. McManus, National Guardian; Eve Merriam, poet; Prof. Philip Morrison, physicist; Harvey O'Connor, writer; Cyril Philip, businessman; Victor Rabinowitz, attorney; Anton Refregier, artist; Bertha C. #### Wisconsin Lesson

From an overall viewpoint, the Wisconsin primary results would seem to show that President Eisenhower's reelection is not as snugly in the bag as the moguls of public opinion would have us believe.

The farm crisis is having profound anti-Republican effects in the midwest belt, and this can be decisive in a national election. But, as far as we can judge from this distance, it looks as if there was a shift among the Negro people and workers in Eisenhower's direction.

If so, the reasons are not hard to find. In Congress, the Southern Democratic bloc is riding high and is shaping its party's actions, or lack of them, on civil rights. Except for a scattering of valiant voices among Northern Democratic liberals, the dominant tendency in that party is one of appearement of the racists in the name of "party unity."

President Eisenhower and his administration bear the major responsibility for failure to enforce the desegregation law and to press for a civil rights program in Congress. But the capitulation of the Democratic national leadership to its Southern racist bloc tends to shield Eisenhower from the political consequences of his inaction

The Wisconsin primary results should make it clear to the Democratic politicians of the North that they face a substantial loss of their base among workers and Negro people if they persist in playing footsie with the racists on this historic issue.

Sen. Estes Kefauver seems to be one of the few Democratic politicians aware of this, and he has talked in forthright fashion. But neither he nor any other Democratic standard-bearer will be able to overcome the weight of Democratic paralysis on civil rights legislation in Congress.

The inability or unwillingness of the liberal, pro-labor Congressional Democratic elements to battle aggressively as regards other major social measures—housing, schools, elimination of provisions for state "right-to-work" laws in Taft-Hartley, social security expansion—also tends to strengthen Eisenhower's political position among workers.

Above all, Eisenhower's popularity still rests mainly on the issue of peace. Here, too, the Democratic leadership in Congress has been startlingly ready to provide material for posters showing him holding the dove.

Congress goes back into session next week, after an Easter recess. Should a spirited struggle be waged for civil rights, disarmament, economic aid to undeveloped lands as against military aid, housing, health, social security expansion, and labor's rights, Eisenhower's true role as front man for reactionary finance capital will be the more clearly exposed and concessions wrested for the people.

But this can happen only if the people are in motion. In this connection, the conference tomorrow for Legislation in the National Interest at Manhattan Center is significant. It should be well attended.

A, S, U, Calls Rally To Protest to Butler

MARCANTONIO TO SPEAK: MEETINGS SET ON 110 OTHER CAMPUSES

Rep. Vito Marcantonio (N. Y., ALP) will address an academic freedom rally of Columbia University students tomorrow noon on the University's South Field, it was announced by the Columbia chapter of the American Student Union, sponsors of the rally.

The open-air meeting has been called as a protest against President Nicholas Murray Butler's recent warning that dissension with the university's official policy on the European war would not be allowed on the campus.

The rally will be the first of its kind since Columbia classes began the semester and has been timed to coincide with nationwide peace demonstrations sponsored on 110 other campuses by the American Student Union.

Nine other New York City campuses will be involved in the Thursday noon actions, called as part of the national student "Walkout on War." Trade union officers and local liberals addressing the meetings along with local campus figures are: Rep. Marcantonio and Louis Burnham, Youth chairman, National Negro Congress (CCNY Uptown Day): Arthur Osman, president, Local 65, United Wholesale and Warehouse Employes (CCNY Uptown Evening); Morris Watson, international vice president, American Newspaper Guild (CCNY Downtown Day): Thomas Jones, chairman, New York Youth Congress (CCNY Downtown Evening); George Murphy, publicity director, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (Hunter College); Rev. #### Negro Leaders Protest Attacks Against Communist Candidates

A group of distinguished Negroes, including Paul Robeson, Richard Wright, Arthur Huff Fauset, Aaron Douglas, warned today of the danger confronting the 12,000,000 Negroes in the United States in the increasing attacks against racial, political, religious and other minority groups, and protested against interference with the right of a minority Party, the Communist Party, to a place on the ballot.

Defending the electoral rights of the Communist Party, they pointed out, does not commit them to support the Communist Party or its candidates.

"We deem it an ill omen for the entire American people that attacks are increasing against racial, political, religious and other minority groups," the statement read in part.

"We know that when any minority is deprived of its democratic rights, it is particularly a threat to the largest single minority group in the country, the twelve million Negro Americans.

The leading Negroes in various fields of endeavor point out that their people especially have been victims of a terror, depriving them of their political rights under the 13th, 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution, and that, in the South today, four million out of the nine million Negroes are disfranchised, through poll tax, "white primary" and various other restrictions.

"In these days of war and heightened reaction, we are wholeheartedly concerned in defending our democratic institutions and in keeping our country at peace. For this reason we are profoundly disturbed over the war hysteria which is jeopardizing constitutional liberties.

"These attacks against the ballot rights of the Communist Party—the largest minority Party—are all the more alarming because the Communist Party is legal under Federal laws, as well as under the laws of the respective States. It represents a point of view, as do other political parties, which the American people are entitled to hear and decide for themselves," the statement goes on to sav

Since the Communist Party is the only Party with a Negro as a national candidate, it also threatens directly the Negro people and their right to hold a public office, they add.

"We cannot help believing that interference with the lawful election rights of the Communist Party," the statement reads, "would be utilized by those who would like to prevent all Negroes from holding office, irrespective of party affiliations "

The statement calls upon all Americans "to speak out for free constitutional elections in accordance with the democratic traditions of our country," and states that "in urging the lawful rights of the Communist Party to the ballot, we are raising our voice for the liberation of all Americans regardless of their political inclinations."

The statement was signed by:

Paul Robeson, internationally famous Negro actor-singer, New York.

Arthur Huff Fauset, distinguished educator and historian, Philadelphia, Pa.

Aaron Douglas, noted artist and mural painter, New York.

Max Yergan, director of the International Committee on African Affairs, and president of National Negro Congress, New York.

Text of Statement in Defense of Communist Party

Following is the full statement of 450 leading figures in America urging the President and Congress to uphold the Constitutional rights of the Communist Party of the United States:

*To the President and Congress of the United States:

"We bring to your attention amatter of vital significance to the future of our nation. It is the attitude of our government toward the Communist Party.

"In the recent election the Communist Party was ruled off the ballot, either by executive decision or court action, in fifteen states, In several of these states many persons have been indicted for exercising their legal right to sign a nominating petition. In some cases this action was preceded by intimidating publication of the names of petition signers and by terroristic pressure of organized groups. In West Virginia the Communist candidate for governor was sentenced to from six to fifteen years imprisonment on the charge of misrepresentation in securing petition signatures, the one specific count in the indictment being that he had said the Communists wanted to put a Negro in the White House. On similar but less fantastic grounds. indictments against wholesale Communists have been returned in Pennsylvania.

ORLAHOMA CASES

"In Oklahoma two young men have been sentenced to ten years in prison and to $5,000 fine under a state law which forbids advocacy of the violent overthrow of the government, one without proof of anything except membership in the Communist Party, the other without proof of anything except possession of Communist literature. California has passed a law forbidding the organization the use of that word. Congress has passed and the President has signed a law which deprives Communists of the right to work on WPA. A law now pending in Congress would deprive Communists of the right to work in defense industries.

"Such undemocratic legislation has been encouraged by recent statements from government officials in Washington. The real issues in industrial disputes have been obscured by reference to Communist influence. An official whose duty in the matter is limited to investigation has encroached upon legislative and judicial authority, by informing the nation through the press that the Communist Party 'does advocate the violent overthrow of the government' and that while it is not his province to say that the Party should be outlawed nevertheless investigation is tantamount to outlawry."

"This ocurse of events leads toward an attempt nationally to outlaw the Communist Party, either directly or by a general formula which can be used for that purpose by strained judicial interpretation. just as the phrase 'force and violence' in state criminal syndicalism laws has for years been used to deprive wage earners of the right to organize.

PARTY RECORD IS OPEN

"We would point out that no basis in fact hase been offered for this attempt in support of the attitudes and actions that lead up to it, or for placing the Communist Party in the same category with organizations which drill or arm their members.

"The Communist Party has been submitting itself to the franchise of the American people for twenty years. For all that time its program and its activities are an open record. In the few cases in which one of its members has been tried for advocating force and violence, the evidence has not been about anything they have done, nor about the Party program, but about the writings of earlier Communists, and in particular the implications drawn from these by the presecution.

"In its Constitution the Communist Party declares that it 'upholds the democratic achievements of the American people. It stron ique, group, circle, faction or larly rrty which conspires or acts to LIU be vert, undermine, weaken or 'hrow any or all institutions

It perican democracy whereby and fan prity of the American peoistration obtained power to dethat only seir own destiny in any with the att condemns and opspeaking the olicies and acts of sub-

STEP TO FASCISM

"We submit to you that the American way of determining the legality of any political party is its program of action and its deeds, not any opinions about the implications of theoretical writings. We have plenty of law to stop any acts against our government or any conspiracies for such acts and our officials have sufficient willingness to use those laws in time.

"We further submit to you that if any political party, no matter. how radical its proposals, can be debarred from appeal to the franchise of our people, the first step in the path that leads to the totalitarian state has been taken. That such action is a sten toward the overthrow of the American system of government is clearly shown by the record of the nations in Europe which took it. In our own nation the attack upon the constitutional rights of Communists has been followed by a general assault upon the rights of labor, upon progressive legislation, upon academic freedom. It is clear that if the wave of reaction is to be stopped it must be checked when it attacks the most unpopular political party.

"Consequently we, who are not Communists, whose concern goes beyond the preservation of their constitutional rights to the maintenance of the democratic way of life as the road into the future, urge you, the President, to exercise your authority and influence to prevent those under you from stimulating un-American actions against Communists by undemocratic utterances.

"We also urge all members of Congress to oppose any legislation, direct or indirect, that would take away from Communists those constitutional guarantees which must be kept open for all if in the future they are to be available for any."

Negro and White, Side by Side, Can Beat War

"Negro and white, unite and fight,"

That honored—and honorable—slogan took on new meaning last night as 500 Negro and white people gathered in the Veda room to discuss the Negro and the war, and to pledge themselves to fight with every ounce of strength and courage against the war.

"You must go back to your homes," admonished John P. Davis, Executive Secretary of the National Negro Congress, "and you must talk to the Negro people in terms of their own needs, their own problems in your own communities."

DEFINITE PROGRAM

"Only then can you effectively organize the Negro people to give expression to their deep and undying hatred of war—their hatred of this imperialist war, this war for profits and power.

It was upon this note that Chairman George B. Murphy, Jr., Administrative Secretary of the National Negro Congress, adjourned the meeting. The delegates and observers left not only with broadened knowledge, but with a program to carry out in their own hometowns.

Cornerstone of that program, as outlined not only by the panel speakers but by almost every rank-and-filer who spoke, is the fight for economic democracy.

"It's jobs we must have," cried Edith Lively, delegate from the Connecticut Federation of Negro Youth Organizations. "Thousands and millions of dollars are going into 'defense' production in my hometown-yet Negroes are almost completely barred from employment.

CIO UNIONS HELP

"We realize that Negroes can't get anywhere alone. Black workers and white workers must fight together for improved conditions. That's why we have relied greatly upon the CIO unions in our area to help us knock down the color bar—and we are glad to report that we are, with the unions' help, succeeding."

"I was in the last war," said Sam Patterson, IWO delegate, a native of the British West Indies. "Negroes fought in the British army against Negroes recruited by the German army—to see which imperialist group should maintain domination over the Negro people."

"I came out of the war determined that I'd never fight again—except for the liberation of the Negro people. And there can be no freedom for the Negro people while the British empire, as it stands today, keeps its grip on colored peoples.

Those sycophantic leaders of the Negro people who will complain of the manifestations of the war program, who will denounce discrimination against Negroes in the armed forces and in arms industries, and in the same breath approve the drive to war as a whole, were castigated by Edward Strong, Secretary of the Southern Negro Youth Congress

"Certain leaders," said Strong, "say the war would be all right if they'd only get Jim Crow out of the army. We must fight vigorously to expose this sham.

The panel conference adopted several significant resolutions after heated discussions of a number of them.

One denounced anti-Semitism among Negroes as a device creating division and, through division, thwarting democracy. Another called for the creation of a National Peace Party.

Still another endorsed the Marcantonio bill to penalize discrimination against Negroes and any other minority groups in the army and defense industries.

Several were aimed at corporations, such as Vultee and Glenn L. Martin Aircraft and Sperry Gyroscope, whose discrimination against Negroes is flaunted at the very time they are enjoying fat profits from government contracts.

To New Masses: To many persons highly placed in this country, the Roosevelt administration's prosecution of Earl Browder, which resulted in the Communist Party secretary's conviction and sentence to four years in prison on a passport technicality, may come as a welcome relief.

These individuals would have us believe that in keeping Mr. Browder out of circulation the principles for which this great American and his party stand may more easily be kept out of circulation too. They are horribly wrong. And curiously enough I believe that they understand very well that they are wrong, but are unable to do anything by way of helping themselves, so mired are they in the contradictions of the society in which we in America live.

The principles for which Mr. Browder and his party—a perfectly legal party—stand are American to the core. They are the principles which have been nourished by the struggles of the American people for freedom, peace, and security since the founding of this country.

Frederick Douglass fought for those principles; so did Nat Turner, Denmark Vesey, Harriet Tubman, John Brown, Sojourner Truth, and many others. They are the principles for which the Negro people and all other oppressed groups in America fight today. These principles will live on forever, because you simply cannot put the people out of circulation.

The justice for all the people for which Mr. Browder and his party wage battle, will continue to be fought for while he is in jail. I have no doubt of that. The fight to get him out of jail is well under way even before he gets in. And so I salute Mr. Browder for his courage, and for his refusal to defile the great American tradition for a mess of gold.

As a Negro, member of an oppressed people in America, I am more convinced than ever that Mr. Browder and the common people of our land will win out in the end, no matter what the cost.

Washington, D. C. GEORGE MURPHY.

Administrative Secretary,
National Negro Congress.

FBI Is Main Target at Rights Session

FASCISM, AMERICAN STYLE, IS THEME AT OPENING OF 2-DAY CONFERENCE HERE

Denunciations of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as an instrument in the establishment of "fascism, American style," were made by speakers at the opening of a 2-day session of a Bill of Rights Conference attended by 700 persons vesterday at the Henry Hudson Hotel.

Although other branches of the Government were brought under attack, the FBI emerged as the chief target of the speakers. The conference was called by Paul J. Kern, former Municipal Civil Service Commissioner, and was attended by teachers, ministers, artists, scientists, and other professional groups.

O. John Rogge, former Assistant Attorney General and member of the Progressive party, praised the FBI as "the best investigative organization in the world in the field of crime," but said it had no business in "the world of thought control"

Referring to Government employees who have been dismissed as the result of loyalty investigations, he said they had had no opportunity to face their accusers. In fact, he charged, the Loyalty Board in one case admitted it did not even know who the accuser was.

"We have been encouraged to become a nation of spies and informers," he declared. "Our neighbors are being encouraged to go to the FBI with all kinds of junk. That is not the America I grew up in.'

The Bureau files introduced into the spy trial of Judith Coplon were denounced by Joseph Forer, member of the constitutional liberties committee of the National Lawvers Guild. He said the papers showed that the Bureau "collects gossip and encourages snooping."

The FBI files, he said, refute J. Edgar Hoover's assertion that his organization does not investigate political views. He charged the Bureau with violating Federal laws by wiretapping and opening private mail and said it "commits many more Federal crimes than it ever detects.

Bertram A. Washington, chairman of the Federal Employees Defense Committee, declared that 90 percent of the loyalty cases in the Post Office Department involved Negroes and Jews. Yet, he said, not a single act or utterance of disloyalty has been charged against a postal employe.

Two defendants in the trial of the Communist leaders, John Gates and City Councilman Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., received ovations when they spoke. Gates denounced Federal Judge Harold Medina for his "sneering, insulting atti-Admitting that some of the defendants had concealed certain facts to get employment, he called it "shameful that any Jew, Negro, or Catholic must conceal facts to get a job."

Mr. Davis said charges that the Communists were conspiring to overthrow the Government were a smokescreen thrown up by "the men of Wall Street, the imperialists who wish to conquer the world, to drown all peoples in blood, to suck the world dry for their own profits."

Farrell Dobbs, national chairman of the Socialist Workers Party, was booed down by the audience when he attempted to say the conference "is concerned only with the Communist Party and its associates." Last Thursday, President Truman referred to the conference as "that gang."

Mr. Davis and Paul Robeson spoke at a dinner of the conference last night. They will speak again at the closing session today, as will Representative Vito Marcantonio.

Rights Group Bars Socialist Pardon

ROBESON HEADS FIGHT ON PLEA FOR RESTORING LIBERTIES TO WORKERS PARTY MEMBERS

A resolution calling for restored civil liberties for members of the Socialist Workers party, a Trotskyite organization, was decisively rejected yesterday by 800 delegates to a Bill of Rights Conference at the Henry Hudson Hotel.

The resolution was the only one of twenty-one prepared by a conference committee that was not passed intact. It originally read: "We call upon the President to grant pardons and restore the civil liberties of the eighteen members of the Socialist Workers party convicted under the Smith Act for the advocacy of its political program."

After protests by Paul Robeson, singer and Soviet apologist; Simon W. Gerson, publicity director of the Communist party, and James Durkin, president of the United Office and Professional Workers of America, CIO, the session adopted a substitute resolution. It read: "We pledge to defend all anti-fascist victims of the Smith Act."

KU KLUX KLAN BARRED

In speaking for denial of civil liberties to the Socialist Workers party, Mr. Robeson asked the conference, "Would you give civil rights to the Ku Klux Klan?"

"No." chorused the delegates.

"These men are the allies of fascism who want to destroy the new democracies of the world," the singer shouted. "Let's not get confused. They are the enemies of the working class."

Speaking in favor of the resolution was Paul J. Kern, former Municipal Civil Service Commissioner and acting chairman of the conference. He said that free speech should not be denied to any group because of a difference of political opinion

Prof. Thomas Emerson, of the Yale University School of Law, also defended the advocacy of civil rights for the Trotskyite party. He said that a denial of political freedom for any party, irrespective of its platform, would constitute "a repudiation of the Bill of Rights."

Farrell Dobbs, national chairman of the Socialist Workers, vigorously attacked exclusion of his party from civil rights protests.

"Either this conference is going to vote to defend the civil rights of everyone or prove on the record that so far as the Communist party is concerned you would rather wreck a cause than support those with whom you do not agree," Mr. Dobbs said.

OPPOSITION IS WEAK

After Mr. Robeson's attack, the resolution was defeated with only a scattering of opposition from the floor.

Mr. Robeson, in an address to the conference, reaffirmed in essence his previous statement that the Negro people would not take part in "an imperialist war."

"We will fight for peace everywhere and the Negro people will be in the forefront of that struggle, whatever a few phony guys are saying," he asserted. "The Negro people will be a powerful weapon, like China, that will pull its weight in the fight for freedom in the world."

Speaking of his loyalty to the United States, Mr. Robeson concluded, "The final test is that I am here in America today, fighting for my people, whatever the consequences may be, and here I intend to stay.'

Following Mr. Robeson's address, a resolution affirming that "Paul Robeson does indeed speak for us in his fight for Negro rights and in his fight for peace" was adopted unanimously by the 346 Negro delegates.

WHAT THEY'RE AGAINST

The twenty resolutions adopted unanimously by the two-day conference registered opposition to the conspiracy trial of the eleven Communist leaders, the Presidential loyalty order, the House Un-American Activities Committee, deportation for political belief, lynching, and the Taft-Hartley Act, among others. The conference also called for an end to investigations by the Federal Bureau

The conference also called for an end to investigations by the Federal Bureau of Investigation into political, rather than criminal, activities. The delegates also voted for immediate enactment of a full Federal civil rights program.

At the morning session Representative Vito Marcantonio charged that indictment of the Communist leaders was "the ill-begotten child of unscrupulous politicians who were playing a most dangerous fascist game."

The American Labor party leader told the conference that the eleven Communists were indicted only because "unscrupulous backers of Harry Truman, in consort with the Attorney General, decided it would be a good vote-getting proposition" during the 1948 election campaign.

Ania statemen is not true and we ask that it be corrected. A copy of the press release officially launching the Lon-Partisan Committee is enclosed. In fact Mr. Paul Kern is one of the original sponsors of our committee.

Mr. Paul Mern together with Mr. Charles E. Houston of Washington D. C. and Mr. Walter Dodd of Chicago is at present also acting as special counsel for three of the 12 defendents, on trial in boley Square.

Our press release of August 26th clearly outlines the work of the committee. Lies, distortions and red baiting in the press only go to prove to the people the importance of our work. It is becoming increasingly clear to the american memple that the freedom of everyone is in jeoparty, unless there is freedom for everyone, including the communists.

AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

23 WEST 26th STREET NEW YORK 10, N. Y. . MUrray Hill 4-3457

Dear Friend:

Every field of American life is affected by the Walter-McCarran Law. Despite the fact that the Law was supposedly intended to place foreign-born Americans in a second class status. its actual result is to stifle the democratic life of all Americans.

Freedom of the Press, a long cherished freedom fought for since pre-revolutionary days, is seriously in jeopardy because editors and newspapers workers of foreign birth are being hounded, harassed, persecuted and arrested under Walter-McCarran Law provisions.

Deportation or denaturalization proceedings have been initiated against 14 newspaper and magazine editors in an attempt to destroy these publications, which are vociforously opposed to current repressive measures by the Washington administration against its opponents.

Enclosed is An Open Letter to the Attorney General of the United States protesting the threat that Walter-McCarran Law proceedings contain for the American concept of Freedom of the Press. We urge that you use this Open Letter to secure signatures among your friends and associates.

Because these attacks on these individuals, and many others, require wast sums of money to fight in the courts and through public campaigns, we hope that you will also appeal to those who sign the Open Letter to contribute to the fight.

With many thanks for your cooperation,

Sincerely yours

George B. Murphy,

OF THE

GREATER NEW YORK EMERGENCY CONFERENCE ON INALIENABLE RIGHTS

Monday, February 12, 1940

AT

TWO WEST SIXTY-FOURTH STREET - NEW YORK CITY
THE MEETING HOUSE OF THE SOCIETY FOR ETHICAL CULTURE

ശ

Organized anti-democratic forces are threatening the security and freedom of human personality and the rights of minority groups here in the United States. They are dividing, confusing and weakening those who wish to maintain our free democratic institutions. Such forces of oppression and fear, growing stronger because of the war in Europe, must not be permitted to overwhelm us. Never before have our constitutional liberties been under such concerted attack. At this moment we have a special responsibility as a united people to meet our danger and protect our rights. There are literally thousands of non-political organizations in the City of New York which are vitally concerned with the maintenance of the Bill of Rights, with minority and neighborhood relations and with anti-democratic legislation. This Conference is for them.

Dear Friend.

Why have we got inflation? Whats to bleme? You've heard "If labor asks for higher wages, won't prices go even higher?" what about this "short production" industry talks about?

These are some of the questions answered in THE GREAT SWINDLE. Inis film, as for as we know, is the only movie ever made that seriously analyzes our sconemy from labor's point of view. It was produced at the start of the wage raise campaigns and it provides all labor with amunitien. Auto, coal, electric appliances, ment, steel and meny other industries are used as examples in this concrist expect of prices and profits.

THE GREAT SWINDLE, utilizing the same exciting teennique which made DEADLINE FOR ACTION so popular, corbins live action with animation. It tends the story of for arry, and shallows NAK propaganda about the glarious future awaiting his if CPA diss. rou'll enuckly reminiscently as you relieve the wartine confusion on prices and scarolty maion so befuldles form. Foto, a union friend, tries to sut for straight, and in the rocess the film takes apart all the NAM arguments. With great accuracy, it proves to form - and to your addishes - how big business provides one thing and delivers another.

The GREAT SWINDLE is not only THE argument for a wage raise, it also illuminates, as no other modium can do, the general understanding of wages, prices and profits. This is a film year organization will want to own and show many times in the coming months!

Stove Nolson's life is in danger. You can save him.

A fow days ago they looked him in "the hole" at notorious Blawnox grison. No bed, no light, no worm clothes, no medicine; only bread and water to eat, and bits of tissue paper to stuff in his ears so that to infection there won't spread.

And the day after Christmas was Steve Nelson's fiftieth birthday!

By then, he had spent nearly 170 days in prison, deprived of bail while he appears to the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

Ho faces the longest tence--20 years--ever meted out for the "orime" of having north, liteas, under a law more infamous even than ) the Smith Act.

Of the 80-edd vieties of 4. Sm.t. Act, only he is denied bail.

With 20 years of this, bovo ill die in prison.

Will they succeed? Who can stop them?

YOU can't That is why we are telling you these sickening facts. Your contribution can make freedom for Steve Nelson possible, and we ask you, in the name of human decency, liberty, and the sacredness of a man's life, to give.

Summary Proceedings, Michigan Conference To Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend the Rights of Foreign-Born Americans

The Conference was held in the Hotel Tuller, in downtown Detroit, Sunday, November 22, 1953. The 152 delegates, observers, and visitors, including representatives of trade unions, fraternal groups, and youth organizations, expressed great enthusiasm during the Conference proceedings. A highlight of the Conference was the participation of the many Negro delegates who identified the attack on the foreign born with that on the Negro people. Delegates expressed the need for unity among all sections of the population to achieve the Conference objectives.

The morning session, chaired by Mrs. Margarett Nowak, heard a report on the work and accomplishments of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born by the Executive Secretary, Mr. Saul Grossman. Attorney George Crockett gave a comprehensive analysis of some of the current legal problems facing those under attack by the Walter-McCarran Law.

After the lunch recess, the Conference reconvened into two working panels, one on the problems of defense, chaired by Conrad Komorowski, English-Polish journalist, and the other led by Mrs. Peggy Wellman, of the Michigan Committee, on the problems of securing legislation to bring about the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law. The excellent and often heated discussion by the participants in the panels brought forth the program of action enclosed with this summary.

The closing session was chaired by Thomas X. Dombrowski, editor of Glos Ludowy, Polish-American labor weekly. The main speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Carl Marzani, author and film producer, who received a standing ovation at the end of his fighting speech which hailed the tremendous scope of the anti-McCarthy movement.

PROGRAM OF ACTION: I. DEFENSE OF THE VICTIMS OF THE WALTER M'CARRAN LAW

The entire program of the Defense panel came out of the discussion of the members of panel themselves, based upon their own experiences. The spirit of "offense is the best defense" breathed vitality and spirit into the discussion.

The panel agreed on several simple and basic ideas.

1. Every national group must have a defense committee.

2. Every victim must be defended and have his or her own defense committee; no matter how small, no matter where, be it in a union, an organization among friends, in a church, in a neighborhood. Meetings must be held regularly, even if they consist of only a few people. Leaflets and publicity should always be published in the language of the nationality group to which the person belongs, as well as in English.

Such materials must be widely distributed. Experiences related at the panel show that the story must be told to everyone in detail. This includes not only present shopmates, friends, and acquaintances, but old ones also. It also includes figures in the nationality group community, such as doctors, lawyers, storekeepers, and so on.

3. It was agreed that, without sacrificing attention to other cases, the case of Stanley Nowak should become the major campaign for concentration. Victims should link their cases to Nowak's—and the Nowak campaign will be linked to their cases.

All nationality group committees will hold meetings on the Nowak case.

and distribute Nowak material.

The Nowak case is a concentration because Nowak dramatically symbolizes the persecution of the foreign born. Nowak, a worker, labor organizer, State Senator for 10 years, Democratic Party leader in the Senate for 2 years—who has proved his Americanism by deeds while the spotlight of publicity glared steadily on his acts and statements for years, is now slated for de-naturalization.

4. The panel stressed strongly the need for the widest exchange of experiences, for the appearance of victims at affairs of other nationality groups and organizations. This exchange of experiences will strengthen everyone.

5. It was proposed that the Michigan Committee go on the radio. It can and must be done.

6. Emphasis throughout the discussion was on organization. Organization is not only essential for the defense of the individuals, but it is equally imperative to strengthen the campaign to secure repeal of the Walter McCarran Law. The widest contacts with the people and their organizations will be facilitated by the organization of defense committees which function regularly.

This program of action was adopted unanimously by the entire Conference.

EXHIBIT No. 76C

PROGRAM OF ACTION: II. LEGISLATIVE CAMPAIGN

The following proposals were adopted as a guide for the organizations and individuals participating. It was stressed that the success of the Conference depended on the extent to which these proposals were put into action.

1. The Michigan Committee to organize a campaign to memoralize Congress to declare a moratorium on all denaturalization and deportation proceedings until legislation such as the Lehman-Celler bill is acted upon.

Special efforts to be made around the Holiday season to dramatize the effects of the Walter-McCarran Law on families.

2. The Michigan Committee to poll all Congressmen as to their position on the Walter-McCarran Law and the Lehman-Cellar Bill, and publicize the results.

Delegations should be organized to local Congressmen. Delegations should include men and women affected by the Walter-McCarran Law.

4. Existing neighborhood organizations such as religious and civic groups, should be encouraged to hold Open Forums on the Walter-McCarran Law. Congressmen should be incited to attend and state their views.

5. The Michigan Committee should prepare and have available at meetings and gatherings sample telegrams, letters, postcards, and petitions.

6. Youth organizations in churches and other organizations should be encouraged to carry out independent supporting campaigns.

7. Special efforts to be made to reach all National Group organizations.

8. Individuals are urged to write letters to the editors of all papers including the national group press.

9. Dramatize the Walter-McCarran Law at public meetings, by putting on skits based on actual deportation proceedings.

10. Members of trade unions should raise the question on the floor at membership meetings of implementing union resolutions calling for repeal of the Water-McCarran Law by urging action on the Lehman-Cellar Bill. This can also be raised at F. E. P. C. and P. A. C. meetings.

RESOLUTION ON LEHMAN-CELLER BILL

Whereas immigration to these United States, under the Walter-McCarran Law, is being governed through the application of a discriminatory, racist policy;

Whereas eleven million naturalized American citizens find their freedom curtailed and even their right to continue to be citizens of this country seriously threatened by the denaturalization provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law, including Michigan's former State Senator Stanley Nowak, one of 20 Michigan citizens against whom denaturalization proceedings on political grounds have been instituted: and

Whereas three million noncitizens find that they are not entitled to freedom of speech or belief and that they do not have the protection of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution; and more than 325 noncitizens, over sixty in Michigan alone, many of whom came to this country as babies, have been arrested for deportation under the McCarran Law and after having lived here most of their lives, face exile from this country and life-time separation from their families and friends; and

Whereas in response to the people's demand for repeal of this police-state law, eight Senators and 24 Congressmen have jointly introduced the Lehman-Celler Bill as a substitute to be considered by Congress in January 1954; and

Whereas the Lehman-Celler Bill makes some valuable and positive contributions to the fight against the anti-foreign-born hysteria, including in its provisions the elimination of racial and national bias and distinctions between nativeborn and naturalized citizens as well as establishing a statute of limitations in denaturalization and deportation cases; and

Whereas the Lehman-Celler Bill falls short of its announced objectives by adopting some provisions of the present Walter-McCarran Law which perpetuate anti-foreign-born prejudice and hysteria: Therefore be it

Resolved, That this Conference go on record in support of open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill as soon as Congress reconvenes in January 1954, at which time changes may be proposed to make it "truly a return to our basic American traditions"; and be it Further resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Attorney General, local Congressmen, and the press.

EXHIBIT No. 76E

RESOLUTION ON DENATURALIZATION

Whereas an unprecedented attack on the rights of naturalized American citizens has been unleashed with the passage of the Walter-McCarran law; and

Whereas this law provides for the denaturalization of American citizens, no matter how long ago such citizenship was secured, on grounds which are so broad and indefinite that any naturalized citizen may be affected; and

Whereas newly naturalized citizens are placed on parole for periods ranging up to ten years, during which time they are not "first-class" citizens and may be deprived of citizenship for exercising their constitutional right to join organizations of their own choosing; and

Whereas this section of the Walter-McCarran Law has already been used to attack the citizenship of more than 45 people nationally, including a number of trade-unionists like James Lustig and James Matles of the UE; John Steuben, Editor of March of Labor, and former State Senator Stanley Nowak: therefore be it

Resolved. That this Conference go on record condemning the attempt to deprive naturalized citizens of their citizenship; and be it

Further resolved. That we call on Congress to adopt a new law which will be based on the principle that a naturalized citizen should not be threatened with denaturalization for any reason whatsoever, unless it was obtained by clear fraud; and then only if denaturalization proceedings are started within five years of the granting of naturalization; and be it

Finally resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Attorney General, members of Congress, and the National Conference to Repeal the Walter McCarran Act in Chicago.

RESOLUTION FOR MORATORIUM ON DEPORTATIONS AND DENATURALIZATIONS

Whereas in response to the people's demand for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law the Lehman-Celler Bill has been introduced as a substitute to be considered by Congress in January; therefore, be it

Resolved. That this Conference proposes that Congress declare a moratorium on all deportation and denaturalization proceedings until Congress acts on the proposed new legislation; and be it further

Resolved, That this Conference sends copies of this resolution to the Speaker of the House and the President of the United States Senate, to Members of Congress, to the Attorney General, and to the National Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law.

EXHIBIT No. 76F

RESOLUTION ON SUPPORT OF THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF

Whereas the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born for 21 years assisted thousands of foreign-born Americans, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, descent, political belief, or country of origin; and

Whereas the Attorney General seeks to legitimatize the police-state provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law by denaturalizing 10,000 American Citizens 12,000

non-citizens: and

Whereas the Attorney General petitioned the Subversive Activities Control Board to order the registration of the American Committee as a "communist-front" organization; and

Whereas the Attorney General fears that, as long as there is an organization that defends his intended victims and seeks support of the American people for the preservation of civil rights, he will not be able to put into effect his repressive program; and

Whereas the Attorney General's attack on the American Committee is a conscious attempt to deprive the American people of the right to defend victims of oppression and to destroy the right of minorities to be defended in the courts and in public when their liberties are under attack; and

and is attempting to raise $30,000 as a defense fund: therefore be it

Resolved, That we condenin this attack on the American Committee, which is an attack on "the right to defend"; and further be it

Resolved, That we support the fight of the American Committee against the Subversive Activities Control Board proceedings, and pledge our wholehearted, moral and financial support, and be it finally

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Attorney General and the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

RESOLUTION ON THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

Resolved, That this Conference go on record urging all organizations and individuals in Michigan to participate in the National Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend its Victims, which will be held at Walsh's Hall, in Chicago, Illinois, on December 12 and 13, 1953.

EXHIBIT No. 76G

RESOLUTION ON SAUL GROSSMAN CASE

Whereas Saul Grossman, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, has been cited for contempt of Congress; and

Whereas Mr. Grossman is now under indictment for the alleged contempt and is scheduled to stand trial in Washington, D. C., on December 21, 1953; and

Whereas the citation and indictment were the result of Mr. Grossman's refusal to turn over to the witch-hunters the books, records, correspondence, and other material of the organization; therefore be it

Resolved, That this Conference go on record commending Saul Grossman for his action in refusing to produce the above-mentioned material; and be it further

Resolved, That we pledge every possible support to the Grossman Defense Committee in the fight to render null and void this outrageous action by the U. S. Congress and the U. S. Justice Department; and be it finally

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Grossman Defense Committee, the press, trade unions, religious, fraternal, and other organizations.

RESOLUTION ON PROCEEDINGS OF CONFERENCE

Resolved, That copies of the proceedings of this Conference be sent to all participants in the Conference, and to trade unions, civic and social organizations.

Resolutions and proceedings unanimously adopted by Conference.

Dear Friend

May 22, 1953

On June 4 it will be two years since the Supreme Court, in a 6-2 decision, upheld the constitutionality of the Smith Act.

In June, 1951, many thoughtful Americans feared the wider implications of this decision, ostensibly aimed only at the Communists. In June, 1953, these implications are more widely understood. They may be summed up in one word: McCarthyism.

Growing popular resistance to McCarthyism, and the brightening prospects for world peace, give ground for hope that a campaign to win amnesty for the Smith Act victims can now attain serious proportions.

Amnesty movements have an honorable tradition in our country. Presidents Wilson, Harding and Coolidge granted amnesty to the political prisoners of World War I -- among whom was Eugene V. Debs.

In connection with the second anniversary of the Supreme Court decision in the Eugene Dennis case, our Committee has designated June 4 to July 4 "Amnesty Month." As you see from the enclosed folder, more than 500 distinguished Americans have already spoken out for amnesty. Some acted from simple humanitarian motives, others because they believe the amnesty campaign an important aspect of the struggle against McCarthyism. Listing of these names does not imply association with our Committee -- or agreement with the views of the Communist leaders.

We urge you to participate in the "Amnesty Month" activities. You may want to sign and help circulate the enclosed petition. Or you may prefer to issue a statement, write the editor of your local paper, sponsor a resolution in your organization.

Please let us know what you do, and write us for more information about our work. Your contribution will help finance our campaign!

Swincerely, Sarsky

With her release, the two Frankfeld ohildren, so long deprived of both parents, will have their mother returned to them.

A wolcome home meeting for Mrs. Frankfeld is being planned by the Maticnal Committee to Win Amnesty for the Smith Act Victims. It will take place the evening of October 20th at the Commish Arms Hotel, 23rd Street at 8th Avenue, New York.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT INDICTED ON "MEMBERSHIP" CHARGE

Claude Lightfoot, executive secretary of the Communist Party in Illinois, and well known Negro leader, was arrested in Chicago on June 26th and indicated under the Smith Act on a charge of "membership" in the CsP.

As we go to press, Mr. Lightfoot is still in jall, while efforts are being made to have the $30,000 bail(orginally $50,000) reduced. A petition for the reduction of bail to a reasonable sum, initiated by Dean John B. Thompson, attorney Earl B. Didwarson, Rev. Wm.T. Baird and Sam Parks of the United Packinghouse Union, is receiving wide-spread supports.

MONSTROUS LAW THREATENS NEW SMITH, MCCARRAN ACT PERSECULTIONS

Monstrous offspring of the Smith Act and the Mo-Carran Internal Security Act, the Communist Control Act, besides outlawing the Communist Party, opens up possibilities for the persecution of individuals and organizations which the authors of the Act and the Department of Justice admit have not yet been explored.

While this is being played down at the moment, the law holds the threat of Smith Act type trials for thousands of people. The widely herelded fact that no penalities are included for membership in the Communist Party is meaningless. Already, Claude Lightfoot, Chicago Megro leader, had been indicted this summer, under the Smith Act on the charge of "membership". What the new law does is to extend the meaning of "membership" in such a way as to include almost anyone the administration may want to "get".

Consider, for example, only two of the ll; oriteria it sets up for determining whether a person is a member; if he "had indicated by word, action, conduct, writing or in any other way a willingness to carry out in any manner or to any degree the plans, designs, objectives, or purposes of the organization"; or if he has "in any other way participated in the activities, planning, actioms, objectives, or purposes of the organization....."

As for organizations, the power of the Subversive Activities Control Board is extended to a new category, "Communist infiltrated organizations". The main target, and the first against which action is planned, are the trade unions. A union which is declared to be "Communist infiltrated" will lose the right to engage in collective bargaining representation of employees before the National Labor Relations Board, and thus will be effectively destroyed as a union.

And again the criteria set up are broad enough to involve any union which engages in strike action for higher wages and better conditions, not to speak of political activity in supporting candidates opposed to an administration in power. Here is one of the rules for determining "Communist infiltration": "To what extent, if any, the policies of such organizations are, or within three years have been, formulated and carried out pursuant to the direction or advice of any member, agent or representative" of any group that the Subversive Activities Control Board has designated as a "Communist organization." And if this device should fail, here is another: "To what extent, if any, the personnel and re-

Carey McWilliams in The Mation

"The banning of political parties has consistently indicated that the forces moving toward the solipse of gover ment representative have entered & One-way street. Other symptoms have proven misleading or inconclusive; this one has soldom failed. To ban a political party by name betrays a basic distrust of the slecto-rate and has usually been the prelude to government by degree."

Journal of the United Packinghouse Workers, CIO

"In our view it is not a question of dealing with the Communist problem. It is rather a question of whether under the guise of fighting communism, legislation can be enacted undermining the Bill of Rights and permitting politically minded hatchet men to destroy our trade unions if they don't conform to the wishes of the politicians in power."

Albert J. Fitzgerald, Pres. United Electrical and Radio Workers in U.E.Nows

sources of such organization are, or within three years have been, used to further or promote the objectives of any such Communist organization, government or movement."

While the main target at the moment are the trade unions, the law gives the SaCB power over organizations of all kinds. The "liberal" Democrats in their frantic and hysterical rush to prove themselves even more anti-Communist than Eisenhower, Brownell and McCarthy, may find the law a boomerang. Did not the Republican Policy Committee in its statement, "The Republican Pursuit of American Communists", declare that the Democratic Party had long been "infiltrated with Communists";

This law will no doubt be fought vigorously both in the courts and in the public arena. Already the Court of Appeals in Washington, which has been considering the Communist Party's appeal from the decision of the SACB under the McCarran Act, has ordered re-argument on the cases on Cotober 21, to include not only the McCarran Act, but the new law as well.

ASK NEW EVIDENCE ON INFORMERS BE CONSIDERED

Threatened with an investigation, informer Paul Crouch declared: "If my reputation could be destroyed and my credibility demolished through the current frame up plot, 31 Communist leaders convicted or on trial in Smith Act proceedings could get new trials, 20 immigration proceedings would be re-opened, the registration order against the Communist Party would be reversed and sent back, with the cost to the government of many millions of dollars."

One can only conjecture how many more cases would have to be re-opened if there were a real investigation of Crouch and other discredited informers. At any rate in one case, that of the Subversive Activities Control Board's registration order against the Communist Party, an effort is being made to have the SACB receive as additional evidence facts about Crouch, Manning Johnson and Harvey Matusow, which have been uncovered since the hearings.

The facts made public about the contradictory testimony of Paul Crouch in the Philadelphia Smith Act trial, in the Oppenheimer case, and in the deportation proceedings against cartcomist Jacob Burck, are presented in an affidavit by attorney John Abt. Mr. Abt also describes the exposure of Mamming Johnsom in the case of Dr. Ralph Bunche, as well as Johnsom's admission at the SACB hearings that he had lied under cath, and would continue to do so if he considered that commitments to the FBI required it.

Perhaps the least well known and most amasing of the cases taken up by Mr. Abt is that of Harvey Matusow on whose sole testimony the SACB findings of force and violence" depend.

In an interview with the press on July 13, 1954, (as reported in the Washington Post and Times-Herald of July 14.) Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam stated: "The truth is that Mr. Matusow told me he had had a religious experience and was seeking each person about whom he had falsified in order to apologise and get right with the people he had harmed. He told me he had lied concerning numerous individuals."

EXHIBIT No. 79C

Matusow denied this. But on July 30, the Commission on Public Relations of the Methodist Church released to the press a 1stter from J. Howard McGrath, former United States Attorney General to Charles C.Perlin, attorney for the Bishop. The letter revealed that Matusow, interviewed late in April, 1954 by Russell Brown and Robert Lovell, law associates of Mr. McGrath, had told them too that he had lied about many people. In a memorandum dictated after the interview, Mr. Brown stated: "He (Matusow) said in so many words, 'You should know that I am not to be trusted under any circumstances. I have betrayed everybody who ever befriended me. If I give you some information which is helpful, you check it 100% because I don't even trust mysslf'".

Mr. Abt points out in his affidavit that at least two of these informers "are now being investigated by the Department of Justice, and that because their character as professional perjurers has now been conclusively and publicly demonstrated, the Attorney General has ceased to employ any of them as witnesses."

None of the facts presented by Mr. Abt were denied in the answer submitted by the Department of Justice.

"THE LAW BEHIND MCCARTHY"

(From an article by an American correspondent in the July 31 issue of the London New Statesman and Mation)

"It is the witch-hunt that is the deadly, fundamental thing in the American political scene. So long as it continues, and is accepted, McCarthyism will flourable irrespective of whether McCarthy's own wings are clipped......

"To understand the real strength of McCarthy, one must seek it in the use by Mr. Truman and his successor of a piece of legislation - the Smith Act. The core of this law is the core of McCarthyism also; it is the concept that the advocacy of Marxist political ideas is a criminal act meriting punishment......

"There is a legal trap embodied in this law - the word 'conspiracy' - which makes it unnecessary for the Government to prove the defendants guilty of any overt act. In essence the crime charge against them is their thinking, their ideas and their mutual agreement to spread those ideas....In fact these are trials, not for crimes committed, but for an agreement to advocate'heretical' thoughts which, the Government asserts, may some day lead to orime......

"The expert witnesses used by the Government trawel the land like a troupe of performing acrobats...... They go from trial to trial, from committee to commit-

"A BLOT ON JUSTICE"

A petition against the use of paid informers initiated by 12 outstanding men and women is receiving wide-spread support. It states in parts

"Man has often expressed contempt and reserved severe condemnation for the paid informer.

"The status of the paid informer has not changed with time. Yet today our government rests what it asserts are efforts to achieve internal security largely on precisely such purchasable individuals.

"Already wise voices have been raised in revulsion and in warning against the use of the paid informer. Among them were 17 mationally prominent ministers. Sight Philadelphia ministers have likewise expressed their comcern.

"Beginning to permeate our land are fear and suepicion of pastor, neighbors, friends and family, of a man's very thoughts. Such an absosphere can only be disactrous to the moral fabric of our country.

"We do not question the right of government to defend the democratic principles and procedures upon which this nation is founded. But if the case of the government against those it would prosecute is so weak that it must rely upon the unprincipled informers, then it has no case....

"We protest the use of paid informers. We reject and resent our government's placing upon them the stamp of respectability and approval....."

tee. Nor does the government cease to use them in this capacity despite the fact that again and again many of them have been caught in gross lies in the witness box.

"A can paign for amnesty has been launched in America. It needs to be world wide in scope. It is not at all a matter of rescuing Communists from prison. The Communist Party can better afford to have its leaders in prison than the United States - or the world - oan afford to have McCarthyism enthroned."

SMITH ACT PRISONER - DEPORTATION VICTIM - APPEALS TO NATIVE LAND

The following excerpts are from a letter sent to the British embassador by John Williamson, asking him to intervene to make it possible for him and his wife and children to depart for Great Britain:

"I am a citisen of Great Britain, born in Glasgow in 1903. I have a 79 year old sick mother living in Scotland......

"I was tried in 1949 charged with "conspiracy.... to teach and advocate the overthrow of the government by force and violence.....This was a false charge.....
In effect I am jailed for my lifetime working class act ivity......

"In February,1955, I was eligible for parole-However, the Dept. of Justice...not only denied me parole, but after one of its subdivisions had ordered me deported, another of its subdivisions indicts and now proposes to try me again under the same Smith Act. In my first trial(1949)I was sent to jail upon a false charge that my C.P. membership constituted "conspiracy". By a sleight of hand change of legal terms, they now shamefully propose to try me for "membership in the C.P." - an obvious violation of the long cherished tenet of common law against double jeopardy - and hope to keep me in jail indefinitely.

"Mr. Ambassador, I recognize that the release of all the victims of the Smith Act persecutions is primarily a concern of the American people. But in my specific case, you have a British citisen already ordered deported and serving a 5 year jail sentence for the mere advocacy of political ideas; ideas for which I would not be prosecuted in Great Britain, since it would be in conflict with British law and democratic principles......

Letters from Readers On Stalin Revaluation

FOLLOWING are some of the letters from our readers participating in the discussion on the revaluation of Stalin and other important issues raised by news dispatches on the 20th Congress of the Communist Party of the Societ Union. We invite more letters or questions on the meaning of these problems for the American Left. The more letters the better, but in order that as many points of view as possible may be expressed, we ask our readers to keep them brief, preferably not more than 200 words. Letters should be signed but names will be withheld upon request.—The Editors.

Carl Marzani Says Lack of Democracy Curbs Initiative

Dear Editor:

May I congratulate you on the healthy discussion taking place in the Daily about current Soviet events. It seems to me that we need to keep in mind what is important in this discussion to the American scene. The most pressing problem in our country is how the American left, Communist and non-Communist re-evaluates its mutual relationships in the light of present trends. It seems clear to me that there is in our country as in other countries a gathering unity of all sections of the peoples in defense of their true national interests as contrasted to the interests of General Motors, Standard Oil, et al.

I have always taken for granted that Marxists in this country should be very interested, concerned, stimulated and indeed guided by the development of the Soviet Union. I have never accepted, nor indeed have I ever seen evidence, that the American Communist Party was, as the saving goes, "run by Moscow." What I have seen, and deplored, has been an unreflecting acceptance of Soviet political techniques and theoretical formula-

The effects have been unfortimate in two important, and I believe crucial areas. There has been a great intolerance toward those who did not completely agree with the party at any given time, and often, a substantial lack of inner party democracy. The first has weakened the fight against reaction, but the second in the long run has been even more serious.

The uneven and sometime very low level of inner party democracy led to a stifling of initiative In action and in thinking. Too many Marxists in too many instances have not studied reality in their field with the same independence of spirit that Marx exhibited and that the best non-Marxist scholars exhibit. American Marxists must go into the concrete reality of American lile to apply and extract anew those principles and laws which other peoples have extracted from HEIR realities. The application of dialectical materialism is itself a dialectical application, NOT a mechanical one and NOT one to be learned by rote.

In the second place, the shortcomings of inner party democracy have resulted in bureaucratic methods of work. "This lesson," says .Ar. Foster, "could well be taken to heart." So it could, for the result of bureaucracy is to lose touch with the real conditions of American life.

Together with the isolation due to persecution this led to an undervaluation of the resilience of American democracy and the strength of the American people, which, together with the strength of peoples in other capitalist countries and with the developing power of the socialist world has succeeded in braking the warmongers.

Finally, the shortcomings in inner party democracy made possible the rise of individual domination, such as that of Browder. When Browder was exposed (quite justifiedly in my opinion) the members of the then national committee wrote letters blaming themselves for insufficient vigilance. But this was not a personal psychological question. It was an institutional question, reflecting an institutional fault—the substantial lack of democracy, varying in degree, throughout the party organizations.

I sav this with no antagonism toward anyone. Communist leaders need no defense from me. The devotion, self-sacrifice and courage of Foster, Dennis, Davis, Curley Flynn and all, speak for themselves. They are proud records, and this letter is in no way an attack upon them. It is an attack on the doctrine of infallibility whether in theory or in politics, whether by one person or by a group. This doctrine, however prettied up, should be fought ruthlessly. Marxism rejects it: the working class has no need of it.

The coming days are luminous for humanity. In our own country great stirring tasks are at hand. The worst thing that could happen to American Marxists would be to pay hip service to self-criticisms and let things stand as they were.

With warm regards for the paper.

CARL MARZANI.

of a Youth Organization

to support the program and policies of the New Party of Wallace and Taylor  $\star$  to defend our lives  $\cdot$  our liberties  $\cdot$  our right to happiness

AMERICAN YOUTH has always sought this future: the guarantee of work at a decent wage ' the full assurance of civil liberties ' the security of home and family—in a world at peace. * This future seems far away. Only fear and uncertainty rise before our eyes: the threat of war ' the rising cost of living ' increasing prejudice and discrimination ' the higher price of education

EXHIBIT No. 88B

• the beginnings of a police state. * This is not the America we want. We have not brought this to pass.

WHO IS AT FAULT? * The Democrats and Republicans run our country today. Banding together, they conspire to maintain their positions of privilege: by artificially raising prices · by militarizing American youth · by abandoning the United Nations to seek world empire. * This program belongs to the top hats and brass hats. It is not our program. Youth never profits from war and destruction.

LOOKING FORWARD. * There is an American tradition: every generation must fight for its rights against the greed and blindness of a powerful few. * This was the tradition of Jefferson, Lincoln, and Douglass. In our time, it is the tradition of FDR, Wallace, and Taylor. * American youth rejects a future of war and death. It turns to a future of peace, abundance, and security. It turns to the New Party, to the program of Henry Wallace and Glen Taylor:

- * for all youth: freedom from war, and the right to vote at 18.
- * for youth in industry: a job at a decent wage · free and democratic trade unions · vocational training · elimination of child labor · equal pay for equal work.
  - * for youth on the farm: possession free from the burden of debt

EXHIBIT No. 88C

- · farmer control of the farm program · expansion of farmers' cooperatives · soil and water conservation.
- ★ for Negro youth: full protection of civil liberties · freedom from Jim-Crow in civilian life and the armed forces · full equality of opportunity in the economic and political life of America.
- * for student youth: academic freedom · the opportunity to enjoy a free and adequate high school and college education.

WE ARE young people born after the first World War, who have fought and lived through the second World War, and who are determined to join with others to prevent world destruction. * We have a right to life! * We have a right to liberty! * We have a right to happiness!

WE SHALL ASSEMBLE IN CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, ON THE TWENTY-FIFTH AND TWENTY-SIXTH DAYS OF JULY, 1948, TO HELP REALIZE THESE INALIENABLE RIGHTS. * WE SHALL THERE FOUND A NEW YOUTH ORGANIZATION, DEDICATED TO THE SUPPORT OF THESE POLICIES, AND THE PROGRAM OF THE NEW PARTY.

IWO Vets To Join Pickets at Foley Square Friday

Members of the International Workers Order who are veterans will join a veterans picket line Friday, Aug. 12, noon to 1:15 p.m. at Foley Square to protest the jailing of Henry Winston, Gus Hall, and Gil Green.

The call to all IWO veterans was issued by Dave Greene, Constantine Ossip, Frank Ilchuck, Ernie Rymer, and Jerry Trauber, all veterans of World War II and leading members of the Order.

"The people's demands to free Henry Winston from unjust imprisonment, as well as Gus Hall and Gil Green, who are also in jail, must be heard by Judge Medina," the veterans stated.

Veterans were urged to wear their decorations and overseas caps.

The Veterans Mobilization to Free Winston yesterday distributed 10.000 leaflets blasting the jailings as an act which "endangers the liberty of every citizen." The group urged a large turnout of veterans.

SUBJECT		MANN' IT AR IT ANDR ON TEST OF A SPEECH WARR BY	1

Transmitted herewith is the inglish test of a speech reported by Radio Berlin, the Soviet radio station, to have been made by Frances but I, alleged American citizen and Vice President of the Weltbundes for Lemokratischen Jugend (World union of Democratic Youth), on March 21, 1000, in the Soviet Sector of Perlin. It may be noted that this speech is one of the strongest which has yet been made by the American citizens carried gring in the various "peace" rallies in the Soviet Sector of Perlin:

"Lear friends, in conjunction with the World Youth Week, I bring you sharm and the there presents in the name of Weltbundes der Demokratischen Jugend, in the name of 72 million youths from 77 countries. Our tasks in the lattle for peace are greater and more urgent than ever. Feace lies in the world. It is our responsitility to prevent the wer widen is desired by the well Street monopoly which rules the United States and by its marionetts. The American imperialists, whose tands are already covered with the old of their rines assent the peace-loving momen, mothers and children of Korea have preparing new aggression and their unappeasable hunger for dollers (Jast word could not be understood because of the heavy accent of the speaker) to quiet.

"The world imporations have as their core the re-armament of Nestern Jermany and Japan as bases of aggression against the Soviet Union who through its intiring policies defencing peace stands at the head of all peace powers of the Abrid. The last conference of the Executive Committee of the Welttundes der Demokratischen Jugend celled upon all youth organizations to ally all of their efforts against remilitarization. We are, then fore, from lecause we can see today that German youth has accepted this test and is fulfilling it with honor. We greet the abbressive youthful neace fighters particularly those in Nest Germany who are subjected to the most horrible kind of suppression by the Bonn Government which legally carries out the orders of the American imperialist masters. We greet the tattle of the entire Jerman youth for a unified, democratic peace—loving Jermany, and we wish you new success in the battle for the defires of peace. Permit me now to greet you as a young American in behalf of the democratic youth of my country and to say a few words to you.

"I would first like to relate to you an experience which I had not long ago. I was together with some young friends and sang the songs of different countries, especially songs of derman y with which expressed their will to fight for peac and a better life. Someone suggested that we sing that ac Home'. However, some of our perman friends said, they we so not dare sing that. We have an American friend among us. I know what nowed the young perman friend to say that. I know that she wanted friend hip and unity with the democratic youth of America, but it is necessary, nevertheless, to say that the democratic American youth also desires that the 'Ami' go home. This is also our wish. It is the wish which moves the American and German rootle.

Marine the policy of the Americans in Germany, of the Americans in French cities like Pordmeux, of the Americans in the various tases of Refrecion throughout the world, and above all, the Americans in Koree, is bidden the policy of war proparation, of militarizing the American ith the spending of billions for armament and nothing for the economic and caltural needs of jouth, the policy of the "facistization" of American with manifests itself in the persecution of the fricusts of freedom and commonracy, in hornible brutalities against the Tagro. Therefore, we in Larich are reising a great protest. We the simple people who are flowed by the local newspapers, who write to Truman and his representatives and demand that they immediately withdraw the American troops from Korea. This movement is so strong that the semi-official popular poll which was made some weeks ago on a national basis discovered that 66%, this is two out of three Americans, casine that the American troops be withdrawn from Korea as quickly as possible. The American soldiers in Korea do not even know themselves why they are fighting and want to go home. The words which are rung by American troops in Korea are as follows: "Too far to the East, too long".

"Yes, dear friends, we sing with you, 'Ami' Come Home. We are singing with you 'Come Home Fisenhower'. We want peace and friendship with the peoples of the world. Let me close by saying to you once more in the name of the Mel'bundes der Jemokratischen Jugend, I wish you new success in your battle for reace against the remilitarization of Western Germany. Long live the Free Jerman Youth and the German Derocratic Republic."

U.S. YOUTH CONDEMNS KOREAN AGGRESSION

(Interview with Frances Damon, U.S. delegate representating the WFDY at the International Union of Students' congress in Prague.)

(Excerpts)

"Miss Damon was asked what democratic young Americans think of U.S. intervention against Korea.

"'We have many examples which show that the broadest sections of young people in the United States have increasingly spoken out to condemn the U.S. war of aggression against the Korean people. Just a short while ago in Chicago 12 young religious and student leaders joined together to send a message to President Truman asking him to drop the draft and end intervention in Korea. They declared, "As Christian young people we feel very strongly that drafting U.S. boys and sending them to die in Korea can only further World War III, not prevent it."

"'They urged President Truman to settle the dispute immediately in the meeting of the Security Council of the United Nations to which all ... including the de facto Government of China, the Chinese People's Republic, would be invited. Two days later 15 student leaders at the University of Michigan, backed by the university student newspaper, sent a peace plea' to President Truman with a number of proposals including the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Korea, demanding a unified Korean Government of Koreans. These actions, joined with many other protests from trade unions, Negro leaders, groups of working youth, and progressive organizations, reflect the mounting opposition to the adventurist aggressive policy of the ruling circles of the United States.

"'Contrary to the wishes of Wall Street the colonialist war in Korea is not proving very popular among U.S. youth. THE UNITED PRESS announced the results of a survey showing that nearly 25 percent of those called to register for the draft after the beginning of the war in Korea did not show up. And we know of the statements of the 114 war prisoners and other U.S. soldiers who surrendered to the Korean People's Army, exposing the real character of U.S. intervention in Korea, condemning it, and protesting against the merciless mass bombings of the peaceful Korean people and their homes, universities, schools, and hospitals.

"'Yes, it is clear that more and more U.S. young people are waking up to Wall Street's aims of colonizing Korea, and they show their sympathy and solidarity with the peoples of Asia and other parts of the world who want nothing but to live in independence and peace.'"

Five-Point Fight Mapped for Foreign-Born Defense

(By Charles Glenn)

Los Angeles, Feb. 9.—A program to end, "once and for all," government harassment of the foreign born was laid out here Saturday by 292 delegates to the Southern California Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans. Major points of the campaign were:

Outright repeal of the Walter-McCarran law.

End to application of "stool pigeon" Section 23-B of the McCarran Act of 1950. End to mass deportation of Mexican workers, citizens and non-citizens alike.

Separation of the Immigration & Naturalization Service from the Justice Dept. End to admission of Nazis into the United States, even while the Walter-Mc-Carran Law which permits it is in existence.

Tone of the conference was set by the Rev. Stephen Fritchman, Unitarian pastor, who reminded delegates and observers they were participating "in no new thing, but in one more phase of the long-term struggles for human freedom, struggles which have been won and will continue to be won.

"In fighting the antistranger complex of a Senator McCarran and a Rep. Walter, we are fighting for the tradition which had brought Thomas Jefferson to the White House as the people repudiated the Alien and Sedition laws of that day."

MAIN LINE

Cleophus Brown, Los Angeles Negro Labor Council president, called on delegates to "recognize our responsibility in the struggle for protection of the foreign born as a main line of defense to preserve the rights of all the American people.

"It isn't just the foreign born they're after with the Walter-McCarran Law," Brown said. "It is the trade unions they are after as well * * * it is the Negroes they are after as well * * * it is the professional people, the teachers and other intellectuals and, further, what they are really after is to abolish the rights and dignity of every individual American so that human decency and brotherhood may become a crime."

Brown pointed to the need for unity among "15 million Negroes, 14 million foreign born, and 15 million organized trade unionists" in the fight against all repressive legislation.

OTHER VICTIMS

Delegates from Los, Angeles, San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, and Honolulu, were told by Gilbert Canales, Warehousemen's Local 26, ILWU, that the problem of the mass deportation of Mexican workers was one of the most critical in the Southwest.

He noted that 1,183,524 Mexican workers were deported from the U. S. in 1951 alone, through use of legal, extra-legal and outright illegal methods directed mainly at agricultural workers imported by big U. S. farmers.

Among those deported, he noted, were native-born children.

"Someone," he said, "once charged that 500 American-born children a day were being deported. The immigration Service indignantly denied this—they said they were only deporting 25 American born children a day."

Effects of the Walter-McCarran Law, Canales said, "only make sharper the realization of the need to fight it now.

"It is aimed at intimidating the whole American people, and it's up to the whole American people to fight it out of existence."

Canales' call for unity was taken up by Mrs. Rose Chernin, executive director of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, conference sponsor.

"The defense of the 14 million foreign born is not the responsibility of the foreign born alone, and their defense organizations," said Mrs. Chernin. "It is, in the first place, the responsibility of the American people."

UNION LEADERS

Trade unionists Al Thidbodeaux, San Pedro-Wilmington port agent of the Marine Cooks & Stewards Union, and Russell Nixon, Washington representative of the United Electrical Workers, underscored the role of trade unions in the fight against Walter-McCarran and similar legislation.

Thibe leaux noted that the Walter-McCarran Act has already had its vicious effects among seafaring trade unionists by virtue of its "screening" and "visitors' time limit" provisions, which bar many seamen from sailing from, or entering U.S. ports.

MCS, Thibodeaux said, was first of the seafaring unions to take up the fight, but others are now joining in because of the implications of disaster to trade unions contained in the law's deportation and "screening" provisions.

Nixon emphasized his belief that concerted action by the people can win repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law, the Taft-Hartley Law, the Smith Act, and others.

He said that in contacting Congressmen in the course of his work as UE's Washington representative, he has found "even there, a new and growing sense of concern and fear about where we are and where we're going."

He implored conference delegates to act "to tear this dirty page out of this country's history book, and you can do it now."

And that was just what they started to do in their panel sessions—on Labor, Mexican Workers, Youth, National Groups and Legal Counsel.

Atty. Daniel G. Marshall, chairman of the closing session, summed up the conference with the statement that "defense of the foreign born is a key front in the defense of all the American people against repression."

There will be plenty of hot fights on legislation in the 2nd Session of the 83rd Congress which opened last month. But most Representatives and Senators won't have their minds on bills in the hopper.

For this is election year—and the whole House and one-third of the Senate have their jobs on the line. Most Congressmen, accordingly, will keep their eyes and cars open for a chance to do something that will help them out on that cold November Day of Reckaning.

The Congressional session is really only the first act in a drama that will take all year. There'll be many speeches designed, in the Backroom Boys' jargon, "for the home folks," Some floor fights may even be staged to give a build-up to certain members on both sides of the aisle who are in trouble in their districts.

The normal election year jitters are intensified this time because political strategists of all parties agree that this November will mark a turning point which can determine the nation's future for many years to come. If labor grasps this and acts now, it can certainly make a big difference when the votes are counted. It might even influence what happens during the session—as bad as the S3rd Congress is.

TO GET AN IDEA of what can be expected from Congress, take a look at its record in 1953. The Republican 83rd was not a "do nothing" Congress; it was a "do nothing good" Congress. It did many had things, and started the wheels moving on many more.

Made up overwhelmingly of politicians who follow the line of the National Association of Manufacturers, the Chamber of Commerce and the Cadillac Cabinet in the White House, Congress moved in quickly to pay off the special interests that picked up the GOP tab in the '52 campaign. Offshore oil reserves worth over $50 billion were cleared for private exploitation. Stepped up was the process of turning over to wealthy profiteers publicly owned power, lands, atomic energy resources and synthetic rubber plants. Speculative holders of old repudiated German bonds got a handout that cost the American people about $2 billion.

Other kinds of payoffs were the wiping out of public housing and rent control and the increase in interest

Congress also made a flank attack on the people by cutting appropriations on labor and social legislation. Unemployment insurance offices, for example, are being closed while unemployment is rising. Enforcement of the minimum wage and hour law and child labor regulations was crippled by budget cuts. Federal aid to education was slashed.

PLENTY OF MONEY and time was found to organize four separate McCarthyite "smearing" committees, but none to act on FEPC or other proposals affecting minority rights or to fulfill campaign pledges on Taft-Hartley and the Walter-McCarran Law

Above all, Congress voted the money and made hot speeches to keep world tensions at a maximum and world trade (and jobs at home) at a minimum. The Crusade against Reds in the world cost $70 billion a year and paralleled the fake McCarthy Crusade at home.

This year's Congress continues the 1953 session. Everything picks up where it was left last August. Here's a rundown on the big issues:

The fat will be in the fire on Taft-Hartley and hills to end free choice of unions by setting up government licensing of labor. Some Republicans, anxious to play politics with labor in November, favor a few piddling revisions in T-H, especially affecting AFL building trades unions. The GOP majority, however, doesn't even want to make feeble gestures. It wants to toughen up and extend T-H, and to make sure that the NLRB becomes even more hlatantly anti-union and pro-boss.

THE WORST THREAT to all unions is the drive to give government bureaucrats life-and-death control over labor under the guise of hunting "subversives." This is the Butler Bill, the main objective of the NAM and the Chamber of Commerce in the field of labor. AFL, CIO and the independent unions have expressed strong opposition to such legislation.

Budget and taxes will be big issues that involve everyone in America. The government will spend $8 billion more than it takes in this year. Chiseling cuts on social services won't help matters much because, as Treasury Secretary Humphrey admitted recently, the only real possibility of reducing the hudget lies in military spending.

It's on the budget, strangely, that the question of easing world tensions will be felt first. For instance, those who want lower taxes might propose that the U.S. stop spending nearly $1 billion to keep France fighting the Nationalists in Viet Nam.

The budget will determine the total tax bill but not who is going to pay it. Employers and wealthy persons always want to shift the load on the backs of ordinary people. So, under one name or another, the push is on for a national sales tax. Schemes are also afoot to revise the laws to increase milliomaires' loopholes. A minor but still important chance to do some good is the possibility of passing a law to let working parents deduct expenses for child care in figur-

It's quite clear that unemployment is already a serious problem and will get worse. What will Congress do about it? So far nothing has been although economic storm signals are appearing everywhere.

How about FEPC? Sen. Irving Ives (R-NY) says committee hearings will start in January. It is the middle of January and no such hearings started.

and the company developed into a legal battle with most of the bargaining taking place in the court room. The union supported a taxpayers' suit for a court order to the company to resume service by September 17. It backet a petition filed by the city asking the State Utilities Commission to order resumption of services.

The legal maneuvers undoubtedly placed some pressure on the company. Observers feel, however, that they created dangers which are atill very much alive despite the strike victory—principally, a proposal for a state Little Railway Labor Act which is before the legislature. Such a law would probably hamstring labor and ieoopardize the gains of the strike.

THE STRIKE VICTORY is one of the most significant on the West Coast in recent years. In challenging National City, the union did more than take on a huge corporatiop. They took on the policy of "soak the public, a fare increase now, a wage raise later," and won a smashing victory. They cristallized a solid front cutting across political and even economic lines and demonstrated that the wast majority of people reject the theory that "what's good for Genral Motors is good for the nation."

Lahor showed more than a willingneas to spring to the support of striking fellow workers; it showed eagerness. Factional differences were brushed aside, jurisdictional claims forgotten, political differences junked. Labor was ready to fight. The extraordinary unity of organized labor had its effect too in achieving the greatest popular support of a atrike in the Frisco area since the 1934 Longshore and General Strike.

The Key strikers demonstrated that the weapons of mass action and popular support are in labor's arsenal to be used when needed. When used, they bring victory. Curtain Raiser for November

cans will join Sen. Lehman (D-NY) in fighting McCarthyiam? Will Senate 16, the "immunity" bill already passed by the Senate to deprive witnesses before McCarthyite committees of the protection of the Fifth Amendnicht, become law? Will Brownell's plan to legalize wiretapping be audonted?

The Republicans promised to do something on the anti-foreign born Walter-McCarran Act. Now they have made a secret deal to do nothing this year. On the other hand, the Lehman-Celler proposed revisions could open the door to wiping out this anti-democratic law.

Congress this year will make decisions whether or not to take us closer to the brink of war. Will the growing desire of people everywhere to ease world tensions find expression on Capitol Hill?

THESE ARE burning bread-and-butter, life-and-death issues. As the weeks pass, the fact that what Congress does means a lot to working people will become more and more clear. Nothing will change the 83rd Congress into a progressive body cagerly serving the people's interests. But it can be halted in its most outrageous schemes, and some positive steps can be squeezed from politicians who have to face the voters.

How? By mobilizing a fight on each of the issues. By letters, wires and visits to Congressmen and Senators. By grabbing every chance to join with other labor and community groups in united actions.

The fight on the issues now before Congress is the best possible preparation for November. People who are aroused over Congress and taxes, or Congress and labor, or Congress and farm prices will be aroused about the election.

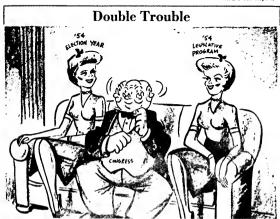

RECENT ELECTIONS in Wisconsin and New Jersey, where the GOP took a licking, demonstrate what's in the wind. The Congress of 1956 can be a profound improvement.

It's important to check at once and see what must be done to give the people a chance to elect pro-labor candidates. In some states, primaries are held very early in the year. In Illinois, for example, noninating petitions have to be filed between January 18 and 25. A primary campaign may be necessary to avoid having the choice on Nov. 2 limited to a "no-good" Republican and a "no-good" Democrat, or to assure Negro representation and the election of labor candidates.

In every area, unions must make sure their members are registered to vote. Political action committees need to begin functioning. Alliances have to be made.

These necessary steps can bring results which will surprise the cynics and confound the reactionary politicians. If labor acts in time a bloc of pro-labor, anti-McCarthy Congressmen can be elected in November.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1954

WASHINGTON - The accusation was made today before the House Judiciary Committee that a "sneak blitz" is being attempted by the Administration "to pass legislation - under the guise of fighting subversion - which will open the way for wholesale attacks and even liquidation of organizations which oppose Administration policies in this election year."

The statement was made by Russ Nixon, Legislative Representative of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America (UE), representing 300,000 workers in the electrical, radio, machine and farm equipment industry, appearing at the opening of hearings in opposition to legislative proposals of Attorney General Herbert Brownell known as the Brownell-Reed bills. (H.J. Res. 527 and H.J. Res. 528)

"An attempt is being made," Mr. Nixon told the Committee, "to use the Congress of the United States as a 'rubber stamp' to give the Administration life and death control over all organizations and trade unions."

EXHIBIT No. 101B

"The Brownell proposals, introduced by Congressman Reed (R., Ill.) and Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) are the most far-reaching, anti-democratic proposals ever seriously advanced in the United States Congress and can only be described as the enabling legislation for an American-type fascism," Mr. Nixon stated. "The entire labor movement has repeatedly gone on record opposed to this type of legislation."

Stating that there is every indication that labor and liberal forces will achieve outstanding victories in the 1954 Congressional elections, Mr.

Nixon expressed the opinion that "the Brownell-Reed bills are being frantically rushed through the Congress, without even benefit of adequate hearings or testimony from Mr. Brownell himself, because the Administration believes it needs a weapon to terrorize any opposition to its policies - especially opposition from labor sources."

"It is impossible," Mr. Nixon stated, "to overstate the danger to the economic security and welfare of the country that these Brownell proposals present...No one can honestly expect that measures sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, the National Association of Manufacturers, the General Electric Co., the American Mining Congress, Westinghouse, Allis-Chalmers, will be mildly administered against unions..."

Mr. Nixon also charged, and quoted editorials from the Wall Street Journal, the Louisville (Ky.) Courier-Journal and the St. Louis Post Dispatch, that the Brownell proposals "could endanger the very existence of any organization with an independent policy including churches, PTA's, newspapers, radio stations, as well as unions."

Pointing to the role of trade unions in the fight to raise the living standards of the people, Mr. Nixon stated that "only free trade unions controlled exclusively by their members...have the strength and effectiveness required to protect the economic welfare and democracy of the country."

"The security of our nation requires full preservation of the civil rights of the people," Mr. Nixon said.

EXHIBIT No. 101C

Disagreeing with the idea that the Brownell proposals actually seek to root out subversion, Mr. Nixon stated that "the real purpose of the Brownell bills is...to give reactionary corporate employers a weapon to smash unions, to blacklist workers, to outlaw in this country any form of political expression that does not meet with the approval of organized Big Business and its representatives in Government."

"One can search the records of all the investigating committees," the union official stated, "all the government reports, all the testimony of anti-labor companies, all the results of all the forces hungry for evidence to support their tales of espionage and sabotage and yet the fact remains: there has not been a single verified instance of union-connected sabotage or espionage in any industrial establishment in America within our recent history."

Mr. Nixon charged that "the Brownell-Reed type of legislation cannot stand 'the light of day' and plans, therefore, are being laid to rush the measure through the last days of the 83rd Congress without adequate hearings, without any testimony from the Administration as to why the bills are needed or, in the case of the Senate, without any hearings whatsoever."

"This 'sneak blitz' can be stopped," Mr. Nixon stated. "The entire labor movement has repeatedly opposed this type of legislation. We believe that the proposals advanced by Mr. Brownell raise questions so fundamental to the continued existence of the United States as a free nation, so far-reaching in their effects upon the future lives and welfare of all Americans, as to require the gravest and most deliberate scrutiny and consideration of the broadest public discussion."

Russ Nixon:

The principle on which the Committee operates is the same as that of trade unionists—if we're to have trouble let's have it together. Nehru was fond of quoting Gandhi's precept "Don't be afraid!" Today McCarthyism is no longer riding high, as it was a short time ago. Now we must tackle in earnest getting rid of the Walter-McCarran Law, which has reversed the old saying "Nothing human is alien to me," to read: "Nothing foreign is human to me." The rising tide of struggle, especially among the Negro people, is a fine sign. When Jim Crow goes the Walter-McCarran Law goes.

The Law was passed over Truman's veto, but the vote was close. We would have won if not for votes of the Southern bourbons in Congress—83 Southerners voted for it, when 18 votes would have defeated it. Only 3 votes were needed in the Senate, but Southerners voted 20 to 2 to override the veto. Thus Jim Crow and oppression of the foreign born go together. 15 million Negroes must be free. 15 million foreign born must also win equal rights.

The temper of labor is beginning to change, too. There was unity for many months in the recent strike of the UE, together with Carey's union. In Philadelphia recently 71 AFL and CIO unions were represented at a union rally.

The big labor federations are officially on record for Repeal—but action is not being pushed, despite the fact that the Law is a union busting device. J. Matles of the UE is an example of use of the Law to chop off a militant union head. This is evident too in the South, where right-wing labor leaders are attacked for their foreign birth—even men like Murray, Rieve, Potovsky, Dubinsky, Padway, as well as H. Bridges.

Five million Mexican-Americans are constantly attacked for anti-labor purposes, to breed fear and create conditions of semi-bondage—and even bloodhounds are used on the border.

It is not enough to ask for revision of the racist quota system, and happily many eyes are being opened to the need for an all-out attack to win all-out repeal—the price has been upped to a complete overhaul.

The 84th Congress is lagging in every area—labor, civil rights, repeal. But the months ahead are crucial. Can we repeal the Law in 1956? Maybe not. But we must work day and night as though we can—and must! We must get Eastland demoted—out of the way. Rep. Celler in a letter stated that he believes the ice is breaking; that even Walter concedes the need for certain changes in the Law.

We must reach every Congressman and say to them—"Say it Now"—stop the double-talk—sign the Discharge Petition on the ANFUSO Bill before the adjournment for election. We must make the candidates shape up to this great need.

California is crucial in the forthcoming elections, and in the political conventions. Recall the verse popular in 1798 because of passage of the Alien and Sedition Laws:

"Strong in your memories impress this fact, Elect not him who passed this Act!"

It is time to stop licking our wounds and start licking our enemies!

ABNER GREEN (SPEECH)

I am indeed very happy for this opportunity to participate with you in the Sixth Annual Conference of the Los Angeles Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born. The hearings regarding the American Committee conducted by the Subversive Activities Control Board were concluded on March 28th in Washington. They occupied four days a week in Washington over an extended period of time, including some six weeks of time in which I was testifying for the American Committee.

This Conference has extremely vital and important responsibilities to which it must give its urgent consideration. This past period was a very dangerous period in the life of the American people, but this period is now changing. One illustration is that last Monday the Supreme Court in the Nelson Case threw out the state sedition laws in 42 states. These sedition laws were a remnant of hysteria following the first world war, when most of the state sedition laws were enacted * * * I am confident, knowing the possibilities that exist, that we need not wait that long to throw out the legislation bred of hysteria from the second world war period.

The major goal and major responsibility is the repeal or basic revision of the Walter-McCarran Law, which must be replaced with a sane, humane, democratic immigration and denaturalization law.

But we have the overwhelming responsibility of guaranteeing, until such time as this law is changed or repealed, that the rights of the foreign born and the victims of this law are adequately protected.

We know that in 1948 the Justice Department was speaking of deporting some 300 people for political opinions; in 1950 the figure was upped to 1,000; in 1953 Attorney General Brownell made a public address in which he stated that 12,000 non-citizens were to be deported on political grounds.

In 1956 the Commission of Immigration and Denaturalization Department in testifying before the House Appropriations Committee reported that on July 1, 1955 the Justice Department's Immigration Service had a pending case list of 14,700 subversive cases.

In other words it is now increased from 12,000 to 15,000—all people who face the threat of possible deportation because of political affiliation or ideas—and it may eventually come down to the point where even all people who have progressive inclinations or even think like human beings might be regarded as "subversive" and thus deportable.

We must emphasize the important responsibility of vigorously fighting the deportation drive in a period such as today, when the Service seeks to hold on to the Walter-McCarran Law to strengthen it in its efforts.

The determination of the people and people's organizations, generally speaking, has increased in its opposition to the deportation provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

In the past many organizations opposed to the Walter-McCarran Law were concerned only with the quota provisions. In this period we begin to see a marked change in their attitude. More and more they begin to speak, as they should, against the deportation and against the denaturalization provisions of the Law.

There is now opposition to practically every single section of the Law.

For example, Mr. William Maslow, General Counsel of the American Jewish Congress, has an article in the Columbia Law Review for March, 1956 dealing with the deportation laws, which contains proposals for reforms and concludes with 20 points that he feels are essential in the change of the deportation section of the law; he includes a proposal that any person who entered the United States legally should not be deported at all, which would tend to end perhaps 99 percent of present deportation cases.

Simultaneously with this changed public atmosphere the American Committee is sponsoring and has sponsored for the past year a campaign, a research project and a legal project around a simple proposition: the American Committee says that the Supreme Court of the United States in its various decisions on deportation law has made some very basic and serious errors in legal judgment.

We feel that the deportation laws are unconstitutional. We support this position with many legal arguments and many political and sociological arguments.

(See data on deportations, Journal for 1956 L. A. C. P. F. B.)

We feel that the Supreme Court in a new period, a period with a changed Supreme Court, with Justice Earl Warren as Chief Justice, and other new members, this Supreme Court should take a new look at the deportation laws based on the Constitution and history of the United States. We have been preparing for six months special documents for that purpose.

Only ten days ago on March 26th the Supreme Court took the first step in that direction in granting certiorari in the case of Charles Rowoldt of Minneapolis.

In the petition for certiorari, point two raised the question as to whether the Supreme Court has not made a mistake in the Galvan case, and the Supreme Court has agreed to take this appeal and go into the question as to whether its interpretation of the deportation laws were correct in the Harisiades (1952) and Galvan (1954) decisions.

This work is very important in the defense of the rights of noncitizens. In the hearing before the Supreme Court we are given a second opportunity to test whether the deportation of noncitizens for political opinions is in keeping with the constitutional framework of our country.

Another important aspect is in the treatment of those noncitizens who have been ordered deported but have no country to which they can be sent.

There are now 47 noncitizens here in Southern California who are free under supervisory parole conditions. They are forced to report to the lumnigration and Naturalization Service once a month. They are ordered to give information as to their activities, instructed that they must be disassociated from all labor and progressive movements, and they cannot go beyond the limits of Los Angeles County without permission.

The American Committee is testing this aspect of the Law in the Federal District Court in New York and there are more test cases in other areas to challenge these supervisory parole provisions in the Law.

To refuse to observe these dictates of the supervisory parole is a criminal offense punishable by 1 year jail sentences and $1,000 fines for each violation.

In Chicago last October George Vitkovich and James Keller were indicted for refusing to answer certain questions in their examination under Supervisory Parole; one of the questions was, "Where does your wife work?" and James Keller in refusing to answer this question stated that the last time he told them where his wife worked she was fired within three days, and therefore he was refusing to answer this question. For this refusal he was indicted * * *

We are supporting Keller and Vitkovich in their continued fight against these provisions in the supervisory parole.

(Note.—Deportees who are questioned by immigration officials during regular reporting interviews have the right to avail themselves of their constitutional privileges, including the Fifth Amendment to the Bill of Rights, and if necessary the right to counsel.)

This conference also has before it the problem of the defense of the rights of naturalized citizens * * * It must guarantee that Rose Chernin remains and can continue her splendid work here in Los Angeles. [Applause.] Others also in this category are: Peter Chaunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wacher, Mr. and Mrs. Diamond. James E. Toback, Eulogio de la Cruz. These denaturalization cases are equally important with that of Rose Chernin.

I want to make one point as a native-born citizen engaged in the fight to defend the right of naturalized citizens: those native-born citizens who feel they are secure in this deportation and denaturalization drive are fooling themselves. This is an attack upon the right of people to be citizens of this country in exactly the same way that deportation charges during the past decade is an attack against the right of noncitizens to live in the United States.

When it reaches the point where the administrative assistant to Franklin Delano Roosevelt loses his citizenship under the Walter-McCarran law because he stayed out of the country for more than five years, then there are few people who can feel secure in their citizenship.

On March 20th the Department of Justice issued a statement in Chicago and Washington concerning the case of Tokyo Rose. Tokyo Rose was born in the United States, and now she is undergoing hearings and faces political deportation. She was convicted of treason. After serving her jail sentence and being released she was no longer a citizen. The Walter-McCarran Act says that a non-citizen can be denorted to any country that will accept her.

This is an attack not just against the foreign born, but it is against citizenship. In fact, the Justice Department said on March 20th, that 345 American citizens, native-born and naturalized, have been deported or excluded from the United States as draft dodgers since the end of world war two. The rights of all persons—native-born as well as naturalized—to their American citizenship is under attack.

A final point, the defense of the American Committee * * *. After having sat through all the Washington, D. C., hearings, I know that on the basis of the record the Subversive Activities Control Board has absolutely no ground to find against the American Committee.

But neither the Justice Department nor, I am afraid, the S. A. C. B. are in any way concerned with the truth about the American Committee—their sole perspective is to make it impossible to defend the foreign born. The reliance of the American Committee is not on the record it made before the SACB, but its reliance is upon you people here, and the people throughout the country to protest, to fight, to guarantee that the American Committee will continue to exist. * * *

This is indeed an important year in the life of the American Committee * * *. This year we have taken a rather long step for ourselves—for the first time in the history of our organization we are going beyond the Rocky Mountains—the 24th Annual Conference of the American Committee will be held in Los Augeles next

December.

I am happy to be here today. No doubt the Los Angeles Committee will continue to grow and contribute as effectively as it has in the past to the defense of all foreign-born Americans regardless of nationality, especially defense of the rights of Mexican-Americans in the Southwest.

PROBLEMS OF MEXICAN-AMERICANS, AND MASS DEPORTATIONS OF MEXICAN NATIONALS

ESTHER SHANDLER, attorney, member of the Legal Panel of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, chaired the session. She opened with a short résumé of mimeographed material prepared for the Conference on this question, stated that its vast scope could hardly be adequately discussed in the two hours alloted.

Zochi (Virginia) Ruiz read an ANMA report on importation and deportation of Mexican agricultural workers, and the problems involved.

Mauricio Terrazas, Regional Director of ANMA, read the report of the ANMA Welfare Committee. He then reported on the Vasquez deportation case and how for the first time a Mexican victim of this attack was freed on bail, through the cooperation of the Los Augeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born He stressed the fact that in opening up this tremendous area of struggle by striving to include people of Mexican descent and their organizations we must understand that the leaders of the struggle must be Mexican—that involved here is the question of the Mexican people expressing themselevs in their own language, issuing literature in their own language, and developing their own leadership. An example as to the possibilities of this work is the recently organized Santa Ana Defense Committee. The most important section of the people in this part of the country is the Mexican-American community, embracing 450,000 in the Los Angeles area alone. Mexican history and tradition are full of struggle. The Mexican people are militant today, as witness the march of 4,000 Mexican miners for 900 miles to protest their conditions; also the Mine, Mill, and Smelter Workers Union in New Mexico, where they have been on strike for a whole year and where women manned the picket line when the men were ordered to stay away. At one time the entire population was jailed—the authorities having to rent hotels to supplement the jail. We must find the correct way to work, or the Mexican people will stay away and we will talk to ourselves.

Discussion

Delegates from Los Angeles, San Diego, San Jose, Santa Ana, and other areas concerned most vitally with these problems took part in a lively discussion. It was pointed out that at the heart of the problem is the fact that agricultural workers who should be getting a minimum of One Dollar an hour are pitted against contract labor at lower rates imported from Mexico. A suggestion that the Mexican government stop migration of labor from Mexico was opposed as being incorrect. Others pointed out that organization of these workers is the real problem, that this is the viewpoint of labor leaders like Toledano, who said that they should be organized and their language and culture be preserved, and that organized labor in Mexico would then be able to take care of their end of the problem. A delegate stressed the complexity of the problem of organizing cultural workers, citing four categories: (1) "Wetbacks", here illegally; (2) Nationals here under contract; (3) Mexicans here legally for many years; and (4) Mexican-American citizens. An official of ANMA spoke of his trip through Missouri, Kansas, and Oklahoma to survey conditions among Mexican workers, and said that they can be organized only if a campaign is conducted on the level of their understanding. Another delegate related how he had been confirmed in his devotion to the underdog by struggles in the mining fields during depression days. He dealt with the deliberate importation of "illegals" as a basis for reduction of wage standards and overall discrimination against the Mexican people as a whole. Leaders are coming up among the Mexican people, but as yet there are not enough to go around in the vast and complex tasks ahead. In organizing Mexican workers, should we confine ourselves to existing unions or go out among the Mexican masses? Alfredo Montoya pointed out that certain issues must be kept clearly in mind in regard to these problems. We must correctly estimate who is the oppressor. Unions and other organizations certainly should protest to the Mexican government because it lends itself to this condition, but the corporations of the U.S. are the main source of oppression and exploitation. The divided categories of Mexican people must be overcome by unity—that no matter how people came into this country from Mexico they have a right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and as such should be organized into unions and protected from discrimination and deportation. Much work remains to be done, much further discussion must take place. Claudio La Nussa, Filipino, saw a parallel between the Mexican and the Filipino people in the United States. Spoke of the irony of Filipino workers being treated as "aliens" starting with the so-called "independence" of the Philippine Islands. Offered to work with a committee on Mexican-American problem. Art Takei, of the Independent Progressive Party, said we must not lose sight of our common enemy who is doing everything possible to divide all people into segments hostile to one another. He cited the present trend stemming from the Japanese peace treaty. The big farmers are using the government in Washington: they know the Mexican workers are beginning to organize and fight back, so they are proposing to contract for cheap labor from Japan. Proposed that the Conference go on record against this move. Stated that Japanese small farmers are forced by competition with hig farmers into competing by hiring Mexican and Filipino workers at substandard wages and conditions. He felt that they could be swung onto side Would be willing to serve on a subcommittee to help solve some of these problems, urged full support by progressives and voiced support of Negro Labor Council program as parallel to what we are trying to achieve with regard to the Mexican people.

Proposals

1. To set up a subcommittee to specialize in deportation attacks on Mexican people, composed of ANMA and LACFPFB members, headed by a full-time Mexican organizer. (Several delegates volunteered to work with this committee—Rose Watkins of Orange County IPP pledged financial support and urged others to do likewise, and asked for Mexican speaker to report on this Conference to meeting in Mexican community in Bellflower.)

2. To launch a national campaign around some outstanding Mexican under deportation proceedings.

3. Recommendation that a pamphlet on subject of the Panel discussion be published in Spanish and English.

4. Recommended that the General Session go on record against importation of Japanese nationals for agrigultural exploitation.

5. That Art Takei serve with above subcommittee to gain cooperation of Japanese small farmers on these problems.

All proposals, except No. 4 (which was referred to the subcommittee for further study and clarification) were adopted at the GENERAL SESSION.

Rose Chernin, executive director of the L. A. Committee of Protection of Foreign Born, then read her "Report for 1955-1956" of which highlights follow (it is available in full on request):

"Greetings from the Staff, to the delegates and observers, officers, and sponsors, and the deportees and denaturalees whose conrageous fight to maintain their constitutional rights is also a fight for a democratic America for all.

"Since the relaxation of the Cold War following Geneva, new struggles have been launched under more favorable conditions, in a rising spirit that holds much promise.

"We are gathered in Conference to heighten the campaign to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law while strengthening the Defense of its Victims. This presidential election year offers us great opportunitites to stimulate new activities and enlist new forces in the fight.

"During the past fiscal year we have won some victories, in administrative hearings and in courts. For the period in question, not a single person defended by us has been deported. Many of our dozens of active cases are approaching a similar critical stage in federal court and administrative actions. We must speed the tempo of Repeal activities if we are to prevent the lifetime exiling of a number of victims this year.

"The recent 4 to 4 tie vote by the U. S. Supreme Court in the David Hyun appeal for due process of law indicates uncertainty among the voting justices, and in that sense is a moral victory. However, in effect it is a defeat, since the tie vote upholds the bad decision of the lower court, and once again renders David Hyun deportable. Of course, other action—every possible action—will be taken to prevent his deportation to South Korea."

[Editor's Note.—A petition to the Supreme Court for rehearing has been filed on David Hyun's behalf; on grounds that Mr. Justice Clark, who had disqualified himself (hence the tie vote), should withdraw his self-disqualification and vote so as to provide a clear-cut decision that would require the writing of majority and minority opinions. The petition also asks that the final decision be made contingent upon the Rowoldt case, an appeal against political deportation recently certified by the Court for review. (See Abner Green's remarks above.) 1

"Other cases reaching a critical stage are those of John Juhn, Diamond Kimm, Paul Kochi, and Edo Mita.

"The Immigration and Naturalization Service has succeeded in adjusting the process of mass deportation of Mexican nationals so that its worst effects are concealed from public view. Mass detention is now carried out in the Chula Vista camp south of San Diego, and other places close to the border. Aspects of this will be discussed in the panel on Mexican-American affairs. There is still a severe impact on the Mexican-American community. Two weeks ago Jose Castelum, who has lived here since he was ten years old, and has U. S. born wife and children, was arrested for deportation for political reasons. Pedro Benitez, resident here for decades, must surrender on Monday for expulsion to Mexico, as we have exhausted all possible legal recourse. The fight for the rights of Mexican-Americans is a crucial part of our program, requiring the special attention of trade unions and community organizations. In this respect, we welcome the community action on a broad scale now carried on by Allianza and by the Community Service Organization.

"Contrasting with the constant pressure by the Justice Department for political deportation of progressives, is the recent local court decision with regard to the notorious Artukovich, freeing him of the need for bail and denying the Jugoslav government's request for extradition of this man to stand trial for having signed death warrants for 200,000 Jews and other minority peoples during the Nazi occupation of Jugoslavia.

"Also, a self-confessed assassin of a Soviet diplomat in Poland was admitted to the U.S. for permanent residence.

"Such is the racist and reactionary nature of our immigration policy, codified in the Walter-McCarran Law.

"Foreign-born citizens find their rights as citizens under attack; they are reduced to second-class citizenship. Even native-born citizens are being deprived of their rights, especially Mexican-Americans. The Negro people have long been denied citizenship rights. Now the Alabama state legislature threatens expulsion—mass deportation—of Negro residents. We receive daily accounts of continuing harrassment of foreign-born citizens by Immigration Service officials.

"We intend carrying on a nationwide campaign against second-class citizenship, locally popularizing the defense of nine victims undergoing court action to denaturalize them. For this purpose we have printed the pamphlet 'Citizens Without Rights' by Harry Carlisle for mass circulation (in your kits) and we urge most strongly that all delegates and observers request their organizations and groups to order quantities of these for distribution to the membership. In the JOUNNAL FOR 1956 (also in your kits) is an article on 'his question by Peter Chaunt, and biographical stories about the Los Angeles denaturalees.

"The Law is highly complicated. For that reason, we find that we must continuously explain its provisions and workings. This we have done in literally dozens of popular and detailed analyses, in brochures and leaflets, special articles and petitions. These have been widely distributed. Such data may be used without or with credit to us by organizations who so desire. We will also provide speakers on the Repeal Campaign.

"Recently we focussed public attention on certain dangers in the President's proposals for changing the Law. Not only are these proposals (now before Congress) confined in the main to limited modification of the immigrant admissions program, but ask for additional 'discretionary' powers for the Attorney General with regard to admissions, deportations, and suspension of action in cases, which in effect would eliminate the present recourse to federal court for emergency action and review of evidence in deportation cases.

"The appointment of the Dixiecrat Senator Eastland as chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee is a severe blow to the campaign for Repeal, as this notorious racist is a staunch supporter of the Walter-McCarran Law (as is, of course, Rep. Walter of the House Judiciary Committee). The fight for first-class citizenship for Negro people thus coincides with the fight against the Walter-McCarran Law.

"The center of the present Repeal movement is the petition to discharge the House 'Anfuso' Bill, which in all important respects parallels the 'Lehman' Senate Bill to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. Every congressman must be placed on public record as signatory to the 'Anfuso' discharge petition.

"The Repeal movement has made big strides since the days of the President's

"The Repeal movement has made big strides since the days of the President's Commission in 1952. Many outstanding national figures appeared before the Kilgore public hearings on the Law to state their vigorous opposition on many grounds. Locally, the Democratic Party on a county, then on a state level, went on record for repeal; and the spokesman for its nationalities commission nationally, Gov. Williams of Michigan, is publicly in favor of outright repeal. The AFL-CIO merger convention placed itself on record for Repeal. The NAACP and dozens of religious and civic groups resolutely oppose the Law. Presidential candidates are all on record against the Law to one degree or another. Kefauver has the best actual record, since he voted against original passage of the Law, and is now committed to Repeal. Stevenson also favors Repeal.

"We will work with all forces devoted to Repeal or Revision of the Law, in mutually agreeable ways. Our resources are ready to serve any group action without strings.

"We rely on the people. Therefore our basic program for the fiscal year ahead includes public campaigning for Repeal in the broadest possible way, in the mainstream of the presidential elections. We will issue a continuous stream of literature adapted to the changing circumstances. We hope that your organizations will fully participate.

"As Executive Director, I salute all those who collectively made our 1955–1956 activities possible: the staff, Josephine Yanez, Harry Carlisle, Miriam Herenian, the Deportees Committee and its chairman Rose Spector, the Ways and Means Committee under Fania Bernstein's chairmanship, the Area committees, and the Finance Committee with Joe Klein and Max Hittelman in particular; also the Conference Planning Committee under the chairmanship of David Hyun. May the Panel Sessions be fruitful."

Standing Conference Committees were elected, and the Session was adjourned, to reassemble after lunch.

GENERAL SESSION: 1 P. M.

Bill Oliver of the Songmakers led audience participation singing of two songs specially prepared for the Conference. During the singing Rev. Fritchman accompanied Dr. Du Bois into the auditorium amid loud applause.

Rev. Stephen H. Fritchman, remarked, as Chairman:

Speaks not only as officer of the L. A. Committee for Protection of Foreign Born for several years, but as a native-born American who feels a deep debt to foreign-born Americans, past and present, and to this committee, for their contributions to the total American community. Praises Committee because its time and talent and money have changed the lives of hundreds of human beings * * * families are together, fathers are working, children know the meaning of parental love, because this Committee has known no limits to the performance of its tasks.

It has also taught native-born Americans the lessons of equality of people regardless of place of birth, the need to fight for our civil rights * * * to fight against those who despise equality, who are captive to hate and fear of people who are different. There are childhood myths which die hard with selfish or ignorant men and women.

As a native-born American, he is grateful not only to Altgeld, Carl Schurz, and Tom Paine, but to Rose Chernin, David Hyun, Edo Mita, and others who by their courage help to make this a country for lovers of freedom. Every living American must learn the lessons this teaches us.

With regard to the glorification of an informer into a heroic American housewife, as with the recent TV programs presenting Marion Miller, stool-pigeon, he expressed concern about the morals of the young children who viewed such programs, making perfidy seem honorable. He hoped all have reacted by protesting such programs, to the station.

Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois then made brief remarks:

There are three things in American history of the greatest importance: the extermination of the American Indian, the enslavement of the Negro people, and the injustice done to the foreign-born. Every epoch has produced severe discriminatory features against different national groups which have sought haven on our shores, so this injustice is no recent development.

The Indian has disappeared along with his culture which is among the finest. The American Negro has become an enormous problem, and the foreign-born is a continuing problem. Some Americans want to forget such unpleasant problems. Our job is to see that they do not forget them but continue to face them.

Harry Carlisle took over the chairmanship of the session when Rev. Fritchman expressed his regrets at being unable to stay. He presented Josephine Yanez, active staff worker of the Committee, for a report on Deportations, highlights of which follow:

Josephine Yanez report:

There are 125 grounds for deportation in the Walter-McCarran Law, which, with the blessing of the U. S. Supreme Court, place the non-citizen at the mercy of the Justice Department. Defense of the rights of non-citizens is a very real matter. Since World War two ended, almost 2 million non-citizens have been deported from the U. S. The vast majority were sent to Mexico cattle-fashion, after being rounded up in mass raids and summarily ordered expelled

ADJOURNED TO PANEL SESSIONS, WHICH ARE REPORTED IN APPENDICES

Final Session, 4 P. M. to 6 P. M.: Chairman, Robert W. Kenny, Esq.

The Chairman paid tribute to the Committee, to Rose Chernin and Abner Green. Today's repression is greater in scope and effect than even the Palmer Raids. But for the Committees they represent, the American public would have remained unaware of the attack on the foreign born through deportation and denaturalization.

Esther Shandler reported on the status of cases defended by Legal Panel: 20 facing imminent deportation, nearly 50 on lifetime supervisory-parole. 8 denaturalization cases to be fought through the courts. In the past period heavy expense has mounted for court action. * * * The David Hyun case was not lost in spite of 4 to 4 decision upholding lower court, and further action will be taken. Every effort will be made to keep all deportees here, and to retain the citizenship of those whose naturalization is under attack.

Treasurer J. Klein reported that about $36,000 was raised in 1955, as against the $50,000 budget planned. We began 1956 with a deficit that had to be made-up through loans. Now we are in the midst of an intense fund drive to raise a minimum of $50,000 for the 1956 Budget. Last year we spent little more than $4,000 for educational work, whereas we should have spent many more thousands on radio, TV, and literature. Goal for fund drive as of the Conference was $7,500,00, with another $10,000 to be delivered by May 20th at a brunch, and the balance of $12,500 to be raised by the time of the June 17th Festival of Nationalities (making $30,000 for the first six months; the rest to be raised by the Dinner and other Fall activities). All were urged to participate.

The Credentials Committee chairman, Fania Bernstein, reported 310 delegates and observers registered, from defense committees, trade unions, cultural clubs, community and civic organizations, nationality groups, fraternal and church bodies. Attendance at the four main panels was fairly evenly divided.

The Nominations Committee chairman Harry Carliste reported out the same slate for honorary chairman and cochairman (Rt. Rev. Walter Mitchell; and Judge Stanley Moffatt, Mrs. Dorothy N. Marshall, Hugh McBeth, Sr., Rev. Stephen H. Fritchman, Rev. Charles H. Davis) and added the name of Robert W. Kenny Esq. They were elected by acclaim. Rose Chernin was acclaimed Executive Director, empowered to appoint staff workers. Treasurer J. Klein was reelected.

COMMITTEE TO DEFEND CHOON CHA AND CHUNGSOON KWAK, 515 West 111th Street, Suite 35, New York 25, N. Y., October 11, 1955.

DEAR FRIEND: We have important news, and we must urge that you who have cooperated with us so fully in the past, act once again, and immediately.

As you may remember, Chung Soon and Choon Cha Kwak in 1954 filed suit against Attorney General Brownell in order to restrain the Department of Justice from deporting them to South Korea where they stand in grave danger of persecution and death.

Recently, the Department of Justice informed our lawyers that if the Kwaks were willing to withdraw their suit the Immigration Department would give them a further hearing. This procedure includes a stipulation that should the Immigration Department's findings again be unfavorable, reasonable time will be allowed for the suit to be reopened.

However, there are indications that this may be a move by the Immigration Service to strengthen its own position so that it can the more easily carry out its intention of deporting the Kwaks to South Korea. The situation is, accordingly, crucial. It is of the utmost importance that we do not relax our efforts. We must see to it that Attorney General Brownell knows that those who have fought for the Kwaks in the past, and many other Americans, are still vitally concerned to assure the safety of this courageous couple. In the past it was your support that helped prevent the Kwaks' threatened deportation. Now we are asking you to write again to Attorney General Brownell about the Kwak case. The enclosed letter gives all the pertinent facts. You can either sign and mail it, or—and this would be much better, of course—write your own personal letter on the basis of the facts provided.

Will you not also speak to your friends and ask them to write? And will you please let us know what you have done? Your continued support is vital.

Sincerely

Louise Mally, Secretary,

I have written to Attorney General Brownell [ ].

I have signed your form letter and sent it to Attorney General Brownell [ ].

MAY DAY

Labor's cause is our cause.

May Day is one of the proudest holidays America knows.

Like Thanksgiving, May Day was born in America. The first May Day was held in Chicago in 1856 – and in the years since, May Day has become a part of the best American tradition.

For those who practice in our fields in the arts, the sciences, and the professions, May Day has an added significance this year. Never before has the tide of reaction in America run so strong; never before was the threat of fascism, of the estinction of all civil liberties so great.

If fascism should triumph in America, we would pay the fullest price. We in particular can live and work only as free men. Therefore, we join with labor in the great May Day demonstration for peace, security and freedom. We add our strength to the strength of the masses of people who cherish democracy.

WE ASK YOU TO JOIN WITH US! WE ASK YOU TO MARCH WITH US! ONLY THE STRENGTH OF THE PEOPLE CAN HALT THE TIDE OF REACTION! AND ONLY ON DAYS LIKE MAY DAY CAN THE STRENGTH OF THE PEOPLE BE SO CLEARLY SHOWN!

Our section of the parade assembles at 38th Street, between Eighth and Ninth Avenues at three o'clock on May 1st.

LOOK FOR OUR BANNERS!

Whether you be physician, dentist, lawyer, artist, writer, musician, teacher, clergyman, actor, dancer, accountant – or just a plain citizen who wants to march by his fellow man, your place is with us.

Noted Writers Aid Don West's Fight Against Georgia Bigots

Ry John Hudson Jones

Now's the time to defend Don West, the poet who stuck his sharp pen into the side of Southern bigots. Author of Clods of Southern Earth. he is being sued by a Georgia man. Charlie Lewallen, for using the same name in a poem on Kentucky miners entitled "Harlan Coal Digger, 1934." In fact a whole campaign of vilification is being whipped up against this people's The libel suit is plainly trumped up, and smells of the current assault being made on American culture and artists.

Here in the North and East, where Howard Past and others are being attacked by the Hearst press and its literary vivi-section program, Contemporary Writers actively campaigned against this "pull-outyour - gun - when - you - hear - the word-culture" movement. Now the organization of anti-fascist writers are rallying for West with the "Committee to Defend Don West." JOIN COMMITTEE

Discussion Outline for the Fight Against the Mundt-Nixon Bill

Issued by: National Educational Dent., Communist Party

1. AN ATTEMPTED BLITZ TO DESTROY THE RILL OF RIGHTS

Comrade Eugene Dennis, general secretary of the Party, rightly characterized the sudden passage of the Mundt-Nixon Bill in the Senate Judiciary Committee by a 12 to 1 vote as an attempt to engineer a "Pearl Harbor on the Bill of Rights", a sneak attack before the people can organize a defense. This method is typical of the fascist-minded reactionaries like Mundt, Nixon, and Ferguson. They know that if time is allowed for the people to be clear about the real nature of the Bill, and organize their forces, it cannot and will not pass. Because of these blitz tactics, the most urgent attention must be paid to the issue. It must be the No. 1 issue for all Communists, all progressives, all labor organizations. Only quick, decisive, militant, unsparing efforts can defeat this police state measure which represents a grave peril to labor and the people.

II. A GESTAPO POLICE STATE BILL TO OUTLAW THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND DESTROY ALL PROGRESSIVE LABOR UNIONS AND PEOPLES ORGANIZATIONS

The Mundt-Nixon Bill is a fascist measure. It is a hundred times worse than the Taft-Hartley Bill. It is a thought-control bill. Senator Lauger said, "This bill, if enacted, would constitute the greatest threat to our American civil liberties since the Alien Sedition Law of 1796." This is stating it mildly. The Bill would outlaw the Communist Party and other organizations. If the Mundt Bill becomes law, the Bill of Rights would be dead and buried.

III. THE COMMUNIST PARTY WOULD NEVER COMPLY WITH SUCH A BILL

Wm. Z. Foster, as Chairman of the Party has stated during the last fight against this bill that if it were passed, the Communist Party would never comply with this Bill because it is illegal and unconstitutional. This remains the Party's position. Foster gave three reasons why the Party would not comply. These were:

- 1. Would not perjure itself by admitting any resemblance to the Hitler-like caricature of its nature and purposes set forth in the bill.
  - 2. Would not become an accompliee in proposed murder of Bill of Rights.
- 3. Would not expose its members to persecution and blacklisting in employment.

IV. MAIN FEATURES OF THE BILL

S. 2311 is entitled "The Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950. Section 2 makes a "legislative finding" that there is a "World-wide revolutionary political movement" whose nature and purposes are described according to Hitler's Mein Kampf caricature.

Note that this section of the bill is so fantastic that it states as "fact" charges the prosecution did not even dare to make in the Foley Square frameup.

On the basis of this Big Lie, the bill would make certain requirements of (a) "Communist-political organization," and (b) "Communist-front organizations." Everybody knows there is only one "Communist-political organization" in the United States—and that is The Communist Party.

Section 7 would require the Communist Party, within 30 days after enactment, to register with the Attorney General—giving past and present names and addresses of all its members, the sources of its funds and record of expenditures.

Section 8 would subject individual Communist Party members to fines and imprisonment if they did not individually register in the event that their names were omitted from this list. Section 5 and 6 would prohibit Communists from holding government jobs, running for public office, securing or using a passport, etc.

Section 11 would require the Communist Party to stamp all its mail and publications with what amounts to a "poison" label.

"Communist-front organizations" would be subject to similar, though slightly modified restrictions. Any organization, trade union, peace group, fraternal society, etc., whose program or policy coincides in any way with those of the Communist Party would be required to register—although not to give the names and addresses of its individual members. If its officers refused to comply, membership in such organization would become itlegal, and individuals who failed to resign promptly would also be subject to fine and imprisonment.

Section 13 places power in a 3-man, president-appointed Board the power to determine which organizations shall be known as "Communist-political organizations," and which as "Communist-front organizations,"

Standards for making this determination include: "the extent to which its policies effectuate the policies of a foreign government"—(read peace) "the extent to which its policies do not deviate from those of such foreign government or of the Communist-political organization"—(read peace, equal rights, other aspects of CP immediate program) "the extent to which it fails to disclose its membership and its meetings are secret", etc., etc.

V. BILL NOT AIMED AT COMMUNIST ALONE—ALL LABOR AND PROGRESSIVE MOVEMENTS PARTICULARLY MILITANT UNIONS

1. The take description of the nature of the Communist movement and the other provisions of this bill would give power to a politically appointed board, according to Senator Langer, to "outlaw associations of citizens whose views are considered by it to be daugerous. Under these vague powers, trade unions and other organizations which may seek to alter the status quo or oppose this or that government policy by lawful means—would be branded as traitorous agents of foreign governments or movements."....

2. Senator Kilgore in a letter to Chairman Pat McCarran of the Senate Judiciary Committee said that the Mundt Bill was fundamentally a sedition bill and that "such bills would enslave labor and should be called Slave Bills."

3. Here it must be pointed out that labor unious particularly progressive-led unions are more vulnerable to attack loday than in 1948. This is so because of expulsions from the C. I. O. and similar red-baiting attacks in the A. F. of L. By referring to Murray's statements, progressive unions that have been expelled "for following the CP line" could be called Communist front organizations and be ordered to register.

VI. THE FAKERY THAT THE MUNDT BILL IS AIMED ONLY AT MAKING THE COM-MUNISTS WORK OPENLY

1. From the outset Mundt has tried to create the impression that the bill is not intended to outlaw the Communists. It would only make the Communists "operate in the open." This is a huge fake as was proven in the Daily Worker editorial on March 7, 1950. Said the Editorial:

"Let's follow the Senator's logic as he tries to put over this measure. This bill provides for 10 years in jail and a $10,000 fine for persons who seek to establish a totalitarian dictatorship under the domination of any foreign government, foreign organization or individual. Mundt's bill then specifically states that the Communist movement seeks to carry out the above aims.

"Then the bill provides for the registration of the C. P. and every C. P. member and every organization which the House un-Americans choose to call a 'Communist front.'

"Come out into the open and admit you are a criminal who should spend 10 years in jail—that is what the bill says in so many words."

2. Mundt says that he only wants to make Communists register as do Republicans and Democrats. This is fakery too. Democrats and Republicans are not obliged to register. Registration of Democrats or Republicans is volun-No citizen is obliged to register his political affiliation under present But if this goes through it will not be long before everyone will be obliged to register first his political affiliation, next his religious faith.

On the question of working openly, it must be said that the Communists do work openly. Whenever they keep their membership private, it is because every organization has a right to keep their membership private. Labor unions do not make their lists public and regard efforts to do so as threatening a black list. In fact the C. I. O. pointed out in 1949:

"The provision in the bill that resistance to efforts to obtain membership lists is a hallmark of a 'Communist political organization' is particularly objectionable to labor organizations which have learned through long experience that the submission of such lists is the first step to a black list through which an organization may be completely destroyed.

3. Under present conditions it is difficult to make one's political affiliation known. If Mundt is really interested in having Communists function fully publicly then he should accept the challenge of the DW Editorial, March 9th, 1950, which called on him "to introduce a bill immediately declaring it to be a crime for any employer—public or private—to discriminate against any employee because of Communist affiliation and setting up machinery to make the prohibition effective."

VII. BILL TO OUTLAW THE PEACE MOVEMENT—CURB LABOR'S GROWING STRUGGLES— WHO'S RESPONSIBLE FOR IT?

The Mundt Bill is another long and decisive step in the process of fascization of the country. Wall Street imperialism is driving toward fascism as part of its drive to war. The war drive has been stepped up and in consequence the attacks on civil liberties have become ever sharper.

* * :

- 1. Wall Street imperialism wants the Mundt Bill to stop the growing peace movement which has been spurred forward by the announcement to produce the H-Bomb and is finding strong expression in demand for negotiations with the Soviet Union and for the ending of the cold war.
- 2. The Mundt Bill is also the answer of reaction to the miners' victory and to the growing strike movement which is taking place despite and often against the policies and wishes of the labor bureaucrats.
- 3. The Mundt Bill is the attempt of reaction to crush the movement of the Negro people for civil rights.
- 4. The Mundt Bill is a sign of the fears of Wall Street of the growing economic crisis in the country.
- 5. Responsible are not only the Republicans like Mundt, Nixon, and Ferguson, but also the Democrats. The vote in the Judiciary Committee included Truman Democrats like Frank Graham, Kilgore, and others. They received the green light to support the bill from the Truman Administration in the speeches of Attorney General McGrath who called upon the Supreme Court to reverse the Schneiderman decision and from Truman's press conference of March in which he took full credit for launching the anti-Communist drive.

VIII. FOR FEPC NOW-NO MUNDT BILL

To defeat the Mundt Bill, it is essential to take up another national issue of civil rights—the fight of the Negro people for civil liberties. The fight against the Mundt Bill is intimately tied in with the fight for an FEPC now. They are in reality two sides of the same fight against the repression of the people and for the maintenance an extension of civil rights. The FEPC issue is being sabotaged by the same forces that are pushing through the Mundt Bill. The fight for FEPC must be renewed. Now is the time for pressing for the widest mobilization around the issue for FEPC now—no Mundt Bill.

IX. UNITY ON THE WIDEST SCALE IS POSSIBLE AND NECESSARY

The fight against the bill is already underway. The National Committee to defeat the Mundt-Nixon bill is in action again. Offices have been opened at 930 "F" St., N. W., Room 514, Washington, D. C. The immediate attack on the bill from all quarters shows that it is possible to achieve the widest front against the bill. This is also imperative since it must be expected that the Hearst-sponsored American Legion conference will go into action in behalf of the bill. A wide, unprecedented lineup can be achieved if (a) the issues are made clear and if the demagogic arguments are effectively answered especially that it is only aimed at the Communists; that it is merely to get them "to work in the open"; that it has been modified to meet objections regarding constitutionality, etc. It should not be taken for granted that the bill is known. It should be quoted and sections should be explained carefully, precisely, in line with arguments given in D. W.

2. Effort must be made to link this bill with the fight for peace. That is central. The Mundt Bill is aimed to silence the peace forces. This must be explained clearly to the people. Reaction wants war. The Bill would bring war nearer. It should also be linked with relief, rent control, wage increases, etc. In each organization it should be shown how the Mundt Bill would stifle the fight for the needs and demands of these organizations.

3. Effort should be made to reach all organizations, particularly from below, reaching the branches of local organizations and individuals without regard to political opinion or differences on other questions. It is important to involve all kinds of people and make them active and leaders in this fight.

4. Effort must be made to reach social-democratic workers, members, and branches of the Liberal Party, ADA, and similar organizations under reformist leadership

5. Everyone should be lined up—city and town councils, city councilmen, aldermen, state legislators, etc.

In order to line up these forces consideration should be given to Oven Letters to public officials such as Mayors, City Council, etc., asking them to take a stand. It is also advisable to address open letters to such organizations as ADA and other so-called liberal bodies where they fail to act.

X. MILITANT TRADE UNION AND WORKING CLASS ACTION DECISIVE FOR VICTORY AGAINST MUNDT BILL AND FOR FEPC

But to win, the unions and particularly the progressive unions must step forward into leadership in this fight on a scale like and even far greater than the Taft-Hartley fight.

1. Local unions must be lined up. Shops must be rallied, noonday meetings should be held addressed by union representatives, shop stewards, etc. gate meetings should be held.

2. Resolutions, telegrams, petitions, and other forms of protest should be adopted for FEPC now and no Mundt bill.

3. Delegations should be sent by shops to senators and other representatives. These should be the first steps leading quickly to conferences in which unions play a decisive role, to big rallies, demonstrations, parades, and for other protest actions.

It should be clear that in this fight only the widest participation of the people can win.

4. In neighborhoods, various means must be considered to interest and arouse the people. In addition to those already indicated, such measures should be considered, radio broadcasts, meetings around chain stores with loud speakers, baby carriage parades, Saturday leaflet distribution, meetings, parades, etc., in big shopping streets, transportation points, etc., house-to-house canvassing, letters to editors and chain letters and similar broad grassroots methods.

XI. WHAT THE CP CLUBS SHOULD DO IMMEDIATELY

1. Discuss the issue--clarify all members-get the widest mobilization and make it central for the next period. See that it is taken up and line of action worked out for each club and individual. Every member must be involved. The greatest initiative should be given to club functionaries. Every encouragement and praise should be given to clubs and individuals for results achieved in rally-Functionaries should remember this is a People's fight and the rank and file must be aroused and organized, including CP members.

2. Combat two dangers—underestimation of the dangerous character of the bill or of the danger of passage of the bill—and the other danger—fatalism that it can't be defeated.

3. On the basis of this fight, raise the financial quotas and push forward the drive for the Press.

1. Follow Daily Worker and Worker for news, editorials, etc.

2. See Public Affairs Committee bulletin for practical directives of the Party in the fight.

3. The National Committee to Defeat the Mundt Bill-930 F St., N. W., Rm. 514. Washington, D. C., for material for mass distribution, speakers, etc.

4. On the connection of Mundt Bill, FEPC and the fight for peace and democracy see pamphlet by Joe Clark on H-Bomb; also pamphlet by Bob Hall on FEPC.

34 Notables Sign Appeal For JAFRC 11

Thirty-four prominent American writers and artists joined in an appeal to President Truman, Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson and Attorney General Tom Clark in behalf of 11 executive board members of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. The 11 board members have been convicted of contempt of the House. Un-American Committee for refusal to yield books and records of the organization to the congressional group.

Charging that they were forced to "conclude that the defendants are being imprisoned because their political views include opposition to Franco Spain," the writers and artists urged the high government officials to "use their high office to reverse this willful negation of constitutional freedom."

The appeal was made public on the eve of an expected ruling by the Supreme Court which will determine whether the defendants serve prison terms of three to six months or have their case reheard.

"By condemning the executive board of this committee to jail," the open letter declared, "all three branches of our Federal government have in effect laid themselves open to the charge of imposing political imprisonment in the United States."

Bookfair Invitation

Dear Editor: Company

In the midst of book burning and censorship of books; in the wake of the violence of Peekskill and the condemnation of an idea implicit in the trial at Foley Square, it is well that there are those who remember the dignity of the printed word, the nobility, of thought, and the delights of literature.

In order to Honor books and the writers of books, the Writing and Publishing Division of the National Council of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, Inc. is bringing together a large group of writers, along with the books they have written, at a Christmas Bookfair, Sunday, December 4th at the ACA Galleries, 63 East 57th St. from two in the afternoon until 10 p.m.

May we of the Bookfair Committee take this opportunity most cordially to invite the readers of The Compass to be our guests on this occasion (there is no admission charge); to drink a glass of sherry with us, to meet, and wish all success to many of our favorite and most distinguished writers, to leaf through the pages of their books, and perhaps buy and have autographed some of the volumes that we will have assembled.

Among the writers who will also be our guests will be Clifford Odets, Stefan Heym, Howard Fast, Shireley Graham, Pierre Van Paassen, Muriel Rukeyser, O. John Rogge, Louis Untermeyer, B. A. Botkin, Ira Wolfert, John Howard Lawson, and many other outstanding novelists, poets and prose writers.

We sincerely hope that the readers of The Compass will join with us in honoring those who, in a difficult time and a difficult profession, have never forgotten the responsibility of the writer to his audience and to the progressive future of mankind.

Says UN Visits Show Cease-Fire Possible Now

"Our discussions with United Nations delegations lead us to believe more than ever that a cease-fire in Korea is possible now," said Thomas Richardson, national co-director of the American Peace Crusade, yesterday.

Moreover, the delegation of Americans visiting UN delegations challenged the State Department to join with Peace Crusade canvassers and learn the real peace sentiment of the American men and women on the Korean war.'

The delegation visited representatives of the Indian, U.S. and Soviet delegations to the UN. Richardson said that representatives of the three countries were presented with a statement appealing for "leading forces within the UN to undertake special and extraordinary measures, utilizing all possible channels, diplomatic and otherwise, within the UN, to bring an end to the killing and slaughter in Korea through an immediate cease-fire.

CITE POLLS

The group pointed out to Frederick Rope, representing the U.S. delegation, that a nation-wide peace referendum, which the American Peace Crusade is conducting, showed 90 percent favor an immediate cease-fire with remaining issues to be negotiated later. They said a Gallup Poll and other polls also had shown that the majority of the American people were opposed to continuing the Korean war.

Rope defended the State Department's position of continuing the war until there could be a "settlement with honor." He ignored the evidence of the Gallup poll, he challenged the scientific validity of the APC referendum. Richardson then challenged the State Department to join with APC pollers in going into any neighborhood to find out the sentiment.

Valerian Zorin, Soviet delegate to the UN, reaffirmed the position taken Saturday by Andrei Vishinsky in support of the Polish resolution on Korea. Zorin brought out that the press, in reporting Vishinsky's speech, neglected to quote from the portion of his address referring to new peace proposals presented by North Korean and Chinese representatives at Panmuniom on the very day the U. S. broke off negotiations. These proposals included participation of the Red Cross in repatriation of prisoners.

He said that any question of cease-fire should be discussed by the nations directly involved in the Korean war, pointing out that the Soviet Union was not a belligerent. He cited a request made to the President of the UN Assembly today by the government of North Korea for an opportunity to discuss the war hefore the UN.

INDIA'S POSITION

A spokesman for the Indian delegation, said India was "watching and waiting," and pledged that if the parties involved in the Korean war so requested, India would stand ready to offer its good offices to help bring about peace.

Those in the APC delegation included:

Nora Stanton Barney, women's leader and granddaughter of Elizabeth Cadv Stanton, fighter for women's rights; Richardson; Rabbi Abraham J. Bick, United Committee of Jewish Societies and Landsmanshaft Federations; Dr. Clementina J. Paolone, chairman of the American Women for Peace; James Gary, business manager of Local 1227 of the United Electrical Workers; Halois Moorehead Robinson, executive secretary AWP; Louise Malley, writer; George Kleinman, representing Ben Gold, president of the Fur and Leather Workers Union; Agnes Vukcevich, AWP; and Elsa Wilcox, executive secretary of the Connecticut Peace Council

THE DEPORTATION DRIVE

Additional arrests brought the total of non-citizens arrested in Walter-McLarran L. deportation proceedings to more than 335. Four non-citizens left the U.S.: William Weber, of New York, for Germany; George Vasiloff of Loram, Oh. 112. Bulgeria: Albert DeaRosiers, of Hammond, Indiana, for Canada; and Ed Murk, of Los Angeles, for Sweden.

Argument was heard by the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Fred Gonzales, of Scatile, whose deportation to the Philippine Islands is challenged on the ground that he entered the U. S. as a "national," owing allegiance to the U.S., and therefore cannot be deported as an alien for having committed two "crimes" in 1946 and 1950, Blanch Freedman, New York attorney, represented Gonzales before the Supreme Court. A petition for certiorari was filed in the Supreme Court on April 1 in the case of Giacomo Quattrone, of Boston, In Los Angeles, Petros Lezos, Grock seaman, was granted a stay by the Federal District Court to provide Lezos on opportunity to find asylum and avoid deportation to Greece, where he faces death. In Chicago, the immediate deportation to Yugoslavia of Matthew Braovich was prevented by an appeal to the Federal District Court after Braovich had been taken into custody for deportations.

The Board of Immigration Appeals sustained the deportation of Dmitri Melavchuk, of Cleveland, and Itwin Franklin, of Chicago. Appeals from deportation orders were filed with the Board in the cases of Leonard Costa, of Rochester, N. Y., facing deportation to Italy, and Felix Maise, of Detroit, facing deportation to the British West Indies. The Board heard appeals on March 31 in the cases of Nick Tsermegas, of New York; Steve Tsermegas, of Chicago; and Anna Negin, of Los Angeles.

Deportation hearings were held in the case of Dan Nestor, in Los Angeles; in the case of Peggy Wellman, in Detroit. Among those arrested were: Morris Angel, organizer for the Furriers Union, in New York, Jose Noriega, of Wilmington, California, a member of H.WU, Local 26: Mrs. Bertha Michelson, a former garment worker, in Los Angeles; Mrs. Sonia Greenspoon, 73, seriously ill. in Los Angeles.

U. S. SUPREME COURT REFUSES TO RULE ON RETURN OF NON-CITIZENS FROM ALASKA

The Supreme Court refused to rule on whether a resident non-citizen who goes to an outlying American possession may be barred from returning to the continental U. S. Court action was initiated by Local 37 th/WU, whose more than 3,680 members travel each year during the summer to the cannery industries in Alaska, and who may be excluded upon their return under Walter-McCarran Law provisions. The majority decision claimed that an injury had only been threatened and had not occurred. Justice Black in his dissent stated: "All the 1955 alien conners workers actually have been subjected to the wearisome rontine of inimigration procedure as though they had never lived here." The provision of the Walter-McCarran Law which was appealed is the same under which Dick Haynos, singer, has been ordered excluded from the U. S. when he returned from a visit to Hawaii in 1953.

BOARD OF IMMIGRATION APPEALS HEARS CASES OF TSERMEGAS BROTHERS

On March 31, the Walter-McCarran Law deportation cases of Nick Silas Tsermegas, of New York, and Steve Tsermegas, of Chicago, were argued before the Board of Immigration Appeals. Both have been held without hail, the former on Ellis Island since February 23, 1954, and the latter in the Cook County Isil, Chicago, since December 10, 1953. Nick and Steve Tsermegas, natives of Greece and long-time residents of the U.S., face physical persecution, and possible death, if deported to Greece, where members of their family have already been victims of the Greek government. In addition to the Tsermegas brothers, in the recent period, a number of other Greek-Americans have been arrested in deportation proceedings, making a total of more than 20 who face separation from families and friends, and persecution in Greece, if deported.

The New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born believes that the attack upon the rights of the foreign born is an ottack on the rights of all. # Whom We Call Foreign-born Americans were instrumental in building this mighty nation. Today, in the mines, the fields, the railroad gangs, the mills, the factories, the plants, the arts, the sciences and professions; the skills and talents of the foreign born still play a large part in keeping the wheels of this nation's progress spinning.

In New York State, there are almost three million foreignborn Americans—sixteen percent of the total population.

Yet there are those who have always sought to persecute and exploit the foreign born—despite the fact that they themselves are descendants of foreign born Americans.

It is such attitudes toward the foreign born which led to the passage of the Walter-McCarran Law two and one-half years ago. And it is because of such attitudes that today we find 53 New York State residents faced with Walter-McCarran Law deportation and 12 threatened with loss of their American citizenship as the first step toward deportation.

As cruel and harsh as the Walter-McCarran Law may be to an individual, its effects upon homes and families are immeasurable.

Children are torn from parents. Homes and families are scattered as one or both parents are incarcerated pending disposition of proceedings against them. These parents, mothers—grandparents—are not newcomers to this land. In many instances, they have lived here more than half a century—working and contributing to the best of their ability to make of this land a proud land for their children to inherit.

Today, as reward for their efforts, 11 million naturalized citizens are threatened with revocation of citizenship. The reward for three million non-citizens is police state supervision. They are forced to carry on their persons at all times an "Alien Registration Card", forced to report their current address yearly to the Attorney General and in the event they move, notify him within 10 days. Many are forced to live under Walter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole conditions.

Failure to comply means jail or fines or deportation.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service is responsible for administering to the foreign born. However, it is part of the Justice Department. As a result, we now find the adoption of FBI and police-state tactics in dealing with the foreign born.

But an end to the persecution and harassment of this nation's 14 million foreign born Americans has become a persistent demand. For it has become widely recognized that there can be no undermining of the rights of the foreign born without undermining the Bill of Rights and the liberties of all Americans—native born as well as foreign born.

From all corners of the nation, religious, civic, fraternal, trade union, scientific and cultural organizations have called for repeal or drastic revision of the Walter-McCarran Law and for the adoption of an immigration and naturalization policy in keeping with our democratic traditions.

Therefore, as our contribution to this movement in defense of democratic rights in the United States, we join in sponsoring this Call issued by the New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, for a New York Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans which will be held in New York City on March 19, 1955.

It will be the sole purpose of this Conference to discuse and develop a program of action geared to speedy repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law and ensure that not one resident of New York State who falls victim to the Law is left without adequate defense.

To this New York Conference, we invite all organizations and individuals who wish to join with us to formulate such a program so urgently needed to maintain the democratic liberties of the American people by defending the rights of the foreign born and repealing the Walter-McCarran Law.

MEMORANDUM OF CONFERENCE ISSUES

Deportation

More than 340 non-citizens in 22 states have been arrested for deportation on the basis of political affiliation or opinions. During 1953 and 1954, one and a half million Mexicans were thrown back into Mexico, having been arrested without warrant, denied hearings and legal counsel.

Denaturalization

Denaturalization proceedings have been initiated against 60 naturalized American citizens on the flimsy Walter-McCarran Law charges that at the time of naturalization they concealed a material fact. This despite the fact that many have been United States citizens for more than 25 years.

Frame-Ups

Knut Heikkinen, of Superior, Wisconsin, has been found guilty of the "crime" of not applying for a passport when ordered deported, and, at the age of 64, has been sentenced serve 10 years in jail.

Supervisory Parole

Non-citizens whom the Justice Department cannot deport, since no country will accept them as deportees, are placed on Walter-McCarran Law Supervisory Parole. Their habits, associates, reading material and friends become subject to Justice Department approval. Fourteen non-citizens in New York are challenging this police-state surveillance before the United States Supreme Court.

A PETITION

The Congress of the United States

The Walter-McCarron Law hos been condemned by all sections of the American people and organizations representing labor, church, civic, educational, fraternal and cultural organizations. President Eisenhower has called this low "racist and discriminatory" and former President Trumon vetoed it. Opposition to it is widespread and mounts doily.

The Walter-McCarran Law is being used by the Justice Department to persecute thousands of non-citizens and naturalized American citizens. The Law imposes police-state conditions of living on 14 million foreign-born Americans and establishes un-American and un-democratic second-class citizenship. It is a threat to the Bill of Rights and thereby is a threat to the rights of all.

Therefore, we the undersigned, respectfully call upon the Congress of the United States to repeal the Walter-McCarron Low and adopt immigration and naturalization legislation based on the following democratic principles:

- Any non-citizen who has lived in the United States for two years or more, if entry was in accordance with law, be permited to become an American citizen without red tape or delay.
- 2. Any non-citizen who has lived in the United States for five years or more should not be threatened with departation for any reason whatsoever.
- A naturalized citizen should not be threatened with concellation of citizenship for any reason whotsoever, unless it was obtained by froud.
- Immigration should be permitted without discrimination as to country of birth, race, color, creed, or political belief, with full utilization of established quotos.

Arrests of "12" Assailed by 395 Negro Leaders

President Truman and Attorney General Clark were condemned this week by 395 Negro citizens for jeopardizing the rights of minority groups by the recent "hysteria-breeding arrests of national leaders of the Communist Party."

The statement, endorsed by citizens in 37 States, will be published this week in a number of Negro weekly newspapers under the caption "The First Line of Defense." Defend Minorities.

The project is sponsored by Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, Roscoe C. Dunjee, publisher of the Black Dispatch, Oklahoma City, attorney Charles P. Howard, Des Moines. Ia., and Paul Robeson.

"We raise here no defense of the principles of the Communist Party," the statement declares, "Our concern is to defend the 'right' of political and other minorities, especially the Negro people, to fight for the kind of society they consider democratic and just.

"We agree fully with . . . Henry A. Wallace; Defense of the civil rights of Communists is the first line in the defense of the liberties of a democratic people.' "

Two Negroes are among the 12 Communist leaders indicted for "conspiracy" in reconstituting the Communist Party. They are Councilman Benjamin J. Davis and Henry Winston, administrative secretary of the Communist Party.

Sponsor Paul Robeson pointed out that the Civil Rights Congress, 205 E. 42 St., is conducting the legal defense. He expressed the "hope that liberty-loving Americans everywhere will rally to the support of CRC in this case which involves the freedom of us all."

ASK ACTION IN SOUTH

The 395 Negro leaders compared the arrests to those of the Nazi Gestapo, and declared their obvious purpose to be "to frighten people away from the Wallace Movement and progressive people's organizations generally, and to strengthen the current drive to war."

The President and Attorney General are called upon "to give more than lipservice to civil rights" by taking effective steps "to defend the lives and liberties of the Negro people in the South"; to "repeal the poll tax, establish a national FEPC and outlaw lynching, and to "abolish discrimination in Federal employment and segregation in the armed forces."

OPEN LETTER TO MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON THE ARMS APPROPRIATION

As citizens who are deeply concerned with the welfare and freedom of America and the peace of the world, we urgs you to reject the proposal to send arms to Europe. Nothing could be more tragic for world peace at this time than sending these arms. Nothing will more surely divide the world into two warring camps.

We believe that peace is possible: that war between the United States and the Soviet Union is not inevitable; that through conferences and discussions, as at the recent Four Power Paris Conference, differences between our country and the Soviet Union can find a just and honorable solution. In rejecting the idea that war is inevitable and in reiterating our firm conviction that the United States and the Soviet Union can settle their differences through peaceful means, we are confident that we echo the hopes of the wast majority of the American people.

It is precisely because we believe in the possibility of peace that we are slarmed at the proposal to send srms to Europe. In the few days that have elapsed since President Truman sent his request to Congress for an arms program for Europe, a dangerous atmosphere of panic and hysteris seems to have been deliberately created. The theory is being apreed that the arms appropriation must be passed so that we may muster adequate military forces against the Soviet Union. An arms program such as this will lead to an armsments race which soon will take us into war. Peace has never been preserved by arms -- only destroyed.

A huge and coatly program for the arming of western Europe, underwritten by American money and arms, will add en intolerable burden to the economy of our country and the nations of Europe just at the time when we can least afford it.

The American people cannot afford more arms when their own incomes are declining and money is being denied needed social services and velfares; when the taxes that pay for the cold war are already biting deeply into the average American's income.

It is unthinkable that when the needs of the world are for economic Jurvival, for food, clothing, shelter, that this money should be spent on arms. To force upon the nations of western Europe the staggering burden of an armamenta race threatens them with an impossible burden at the very time when they are concerned with the prevention of economic catastrophe.

There is a road to peace that is not paved with arms. From every side there is convincing evidence that continued negotiation to settle outstanding differences between East and West, will prove more and more fruitful. The recent special report of the American Friends Service Committee has pointed the way, as has every major religious pronouncement these last few months. It lies through reliance on the U.K. for mediation and conciliation, through working for peace rather than preparing for war, through increasing trade with Russia and Eastern Europe.

The United States must take that road to peace.

But the arms program and the alarmist war atmosphere now being developed to justify this program will cullify any efforts to bream down the barriers between East and West through continued peaceful pegotistions.

We urge upon you that you cest your vote against the erms progrem and thus translate into action the peaceful desires of the American people instead of following the lead of those who would further divide the world through an armaments race.

Dear Friends

We are enclosing a reprint of an appeal which appeared in the NATIONAL GUARDIAN issues of January 25 and February 1. This appeal correctly states that "You can help raverse Smith Act convictions."

Yes - You can help reverse the Smith Act convictions of Elisabeth Gurley Flynn and her 12 co-defendants by contributing to the fund we are raising to finance the huge cost of carrying the case to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals and. if necessary, to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Read this appeal carefully. It is designed to convince you by facts that repeal of the Smith Act can be won in the courts. Steve Nelson's appeal victory in the Pannsylvania Supreme Court is abundant evidence that a determined fight in the courts can be successful.

Your own freadom of speach and political opinion are at ataka in this case.

Note carefully the basis of the Citizens Emergency Defense Conference appeal. "Support of this case requires no position on the political program of the defendants.

It requires only a defense of their Constitutional rights.

I am certain that when you have acquainted yourself with these fects you will see clearly the necessity of making as generous a contribution as possible.

Sincerely yours.

Map Court Fight on Coast Guard Screening

By Herbert Signer

East Coast seamen screened out on the maritime industry will start legal action next week to compel the Coast Guard to drop its screening procedures, which have been declared unconstitutional by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco.

The action, to be backed by a mass campaign, was made known at a rally Friday night sponsored by the Seamen's Defense Committee with the cooperation of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

Capt. Hugh Mulzac, former skipper of the famed World War II Liberty ship, Booker T. Washington, and the first Negro sea master in the U. S. merchant marine, is chairman of the committee and will be one of those who will initiate the court action in Washington.

Despite the storm which hit New York hard Friday, about 100 screened maritime workers, and some wives and friends, turned up at Adelphi Hall.

74 Fifth Ave., to launch this fight.

The court victory on the West Coast, the first major setback to the whole federal witchhunt, came as the climax of an action started in 1951 by 10 screened maritime workers. Since the ruling last October, screening on the West Coast has stopped, but it continues on the East Coast and everywhere else.

Speakers at the rally were Dr. J. Raymond Walsh, economist and former CIO leader; Capt. Mulzac; Victor Rabinowitz, counsel for the Seamen's Defense Committee, and a rank and file seaman.

Dr. Annette Rubinstein, was chairman.

The rank and file seamen predicted the fight to put an end to screening would win strong support from the members of the National Maritime Union and other waterfront unions because it is now generally recognized that the shipowners have been able "to do a job on conditions" of unscreened seamen.

"Let's not think this screening was directed only at the left-wingers in the NMU," he told the rally. "The shipowners knew what they were doing. They used this screening to get rid of any seaman who fought for wages and conditions—and everyone knows it."

Capt. Mulzac, who had sailed the seas from 1907 until he was screened in 1951, cited some of his experiences of struggle for equal rights in the merchant marine. "The sea has been my destiny, and the screening denied me that destiny," said the skipper of the interracial crew, including 18 nationalities, which he insisted should man the Booker T. Washington when the government in 1942 finally bowed to the mass demand for Negro sea captains. Later, four other Negroes were given ships to command during World War II. None are sailing today.

The government, its whole screening program upset, has not yet decided whether it will appeal the ruling to the U. S. Supreme Court, or whether it will change its setup to try to get around the Circuit Court decision. A total of 1,886 maritime workers, including many war heroes and founders of the maritime unions, have been victimized since 1950, when the screening started during the Korein War crackdown on civil liberties.

Skipper Barred By Coast Guard

By HOWARD RUSHMORE

Hugh Mulzac, a merchant marine captain whose wartime career was widely publicized by the Communist party and its publications, has been refused further maritime duties by the Coast Guard, it was learned today.

Declared a "bad security risk" by the Coast Guard, Mulzac, a Negro, may have his master's license revoked after a hearing scheduled next month in Washington.

During World War II. Mulzac was skipper of the S. S. Booker T. Washington which made 22 trips in the trans-Atlantic run. The ship has been re-commissioned but when it sailed for Hampton Roads last week, a new captain was aboard.

STUMPED FOR FOR.

In 1944, Mulzac took a leave of absence from his convoy duty to campaign for the late President Roosevelt and served on the Political Action Committee of Sidney Hillman along with Ferdinand C. Smlth. The latter recently was deported as a Communist.

The Communist party has organized a "citizens" committee" to defend the beached Negro skipper and will hold a reception in Mulzac's honor at the Harriet Tubman center. 290 Lenox ave., tonight. The Daily Worker said the reception will announce plans to "save Mulzac from persecution by the Coast Guard."

The Coast Guard, which has been rooting out subversives in the merchant marine for the past two years, would not comment other than to affirm that Mulzac would no longer be allowed to hold maritime posts under Coast Guard jurisdiction.

RACIST LAW BEGINS TO GRIND

The infamous McCarran-Walter immigration law threatens the rights of non-citizens and naturalized citizens and ultimately of all of us

By Alec Jones

FEW laws in the past history of this country have aroused such broad opposition from the diverse elements in the community than the racist McCarran-Walter immigration law. From every corner of the nation and abroad as well there has been a swelling crescendo asking, urging, demanding that this law with its racist, restrictive provisions be stricken from the statute books. In fact, so widespread was the protest, that this law became a primary issue during one week of the presidential campaign and candidates of both parties were obliged to promise "changes" in it to do away with its grossly discriminatory provisions.

President Truman's commission to investigate the law held hearings in many parts of the country. Every conceivable organization added its voice to the avalanche of opposition. In Chicage, some 23 Jewish organizations were represented by the noted attorney, Max Swiren, who delivered a powerful denunciation of the law on their behalf. And at the same hearing, as at similar hearings in many cities. Protestant and Catholic ministers joined the chorus. Typical of the latter was the statement by Father Raymond T. Bosler, editor of the Indvina Catholic Record, calling the act "an infamous law, it is a disgrace" a contemptible law." So wonder that even Senator Richard Nixon was obliged to say that he advocated "changes" in the law even though he had voted to override Truman's veto of it.

But now that the shouting is quieted, actions from President-elect Dwight Easenhower and Vice President-elect Richard Nixon will speak more articulately than campaign phrases. The Negro people, the Jewish people, minority groups, the 14 million foreign born and millions abroad want to know whether Eisenhower was making campaign has while the issue was hot-our whichther he meant business. Possibly never before has a president had such a decisive mandate from the people as in the case of this law.

Some Provisions of the Law

When the McCarran-Walter law goes into effect on December 24, 14 million foreign born residents of this country become suspect and hable to deportation or denaturalzation as the first step toward their deportation. Never before has one man, in this case the attorney general, been given such broad power over the life and limb of the foreign born as by this law. The act leaves to the attorney general's discretion the decision as to who is fit to become a critzen, remain a cutzen or be deported.

Here are some of the provisions of this law, some of them carried over from previous laws. Non-citizens, 14 years and over, are forced to carry on their persons alien registration cards under penalty of jail and fines, or both. All non-citizens who have not been finger-printed under provisions of the Alien Registration Act of 1940 must submit themselves to finger-printing. All non-citizens must register during the month of January with the attorney general on torms provided by him. In the event of changing an address, within ten days that change must be notified by non-citizens with the attorney general just as if they were common criminals whose whereabouts must be known daily lest they betray the public interest. A central organization is to be set up where the names of all non-citizens are to be filed and the attorney general is to be notified whenever a non-citizen is issued a social security card.

Any non-curren engaged in activity which the attorney general, virtually at his own discretion, brands not in the best public interest, can be deported. Whereas previously a person would be allowed voluntarily to leave the United States for a country of his choice, now the attorney general must decide whether it is in the best public interest to deport a person to his country of origin or to allow him voluntarily to depart to a country of his choice.

Danger to Naturalized Citizene

While under the McCarran-Walter law the three-million non-citizens in our country are thus placed in a distinct class with virtually no right which the attorney general is bound to respect, the status of eleven million naturalized citizens is now dangerously jeoparchized. Here are some of the disabilities with which the law burdens the naturalized citizen. He can lose citizenship, as the first step toward deportation, for retusing to testify before a congressional committee within ten years after gaining citizenship. Conceal ment of a "material fact" at the time of becoming a citizen is also ground for revocation of citizenship. This is a vague, eatch all provision that gives the attorney general practically unlimited powers over naturalized citizens.

The case of Charles Tuteur most clearly dramatizes

what may happen to naturalized citizens. Mr. Tuteur was stripped of citizenship by the nazis in his native Germany in 1938 and forced to flee, leaving his aged mother behind. This followed a search of his home by the nazis during which they found three books which had been branded verboten. The books were Stripe, by May Heaten Vorse, Moscone Knows No Tears, by E. Ehrenburg and Dictators, by H. G. Wells.

Today. Charles Tuteur faces loss of his United States citizenship because at the time of application for naturalization be did not reweal that he read three publications which the Department of Instice has since declared verboten. The publications, according to the official charges, were New Masses, The New World [2] and the People's Daily World. Because he had failed to state that he read these publications, Mr. Tuteur is accused of having concealed a "material fact" even though this "material fact" did not become "material" until years later.

The process leading to denaturalization has already begun in a number of cases. James Lustig, international representative for the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers, has had denaturalization proceedings initiated against him on similar grounds, as well as Isaac A. Rouch, popular Yiddish writer, and John Steuben, editor of March of Labor. A number of those jailed or indicted under the Smith act are being similarly threatened with denaturalization. It is quite obvious that the law is being used as another blackjack against political dissenters.

More "Deportation Delirium"

The "deportation delirium" already prevailing for several years will be accelerated under the new law. Up to now, more than 275 non-citizens have been arrested in deportation proceedings for political beliefs once held or currently held, political beliefs the attorney general doesn't like. If these 275, among them trade union, community, civic and traternal leaders, today face deportation for holding ideas disliked by an attorney general, what is to prevent the ideas, organizations or associates of any non-citizen from being branded "subversive" at any future date and the person deported or denaturalized? No doubt the Justice Department has every intention of using this infamous law to the fullest to intimidate, harass and render silent America's second largest minority, the foreign born.

In the few months since the law passed—and before it became effective—thousands of naturalized citizens have been visited on their jobs, at home, or otherwise contacted by the Imigration and Naturalization Service on the pretext of either adjusting citizenship status or gaining information relative to status. This is purely an attempt to intimidate naturalized citizens, For this service knows full well that once a person has become a citizen, it has absolutely no further jurisdiction over him.

Citizens receiving such letters or being so contacted have been advised to refuse to make any statements or sign any documents based on such requests. Only too often it is not the questioned citizen about whom information is sought but rather a friend, relative or co-worker. A statement can place one in the position, however unconstious, of becoming an informer.

A by-product of the law has been an intensified effort by the Institute Department to deny had to or to clinical had of a number of non-catzens up for deportation. Those who may say it is all right to deny had to persons arrested in deportation proceedings for alleged political heliers, are under a tragic delusion. For, when the right to had has been abolished to monecutivens, the stage has been carefully set to deny the right of had to all, entirens as well as non-citizens, narive born as well as foreign born.

Unity to Repeal the Law

In order to defeat this iniquitous law, there must be a maximum of unity among the numerous and widespread forces that oppose the law. Perhaps the first comprehensive artimpt to evaluate the post-election situation with regard to the law will be the National Contenence to Detend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans that will be held in Detroit on December 13 and 13 in Detroit under the auspices of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. This conference can serve as a vehicle for the consolidation of mounting protest against the law. It will also take steps to ensure that persons settimized by the law are protected.

But all organizations in one way or another can do their share toward removing this law. One important step in this direction was an American Jewish Congress joint meeting of the executive and administrative committees on November 2. At this meeting President Dr. Israel Goldstein proposed four necessary revisions of the law: "elimination of the national origins quota system, reform of the deportation system to permit expulsion only of persons whose entry was obtained by fraudulent or illegal means, elimination of all distinctions between native born and naturalized citizens and guarantees that all persons subject to the immigration laws will get an opportunity for fair hearing and review" (New York Times, October 10).

Despite differences of view, maximum unity in the fight against the law should be the objective of all organizations arrayed against it.

Ellis Island as Concentration Camp

THE campaign of the Justice Department to violate the elementary right to bail pending appeal is being intensified under the stimulus of the McCarran-Walter law. On November 17, the bail of eight non-citizens was cancelled and they are now detained at Ellis Island. The eight are Sam Milgrøm, Paul Yuditch, Jack Schneider, Andrew Dmytryshin, Frank Borich, Michael Nukk, Joseph Simoniff and Harry Yaris.

Protests should go to the Justice Department.

Repeal the Racist Walter McCarran Act

The case of Sam Milgrom, Executive Secretary of the International Workers Order, is a vivid expression of the Walter-McCarran Act in operation. Milgrom is callously denied bail despite his serious illness and the fact that he is presently hospitalized. This is an act of political prosecution for Milgrom's leadership in the interests of labor and the people for the past 30 years.

Dear Friand:

We enclose a Call for the New York Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend Its Victims.

The Walter-McCerran law has been criticized generally for having undermined the prestige of the United States abroad. Here at home it has wreaked fear and intimidation in communities where foreign born reside.

To date, more than 300 persons have been arrested in deportation proceedings and more than 45 in denaturalization pr ceedings f r alleged political beliefs under Walter-McCarran Prof Royal W France 18 44 ... In New York State, there are more than 50 Pad Royal W France aff ... persons who have fallen victim to this Law and the Attorney Jone Gordon Ceneral has publicly stated that nationally there are to be 1,000 denaturalizations and 12,000 departations under the Law.

Thirty-two members of Congress, recognizing the broad antagonism of the American people to the Walter-McCarran Law, have introduced the Lehman-Celler Bill as a Walter-McCarran Law repealer. # WALTER-McCARRAN LAW POLICE-STATE CONDITIONS

The Story Behind the Story

Read the story to the right. It is an account of why 14 non-citizens are challenging the Supervisity Parole conditions of the Walter-McCarran

What the clipping does not tell is that noncurrens forced to live up to the letter of the Law can be forced to become stool-pigeons against friends, relatives, shop-mates and associates.

Read the underlined paragraph. That is the key. Yes, the 14 non-citizens go consider the conditions of Supervisory Parole an infringement on their constitutional guarantees. Where is their right to free speech; freedom of assembly; freedom of association? What rights do they have if an agent of the Justice Department can query them relative to habits, associations, force them to report regularly and disclose their habits?

Those are POLICE-STATE regulations which have no place on the statute books of a land which considers itself a democracy. The 14 are challenging these provisions in their own behalf and in behalf of the thousands of other non-citizens who might later be placed on Supervisory Paroles.

FOR RELEASE

Chairman, CAPI, HUGH MULZAC Executive Serving ALBE JENES TOLD CO DITIONS

Police-state Supervisory Parole provisions of the Welter-keCarran Law received another court challenge today as Federal District Judge Ryan signed an order temporarily restraining the Justice Department from ordering 10 non-citizens to report to Ellis Island or be interrogated relative to their activities, it was announced today by the New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The 10 involved in the action and temporarily released from having to report at Ellis Island weekly or enswer questions as to associations and activities are:

Frank Borich, Bessie Geiser, Ida Cottesman, Felix Kusman, Rose Melson, Michael Mukk, Benjamin Saltzman, Joseph Siminoff, Anna Taffler, and Martin Young. All were represented by attorneys Blanch Freedman and Cloric Agrin.

Judge Ryans' action followed by one week a similar challenge initiated in the case of Boris Skler who won a temporary release from all Supervisory Parole conditions.

Alec Jones, New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born executive secretary, hereided the action and declared:

"Perhaps one of the most inhuman and vicious aspects of the Walter-icCarran Law is that section imposing Supervisory Parole on non-citizens.

"Here we find in cold, hard, legal language that non-citizons whom the Justice Department cannot deport since they are stateless, are to be forced to become stool-pigeons and informers or also be sent to jeil.

"Dut this section provides also that non-citizens who steadfastly refuse to Give information as to friends, relatives and associates can actually be forced to submit to medical and psychiatric examination at the behast of the Justice Department.

"In many cases persons were unable to get or keep employment because the Justice Department insisted on weekly reports to Ellis Island during working hours.

To date 14 non-citizens have challenged Supervisory Parole conditions. There remain over 20 yersons in New York errested in Walter-LicCarran Law deportation proceedings for alleged political beliefs who still are subject to Parole conditions.

Mr. Jones declared that the New York Committee for Protection of Foreign Born regards Supervisory Parole conditions as undemocratic and in flagrant violation of the Constitution and is prepared to challenge this section of the Walter-McCarran Law up to the United States Supreme Court if necessary.

DEPORTATION FOR DISSENT

By ALEC JONES

ONE WEEK in October, 1950, the privacy of 48 American homes was invaded, In many of them, the pre-dawn quiet was rudely shattered by piercing and insistent doorbell ringing between the hours of midnight and 4 a m.

Men and winnen stumbled sleepily to their front doors. They were greeted by flashing badges and the curt statement, "You're under arrest!"

In scenes reminiscent of the infamous Palmer Raids after World War I, these 48 people were rounded up under provisions of the McCarran Act, which had become law over a Presidential veto) one month before.

Who were these men and women, and what had they done, that they had to be subjected to midnight raids smacking of Nazi Gestapo tactics.

All of them had one thing in common. They were born in a country other than the United States. They came here at an early age and had not succeeded, despite all their efforts, in achieving American citizenship.

They had something else in common All, in one way or another, had taken part in group efforts to make this a better country to live in

Many of them had tried to improve conditions by organizing the unorganized, leading consumer protests and bonus and hunger marches, and fighting Jim Crow and anti-Semitism

But the chief contribution of the great majority of them was long and arduous years of work to build the strength of the trade union movement.

Grandmothers, grandfatners, workers and trade union leaders, their "crime" was holding to their principles

Many who were dragged off to local jails during the McCarran raids os-

The Flimsiest Charges

Many had been harassed arrested, brought up for depotation hearings over a long period. And how flimsy the charass can be when they really goation a union man is shown in the case of the Weber.

Weber today faces deportation to Yosokavia. Vumon man since he was 13, he originized Harlan County was 13 he originized Harlan County coal maners. New Jersey auto-workers. Aktion cabber workers. In 1930, the CO as seemed for to Cheuto, and there he played a leading role in organizing steel workers, and farm equipment workers.

On the way to a national 10 convention in San Francisco Joe stent four hours in Mexico Because of this hardine technicality Joe Weber, tho came here at the age of nine and has devoted his life to the cause of the orking people, faces deportation Behind the technicality is union husting Department of Justice style.

With the McCarran law as its specially labricated vehicle the Justice Department was issuing warning of a new any labor aimmuck. Having tried every thing else reflaining frameups, stoil teoris goods to split and weaken the reognessive section of the trade union

ALEC JONES, formerly a labor newspaperman in the Midwest, is Assistant Secretary of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. movement, it is continuing to do the basses work with this new giminick juil for indefinite periods pending de nortation proceedings.

Through this drive against non-citizen trade unionsts, the ain is to proceed from deporting non-citizens for their alleged political beliefs to the denaturalization and deportation of natmalized citizens, and then to the screening of all workers.

The Justice Department has already declared its intent to arrest and deport 3,400 non-citizens under provisions of the McCarran law, and to denatural ize 1500 persons as the first step to ward their denotation.

Denaturalization proceedings have already been started against some 15 citizens among them James Lustig. UE organizer and chairman of the union's District 4. The charges against him allege that he takedy denied ever having been a member of the Communist party when he applied for naturalization papers. This harassment of Lustig is part of the whole on-slaught against the UE mounted by the Un American Communities and CIO randers, with the Justice Denaturalization running interference.

The loaded prescription now being stitten by the Justice Department for America's ills spells deportation for the non citizen, denaturalization and deportation for the naturalized citizen, and witch hunts and concentration camps (likewise under the McCarran law) for American born workers

Attempt to Bust Local

To see the ultimate purpose he hind the present drive against foreign horn workers, one need only look at what the Justice Department has tried to do to Cannery Workers Local 37 of the first Longshoremen's & Waerhouse men's union Within two years, the dustice Department has arrested its president and business agent, juiled other members and officers illegally for months, interfered with contract negotiations, and harassed hundreds of members trying to bribe them to be informers.

Today, nine leaders and members of this local face deportation to the Philippines because they refused to capitulate. And back ¶ it all is the tach of the cannery bosses to bust Local 37 and get back to the days of '33, when hours were 12 or more a day, wages $30 a month or less, and a union bring hall was unheard of

But they didn't succeed in busting focal 37. The membership hasn't bud ged an inch. They've been informed of their rights, are standing up to them and rejecting this union-busting. Department of Justice style.

This clear cut collision between the bosses and the Justice Department is epitomized by the treatment accorded Mexican Americans. Recently the Immigration and Naturalization Service requested a special Congressional appropriation to deport 43,800 Mexican Americans in May and June

During harvest time in the South-west, a fluid border is maintained between Mexico and the U.S. to provide labor at sub-union rates for big faim operators. When they have served this purpose, these workers are rounded up by the thousands and deported far into the interior of Mexico-regardless of family ties or extreasing status.

Many Unions Under Fire

Men and women unionists caught up in the far flung dragnet come from AFL, ClO and independent unions—from locals of Packing, Fur & Leather, Longshore, UE, Auto, Woodworkers, Of tice Workers, Chemical, Marttune, Steel, Bakers, Printers, Shoe, Teamsters, Mine-Mill, Construction, Machinists, ILGWU and many other unions.

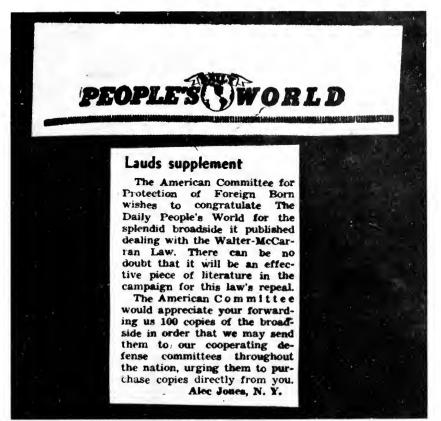

But, despite this, too Iew unions have recognized the attack on their foreign born members as an attack on the union itself, and too few have organized to ward off this blow.

The brunt of defense work has been borne by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign-Born in New York, with cooperating offices in Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago, Seattle, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Among the first unions to set up a committee to defend the rights of foreign born members was Ford Local 600 of the UAW CIO - before Walter Reuther moved in to take over the Local, Mine-Mill, Fur & Leather, UE and other unions are moving forward in this field with trade union conferences planned for early spring in Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit and the West Coast, the hall has begun to roll.

Climaxing such meetings around the nation will be a trade union conference in New York City on June 7. It will deal not only with the threat to non-citzen unionists but also with the threat to the unions themselves.

Rumblings of far-flung protest are heing heard, and there is a growing determination in union ranks that the McCarran and Smith acts, twin weapons of union repression, must be repealed EXHIBIT No. 132 February 20, 1953, p. 5

Conference Saturday Will Map Fight on Walter-McCarran Law

By ALEC IONES

When the New York Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend Its Victims convenes at Yugoslav-American Hall, this Saturday, it will have as its outlook support of the demands for public hearings on the Lehman Celler Bill as a first step to ward Walter-McCarran Law' fepeal and defense of the 60 Walter-McCarran Law victims in New York State.

The need for the New York Conference and its program can be seen in the Justice Department's continued use of the Walter-Mc-Carran Law to intimidate and rob the foreign-born of their rights.

On Feb. 9, the Justice Department instituted Walter-McCarran-Law denaturalization proceedings against Sol Almazov Pearl, author, writer and staff member of the Jewish daily "Morning Freiheit." Almazov, as he is known throughout the United States and a goodly portion of the world, thus became the 10th denaturalization victim in New York State and the hith associate of the "Morning Freiheit" to face thread of denaturalization or deportation.

Support for the Lehman-Celler Bill grows as the demand for public hearings on it echo. This Bill if enacted would not only protect the cutzenship of naturalized citizens but decree that any personentering this nation before a 14th birthday could not be deported if he has lived in the United States for 20 years.

The Instice Department is fully aware of the public sentiment favoring action on the Lehman Celler Bill. Yet today, it persists in harassing non-citizens and naturlized citizens and the families and friends of the foreign-born.

Four non-citizens—all who have resided in this country over 20 years—languish in prisons denied their basic right to bail simply because the Justice Department has decreed they are to be deported. Nick Tsermegas has been held on Ellu Island since Feb. 3. His brother Steve, is lodged in Cook Country jail in Chicago, Illinois, and has been held there since Dec. 9, 1953. Both Nick and Steve Tsermegas are well-known antifascists.

Also held on Ellis Island, denied hail, is Boris Skar, a member of the editorial staff of "Russky-Golos" Russian daily newspaper. Sklar has been held since Sept. 21, 1953.

In the East Boston Dentention Center, Giacomo Quattrone fights his deportation to his native Italy after 48 years in the United States Ill and in need of medical aftertion, he has been held without bail for 14 months.

While these may be considered glaring examples of the inhuman character of the Walter-McCarran Law, they are but foor. A virtual house arrest has been decreed for all non-citizens whom the Justice Department cannot deport and who are "free" on Walter-McCarran Law supervisory parole.

Over 325 non-citizens have already been arrested in deportation proceedings because of alleged political beliefs. They are all persons whose lives have been spent quietly and determinedly participating in the building of this country's labor and progressive

A few years ago, these very individuals were being praised and lauded for their contributions to the war effort and their records of service in the armed forces. Today, they face banishment to strange lands where they have no ties or friends.

The New York Conference calls upon all New York State residents concerned with protecting the fundament tenets of this land which are embodied in the Bill of Rights to participate in the deliberations Saturday.

The Conference proper will start with registration at 9:00 a.m. and at 7:00 p.m. there will be a Banquet to close the Conference. Registration for the Conference is $1.00 and Banquet restructions may be had at $3.50 each.

For further information regarding the Conference or Banquet reservations, write New York Conference, Suite 101, 23 West 28 Street, New York 10, N.Y. or telephone MU 4-3458.

ACTION-PLAN ON McCARRAN-WALTER

By Alec Iones

ON December 10, two days before the convening in Chicago of the National Conference to Repeal the McCarran-Walter Law and to Defend Its Victims, agents of the justice Department staged a raid on that city's Greek Cultural Center and arrested Steve Tsermengas in deportation proceedings and held him without bail. The twilight raid was preceded by blasts against the conference in the Hearst press. It was an obvious attempt to stimulate fear and hysteria in order to discourage participation in the national conference, which was held under auspices of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

This organization has for 21 years lived up to its title and hence has been in the advance guard of resistance to the attempt to limit and even destroy the Bill of Rights through the opening wedge of an assault on the foreign born. It is not therefore surprising that the attempt at intimidation against this staunch organization failed. Rather, it pointed up the very dangers against which? the conference had been called and galvanized the determination of 321 representatives from 15 states to redouble their efforts toward repeal of the racist McCarran-Walter law and to further the campaign for public hearings on the Lehman-Celler bill as a first step towards that end.

The delegates demanded in resolution form that the attorney general "stay all proceedings now pending or to be initiated under the McCarran-Walter law" until Congress has had the opportunity to consider the Lehman-Celler bill providing for its repeal.

Enthusiasm of the delegates was reflected in the rousing, standing ovation with which American Committee officers for 1954 were elected: Rt. Rev. Arthur W. Moulton, Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith, honorary co-chairmen; Rev. Keneth Ripley Forbes, George B. Murphy, Jr., co-chairmen; Abner Green, executive secretary; Charles Musil, treasurer.

The determination and scope of the gathering was seen in deliberations of five panels: labor, women, legal problems, deportation of Mexican-Americans and national group. The reports from these panels to the conference proper reflected a unanimity of perspective: to assure repeal of the McCarran-Walter law and that not one person victumized by it would be without adequate defense.

Deeply concerned with the Justice Department effort to force the American Committee to register as a "Communist-front" organization with the Subversive Activities Control Board, the delegates resolved:

- to defend to the limit the right of the American Committee to carry on its work.
  - · designate March 1954, as Defend ACPFB Month.
  - to raise $5,000 by April 1, 1954 for the defense of the American Committee and for its work in defense of foreign-born Americans.

Supervisory parole conditions, denial or bail to those arrested in deportation proceedings and racist discrimination in the immigration laws were roundly denounced as contrary to the guarantees accorded in the Constitution and its Bill of Rights.

The special panel on deportation of Mexican-Americans brought a wealth of information before the conterence regarding the utterly inhuman treatment accorded Mexican-Americans in the Southwest. Four hundred and eighty thousand Mexican-Americans were deported in the first six months of 1653. In the conference city of Chicago, immigration officials boast of 200 to 400 deportations weekly.

While the conference joined with all organizations seeking to win public hearings on the Lehman-Celler bill, it also adopted several proposals for amendments to the bill.

Adopting a six-point program of action, the delegates voted to:

- Make the deportation cases of David Hyun, Koreanborn architect and Giacomo Quattrone, charged with "affiliation with the Communist Party," two major cases with full national participation.
- 2. To give special attention to the denaturalization proceedings pending against Stanley Nowak, former Michigan state senator; John Steuben, editor of March of Lubor; Paul Novick, editor of the Morning Freiheit. Rose Chernin, executive secretary of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.
- 3. To win freedom on bail for Steve Tsermengas held in Chicago: Felix Kusman, Boris Sklar and Herman Nixon, who are all held on Ellis Island.
- 4. To win public support for the test of the McCarran-Walter law supervisory parole conditions being waged by Alexander Bittelman, Claudia Jones and Betty Gannett.
- 5. To wage an active campaign for public hearings on the Lehman-Celler bill.
- 6. To defend the American Committee, which the Justice Department seeks to destroy through Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) registration.

The conference highlight was the banquer attended by more than 400 persons. Included in a rather impressive ar ray of speakers were Prof. Robert Morss Lovett, Prof. Anton J. Carlson, Rev. Joseph Evans, all of Chicago; I. F. Stone, Washington, D. C.; Don Harris, UE District S. Illinois; Prof. Ephraim Cross, New York City; Rev. On March 26, 1956, The United States Supreme Court agreed to take a new look at political deportations when it granted certiorari in the case of Charles Rowoldt, a resident of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

During the week of October 15, 1956, Mr. Forer and Mr. Rein are scheduled to appear before the Supreme Court to argue the case.

Mr. Rowoldt, 72, is a native of Germany and has lived in the United States for more than 40 years. He was arrested in Walter-McCarran Law deportation proceedings on the grounds that he had been a member of the Communist Party for a few months in 1936.

The decision in the Rowoldt case will affect all Americans. For victory in the Rowoldt case will help restore freedom of speech and association of foreign-born Americans and will strengthen thereby the civil liberties of native-born Americans.

Approximately 212 persons attended; there were eleven people seated on the dais, among whom were Corliss Lamont, Louis Pettibone Smith, Osmond K. Frankel, Rev. (Notes:) Introduction along the way of the families of Forer and Rein. Introduction of Harriet Barron, administrative secretary; Grace Johnson, staff member, Helen Morgan, staff member.

- 3. The National Anthem was sung by Nadyne Brewer, with piano accompaniment by Lucy Brown. Abner Green stated "It gives me great pleasure to introduce as the Chairman for this evening, a woman who has for the last several years devoted a great deal of time to foreign born Americans and was active in the fight for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law. She has served as Cochairman of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith."
- 4. Prof. Smith stated "It is a great pleasure for me to be chosen to welcome you all here tonight in the name of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born. For more than twenty years the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born has worked to give aid to all foreign born who asked it, regardless of race, religion or political belief. The last years for a great many of us have not been easy times. I came across a description which seems to me to describe the last years, and I want to share it with you. . . . sinister forces within the nation tried to make conformity serve their own Through the efficient manipulation of mass communications here. they penetrated the factories, offices, schools, homes and even the nurseries. They intimidated a minority. . . we have been through a period where the minority has been intimidated but we have people who have had the courage to fight for the rights of the minority groups of all kinds and it is to honor one section of such people that we have come together tonight. The work of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born would not be done if there had been no men of responsibility in the legal profession. I am not going to take time to say what later speakers will say much more fully and much better. I introduce, therefore, as the next speaker, Alec Jones, Campaign and Educational Director of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born."
- 5. Alec Jones stated, "Thank you, Professor Smith—good evening, friends, I too, on behalf of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, am happy to welcome you to this tribute in honor of Joseph Forer and David Rein. Many years ago I learned that it is not necessarily the trouble that one gets into that lawyers get one out of. In certain instances it is the trouble foisted upon them that one calls lawyers for. On next Thursday, October 18th, Joe Forer and Dave Rein will stand before the United States Supreme Court. At that time they will be arguing to set aright a grave injustice—an injustice perpetrated against a man named Charles Rowoldt. To many of us in this audience, the name of Charles Rowoldt may or may not mean much. But I would like to tell you about this man and let you judge for yourselves. Charles Rowoldt was born in Germany 73 years ago. He and his wife left Germany in 1914 when he was 30 years of age because of the growing militarism in his native homeland. They came to the United States because they thought that this was a land in which it was most likely that they would find the freedom and democracy they did not have there. Upon arrival, Charles Rowoldt started to attend night school to learn the language and prepare to become a citizen of these United States, but as so often is the case, plans sometimes go awry. Shortly after the birth of his son, his wife became ill and died in 1918 and Charles had to take care of his son. At that time Charles Rowoldt was living in Chicago and the only jobs to be had were in the factories. However, taking one of these jobs would have meant placing his son in an Institution and this he did not want to do. The solution for him was to seek work on farms where a kindly farmer's wife could keep watch on young Walter while the father toiled in the fields. Both father and son seemed to thrive on the farms: Walter was growing into a fine sturdy lad, and then when he was 12 years old, he was stricken with acute appendicitis and died in his father's arms before a doctor could arrive. Needless to say, securing citizenship slipped from Charles Rowoldt's consciousness after the second tragedy in these United States. In 1933, after being told by his boss that business was so bad he would have to find a new job, a fellow unemployed friend told him about an organization called the Unemployment Council. He went to this Council and was helped to get on relief. He became interested in their program of unemployment insurance and social security. Later in 1935 he joined the Communist Party and remained a member of the Communist Party for six months—and today, 21 years after that six months' membership in the Communist Party and 42 years after coming to the United States, Charles Rowoldt faces deportation back to his native Germany. This man's life has been spent here. It is here that he suffered his greatest tragedies and it is here that whatever happiness he experienced happened. But since he is not a citizen according to the Department of Justice, he is an alien and being an alien he is subject to the deportation provisions incorporated in the Walter-McCarran Law which state that 'any alien who was at any time of entry to the United States, a member of the Communist Party, that person is subject to deportation.' But really, how alien is Charles Rowoldt; despite the fact that he is not a citizen of the United States, can he really be considered an alien and stranger, and therefore despite his time here can he simply be arrested for deportation at the whims and fancies of the Attorney General? This is in essence the case that Joseph Forer and David Rein will be arguing before the Supreme Court next Thursday. But the significance of the case is deeper than just Charles Rowoldt. Today in this country there are more than 350 persons who are facing Walter-McCarran Law deportation proceedings. Their story is practically the same as Charles Rowoldt. In each instance examination will show that the individuals involved came or were brought to the United States at a fairly early age. It is so that their sole crime, and crime is in quotes, was that at one time for whatever reason, they joined the Communist Party, and now, years later, they face expulsion from the United States. But what kind of a law is it that will so brazenly uproot men and women and in what atmosphere was it possible for such a law to become the law of this land with its splendid heritage and tradition of justice and fair play. Well, in times of international tension and domestic political unrest there is traditionally the seeking of a scapegoat and at the same time there are always those who, using the unrest and tension, seek to place themselves into positions of leadership and label all who dissent from their program as disloyal. Following the cessation of hostilities at the close of World War II, this Nation entered into a period of such unrest and confusion. With the emergence of two world powers, the United States and the Soviet Union, a fraction of the population immediately began to cry that there could be no coexistence between the nations and war was imminent. With that began the process of determination on which side one stood. There was no middle ground and the determination was not made by the individual in question but rather by investigating committees, selfappointed patriots, the F. B. I. and the Dept. of Justice. For the foreign born of this Nation, the last ten years have been dreadful. Where the Alien Registration Act of 1940 had already decreed that all noncitizens of the United States should be fingerprinted, the Internal Security Act of 1950 added additional restrictions, and then in 1952 came the Walter-McCarran Law which virtually stripped the foreign born citizen as well as the noncitizen of practically all rights. In truth, during the past 10 years it was not the foreign born alone who felt the blade of the axe against the cornerpost of civil rights. The native born as well as the foreign born were caught in the dragnet and soon we saw our Nation shrouded in hysteria; doctors, teachers, unionists, artists, clergymen, writers, actors, scientists and yes, even lawyers, were called upon to bare their souls, confess their sins, despite the fact that no sin had been committed. Indeed, to coin a phrase, the past 10 years were times in which men's souls were on trial in more than one sense. It is always the case—those who seek to rule by fear forget one thing—they forget people. The American people are a wonderful people as a whole. They have a sense of right and they hold with our heritage and tradition and despite the confusion that reigned for a while, the spirit of fighting back began to emerge. Today we begin to see clearly the emergence of a new feeling, a feeling which, if successfully emerged, will wash away the stains of the past 10 years of idiocy on the political and civil rights front. On this coming December 8th and 9th the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born will hold their 24th annual national conference in Los Angeles, Calif. Previously, one of the main problems facing the delegates to our conferences was the question of actual defense for those facing deportation who were languishing in prison. Today not one person is in jail. At our national conference on December 8th and 9th we will be able to report victories in every area of our work-deportation, denaturalization. and supervisory parole. We can report that almost a score of deportation proceedings on political grounds have been dropped by the Board of Immigration Appeals already in the Federal Courts. We can report that several denaturalization cases have been won, including the most recent—that of Rose Chernin, Executive Secretary of the Los Angeles Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born. We can report that supervisory parole, that provision of the Walter-McCarran Law which seeks to force virtual house arrest on non-citizens ordered deported—we can report that supervisory parole has been whittled away at, and if the decision by the three-judge court in the case of Antonio-Sentner handed down a few days ago stands, supervisory parole will be rendered virtually ineffective. I by no means mean to imply that the fight for the defense of the rights of foreign born is over or even one-half over. There are still more than 350 persons facing deportation; there are still more than 50 persons facing revocation of their citizenship, and it is true that some 11 persons have already lost citizenship under the Walter-McCarran Law provisions. It is also true that a man by the name of Luke Hegeman (phonetic) faces 10 years in jail because he did not readily make plans to divorce himself from these United States, and it is likewise true that the American Committee itself is under attack, and we can also say that within the same framework that noncitizens on supervisory parole are subjected to the indecencies of having to report to the Justice Dept. periodically. But what I do say is this—the horizon is clearing; within the clearing of this horizon I feel that we here this evening can go forward in our work, and be continually fighting, not only for the protection of the foreign born but in general for the fight for civil liberties for all the American people. I know that one might say—what have these victories in the defense of the rights of foreign born have to do with Americans in general and the general civil rights picture? First, I must say that the fight for civil liberty has been an integrated fight. We cannot say persecution of one group of individuals is all right so long as it is not directed against another. This is especially true in relationship to the foreign born, for it has been historically proven that when the drive against civil rights is begun, first to be attacked are the foreign born and then the native born. The basis in the past 10 years of depression can be traced to the so-called Alien Registration Act of 1940 but one must remember that today we no longer speak of the Alien Registration Act of 1940—we call it the 1940 Smith Act under which the leaders of the Socialist Workers Party were first imprisoned and now under which primarily it is the leaders of the Communist Party who are being tried and jailed. But when the law was passed, it was purportedly only to govern the movement of so-called enemy aliens. But even more than that, recognizing the wonders of the overall civil liberties fight, I want to say that gains taking place in other areas certainly assist in our field. Each single small victory adds to the swell and enough such will change the entire atmosphere. As we in the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born have been fighting to restore the Bill of Rights to foreign-born Americans, so in every walk of life have individuals and organizations been battling in different areas—loyalty cases, dishonorable discharge cases involving servicemen—these and so many others can be cited as all contributing to the efforts to return our Nation to sanity and dignity. Here in New York City, it might be said we have had more than our share of strife, but it must also be said that, as we battled, so was there assistance. The American Civil Liberties Union, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, have done magnificent work and side by side with the work of organizations during * * * the work of a fine grouping of men and women who have made the legal profession their life's work. We are fortunate this evening to have with us several such men and women who have joined to pay tribute to their fellow colleagues. Joe Forer and Dave Rein. Among those present this evening in the grouping of lawyers happen to be John Abt, Leonard Boudin, Harold Cammer, Julius Cohen. Albert Collins, Joseph Diamong, Frank Donner, Blanche Friedman. David Friedman. Ira Golubin, Abraham Isserman, Bernard Jaffe, Mary Kaufman, Samuel Koenigsberg, Rhoda Laks, Victor Rabinowitz, Henry Rubin, Simon Schachter, Dave Scribner, Ralph Shapiro, William Standard, Morton Stavis, Abraham Unger and Nate Witt. [Applause.] And I think it is only fitting, friends, that we give them a good round of applause while they stand. [Applause.] Friends. as we salute our lawyer friends here with us tonight, we must bear in mind that throughout our land there are other men and women lawyers also in the finest tradition, wielding their talents to assure the restoration of the rights of the foreign born and assure the preservation of the liberties of the American people as a whole. I think that as we go about our daily work of seeking to preserve the Bill of Rights for all we know, so by our side stands our attorneys and we of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born vote a special vote of thanks to the many attorneys who throughout the years have stuck by us. For without their knowledge, guidance, and devotion, our cause may well have been set back. There is no possible way to measure the work of our attorneys in dollars and cents. There is no way to truly assess the role they have played in our work. We pay tribute to our lawyers this It is with deep sorrow and regret that Carol King, our late general counsel is not participating. But the work and spirit of Carol King is being kept alive by those who join us tonight and it is with the utmost confidence that the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born continues its work, knowing that when the chips are really down our advocates and attorneys will be there, and there is only one more thing I can say to them, and that is-thank you, counsellors, we are proud and pleased to be associated with you."

6. Chairman Smith then announced: "You have heard a report from an officer of the committee in New York City. Next we are to have the pleasure of hearing a lawyer, a noted constitutional lawyer, a consistent defender of democratic rights, and a leader in the American Civil Liberties Union, Mr. Osmond Fraenkel."

7. Osmond Fraenkel stated: "I have been a lawyer a long time and I don't remember having heard so many nice things said about lawyers as I have heard tonight. They are certainly justified by the lawyers who have represented this organization—I mean Carol King—I worked with her a long time in the International Juridical Association and I have known Joe and Dave not so long but for quite some time, and I worked with them in the Lawyers Guild and the nice things said are certainly justified by these three. It is also nice to hear that things have improved. I am generally an optimist about a long term but a pessimist about a short term, and as I was saying to Mrs. Forer, I am usually a pessimist about cases and she said 'Oh, that's the trouble'— 'you've got to be an optimist about cases.' I told her then I'm not disappointed so much when I lose them; she said 'but Joe doesn't lose them.' Well I hope that prophecy is right because the case that he is going to argue is an awful tough one. On its merits it's perfectly plain. Unfortunately the law and merits do not always go hand in hand and the Supreme Court, as you probably too well know, has laid down some very mean rules about aliens and the rights of communists, to order them deported for any reason which at the moment Congress may think suitable. And we of course are hoping that the court will have the sanity and courage to withdraw from some of those earlier pronouncements and lay down a civilized rule in this case. And in the notion that Congress can make deportable something which was not deportable at the time it happened, and in the notion that something unrelated wholly to the present welfare of the country, such as membership in any organization in the long time past, can be grounds for deportation, the court should recognize as the only grounds for deportation that which presumably is something which affects the present. Is this individual a fit person to remain here—this should be judged by certain standards of fitness and not dependent upon things that hanpened long ago. And so, therefore, our concern is and our hope for more court talents of persuasive powers which will instill that measure of courage into the court. I said I didn't come to make a speech only I was asked to come and say a few words. So I want to close with just one closing remark and that is we lawyers can only do a small job. We get up on our feet or we write briefs. Unless we can get a public opinion to support us in our views, we cannot be too confident that judges are going to listen; as Mr. Dewey said a long time ago—the Supreme Court feels the election returns and judges are sensitive to changes in the climate of opinion. So it is that organizations such as this and other organizations which have been active in this country in the years past, which must continue actively and vigorously to try to influence public opinion and in that way make even the judges realize that the ideas for which these organizations stand are the traditional ideas of American freedom. That is something which this organization has done and is continuing to do, and I hope will keep on doing until the glorious time should ever come when there would be no need in the field of the alien to be concerned about the question."

8. Chairman Smith stated "Thank you, Mr. Fraenkel. Our next speaker needs no introduction to you who have been interested, as I am very sure this whole audience is, in the progress of civil rights and in the progress of attempts to defend the weak. Next speaker is my fellow Cochairman of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, Father Kenneth Ripley Forbes."

9. The Rev. Forbes (Episcopalian minister) declared: "It is commonly supposed that when somebody wishes to hear hot air, when someone wishes to hear very closely argued academic matters, it is not uncommon that they turn to the clergy for just that necessary evil. In this case, however, they turned to this particular parson to do one thing that you would like to have done very much and come down to brass tacks and put it on the line. In other words, they wish to hand this guy the job of a collection speech, which he is not going to make but he is, I hope, by this suggestion to some or all of the people here, something of what their privileges are in this particular instance. You know, the foreign born are being depleted because largely of our immigration laws, and their numbers are depleted and their resources are even more depleted, and they cannot wholly protect themselves even when they have lawyers like Joe Forer and Dave Rein, Mr. Fraenkel and all the rest of the noble crowd. We have got to have enough money to put the resources of a larger group such as is represented here tonight. Now, I have been present at a good many feed fests and talk fests of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, and I have come to know several hundred, at least, by sight, of the nationality groups' numbers. As I look around here, I ought to know about 25 of them. So I know that there must be a lot of people on the outskirts of the work of the American Committee that are here tonight, and I appeal to you to help us give resources adequate for the job. Now, all these lawyers who stood up and were counted and were properly honored, they might even in every case give their services, not have any fee. They are officers and they might do it and frequently they do do it, but the courts are not sensitive as that and there are huge expenses in every one of these cases, especially as they are pushed from the Immigration Service to the Federal courts and appeal to the higher Federal courts, and sometimes to the Supreme Court, as Forer and Rein are going to appear before next week. And so I know that some groups here have brought money or assurances of money—pledges of money—and I hope that those who have not brought it will feel it a privilege now to help the American Committee do its job. So I am going to begin by asking any individual or groups or representatives if they have $500 or more to put on If they have, somebody ought to pick it up. I see some people are roaming thru the audience ready to do that. Who wants to give $500 or more? When you pick it up, just let's know who it is and how much it is. Any group? Here's a total of $800 from Washington, D. C., and Lord knows how many good people. Now don't wait for this to be announced but hop right up and say I'll give you another $500, or if you haven't got the price, we'll take something less-but if you can, $500 is the mark. Who will add $500 to that-who will give a pledge of $500? We'll come down-who's ready with $250? You know, that's just chicken feed in going to trial, paying court costs, to say nothing of legitimate lawyers' fees. Well, if you haven't got $250 handy or a pledge for it without going into bankruptcy, come further down and make it $100. Stand up and let's see who has it. Who found $100? What group of people found $100? Here's eight people at a table—see how very little per head that is. What table here is ready to pitch in and come up with $100 between them. No $100 tables? Well, here comes a contribution from Norman Gourse of $50-that's one individ-Another $50 contribution from Bennie and Sadie Saltzman, Bronx, N. Y. How about some more $50? What table will bring $50—that means $5 or $6 aniece. Here's $60 from the Ukrainian group, people who are among the foreign born and consequently in danger like the rest of us. Another $50 comes from Joe Forer's brother, he doesn't say what his name is, but it's a good family. Here's $50 from William L. Standard. Another $50 from Martin Young, one of the sufferers of the Walter-McCarran Act who somewhere has found $50. $75 from Rose Nelson Defense Committee. Table 14 gives $150. $25 from John Abt. The Hungarian Committee $131. The Lithuanian group $50. see, when people know somebody is gunning for them unjustly and outrageously. they dig plenty and deep. A. A. Heller $25; $25 from the Russian-American group. Another $25 from Armenian Progressive League; $30 from Alma Foley (phonetic) of Minneapolis; $25 from a group of Sea Gate friends; two anonymous $25, you needn't be ashamed of it. From a friend by the name of Louise Pettibone Smith, $25. 'A lot of people say I'm a hard worker and work hard so you needn't expect me to give, but Professor Smith does both.' $35 from Table 13. We don't want to keep this money racket going much longer-$10 annoymous, Otto Nathan, another guy who has suffered but he gives money too. Table 21, $12: Table 3 with $20. When we go on with the program, it will not prevent any table or individual from slipping a little money which will eventually get up here. Emma Lazarus, Paterson, N. J., $7; Rose Tarazona $10; Alvin Toffler $12. Abner Green says the money has amounted up to $1,200. You can sweeten it up some more before you go home; that's all, thank you very much."

10. Chairman Smith, taking over, announced: "Rev. Joseph H. Jernigan, of Washington, D. C., $6. If the ushers will pass the baskets, anybody with something small can drop it in. The Committee can thank you all that the work that the lawyers are doing can go on a little longer. Father Forbes has to leave because he has to get a train to Philadelphia; we thank him for his efforts. Again I introduce a speaker who really needs no introduction to an audience such as this-educator, author, lecturerer who has for years been associated with cases involving the preservation of civil and human rights, closely associated with the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. He also initiated the Bill of Rights Fund to assist in civil rights cases. It is a particular pleasure to me because when I first left my nice academic ivory tower and went with a good deal of shivers to a convention on Civil Rights in New York City, Mr. Corliss Lamont was one of the speakers at that meeting."

11. Corliss Lamont stated: "Miss Smith, Mr. Rein, Mr. Forer, ladies, and gentlemen, I am particularly glad to be at this meeting tonight because it satisfies me in so many ways. First, I am very happy to be at a dinner honoring Forer and Rein, that great Washington firm without which many an American defendent in a civil liberties case could hardly have survived or escaped jail. As you know, there's an intricate system in Washington, D. C., which makes it very difficult for out-of-town lawyers to come down there and argue a case and learn the ropes and know the ropes, and if it were not for a couple of guys like Dave Rein and Joe Forer, we would be lost down there. I know so many cases which have depended on these two lawyers. Well, of course, I am appreciative of what the lawyers in this room in general are doing; in fact, I never saw so many lawyers together before in all my life, and I feel somewhat abashed in speaking to such a knowing audience. Even though there are many in this room, there are not many in the country as a while relatively speaking, who would stand up today against the witchhunt and take these unpopular cases and risk their own necks in fighting through a case right up to the Supreme Court. But there are no cases that Forer and Rein have not dared to take and we can depend upon them in the future, as in the past, to carry on this battle. And secondly, I am glad to be speaking on a platform where we have this organization, the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, as the guest for all of us tonight. This committee has waged a struggle for a long time for the civil liberties of immigrants to the United States, and I am particularly glad to be with them, because they have been honored in so many ways by the Government of the United States. This was one of the first organizations to be on the Attorney General's subversive list, and I do not say that is a sure path to virtue and honor, but, under the circumstances, we who know realize that the reason for this organization being put on the list was precisely because it was doing such fine work in the field of civil liberties, protecting the rights of foreign-born Americans. Then, of course, we are working with them, too, in the fight against being cited as a communist front by the Subversive Activities Control Board. And there again they were one of the first organizations cited by the Attorney General to go before the SACB and undergo this ordeal. Particularly I am glad to be here because it is an event and dinner and an organization and people who are associated with this big struggle to maintain the rights of foreign-born Americans. l go way back in my first knowledge of this subject, very fortunately, and to my family. I had an uncle whose name was John Palmer Dewitt (phonetic), who way back in 1922, when I was a student at Harvard College, presented me with a copy of his book, Americans By Choice, and this was a book on immigrants coming to the United States, and what they contributed to the life and achievement of this country, and I have never forgotten what my uncle said in that book, and this cause has been close to my heart ever since. Mr. Dewitt died a few years ago at the age of about 85, but I want to mention his name particularly tonight, because he was one of the first liberal Americans who really got into this subject and did a fine job in treating of the foreign born and immigrants in general. Now, as Mr. Jones has said, the struggle for the rights of the immigrants in the United States ties in with these other civil liberties struggles that we are going through all the time. His example of how a section of the Smith Act was smuggled into the Alien Registration Act was, of course, very good, indeed, and now we know that the Smith Act just last week in Washington has been undergoing a battle on the part of several able lawyers in this room, and we have hoped that in some of these cases there will be a reconsideration by the Supreme Court of its former position in declaring the Smith Act constitutional. It was only today that we read in the newspapers that the Nelson case, together with four of the Pennsylvania cases, had been remanded for a new trial, due to the doubtful credibility of this witness and professional informer McVeigh. Well, what is extraordinary is that the Department of Justice itself finally came forth to question the credibility of one of its star performers and informers; and what the Department of Justice should do, it seems to me in all honor and justice, is to bring under a microscope of intensity that will reveal every true thing; bring under that microscope all these professional informers that they have been using in these trials which have been so often frameups of innocent people.

"That Smith Act business, again I want to say, is based on a misconception of constitutional law and freedom of expression. The whole standard of the clear and present danger should be thrown out and we should have a more definite standard if we are going to treat of revolutionary expressions; if we are going to make some curb of expressions of violent overthrow and other such things. We must substitute for the clear and present danger standard, which is so vague and which forces the judges to become experts on practically every subject in the world; we must substitute the good old standard of direct incitement to violent or some other overt criminal act. Here we will draw the line; when a man advocates assassination or advocates a riot that may lead to bloodshed and violence, there we will say that the government has a right to step in. But that's the standard of incitement and not this new standard which unfortunately the great Justice Holmes originated—that of the clear and present danger. The struggle to maintain these rights of the foreign born ties in with all the other struggles around the many malicious and evil antifreedem laws we have in this country. There are at least eight Federal laws which should be gotten rid of, beginning with the Walter-McCarran Law itself; we just read down the list—the Internal Security Act, the Communist Control Act, the Taft-Hartley Act, the Welker Act, the Expatriation Act, the Immunity Act, and the Smith Act which we have already mentioned. In all of these cases, coming back to that business of McVeigh, if I pronounce his name correctly, we are faced with this informer racket; the same racket which Harvey Matusow started to break down when he wrote his book about how he had framed up many innocent people in trials throughout the United States. And what does the Department of Justice do when one of the perjurers confesses that he has committed perjury in sending innocent Americans to jail? Instead of investigating right down the line, to what extent that informer's testimony in this trial and that trial was malicious and lying and perjurious, the Department of Justice says 'Why, we'll get that guy, he is breaking down our system.' So they go after Matusow and they go after Mrs. Natvig who was another one who recanted, and finally they're able to frame them up on some charge, and these people who finally try to tell at least a part of the truth, find themselves in jail. Now there's one man who is responsible ultimately for what is going on today in this sort of trial that use these informers, who is responsible for the prosecution and persecution under these unconstitutional acts, and that's Attorney General Brownell. There's a member of President Eisenhower's cabinet who really takes the authority in these matters and if he said no to some of this terrible conduct on the part of his own department, it would not go on. President Eisenhower is running today as a scared man against the Democratic ticket, but I can tell him, and I can tell the Republicans—if there are any in this room, which I doubt—I can give the Republican Party and Eisenhower some advice right here, which I'm afraid won't take and probably never will hear about, namely that if Eisenhower would publicly announce that he was going to get rid of Attorney General Brownell if and when he was elected President, he would win a million votes right then and there. Eisenhower is trying to get liberal votes—that's what he needs those old independent Democrats who came over to him in the 1952 election. Well, why doesn't be make some gesture about civil liberties, the civil liberties which have fallen to the lowest estate in the history of America during his administration. And if he wanted to win another million votes, when he announced that he was dropping Brownell, he would also announce that he was appointing as Attorney General another fellow general, namely Telford Taylor somebody like that, and I dare say that the Republicans would go far if they adopted the tactics that I am suggesting merely as a political strategy. Again, this battle for the foreign-born ties in with the struggle for Negro rights in America. In a very broad sense, the trouble with the Walter-McCarran Bill and those other unjust acts which affect the immigrant to the United States, are based on a deep national and racial prejudice which I am afraid extends not only among Senators and Congressmen but among many millions of our fellow Americans. And I do not believe for a minute that the Negro will ever be free in America until the foreign born are free as well. In this sense, as in many other senses, civil liberties are individual and as you march forward, on one front, it affects all the other fronts and the battle as a general war on behalf of freedom. When I look at that Negro problem today, I am not nearly as optimistic as some of my friends. When I see what is going on in the south in regard to upholding the Supreme Court decision on desegration of public schools, I cannot feel that we are anywhere near a solution, and then I look at the deep prejudice against the Negro race which extends to every State of the north as well as of the south, I say that this is a long, long struggle which will last during the lives of any one of us here in this room tonight.

"Turning again to another sector of our battle for civil liberties, there is the Congressional inquisition and the attempt of various Congressional Investigating Committees to do away with the rights of individuals and organizations who are merely expressing their freedom of opinion in this country. We have seen some amelioration of the situation in the last three years. McCarthy has taken a back seat, though if the Republicans win the Senate he might become active again as Chairman of the Permanent Senate Subcommittee on Investigations, and we have seen some victories in this field which, while they have not touched the First Amendment, yet are very important in the implications they have for Congressional investigations. I myself, as you know, was involved in a slight skirmish of this kind with Senator McCarthy. My case was tied up with at least one other person in this room because the Department of Justice did not appeal the case, which was won in the courts of New York. They can't appeal because time has run out in which to file for appeal. Mr. Unger and I and Mr. Shadowitz congratulate the Department of Justice in having the wisdom to drop Many people have given me a great deal of praise which I don't I think that we go back to Aristotle for the correct view of ethical life, that is, instead of merely doing what seems to give us the most pleasure and which might lead us to become professional tennis players, instead of seeking our own pleasures, we seek things which are useful to the community and which are according to reason and commonsense. We find that we are getting the greatest pleasure of all in these activities. During the battle with the McCarthy Committee, I had the time of my life; there was very little about it that I didn't enjoy. I didn't choose it: Senator McCarthy chose me, and it seemed to me worthwhile and useful to fight, and the same is true of other bouts that I have on in the field of civil liberties. If the individual suffers too much, if he goes to jail too long, if his economic status is affected so he and his family are starving, he is no longer going to take too much pleasure in the battle. That is happening to many Americans in our time, and yet the psychology and, I think, the effort still holds good, that for those in the community who have public spirit and long to do as much as those activities which seem important for which they are fit, and they have almost surely. they will get a reward in terms of personal happiness as well as contributing to the cause of freedom and of their own country's advancement. Well, there are a couple of other sectors here on civil liberties that I would like to mention. One is the First Amendment in respect to the separation of church and state. As the reactionaries advance on one front, they also advance on another front, and so it is no accident that in the last few years there have been increasing encroachments on the constitutional separation of church and state. In 1954. for instance, you had the words 'Under God' added to the pledge of allegiance to the flag. In the same year three-cent and eight-cent stamps began to appear with the motto 'In God We Trust' imprinted on them, a motto formerly confined to coins. In 1955 Congress voted that all United States paper money should bear this same motto; and in 1956, mind you, Congress voted to substitute for your old national motto. 'E Pluribus Unum.' the same motto. 'In God We Trust.' Now, this is quite an evolution here, and what it means is that we are adopting officially a religion of theism for the American people and the American nation. This is what is happening to us civil libertarians. I know that you will agree with me that we will be fighting to the end to permit any religious group in this country, no matter how wacky they may be, even if they stand up on a street corner and scare people to death by saying the world is going to come to an end on October 24th, even if they say that or anything else, we defend the right of every religion to educate and propagandize as it will, but we say every religion, including our own religion, must stop at the threshold of making itself official in the United States of America—must stop at the threshold of infiltrating the public schools of this country and try to put across its own creed. And it was only last week when we had another example when the Board of Education passed a new spiritual and moral creed for public-school teachers in this State. This was very good in many ways, and yet the attempts throughout there to smuggle in theism is very clear. And, of course, many groups objected to it, but it went through all the same. Now, finally, in this general review of tying up civil liberties in this country with the fight that we are concentrating on here tonight is the question of censorship of movies, television, and literature. We who have been in this struggle over the past decade have naturally, I think, concentrated more or less on the political aspects of this battle, because here were the things that were hitting us most in the face. Those state laws, those federal laws, those municipal ordinances, and so we have not emphasized perhaps as much as we should the danger in the censorship which has always existed in the United States of literary and other cultural parts, but it has come home to smack us in the face when at the Smith trial one of the main pieces of evidence against the defendants was that they had read and to a certain extent taught from the works of Stalin, Lenin, and Engels. That just shows how censorship in one field, say, a light novel on sexual relations, how that can come over into another field, the field of politics, and cause havoc. There is a book recently published by Paul Blanchard, whose name you know, called 'The Right to Read, who sums this up very well indeed and shows what the dangers are even in the so-called federal obscenity statute which is supposed to prevent obscene literature from being distributed in the United States; and in that connection there has been a recent opinion by Jerome Frank in the Roth case to which I refer your attention because he has a brilliant opinion there, showing that the federal obscenity statute really is unconstitutional. He calls that statute exquisitely vague and he examines it very carefully. He tells us that really what the statute is against is arousing the readers' sexual thoughts, desires, or impulses; and Judge Frank, being a wise man, says, in effect: 'Well, my heavens, how far are we going to push this matter?—if we outlaw all sexual thoughts, let's say the human race will pretty soon disappear.' There it is, in black and white, in a federal judge's opinion, and he states 'this statute, as the courts construe it, appears to provide criminal punishment for inducing no more than thoughts, feelings, and desires.' Well, here is a clear violation of the First Amendment. No overt act. And it reminds me of the story of the chaplain at Yale, who was crossing the campus and saw one of the students coming toward him, and he stopped him and rather pompously said, 'Young man, are you troubled by evil thoughts?' and the student sort of reared back and was very much surprised and said, 'Why, no, sir: I rather enjoy it.' Well, this is an important matter. Judge Frank says that the Supreme Court really has not passed directly on the Obscenity Act, although it has sort of indirectly woven it into its judicial opinion, and we do not know if we can ever upset that particular position of the Supreme Court but certainly it's worth trying. Well, finally, I might mention, too, that the field of art has come under this same ban, this same crusade against free-Here I will only mention that one of my favorite educational institutions, the New School for Social Research, had painted for it by Morosco a mural way back in 1930, and Morosco, one of the great Mexican painters, put in there the social struggles throughout the world-the Chinese Revolution led by Sun Yat Sen: the Mexican Revolution with its stirrings and strivings: the Indian Revolution with Ghandi as the great leader; and then the fourth panel had to be the Russian Revolution, and, unfortunately, he put in the figures of Lenin and Stalin. Well this was not considered bad at the time because we did not have a cold war at the moment-we had other things going on-but it was only about five years ago that the New School came under pressure because of this mural on the Russian Revolution, and, as many of you know, the New School finally surrendered to the criticisms of people who wandered through the building, and even some of its own students, and they covered up the Morosco mural of the Russian Revolution with a white cheesecloth. You could go down there and lift it up a little and peek, but that was not considered good form. Well, what do you In the fall of 1956 the cheesecloth was taken off. So Mr. Jones is right. The situation is getting better, and we should have a certain amount of optimism. but we have to have a lot of Osmond Fraenkel's pessimism, too, although I know it is not pessimism in the long run, but it got to be an awful long run here before we get freedom under the Bill of Rights for all the American people. And, indeed, we can say that this struggle will go on for many, many decades, and I see in the room tonight the charming and beautiful daughter, age 16, of one of the guests we are honoring at this high table, and I say to her that when she reaches the year 2000, which I hope to reach myself, but I'm not entirely sure about it. that she will still be able to fight for civil liberties as her father did, because there will be problems then as there are problems now in the field of freedom of expression. Well, I want to bow off in favor of the guests of honor at this point; I will only say that these two lawyers here tonight that we are honoring. and this committee under whose auspices we are meeting, they have participated courageously and ably in this great cause of civil liberties. We salute them for their past labors and triumphs, and we look forward to the many more victories on their part in the future.

12. Chairman Smith announced: "We are most grateful to Mr. Lamont for showing us so clearly how all forms of liberty are intertwined. We can now take a long breath and then listen with the greatest of pleasure to Nadyne Brewer and Lucy Brown, her accompanist." Four songs were played and sung by the entertainers.

13. Chairman Smith continued: "That was delightful. The lawyers in whose honor this dinner is held have come not alone and any of us who have watched family life know that it is not just the man of the family who does his work but that a share in that work is done by various others close to him, and I want now to ask the family of Mr. Forer to rise and greet the audience and accept Mrs. Forer, Jane Forer, Mrs. Hilda Roberts, the brothers Dr. Robert Forer, Mr. Morris Forer. I think one of our speakers said that he had not heard too many words in favor of lawyers but I want to quote a quotation on lawyers, written in 1835 that begins this way. It is from De Touteville's (?) analysis of democracy in the United States of America. 'The threat entrusted to members of the legal profession and the influence which these individuals exercise in the government is the most powerful existing security against the excesses of democracy. Men who have made a special study of the laws derive from this occupation certain habits of order and taste for formalities and a kind of instinctive regard for the regular connection of ideas which naturally render them very hostile to unreflected passions of the multitudes.' The first of the men whom we honor tonight is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Law School, has worked in the Treasury Department, for the National Labor Relations Board, the O. P. A. and for various other Government agencies. He went into private Amongst the cases which he has lately handled is the case of practice in 1946. the Communist Party before the Subversive Activities Control Board, the Heikkila Deportation case in the Supreme Court, Black v. Cutter in the Supreme Court, and he was counsel for the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born in the proceedings before the Subversive Activities Control Board. I feel that I know Mr. Forer particularly well since he had to steer me through that particular ordeal. The Committee wishes to give Mr. Forer a very small concept of appreciation and thank him for the work he has done.'

14. Joseph Forer stated: "Thank you Louise and thank you, all my friends. Before I came here tonight. I thought that on principle. I was opposed to testimonial dinners, but really I have enjoyed this one and I am beginning to think they're all fine. It is a fact, as Louise said in her introduction, that ten years ago, just ten years ago, Dave Rein and I left the government and went into private practice together in Washington. Two or three weeks later the cold war broke out. This was not a case of cause and effect, it just happened. But the cold war brought with it a ten year wave not yet over, of repressive measures against American civil liberties such as this country had never seen before and that had an effect on the practice that Dave and I started out on. We started out to become prosperous corporation lawyers. Somehow that got frustrated and we became unprosperous civil liberties lawvers. This was really my second disappointment in choosing a career. Professor Lamont might be interested to know that my real ambition was to become a professional tennis player and I gave that up, not out of any sense of obligation to society but I just couldn't hit the ball well enough and keep it within the court and though I still play tennis, it will never be as a professional player, I'm sorry to say. During these ten years we did, Dave and I got involved as counsel in a substantial number of cases growing out of this attack on the Bill of Rights. By and large I have enjoyed it a great deal. I can't say the same for our clients. I'm afraid that virtually all of them, even those whose cases we won—ungrateful wretches—found it to be harrowing experience. They weren't always as philosophical as Professor Lamont. But by and large they came out pretty good. As a matter of fact, as I look around me, it seems to me that the audience here tonight falls roughly into three groups: one of course is lawyers; the other are clients; and the third, considering that there are a lot of unfamiliar faces here, makes me think that Dave Rein has a big family. The whole mob Professor Smith will get around to introduce in time, I assure you. I think it is a fact that the worst of the storm that we ran through in these ten years is over, and that conditions are im-That's a good thing, even from my own selfish view. I'm getting proving. to the point where much as I enjoy fighting for civil liberties. I am beginning to wish that I could represent some popular client. I don't mean by this that I intend to abandon my present clients. I just mean that I expect the time soon to come when my present clients will become more popular. In fact they may get so popular that they may stop being clients and that's the consummation that we are hopeful of. But this improvement in the situation of civil liberties, I think it is a real one; there is, as Dr. Lamont said, a long way to go and it is true that there is obviously some very profound clauses for this which are too profound for me to go into. I'm sure there are several people in the room that would be glad to explain it to anyone who will listen to them, if there is anybody who is willing to listen. But leaving aside such major explanations as changes in international relations, what is officially called the relaxation of tension and the fact that the American people have shown enough good sense to really fight off the unparallelled barrage of propaganda which served to convince them that the only way to retain their freedom is to sacrifice their freedom; leaving these profound clauses aside, I think that one of the facts has been the fight back which has been made on a case by case basis in cases growing out of the repressive measures. This fight back has resulted in some victories, really a much more substantial number than most of the people realize, but even where there were defeats, the very fight itself slowed down the progress of repression and it gave heart to other people to join in the fight. And I think it is a fact that this fight primarily * * * all those who were the victims of the cases, the people on the left, and they were joined by a small and ever growing, 1 think, number of other persons who, though not sharing in their political views, had understanding enough to realize what was at stake; that what was at stake were not merely the liberties of the people on the far left but American liberties altogether, and these people had the courage to try to do something about it. And to me it is a source of deep pride and gratification that some of the most eminent of these people who came to the defense of the persons under attack are on the dais tonight. I mean Professor Smith, Osmond Fraenkel, Dr. Lamont, and before he left, Father Forbes. I think it is a fact that whatever the shortcomings of the American left, and I gather that they are now to be enthusiastically acknowledged to be considerable, it has made a real contribution to American society in recent years, in that in fighting for its own right to exist, in fighting for its own right to speak, it has helped to preserve the right to speak, the right to think, the right to assemble, for all Americans. I think that is a real contribution. In the field of the foreign born, this fight has been about as acute as in any other field, perhaps even more so. I do not think people, most people, realize just what the situation has been in that field. In the first place, the foreign born have been treated just as shamefully or more shamefully than any other comparable group, leaving aside the negro people. In the second place, there have been more civil liberties cases, actual cases of people that have been directly affected by civil liberties cases in this field than in any other single field, and I wouldn't be surprised if in all fields put together. In the third place, those fights in the field of the foreign born have involved all of the basic principles which arose in the civil liberties field altogether. The First Amendment, because the fight has been largely against deportations and denaturalizations for the exercise of rights of speech, of expression and political assembly; substituting due process because the foreign born have had to fight arbitrary and discriminatory governmental action based on no valid classification basis and no valid governmental purpose. In the fight against racism, because unfortunately the principles of our Immigration Laws, both statute and decisional, derive from a racist basis; they derive from the time when the first case, the first deportation statutes, leaving out the Alien Sedition Laws, were enacted because of the prejudices against the Chinese immigrant. As a matter of fact, the first expulsion case, the first general expulsion case in the Supreme Court was of such an obviously racist character that it led to Mr. Justice . . . dissenting, to question out loud whether the disciples of Confuscious would not be warranted in asking why America sent missionaries to China instead of keeping them at home. The fight back in this field has also involved the fight against informants. I think there has been more perjury committed in deportation and denaturalization immigration cases by government witnesses than in all other cases put together, and that is a considerable number. I consider myself an expert in this field: sometimes it seems to me I have heard more perjurers than almost any living person, with the exception of John Abt who has heard just as many and maybe a few It has involved the fight for the right to bail before conviction. As a matter of fact some noble victories were won along that line by the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. Basically it has involved the right to decent treatment for people who are human beings against repressive measures, against being exiled from the land in which they have sunk their roots. It has involved the fight for humanity against inhumanity, which has sought to disrupt families and to destroy lives. It is a fact that this fight back with regard to the foreign born has been magnificently organized and led by the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. For its reward, the American Committee has been cited as a subversive organization and an attempt is being made to destroy it before the Subversive Activities Control Board proceedings in which I had the honor to represent the Committee. This of course is culpable nonsense on the face of it. While I'm there, I might tell Dr. Lamont that if he wants to meet a Republican in this audience, I could introduce him to a person who was sitting next to him—Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith, who I know as a registered Republican because I made her testify to that under oath in the Subversive Activities Control Board hearing. And what is more, she has been a registered Republican all her adult life. been very satisfying to work with the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. As a matter of fact, the American Committee started Dave and me off in this field. The very first civil liberties case that we ever handled came into our office from the American Committee. That was a whopper. Turned out to be a man that needed a separate legal department for his cases. It involved Gerhart Eisler, who for our sins had to be foreign born. Anyway, we took that case all the way up to the Supreme Court too and then I sub-Yes, for the benefit of the few laymen in the audience, I should explain that 'mooted' means that it made the whole thing purposeless, which he managed to do. But it has been a great satisfaction to work with the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. In the next few days we will be presenting to the Supreme Court the case of Charles Rowoldt; we will be doing that for the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born. What we are asking the Supreme Court to do in that case is to recognize, for the first time and contrary to their prior decisions, that the deportation powers like other powers of government are really controlled by the Bill of Rights and that the First Amendment applies to deportation powers, Bill of Attainder clause applies to the deportation powers, all of which seems very simple because the Constitution makes no exception, but the courts have made that exception. Maybe we'll lose; we hope we will win; maybe we'll win on some less fundamental point than the major point in the case which was whether the Constitution controls the deportation power. But win, lose or draw, I know that the American Committee is going to continue to wage a good fight for the protection of the rights of the Foreign Born and thereby for the protection of all. As a matter of fact, the Department of Justice is so determined on persecuting the foreign born and it is so alarmed by the depletion in their number, to which Father Forbes referred, that it is doing its best to make native born citizens foreign born, by denaturalizing native born Americans, and by such actions—as just a year or two ago when they tried to deport a fullblooded Iroquois Indian. The Department of Justice said he really did not belong in this country. He won his case; the courts pointed out that he had been here first. Well, I have talked longer than I had expected—possibly a little more solemnly than I expected. I can only conclude by saying to you once again—

I thank you very, very much." 15. Chairman Smith taking over, stated: "Thank you Mr. Forer, in whose debt we are and shall remain. Before I come to the last of the evening's program, I have an introduction and an anouncement. In the first place you have met, you have heard Alec Jones from the Committee office and Abner Green opened this meeting, but I would like also to present to any of you who do not know her, and to re-present to those of you who do, Harriet Barron, Administrative Secretary. And a few members of the staff that also worked to make this and all the other things which the Committee must do for success, Grace Johnson and Helen Morgan. And I have been asked to announce that "To Vito Marcantonio, I vote my Conscience" is on sale in the lobby at the close of this dinner. We now come to hear the other guest of honor—the first to his family—Mrs. David Rein, his wife; Mrs. Bertha Rein, his mother; Mrs. Michael Besso, his And now Mr. Rein, we have you to thank also for the work that Forer & Rein have done for this Committee. Mr. Rein is a graduate of Columbia University and Law School, a member of the New York City Charter Revision Commission, the Puerto Rican Reconstruction Administration, the National Labor Relations Board, O. P. A. and U. S. Marine Corps. He also went into private practice in 1946. He was counsel for Gerhart Eisler in the Supreme Court, the National Council for Soviet-American Friendship before the Subversive Activities Control Board, the case of Dr. Gundlach (?), the Ben Gold case, the case of William Heikkila. For all you've done for civil rights, and for us, thank you." 16. David Rein stated: "It seems Joe and myself, before we came here, since this was only going to be one dinner with one price being paid—that the guests should be entitled to, rather subjected to, only one speech. We decided, therefore, to let Joe, the speechmaker in the firm, make the speech which he has done. Abner, however, insisted that since he was giving out two guests, that both of us had to stand up on our feet and say something. I'm glad, however, that Joe did come first. We did have a bargain that neither one of us would talk about the other, at least disparagingly, and although I trust Joe implicitly, I'm glad he came first so I could know he kept his part of the bargain. So I'll keep mineexcept I must tell you one story. You might think his family and his brothers came up from Trenton to see Joe because he was being honored tonight, but in fact I learned from one of his brothers that they were really curious to see just to see his partner, to see how anybody could have put up with him all of these years. I have wanted to take this occasion for a few personal remarks; I want to make to pay tribute to the person who is the guiding spirit of the American Committee for so many years, and by that I mean of course Carol King, whom you have all heard referred to tonight. Carol King, I think certainly for myself, and I think probably I can speak for Joe, also is responsible as much as anybody, for the career of Forer & Rein, a career of iniquity which was started with the Eisler case and which led to-I don't say its final culmination-but at least to the banquet here tonight. And perhaps, although Carol had tre-mendous ability and a number of abilities in terms of her legal skill, her ability and analysis, I think, the greatest ability that she had and the one I remember and cherish the most, is her inspirational ability and her ability to get us young lawyers like myself to be involved in civil liberties cases. I think, as a matter of fact, that our movement today and the forces of civil liberties could use a successor to Carol King to play the kind of role to young lawyers that Carol King did. It has always been significant to me that Carol, who was interested in civil liberties for everybody, made a decision early in her life to devote the major part of her energies to the role of the foreign born. For that reason she hecame counsel to this organization and devoted herself to it. Now, I discussed that with her on a number of occasions and she explained to me the reasons that she had for devoting herself to that line of work, and she saw the problem as being based upon two basic principles which were really the basic principles upon which the committee has worked and is continuing its work under the sterling leadership of the present Chairman, of course, Abner Green its Executive Secretary. And that is the important point to bring out—that the foreign born are not really in face aliens. You note that when we discuss the judicial cases, the courts and what the Department of Justice says, they're always talking about taking action against aliens. The American Committee, however, is not the American Committee for the Protection of Aliens, but the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, and in that lies the real significance—the real significance of the difference of approach to the problem, which is the reason why the American Committee comes out right and the Department of Justice comes out wrong with respect to this. It was not so long ago. I think Dr. Lamont commented about the work written by his uncle, that we recognized the contribution made to our society by the foreign born. It was the foreign born who really built the country, did all the backbreaking and menial jobs in the building of the railroads, in the building of our basic industry. It was also the foreign born who contributed all of us to this audience, to this country—we are all children of foreign born; we are all children of immigrants. It was the foreign born who came here and they didn't come here just to sojourn briefly and go home. They came here to build their lives and to help build America. They may technically, some of them may technically not be citizens and we consider, as a matter of fact that the number I think in the last census is as much as three million—for one reason or another they may not be citizens. Some, as Mr. Jones has told you like Charles Rowoldt, some had personal problems come up: others never understood or appreciated the problem because of the fact that perhaps they did not have proper education, not enough was made of it when they came here, to teach them of the need to become citizens, but they did become Americans in every real sense. They led their lives here and they became as much a part of America as those who were born here. The Department of Justice takes the point of view despite all of this tradition and despite all this history, that these foreign born are merely strangers who just happened to pass through this country and it is on that that we have had to take issue with them. The second basic principle on which the Committee is based, and the one I think the one that Carol King was made to devote her work to it, is that repressive measures against the foreign born has always had precedence in repressive measures against the rest of our society and against the citizens throughout the country. The example has already been given, the fact that the notorious Smith Act, which is the first peacetime sedition act we have ever had, I should probably say the second peacetime sedition act—the first was the iniquitous Alien, the American Alien & Sedition Acts, to show again the combination back in 1798 in the days of the opposition to Jefferson. As I said, Mr. Jones has already pointed out that the Smith Act was offered an an amendment to the Alien Registration Act of 1940. The Smith Act, which says nothing about aliens and nothing about the foreign born, was passed by Congress which was supposedly considering legislation against aliens without any consideration of really what it meant of what it implied. But we should also bear in mind that the first measure taken against any group of our society involving what has since become the widespread iniquitous doctrine of guilt by association, was taken in legislation against the foreign born and that was in the Deportation Statutes of 1920. It was in those statutes that for the first time in American law the principle was established that action could be taken against individuals solely because of their membership in an organization, without regard to any conduct on their part of any kind or character. Once that doctrine had been accepted in the alien field, it was spread—it was spread in the Smith Act—subsequently spread in the Loyalty Order, and it is now spready today—today in every walking field of American life—this doctrine of guilt by association. Surprisingly enough, the legal arguments which the government uses in connection with this usually goes as follows: You first attempt to bring in these innovations and doctrines to destroy constitutional rights in the field of aliens and when they're opposed in court the Department of Justice takes the position that aliens are different from other people and they are really not subject to the constitution, not entitled to the constitution and therefore let's apply this particular principle to aliens. Once the principle is applied, they back in there and say, well this principle ought to be applied to citizens, because look, you applied it to aliens recently and by the logic—the simple logic that if it was reasonable to apply it there, it is reasonable to apply it here, and therefore anywhere so that we find quite consistently the government can get away with invasion of constitutional rights in the field of alien law and attempts to carry through that principle in other fields. These are the principles which are at issue again in the Rowoldt case and these are the principles we are going to attempt to convince the Supreme Court of next week. There has been some discussion here about being optimistic and pessimistic in the short run or in the long run. I think, realistically, I think as Osmond Fraenkel informed Mrs. Forer, that the firm of Forer & Rein never loses any case; those cases that we lost were always forgotten about—it was always somebody else's fault of course but they're very few in number. But at any rate, we must keep our fingers crossed as to the possibility of success in this case because it has only been two short years ago that the same principle was decided against us by the Supreme Court. We are confident, however, that these principles will apply ultimately, and by ultimately I mean in the not too far distant future and that the work of the American Committee in protecting the rights of the foreign born and thru them the constitutional rights of all of us will be yindicated. I want to thank you personally for the honor that you have tendered me here and say that I am very grateful."

THE DEPORTATION DRIVE

Additional arrests, as well as renewed activity on old cases, brought the total number of non-citizens now facing McCarran Law deportation proceedings to more than 175 in 23 states. The most serious immediate asnect of the deportation drive, however, continues to be the Justice Department's attack on the American right to bail, which is discussed in a special report.

Old Coses

Last year, the Justice Department wrote to many non-citizens in all parts of the country who had been ordered deported during 1920 or 1930, but whose departation could not be effected sine they were not citizens of any country. The Justice Department wrote to these non-citizens to threaten them that, unless they literally "deported themselves," they would face a ten-year prison sentence, as provided by the McCarran Law. After these letters were sent, the Justice Department started to put into effect one other provision of the Mc-Carran Law and tried to place these non-citizens on "parole." Under parole agreement, non-citizens would have to report regularly in person, submit to psychiatric examination, and give information as to associates and activities. legal action is being taken in all cases to defeat any attempt to deprive noncitizens of their democratic rights.

Deportation Hearings

McCarran Law deportation hearings are in progress at the present time in all parts of the country. About 35 hearings have been completed and are Another 40 hearings are scheduled and will be completed to the near future.

On January 10 and 11, deportation hearings were held in San Francisco in the case of Dr. Krishna Chandra, of Sacramento, who faces deportation to India solely because of his past membership in a fraternal insurance organiza-tion, the International Workers Order. The hearing officer took the case under advisement and has as yet made no recommendation.

Arrests

San Francisco: On January 9, Ida Rothstein, 54, native of Russia, resident of the U. S. for 44 years, was arrested and released on $5,000 bail. Mrs. Rothstein, secretary of the SF Civil Rights Congress, claims to be an American citizen on the basis of her common-law marriage to an American citizen.

Los Angeles: On January 18, Raye Rubin, 50, who was brought into this country when she was less than two months old, was arrested and held for deportation to Lithuania. She was released on $4,000 bail. Mrs. Rubin, a deportation to Lithuania. #### Women Visit Capital. Assail McCarran Drive

Washington, May 17.—A delegation of 20 women from seven states today appealed to President Truman. Attorney General McGrath and Commissioner of Immigration A. R. Mackey to call a halt to the McCarran deportation proceedings which they charged threatened to "destroy the homes of 170 law-abiding citizens."

The group presented to David K. Niles, executive assistant to the President.

an open letter signed by 55 prominent American women.

It views "the action of the Department of Justice in applying provisions of the McCarran law to unjustly deport 170 law-abiding noncitizens from the United States" with grave concern. "It is disturbing to think," stated the Open Letter, "what effect the persecution of these noncitizens will have on the civil rights of every resident of the United States, citizen and noncitizen alike, since these deportations are based on the unconstitutional proposition of denying noncitizens freedom of speech and belief. Denial of these freedoms to the foreign-born would strike at the freedom of all Americans.'

Included among the women who signed the letter were: Anita Alverez, Bella S. Abzug, Dr. Dorothy Brewster, Sarah Cleghorn, Jeanne Cole, Bishop M. L. Deborah, Susan d'Usseau, Muriel Draper, Sara Bard Field, Dr. Georgia Harkness. Grace Hutchins.

Also, Pearl Laws, Ray Ley, Prof. Mildred J. Ludwig, Katherine A. Van Orden, Prof. Bertha H. Putnam, Rose S. Rosenberg, Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith.

Mrs. Dalton Trumbo, Dr. Gene Weltfish and Esther Allen Caw.

Mrs. Halois Moorehead, of New York, headed the women's delegation. group stopped briefly at the White House while the Rev. Mother Lena Stokes offered a prayer for the foreign-born men and women who are being persecuted under the McCarran Law.

The women came here under the auspices of the National Women's Appeal for the Rights of the Foreign-born. They marched in a body to the hearing chambers of the Immigration Board of Appeals. There they heard attorneys Carol King and Isidore Englander argue the appeal on the deportation order against Rose Nelson Lightcap, first McCarran Law deportation case to be appealed before the three-member Immigration Appeals body.

Alan Brown, Detroit lawyer and Mrs. King also denounced the deportation order against John Zydok, Detroit worker, as unconstitutional.

PLEADS FOR WIFE

Harry Raymond, Daily Worker reporter and husband of Rose Nelson, pleaded with the board to overrule the order for his wife's deportation. He charged the order was aimed at breaking up his home.

"My wife is as good an American as anyone in this room," Raymond told the board.

He pointed out that through her marriage to him she became part of an American family with a proud record of service to American democracy.

"William Floyd, an ancestor on my father's side, signed the Declaration of Independence," he said. "My grandfather, Jacob Lightcap, a Union soldier in the Civil War, was wounded at Fredericksburg. I served at the front in World War I, and my brother served as a colonel in World War II.

"And I am proud to say that my wife had added to this record. She has always stood for and fought for the best principles of democracy. I appeal to this board to reject this deportation order which threatens to destroy my home and break up my family.'

Rose Nelson, formerly vice-president of the women's division of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order, came to the U.S. with her parents in 1903 from the Ukraine to escape persecution of the Jewish people. She has been an active leader in the consumers' and women's movements for many years.

The women's delegation pointed out that among the noncitizens threatened with deportation are 28 women, the majority of whom are married to American citizens. Some, the delegation said, are grandmothers of American-born children; some are mothers of veterans of World War II.

Divided into three groups, the women's delegation not only visited the President's aide and the Immigration Commissioner, but also members of Congress. The groups were led by Mrs. Mollie Berger, Mrs. Edith Roberts and Mrs. Lena Evans.

CASE OF DORA COLEMAN BEFORE U.S. SUPREME COURT

The National Women's Appeal for the Rights of Foreign Born Americans has initiated a campaign around the case of Dora Coleman, Philadelphia mother of three children. This case will be argued before the U.S. Supreme Court during the week of November 26. Mrs. Coleman was brought to the U.S. when she was 14 years old, in 1914, and has lived here continuously since that time. She will be represented by David Rein, Washington attorney. A special folder on the case of Dora Coleman is in preparation. Copies may be obtained by communications with the National Women's Appeal, 23 West 26 Street, New York 10, N. Y.

PAROLE

Non-citizens ordered deported 20 to 30 years ago, and whose deportations were not effectuated, are being pressured into all kinds of parole arrangements. One of the most vicious provisions of the McCarran Law is the demand that mon-citizens ordered deported report periodically to the Immigration Nervice submitting to "... medical and psychiatric examination at the expense of the U.S.; (3) to give information under oath as to his nationality, circumstances, habits, associations, and activities, and such other information whether or not related to the foregoing as the Attorney General may deem fit and proper; and (4) to conform to such reasonable written restrictions on his conduct or activities as are prescribed by the Attorney General in his case."

The Service has been demanding of non-citizens in this category that they secure "sponsors" to whom to report periodically. Failing to produce spousors, four non-citizens were ordered in Los Angeles to report to individuals appointed by the Service. One of the individuals requested the reporting to be done to him at the American Legion Hall. Atterney Aubrey Finn. of Los Angeles, applied for an injunction. The court ordered that government appointed sponsors were illegal. The government is appealing the case.

SPECTOR CASE

The case of Frank Spector, who was indicted under the McCarran law for failure to deport himself, was argued before Federal Judge William C. Mathes in Los Angeles. The Judge ruled part of the indictment constitutional, but also ruled that a second part, penalizing alrens for wilfully failing "to make timely application for travel or other documents necessary to departure," is too vague and incertain to "inset the essential requirements of due process under the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution." The Government is appealing the case.

WORKERS' DEFENSE COMMITTEE

We greet the newly formed Worker's Defense Committee organized by the ford I scal I nion 590-UAW-t.HO and hope many more innons will follow the example of this Local Union. The Union will protect the "constitutional rights of all workers within Local 600;" help "the workers seek legal aid, bond, etc." In same procedure will apply to cases of immigration and deportation.

From Eulalia Figueiredo

been told that it is the right and privilege of one who lives in the U.S.A: to think as she pleases. I have committed no crime. My labors have always been with my fellow workers to make a happier life for all of us. Yet I am being punished, and threatened with banishment from this, my country and people.

In my case, mockery is made of the U.S.A. tradition of asylum for the oppressed. If I am returned to Portugal, I face persecution with possible internment in a concentration camp and death. The censorship is so tight that one cannot even get news of what is happening in that land run by a fascist dictator.

I am encouraged by the many letters I have received; by the fight of the National Women's Appeal; and by the stand of the 400 organizations, Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, co-operatives and labor unions, who testified before the President's Commission on Immigration asking for repeal or amendment of the Walter-McCarran Law.

I have been in this country since I was 10 years old and have lived here for over 32 years. I have no other home. What I am — this country has made me. The court fight to test the right of the Immigration Department to deport has significance far beyond me. It will test the right of Congress to make laws which nullify the Bill of Rights. It deserves the support of all who cherish freedom and liberty.

The denial of bail to me and others is also a violation of a fundamental right. I urge you to write to the Attorney General protesting the denial of bail in deportation cases. The right of bail should be restored to all.

Sincerely yours, Eulalia Figueiredo

From Katherine Hyndman

gert's decision, I may have to spend months — perhaps years — in the county jail while deportation proceedings go from one department of Immigration and Naturalization Service to another.

The irony of the situation is that I have committed no crime, nor have I been accused of any crime. The only piece of evidence introduced against me at the habeas corpus hearings was that I had been arrested in the Spring of 1950 for distributing a leaflet which read "Stop the War in Korea!"

However, Judge William J Murray threw this charge out of Criminal Court at Crown Point on November 17th, ruling that Americans do have the right to petition the government for withdrawal of troops from Korea. He declared in his decision: "To rule against any group in such a manner would be treading on dangerous ground . . ."

To those who say they abhor what is happening to me, but refuse to speak up for fear of their own personal security, I say your security is a figment of your imagination, for you have no security. As long as non-citizens can be held in jail for no cause, then no one is secure. There will be security and freedom from fear only when the rights of all to political dissent is assured.

As one who knows what it means to spend 24 hours a day behind prison bars, I urge you to write Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., protesting the denial of bail in deportation cases. Demand he restore the right to bail to all.

Sincerely yours, Katherine Hyndman

A BETTER WORLD

(By Elizabeth Gurley Flynn)

We Greet Our Immigrant Mothers

A letter came to me for all of you to read. It made me think of our mother, Annie Gurley, who came to this country in 1876, an Irish immigrant girl of 17. Mama was a staunch believer in the freedom of Ireland when she came here. She gloried in her Fenian ancestors, who were imprisoned, refugees, and some of them hanged for their country's sake. Here she became a suffragette, a supporter of trade unions, voted the Socialist ticket from 1920 on, and was proud of my activities in the Communist Party, which she approved of my joining in 1937. She had children and grandchildren. I would not dare to tell all this of our dear mother except that she is dead—lest under the McCarran Act she would be placed on Ellis Island and deported to Ireland. It does happen here as the following letter shows:

"Dear Elizabeth: Last Sunday was Mothers' Day. Young and old paid tribute to mothers for their devotion and desire for their children to grow up in a world of peace and security, for their role in maintaining the family and the home. Yet, in spite of the recognition of the role and importance of mothers and the pious talk of the sanctity of the home, there are today many mothers who are threatened with being torn from their children and homes because of accident of birth in another country. Most of these mothers and grandmothers have spent the greater part of their lives in this land and raised their families. Some of their children have served in the armed forces, yet today these mothers live under the shadow of deportation.

"The Justice Department, under the provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law is now threatening many thousands more citizens and noncitizens with this cruel separation from their loved ones.

"But, I want to tell you of a real Mothers' Day Celebration that will take place Thursday at Manhattan Plaza, in New York City. This celebration, sponsored by National Women's Appeal has selected a special group of women to honor. They are the mothers who face deportation under the infamous Walter-McCarran Law. We have selected as 'Mother of the Year' a woman whom we feel best epitomizes the beauty of a courageous working class mother. She is Marie Kratochvil, greatgrandmother from Chicago, who is coming here to be our guest of honor.

"Marie came to our shores back in 1906 as a very young mother with her husband and baby daughter. Later there were four more daughters. She helped support them as a domestic worker and as a mangle operator, often working 16 hours a day. She raised a fine family and they rewarded her care by growing into fine American women.

"One was a WAC in World War II, another is a grandmother. Today, at the age of 71, Marie is threatened with exile. This kind-faced, generous-hearted great-grandmother is known and loved by thousands who know her for her many helpful deeds and her work to better the life of the people around her.

"We are proud of our choice of Marie Kratochvil as 'Mother of the Year' and we want you and your readers to meet her, for to know her is to love her.

"She will bring with her a personal message from Katherine Hyndman whom she will visit in jail prior to her trip here. I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your fine column in which you brought forward the facts concerning Katherine's imprisonment since Oct. 7, 1952, in Crown Point County Jail (Ind.).

"Another feature of this Mothers' Day celebration will be the special tribute to be paid to a Gold Star mother, Mrs. Sadie Saltzman, by her son Bernard. He is the young man who stood beside his twin brother when he was killed in the Battle of the Bulge in World War II, and is himself the holder of the Purple Heart and five Battle Stars. His father, an honest worker who was active in the Painters Union when gangsters were trying to gain control, has now been ordered deported.

"Other outstanding women who will appear on the program will include your co-defendant, Claudia Jones, herself a 'double jeopardy' victim of both the Smith and Walter-McCarran Acts. Karen Morley, the famous actress, known for her courageous stand before the witch-hunt committees and for her devotion to the cause of peace, will do a dramatic reading of three beautiful poems.

"There will be songs and refreshments. Presiding over the celebration will be Halois Moorehead Robinson, noted leader in the trade union and peace movements. There will be other features which we are keeping as a surprise but will add up to a wonderful evening which I am sure you and your readers will enjoy. We look forward to seeing you there.

"Sincerely yours.

"MIRIAM DOYLE,

"Executive Secretary, National Womens Appeal."

The National Women's Appeal (For the Rights of Foreign Born Americans) has its office at 160 Fifth Ave. It is a committee of devoted women who have concerned themselves with the case of 43 women, threatened with deportation, of whom Marie Kratochvil is one.

Born in Czechoslovakia 71 years ago, as Mrs. Doyle's letter points out, she has been in this country nearly 50 years. The charge against her, under the McCarran Law, is that she belonged to an allegedly subversive organization 20 years ago. The bail of $3,000 was raised among her many indignant friends in the city of Chicago.

She is today one of over 3,400 Americans held for deportation in various parts of our land, for the crime of not being born here. They are threatened with concentration camps, denial of the right to bail, star chamber proceedings, intimidation, mass arrests. American naturalized citizens are threatened with cancellation of citizenship—as in a score of cases around the country today.

I will feel honored to be present Thursday night at Manhattan Plaza, 66 East Fourth St., to greet and honor all women who are defendants under the McCarran Act, personified by Mrs. Kratochvil and Mrs. Salzman, and to honor all our millions of foreign born immigrant mothers, who helped build America.

TO ALL TRADE UNIONS:

To All Trade Unionists, Negro and White BROTHERS AND SISTERS:

A grave crisis confronts the Negro worker.

Unemployment spreads over the country. The employers, true to form, are applying the old rule of "last hired, first fired."

The Negro people are ten percent of the U. S. population, but they are 25 to 40 percent of the unemployed. In Chicago it is estimated that 70 percent of the unemployed are Negroes; in Detroit, 65 percent.

In re-classifying workers, the employers are forcing Negro workers back into the unskilled, menial, most expendable, lowest paid jobs.

In some industries, notably railroad transportation, the employers are trying to oust them altogether. There is no section of the Negro Workers that is hit harder than the Negro Railroad workers, many of whom are being driven out of all types of jobs in the Railroad industry, some of which they even held during slavery.

Negro women workers, especially, are being driven back into the kitchens as domestic servants. Negro youth, including college-trained meo and women, are turned away empty-handed from industry after industry.

Negro jobless workers, disabled and old people, suffer deplorably. The government, appropriating billions for war, begrudges even a pittance to relieve them.

The aim of the reactionary employers is to divide the Negro people from within and to prevent the growing unity of Negro and white workers. The politicians in Washington give lip-service to the passage of civil rights legislation. They cynically betray such legislation every day — the most outstanding doublecross being the recent scuttling of the Powell FEPC bill. They betray their campaign promises to repeal the Taft-Hartley slave law.

Lynchings, jailings, life and death convictions by rigged juries, police brutality, kluxer violence are everywhere increasing — in the North as well as in the South

The ghettoes are being walled up, and despite Supreme Court decisions with their loopholes, Negro families are kept in congested, disease-ridden, fire-hazard tenement slums by restrictive covenant and mob violence.

In the last fifteen years, with the influx of a million and a half Negro workers into the trade unions, many gains were achieved in the struggle for full citizenship. These gains are now in danger of being wiped out. This is the most critical period for us since Emancipation.

Brothers and Sisters:

We have the power to change these conditions. We must and can stop and defeat this peril. Negro trade unionists, unemployment notwithstanding, are still over a million strong.

What we need for success is unity and organization. We believe that the Negro workers are the indispensable backbone of the struggle of the Negro people to defend their liberties from lynch destruction. We believe that the one thing the enemies of the Negro and white workers fear most is the unity of Negro and white workers we believe that the collaboration of Negro people with the progressive forces of labor is the key to the defense of labor and the Negro people. WE CAN save our unions from destruction by the Taft-Hartleys and injunction judges.

WE CAN win representation for Negro workers in all levels of leadership of our unions.

WF CAN demand and win adequate unemployment insurance and social security for our jobless and unemployables.

WE CAN demand and win federal and state FFP legislation with enforcement powers.

WE CAN demand and win the right of Negro workers to jobs, to be promoted in accordance with their skills, to the seniority which has long been denied them.

WF CAN break down the lily-white shops and departments and put an end to the employers' effort to oust them from industries where they have long been employed.

WE CAN demand and win decent unsegregated housing, the right to unsegregated education, the right to police protection and fair trials, to all the democratic liberties.

Only under conditions of peace, and expanding democracy can we achieve these worthy aims.

Brothers and Sisters:

We know the power of trade unions and we still have that power.

We not only base the power, but we have the duty and opportunity to fight for our demands, and to help the Negro people overcome the grave dangers confronting them.

In their present difficulties, the Negro people look to organized labor and especially to the Negro trade unions for leadership. WE MUST MEET THIS RE-SPONSIBILITY. As an organized group we can rally to the support of the Negro people the powerful labor movement, the communities, the churches, lodges, social and civic clubs. Together, democratically, we shall work out a program of action.

WOMEN'S PILGRIMAGE TO UN TO URGE PEACE MOVES

American Women for Peace will mark the fifth anniversary of the United Nations Tuesday, with a pilgrimage of 1,000 women to Flushing Meadows. They will be joined by nine Broax women candidates on the American Labor Party ticket.

In a call to the women of the nation, American Women for Peace declared, "We American women believe a peaceful solution of world problems is possible if the United Nations acts within the framework of its original principles."

We Are The Sons and Daughters of the foreign born---

EXHIBIT NO 151R

EVELDIT No. 151C

Why

Are we the Sons and Daughters of the Foreign Born to be prohaned through the deportation of our parents? Our parents are not criminals. They haven't been accused of theft or graft or corrupting government officials or accepting bribes.

Why

Do our parents face deportation today? They have taught us to love our homeland. They have taught us to think and respect democracy. They have tought us to be ready to defend our homeland but that a world at peace is really our only hope.

Why

Is it that the freedoms we have been tought to fight for -freedom of speech. freedom of thought, freedom of association — why is it that these freedoms don't belong to our parents whose only "crime" has been exercising and fighting for the extension of those freedoms?

Why

Must we face a future of broken families and shottered homes just because the Attorney General disapproves of our parents' friends, ideas or associates? But, our parents don't have to be deported if you will . . .

Secretary: Mona Schneider Treasurer: Evelyn Barnett Executive Committee:

Frances Borich Nancy Borich Wm. Egger Victor Klig Bernard Saltzman Seymour Taffler

DEAR FRIEND: We are announcing a birth—the birth of a new organization: the Sons and Daughters of the Foreign Born in the Fight Against Deportation. We have a program—a reason for existing, but before we tell you about that we first want you to participate in the Youth Panel of the National Conference to defend the rights of foreign born Americans. The Conference will be held at the Jewish Cultural Center, 2705 Joy Road, Detroit, Michigan, on Saturday and Sunday, December 13 and 14.

The Youth Panel will be held at 3:00 p.m., Saturday afternoon. Now, we'd like to tell you about us. Two and a half months ago a group of children of New York, noncitizens, facing deportation, got together to discuss how we could best aid in our parents' defense.

We organized to ward off efforts of the Justice Department to deport our parents. We organized a fight for a speedy repeal of the Walter-McCarran law.

Our program is a short but vital one which is geared toward youth.

1. We intend to serve as a center for information against the Smith and Walter-McCarran Acts and in so doing to mobilize large sections of young people for their repeal.

2. We will help build and work closely with a youth council composed of representatives of youth organizations.

3. We will organize children whose parents are now under attack by the Justice Department into a moving force in defense of their parents with the goal of ending the deportation hysteria once and for all.

We are sure that all who are working toward guaranteeing our democratic heritage will be interested in sending a youth representative or delegation to the Youth Panel and we are looking forward to meeting you there.

Sincerely,

Mona Schneider, Secretary.

They Come—1.000 of Them—To Back Those Who Built Our Country By Milton Howard

"If you want to know who they have put Jack Schneider on Ellis Island in order to deport him, just remember that it was Jack and his friends in the furriers union who kicked out the kind of gangsters and racketeers who now make life miserable for the men on New York's docks."

George Kleinman, speaking for the Furriers Union went on:

"The fur industry used to be like the docks are today, like the headlines you read about the rackets and mobs. But Jack Schneider wouldn't stand for that. He fought for American liberties, for a clean union, for honesty. He bears scars of that fight. He helped build America, not tear it down. Is that why they want to deport him?"

The more than 1,000 men and women who packed Webster Hall Tuesday night shook the old walls of that building with their applause.

The meeting came together in answer to the call of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born. They came to get seven men off Ellis Island held there since October 24 for no reason other than that they all lived and acted as excellent Americans, striving to improve life in America, their adopted home. They came to challenge the McCarran-Walter law which goes into effect December 24.

They heard David Green of the IWO tell of IWO leader Sam Milgrom's cheerful optimism, his faith in the people; they also heard that Milgrom's heart condition is so bad that the authorities have had to let him get a special diet. But they won't let him off the island.

They rose to give an ovation to Claudia Jones, Negro woman leader, herself facing jail under a Smith Act frameup. She showed how this new law will cut the immigration of West Indians from 10,000 to 100 a year because of racism. They heard her cite the heroism of Elizabeth Gurley Flynn who preferred prison for "contempt" rather than betray fellow-Americans as an informer. When Russ Nixon of United Electrical Workers showed how the government police go after union leaders with this deportation frameup, how they try to get at a unionman like William Sentner of UE in St. Louis by arresting his wife, the garment workers, machinists, furriers and others in that intense crowd knew inst what he meant. They knew it from their own lives in the shops and unions.

They knew it, too, when Ewart Guinier of the National Negro Labor Council described how the cops can pick up any "foreign looking" man for persecution, how they can now seize Negroes in the South or any place demand "identification" to prove they are not "illegal West Indians."

These 1,000 men and women were in a fighting mood. They showed their pride as young Mona Schneider, the fur leader's 19-year-old daughter, stood straight and strong and said "Maybe the Department of Justice forgot about us children of the deportees, but we aren't going to let them forget us. We are going to fight for our dads, our families and our country."

These older folks heard with obvious pleasure the youth chorus—Negro and white—sing a Bach choral with new fighting words, and Negro spirituals singing of hope and battle. They resolved not to be pushed around by the immigration police looking for stoolies or victims.

As proposed by Harriet Baron of the American Committee, they voted their determination to fight back, to challenge the McCarran law's enforcement and to get it off the books. In response to an appeal by Carl Marzani, they dug down and gave $760 right then and there for this fight. They demanded freedom for the Rosenbergs.

As George Muphy of the American Committee and chairman said they were showing the Un-Americans spitting on the Constitution and America's heritage who the real Americans are these days. It was a grand meeting that will be followed by others like it, by the Detroit conference this weekend. The McCarrans will not steal America from its people so easily, these people firmly said.

Children of McCarran Law Victims Visit Congressmen

(By Harry Raymond)

Washington, March 25.—Congressmen, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the White Honse were told today how the Walter-McCarran Act is threatening to break up more than 300 American families.

The story was told here by some 30 sons, daughters, wives, and husbands of the victims.

THE VICTIMS

The group came here, under auspices of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, in what they called a "pilgrimage of families of victims of the Walter-McCarran Law."

"I surely do not know what we will do if father is taken away from us and deported to Yugoslavia," said pretty, black-haired Adele Warhol, 14-year-old daughter of Peter Warhol.

Adele, eldest of the four Warhol children, came from Minneapolis. She pleaded her father's case before two Minnesota Congressmen, Rep. Eugene McCarthy and Rep. Roy Wier,

"They both said they would take father's case up with the Justice Department," Adele stated. "And Congressman Wier said he remembers father when he was business agent in the AFL Upholsters Union. But I don't think much will be done until the law is repealed."

ESPINOZA CASE

"I am the mother of eight children," said Mrs. Conseulo Espinoza, who joined the pilgrimage from Orange, Cal. Her husband, Elias Espinoza, 59, was arrested on a Walter-McCarran deportation warrant while working for a California fruit-grower packing oranges. He has been ordered deported to Mexico. The reactionary Associated Farmers, Mrs. Espinoza said, are behind the move.

Espinoza has been a resident of the United States 48 years.

"I talked with the secretaries of several Congressmen," said Mrs. Espinoza.
"They tell me the Congressmen are sympathetic. But they say they don't see what they can do. I told them to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law."

Carl Callow, of Niles, Ohio, 20-year-old son and eldest of nine children of Leon Callow, told how his father is threatened with exile to Greece and possible death. Carl is working in a steel mill now to support the family. "What will the family do if father is deported and I am drafted?" he asked.

Carl visited the offices of Senators Taft and Bricker.
"I talked to their secretaries," he said. "They remembered an earlier visit I made on behalf of my father. But nothing came out of that visit. Both Taft's and Bricker's offices promised this time to take father's case up with the Justice Department."

Also on the pilgrimage was Ralph Hyndman, Gary, Ind., steelworker, whose wife, Katherine, has been held without bail in the Crown Point, Ind., jall since October 7. The government has refused to release Mrs. Hyndman on bail.

Hyndman, former president of Local 1011, United Steelworkers, has been making the rounds of the Indiana and Illinois Congressmen. He said they all seem to be afraid to act.

"But my neighbors at home and the men in the mill are wonderful," Hyndman said. "They are doing everything they can to help us."

OTHERS

Others there were Mrs. Gertrude Yaris, wife of Harry Yaris, war veteran, held on Ellis Island without bail; Mrs. Sonia Schneider and her daughter, Mona, wife and daughter of Jack Schneider, assistant manager, Furriers Joint Council of New York; Mrs. Bessie Klig, wife of Meyer Klig, vice president of the Fur and Leather Workers Union.

Also Patty Ganley, 14-year-old daughter of Anna Ganley, Detroit, another deportation victim; Mary McAdoo, of Detroit, granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Gosman; Mrs. Olga Kruchay, wife of William Kruchay, Allen Park, Mich.; Mrs. Margaret Nukk, mother of two children, wife of Michael Nukk; and Mrs. Rose Weinstock, wife of Louis Weinstock.

Joining the pilgrimage was Ephraim Cross, professor emerits of Romance Languages of CCNY, to discuss the deportation cases with the immigration commissioner.

Later, another group delivered a letter to President Eisenhower calling for a new policy that would not discriminate against a noncitizen because of political belief, birth, race, color, or creed.

Gentlemen.

I have previously written you advising you that a testimonial affair in honor of attorney A. Harry I evitan was held at the BROADW.COD HOTES on October 28, 1955, and that the affair was contracted by Mr. Sol Rotenberg, representing Philadelphia Life Insurance Company at 115 North Broad Street, Philadelphia.

An examination of the contract with this hotel, dated August 16, 1055, and the letter addressed to Mr. Rotenberg by this hotel, dated August 16, 1955, which letter related to that contract, shows that the contracting party for the testimonial affair which I have been describing was the Philadelphia Committee for Defense of the Foreign Born.

In no way, therefore, was the Philadelphia Life Insurance Company a party to that affair or to the contract with this hotel relating to that affair.

The tide is turning against McCarthyism. Millions of Americans are calling for an end to the hysteria, fear, political terror and character assassination that has been the shameful trademark of McCarthyism. They are calling for action to bring our country back on the road to sanity and decency. The defeat of McCarthyism will be achieved by the organized unity of the people. Only united oction of all people, regardless of political affiliation, race or creed can return our country to the tradition of freedom and democracy that has been America's heritage.

The heart of McCarthyite repression are the laws under which people are being prosecuted and civil liberties destroyed.

We call for continuous arganized resistance to McCarthyite legislation and repression.

CPUN LETTER TO THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

OF THE UNITED STATES GENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Brn. Harley Kilgore, Chairman and Senate Judiciary Committee Washington, D. C.

Hon. Emanual Celler, Chairman House Judiciary Committee Washington, D. C.

We are sure that you are aware of the aroused spublic sentiment which exists in the country today in apposition to the provisions of the Walter-McCarran law. Ever since its enactment in 1952, over President Truman's veto, there has been widespread opinion that this Law is racist, discriminatory and inhuman and that it must be repealed or drastically amended if we are maintain basic democratic principles.

In his Ctate of the Union message this year, President Eisenhower declared that "certain provisions of the law...should be corrected in this sension of Congress."

Since the convening of the 84th Congress a number of bills have been intr duced proposing numerous changes in the Walter-McCarran Law.

We believe that the American people should have an opportunity to express themselves on these bills through rublic hearings.

We unge, therefore, that . public hearings to hold immunistely on all tills pending before the 84th Congress in relation to the immigration and naturalization laws of the United States.

Leading Artists, Educators Support Soviet Trial Verdict

Nearly 150 prominent American artists, writers, composers, editors, movie actors, college professors, and Broadway figures yesterday issued a statement in support of the verdicts of the recent Moscow trials of the Trotzkyite-Buckharinite traitors.

The list includes: Arthur Arent, author of One-Third of the Nation; J. R. Brown, University of Kansas; Edwin Berry Burgum, president, College Teachers' Union; Morris Carnovsky, leading player in "Golden Boy"; Robert Coates, author and art critic of New Yorker; Harold Clurman, dramatic director; Merle Colby. editor Massachusetts Guide Book: Jack Conroy, novelist; Malcolm Cowley, writer and an editor of New Republic, and others.

Entitled "A Statement by American Progressives on the Moscow Trials." the announcement declares that the signatories consider the trials "have by sheer weight of evidence established a clear presumption of the guilt of the defendants.

Bracketing the fight against fascism in the United States with the necessity for protecting the American progressive and labor movement against Trotzkvite undermining, the signers of the statement conclude:

"The measures taken by the Soviet Union to preserve and extend its gains and its strength therefore find their echoes here, where we are staking the future of the American people on the preservation of progressive democracy and the unification of our efforts to prevent the fascists from strangling the rights of the people. American liberals must not permit their outlook on these questions to be confused, nor allow their recognition of the place of the Soviet Union in the international fight of democracy against fascism to be destroyed. We call upon them to support the efforts of the Soviet Union to free itself from insidious internal dangers, principal menace to peace and democracy."

49 Notables Sponsor Amnesty Parley

A call to organizations and individuals concerned over democratic liberties to participate in a National Conference to Win Amnesty for Smith Act Victims was issued yesterday by 49 prominent Americans who have joined in serving as sponsors. The conference will be held June 14, 1 to 5 p. m., at the St. Nicholas Arena. 69 W. 66 St.

Their call points out that in the year since the U. S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction of the 11 leaders of the Communist Party, indicted under the thought-control provision of the Smith Act, "many Americans have come to believe that their punishment is unwarranted; many that these men did not have a fair trial; still others that the law they were accused of violating is itself antidemocratic and un-American."

The call concludes: "We believe that amnesty is the only practical way to redress this great wrong."

Sponsors are:

Dr. Jacob Auslander, Dr. Edward K. Barsky, Elmer Benson, John T. Bernard, Herbert Biberman, Prof. G. Murray Branch, Prof. Dorothy Brewster, Dr. Anton J. Carlson, Sarah Cleghorn, Muriel Draper, Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, Howard Fast, Clemens J. France, Prof. Royal W. France, John T. Gojack, Hugo Gellert, Abner Green, Dr. Ralph Gundlach, Robert Gwathmey, Rev. A. J. ### Notables Protest Mrs. Yates Jailing

Washington, July 20—The release of Mrs. Oleta O'Connor Yates, jailed for her refusal to become a government informer during her trial in Los Angeles under a Smith Act indictment, was urged upon Atty. Gen. James P. McGranery last week by writers, artists and labor officials.

Headed by Author Howard Fast, the delegation reminded McGranery, in a statement, of his pledge to abolish "witch-hunts" by the Justice Department. They maintained that he could make good on his pledge by ordering government attorneys to refrain from using their "inform or go to jail" technique and releasing Mrs. Yates.

Declaring that "this is the technique of inquisitors," the delegation asked McGranery whether this was the way he intended to "restore the faith of the American people in the government of the United States?"

With Fast on the delegation were Hugo Gellert, noted New York artist; Ralph Powe, New York attorney; Benjamin Paskoff, education director of the Fur Workers Council in New York; Dr. Marcus Goldman, Washington, D. C., geologist, and several other union leaders from Baltimore and Philadelphia. The delegation was arraigned by the Citizens Emergency Defense Conference.

U. S. Cultural Leaders Greet Chile Conference

New York.—Dr. W. E. B. Du Bois, Howard Fast, Charles White, Michael Goldand more than 30 other United States writers, artists, actors, and other cultural workers have sent greetings to the Continental Congress of Culture now being held in Santiago, Chile. The message endorses the objectives of the congress, which seeks to further the preservation of culture and to stimulate cultural exchange. It declares that "there is no problem in painting, in biology, in psychology, in sociology that will not yield ultimately to study, discussion or scientific test—or that need be settled by dictate, inquisition, or force of arms.

NEEDED EXCITANGE

The message and the list of signers follow:

We, the undersigned North American writers, scientists, artists, and professionals, heartily endorse the objectives of the Continental Congress of Culture. We do so out of our belief in a fundamental truth expressed in the call to this congress, namely, that: "The anxieties and anguish of universal conscience, as well as the problems affecting the American Continent, are urging men of good faith to join their effort for a life together based on understanding and trust."

The peoples of the world need many things; bread, shelter, medical care, education, and the peaceful construction that alone can guarantee human advancement. They need also mutual understanding, a knowledge of one another's cultures, traditions, problems, and aspirations.

We, who work in the arts, sciences, and intellectual professions, know that no problems exist in our fields that cannot be met, dealt with, and advanced by friendly discussion carried on with mutual respect. There is no problem in painting, in biology, in psychology, in sociology that will not yield ultimately to study, discussion, or scientific test—or that need be settled by dictate, inquisition, or force of arms. Indeed, the latter means are always the instruments of those who stand both for cultural reaction and for the retardation of scientific thought.

As North Americans we are particularly conscious of our need to understand better the culture and life of Latin America * * * What of the rich history of the nations of Latin America? Of its poets and liberators, its social struggles and needs and aspirations, its literature, philosophy, and scientific contribution to world advancement? Of these, not only are the schoolboys of North America largely ignorant—but so are most intellectuals. Imperialism feeds on ignorance and indifference.

NO PASSPORTS

We say this in honesty and in humility. We say it further out of an earnest desire to breach this appalling and unnecessary separation. If there are any who might profit from this congress and from future congresses like it, it is ourselves.

Unfortunately, we who need cultural exchange the most of all are now the least able to enjoy it. At this time in the history of our nation, our own government does not look with favor upon the free exchange of ideas. Many cultural workers have been prevented from attending international congresses such as yours by the government's refusal to grant them passports because they disagreed or were charged with present or past association with persons or organizations that disagreed with the United States government's foreign policy.

For this reason many who would wish deeply to be present at the Continental Congress will not be present in person. Most certainly, however, we will be present in spirit, in intellectual collaboration, in our approval of your aims.

With hearty greetings.

Salute to Hugo Gellert

By MICHAEL GOLD

THE Masses in 1914 was famous for its pioneering att. John Sloan, Robert Henri, George Bellows, and other now historic figures of the "ashcan school" of the new American realism, appeared regularly in the pages of the Masses beside such fighters for social justice as Maurice Becker, Fred Ellis, Robert Minor and William Gropper.

If Masses drawings often seemed ugly to an eye conditioned by the genteel magazine art of the period, there was also the paradox of Hugo Gellett. His drawings seemed out of another world. They were serene country idylls from some lost and forgotten Golden Age; beautiful little white goats and their kids resting gracefully under the trees; or lovely young girls in Greek robes who danced by a river to the piping of dark young shepherds while the sky shed happiness on all the world.

What was such archaic, naive innocence doing in a journal of the class war and the great industrial smog and injustice? I asked myself this question, and I know other bitter young unemployed workers like myself did so frequently. The time seemed too tragic with its war and unemployment for such serenity. Today one understands better that old-fashioned beauty has a place in a journal of working class struggle. The crazy millionaires with their fascism and H-Bomb are threatening to destroy all of man's truth and beauty. And the bourgois artists seem to have abandoned the human race. They paint only meaningless doodles and drips of nothingness, squares and cubes empty as their own withered hearts.

"The bourgeois arrists find humanity superfluous," says Hugo Gellert, a painter of the human hope. They are preparing, it seems, for the abolition of man by the H-bomb. But the workers are old-fashioned and still cherish life. The heritage of human culture now belongs to them. They will know how to defend it from bourgeois nihilism and death."

Hugo says such things in a gentle voice. His wistful eyes look at you tenderly, his smile softens the tuggedness of his red Attila mustache. He gives at first an impression of frailty. His optimism seems like that of a sunny child Don't be fooled by such surfaces.

The man is really a tough Hungarian fighting cock. His gentleness is real, but under it remains the tireless organizer and battler for human rights. Any optimism that can flourish after a forty-year struggle against the fascist persecutions and mass slanders of our land is no hour lily. It is the real thing.

There is a strong sculptural character in much of Hugo's art. It comes from his life-long adoration of Michaelangelo. Hugo tries to paint men not as tortured bourgeois pigmies, but men like gods, proletarian gods of the earth. The peasant nature of much of his work comes out of a genuine life. It is not synthetic.

HUGO was born in Hungary, and spent many summers of boyhood among the peasants. He rode horses, played in the fields with the white goats, and heard the pipe of shepherds and the gypsy fiddles. He watched the sturdy peasant mother suckle her babe in a corner of the wheatfield. In the cottages he saw how the peasants covered every bit of furniture, every smock and tablecloth and towel, with rich and colorful folk design. It affected his own art.

Hugo was brought to America as a young boy. His father, a lively tailor who whistled and sang like a blackbird all day at his work, made the great migration to save his five sons from military service.

The people for a century had believed that militarism was European and feudal, while democracy and peace could only be found in America, the new world. Today we are becoming the old world, and Hungary is new.

Hugo has wandered over America, has picked cotton and driven mules in the Imperial Valley, traversed the cities and farms of the West, and Mexico, and the Eastern industrial cities. He has worked in a Pittsburgh steel mill, and been in strikes and demonstrations; and also watched baseball games and prize fights, and loved Walt Whitman and Mark Twain. But his spiritual roots were struck in the Hungary of his child-hood.

By the age of ten he already had many verses of his beloved Petofi by heart. Petofi is the national poet, the romantic Byron, Shelley and Walt Whitman of the Hungarian bourgeois revolution of 1848. He died in battle before he was thirty. Petofi understood the suffering and greatness of his people, and considered them the true nation. He brought the speech of the people into literature.

Another great influence was Victor Hugo's Les Miserables, that modern Bible which affected my own childhood. I believe it to be the novel of widest humanitarian influence in our time.

THE Gellerts settled in a tenement in the Hungarian sector of Yorkville, just south of the Germans. There was a Hungarian Workers' Home nearby which became young Gellert's university. He painted their May Day posters, worked on scenery for the amateur theatre, drew cartoons and peasant decorations for the Hungarian daily paper, Elore. All of his forty years in the working class movement, as long as I can remember, Hugo has lived and worked in brotherhood with the Hungarian-Americans.

It is a warm and intimate relationship; he is a genuine voice of his people. No American artist that I know has such close relations with a mass of workers. Many of Hugo's paintings have been admired and bought by his friends, those rankand-file Hungarian plumbers, electrical workers, tailors, carpenters, house painters and sheet metal workers.

"I have always felt useful," says Gellert. "I have never felt alone. So many artists in our country have been crippled by their isolation from the people. I have never suffered from that unnecessary sickness."

Hungary's people were the first to be betraved to modern fascism. Herbert Hoover and Wall Street were the evil midwives of the crime. In 1928 the Horthy racketeers and anti-Semites were hunting another big loan in Wall Street. To disguise their blood-stained snout with some human mask, their American public relations counsel suggested a clever plot. The fascists presented to New York City a statue of Kossuth, the democratic liberator of Hungary. A hundred "pilgrims" were sent over for the ceremonies, all covered with badges and testimonials that asserted they were 14-karat democrats from way back, grateful little cousins of Abraham Lincoln and General Motors.

Nothing helped. Hugo Gellert was around. The Hungarian antifascists of New York met the "pilgrim" boat with a long picket line. I was there in the dark night by the lonely piers. A news photographer's flash powder exploded and blew off his fingers. It sounded like a bomb in the night, and the cops went crazy with fear and hysteria. They started clubbing us. It was a wild party. I admired Hugo Gellert and other captains as they re-formed the broken ranks and started us to marching again.

A week later, Hugo flew in a hired plane above the ceremony at the Kossuth statue on Riverside Drive. He flung anti-fascist leaflets down on the "pilgrims," on Mayor Jimmy Walker and the other thieves there. The pilot was a former war ace with no politics. He buzzed the ceremonies three or four times to show his solidarity, but only managed to set Jimmy Walker and the fascists running in fright. It was quite a scandal and filled the papers. Hugo still likes to boast modestly about that happy day.

Hugo always had a flair for public art. He earned good wages when he was only sixteen on his first art job in a lithograph house. Then he left commercial art to study at the National Academy of Design. He won several important prizes there, including a trip to Paris.

He could easily have made a career, become a fashionable portrait painter or wealthy illustrator for the sophisticated New Yorker, also for big New York papers like the Times, the World, the Tribune. Commissioned to do a big mural in Rockefeller City, he covered a wall with heroic steel workers and Negro machinists, with farmers and scientists and mothers whose sturdy babes reached for the stars. Rockefeller junior himself inspected the mural. It shocked the great man of money. until a diplomatic aide explained to him it was only "symbolic" and meant to represent the Battle of the Moon and the Sun!

Hugo always fought the business world for the right to own his own soul. He likes to boast about his battles against the bourgeois editors and against his own livelihood. Commercial success never corrupted him in a country where most intellectuals have sold their souls to the business world.

one must constantly fight this environment," Hugo says cheerfully. He had given his heart as a youth to the people's cause. Hugo was perhaps the first to paint labor murals in this country. It was a massive work that covered the walls of the Worker's Cafeteria in Union Square, later torn down when the building was taken over by Klein's cheap department store. Hugo's powerful mural for the seamen's union still fills the walls of the NMU building in New York, despite today's reactionary leadership.

Hugo has been a great organizer, a sparkplug in the organization of American artists during the depression, one of the leading actives in forming the Congress of American Artists Against War and Fascism in 1936—that grand united front of the sort that stops fascism. He revived the Masses with me in 1926, after it had suspended for some years.

Hugo is an organizer who never became bureaucratic. He had breadth and insight, and an artist's sensitivity to the great realities. No true artist can become a routineer. Nothing can discourage or frighten Hugo. He is an ever-green optimist who can never grow old.

In 1950 he went with his wife Livia, also an artist, to visit her Australian family. He lived there for several years and loved the vigorous labor commonwealth. He painted murals for the seamen's union and for a government project, then worked his way home on a freighter, this man nearing sixty who did not flinch from cleaning toilers or scrubbing decks, while in leisure hours painting portraits of the crew or painting murals in the seamen's mess room. He will till he dies keep his brushes clean and his heart pure. This is not a fragile liberal reed that cracks in the first unfriendly wind.

knew. Ernest wanted to be a musician, he composed the piece he played on his violin at graduation exercises from CCNY. Then the imperialist war of 1914 interrupted our lives. Ernest became an active member of the anti-conscription movement, then a conscientious obiector. He was brutally treated at one of the camps near New York. Thugs called top sergeants hazed and tortured him for weeks. They kept him standing in his underwear in freezing weather in the yard. He froze nights in an unheated cell without blankets or clothes. Hugo and I visited him one week-end. He told us about the college boy officers with Saturday Evening Post minds who tried to convert him to beautiful capitalism and free enterprise. When they were psychiatrists, they also tried to have him admit he was crazy. But the young Socialist martyr was saner than all the generals and politicos of the crazy war for profit. And they shipped his body home the following Wednesday with a brief note saying he had stolen a rifle and killed himself. It was a rotten lie, but the American Civil Liberties Union and other liberal agencies could not manage to uncover all its threads.

Another brother, Lawrence, developed TB and after an operation bummed through the South. He collected some of the first Negro work songs and songs of protest. We printed them in the Masses, an early contribution of great value to Negro history.

I have been Hugo's friend and fellow-struggler these forty years. I knew his family, and he knew my little peasant mother from Hungary, and my brother George, the good carpenter and teacher who died. I have been bitten by his dogs and admired his gardens. I am fond of this shrewd peasant who is always busy painting a picture, organizing a picket line, or carpentering a house.

This month in several American cities there will be banquets to celebrate his forty years of cheerful battle. I am glad to write this brief portrait for the occasion. There can be no progress without people to make it. Fascism cannot be fought without people. Socialism will never come without brave people. So in celebrating Hugo, we are celebrating people and confounding the informers, the opportunists and grave-yard intellectuals who say no people are left in America.

Viva la musica! Hurrah for progress and the people! Let art and brotherhood flourish like a Hungarian vineyard! Let the earth be covered with justice and peace! Three rousing cheers for Hugo Gellert, who never stopped believing in America and Hungary, in friendship, battle, and the human race!

Gellert Teaches Political Cartooning

Hugo Gellert will teach "Drawing and Cartooning" at the Jefferson School of Social Science in the fall term the school has announced.

The course is designed to teach the expression of ideas on political questions, in form suitable for shop papers and mimeograph sheets.

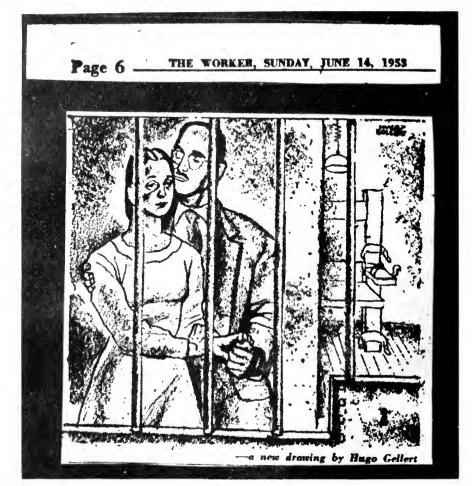

Other art workshop courses include "Painting and Drawing," with Ed Strickland and Herbert Kruckman; and beginning and advanced "Sculpture," with Aaron Coodelman.

There are also courses in "Guitar Playing and Song Leading," with Bettly Sanders and George Levine; "a "Leather Craft," with Roslyn Held; and in "Jewelry Making," the macher to be announced.

Murals by Hugo Gellert decorate the walls of Center Theatre in Rockefeller Center and the National Maritime Union Hall. Other works are exhibited at the Museum of Modern Art, Philadelphia Museum of Fine Arts and many other places. His lithograph of Paul Robeson, exhibited at the 1940 Worlds Fair, was later contributed to the Birmingham Public Library.

During the 1930s, Gellert won fame for several illustrated books, notably "Marx's Capital in Lithographs," "Comrade Gulliver," and "Aesop Said So." He was a contributor to the "Old Masses," a founder and art editor of "New Masses," editor of "Liberator," and is now contributing editor of "Masses & Mainstream." He has worked on the staffs of the New York Sunday World, The Times, The Tribume and The New Yorker.

Hugo Gellert: Artist "in the Liberation War of Humanity"

Hugo Gellert came out of the tailor's home at the age of 14 when he got his working-papers to find a job at a lathe. He had decided to study mechanical drawing at night school but when he heard the youngster in the line before him register for "free-hand drawing" he suddenly made a decision that changed his life. The working-class boy who had planned to spend his years at a drawing board designing machines became an artist designing the future of man. All humanity became the model for his free-hand drawing.

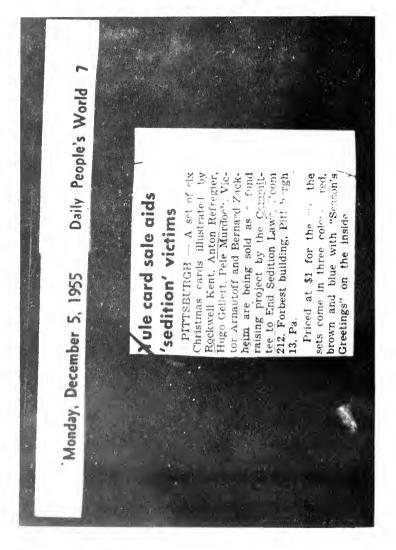

He got down on paper and on stone the grandeur of the class that works the machines he once planned to draw. You saw it in his pages of the Old Masses, the Liberator, the New Masses, you saw it in his four books, like Marx' "Capital in Lithographs," where he tried to capture the innermost truths of our life. With a grand and defiant hand he put those truths on walls in his murals at Rockefeller Center that hang to this day depicting a worker's child reaching for the stars.

The modesty of this man who speaks in a voice so low that you must often lean forward to hear his words conceals a flaming imagination that can soar to the skies. The artist who searches for truth everywhere is frank with his own life. He did not always see his art as a sword for justice: "I was not immune in my earlier years from the prevalent concept that it can't be art if it deals with the strife and troubles of our day." He did not see then as he sees now and he has seen for many decades that the "cartoon which can reach and move thousands, millions, can be art. I learned that art need not be expressed in oils and in paintings alone: it can live on the pages of newspapers that are fighting mankind's fight." He came to that conclusion in his early years and his life has fortified it. He held it all during the years that he drew for the Socialist Call, for Pulitzer's World, for the New Yorker magazine.

So he agreed with John Reed when they founded the Liberator, and with Robert Minor who edited that magazine after 1920; so he agreed with Mike Gold in 1926 when they began the New Masses. And he stands with the trade unionists who march on that grand day of hope. May Day, on the streets of a thousand cities.

TO ALL LABOR AND PEOPLE'S ORGANIZATIONS

hrate the 65th anniversary of May Day. Inaugurated in the United States in 1886, during the fight for the 8-hour day, May Day has On May First, working people throughout the world will celebecome a symbol to the working class of world-wide solidarity in the march forward to a hetter world. As May Day, 1949, approaches, labor and the people in our city and nation are faced with new problems affecting their very existence.

BIG BUSINESS PRESSES ANTI-LABOR DRIVE

Big Business presses a constant drive to destroy labor's hard won gains. The Taft-Hartley slave labor law is still with us. Despite all the Rising unemployment and the threat of an impending crisis strike terror ballyhoo, living costs have not gone down. Wage increases are resisted. in the hearts of all working people.

social security. But instead of providing a budget for peace, Presi-Workers need higher wages, decent housing, schools, greater dent Truman and Congress offer a hudget chiefly for war.

Instead, the Administration intensifies the bi-partisan "cold war" against Proposals to assure peace by discussion of disputed issues are rejected. the Soviet Union, bringing the horrors of an atomic war ever nearer.

WAR PROGRAM ENDANGERS DEMOCRACY

These policies carry with them attacks upon democratic liberties that endanger the whole American people. Not only are Jim Crow and lynch terror intensified in the South, but in our city as well, police terror against the Negro people has reached a new high. The atrocious frame-up of six young Negroes on a charge of murder in Trenton, N. J., brings Scottsboro to the North.

The infamous un-American Committee continues to spread hysteria. Academic freedom is being denied on an ever-increasing scale. And in New York, for the first time in our history, a political party, the Communist Party, is on trial for its program with 12 of its leaders indieted on a charge of advocating and teaching the principles of Marx-

COUNTER-OFFENSIVE MUST BE WAGED

It is time for the trade unions and all other people's organizations to make a united fight to defeat these threats to social progress and

and fascisml

We have seen that, in the gains of the electrical and radio workers, and the furriers; in the struggle of the longshoremen, the brewery workers, the Philadelphia transit workers, and others. We saw it in the 30th Congress when mass action brought about the defeat of the fascist Jundt-Nixon bill. The working people must depend on their own organized strength and unity to enforce their demands for peace, security, and democratic ights, so clearly expressed in the 1948 elections.

A CALL TO ACTION FOR MAY DAY

May Day, 1949, in the great militant traditions of the American working class since 1886, must express the determination of the worklabor and all the people; for an end to Jim Crow; against the war proing people of our city to fight for the economic needs and the rights of gram; for preservation of the Bill of Rights. Towards this end, the Provisional Committee for a United Labor and People's May Day herehy issues this Call for a Conference for May Day, 1949, to consider plans for organizing a great united May Day demonstration. The Conference will be held on Saturday, March 26th, from 1 to 5 P.M., at the Manhattan Center, 34th Street and 8th Avenue.

The Provisional Committee also calls upon all organizations and groups to set up May Day Committees, NOW, to hegin at once to rally their memhership and develop activities to proadest participation in the May Day demonstration. ACT NOW! DISCUSS THE CALL! ELECT YOUR DELEGATES

MAY DAY, 1951, has special significance for the working people are city and nation.

TO ALL LABOR AND PEOPLE'S ORGANIZATIONS

In the milliant tradition of the May Day demonstrations held in our land since 1886; in the apirit of straggle for liberty and jostice which has moved millions throughout the world in march on May First in international working clean solidarity, this year all who treasore pears and freedom, will join on May Day in a mighty demonstration against the threat of a new world war.

PEACE — OR WAR; THIS IS THE DECISIVE ISSUE OF OUR DAY!
It has been posed for our country and the world by intervention in Korea, threats a gagresion against People's China, insistence upon the restnament of Western Germany and Japan, threats of the A and H-bomb!

The American people want peace; they want our troops brought back from Korea. This is the cry which rises everywhere with increasing insistence.

With a sense of grave responsibility to our nation and the world, and with a deep faith in the will for peace of the people of our land, we declare that WARIS NOT INEVITABLE, that the people can stop the drive to World WARIS.

This May Bay, then, let the people of New York unite to march for peace; to end the war in Koreat to outlaw the A and H-bombs; for friendablp with People's China and all People's Democracies; for grantine peace regolations with the Soviet China.

The preparations of the bi-partisan Administration for all-out aggressive war have been accompanied by widespread attacks upon the living standards of the people and their democratic liberties.

The when the state bereaking Talt-Hartley Act is still the law of land, against all which injoincinns are issued. Three imposed, and governe threast levelled against all workers who date to fight for a decent standard of living. A wage freeza became a which perver are allowed now out. Take has been set upon the preverse allowed now out. Take the state of the control is taken off rents. To guarantee the profile of the monopolists who latten on war preparations, the working people are being ordered to endure the brasis preparations, the

The workers of our city, of AFL, GlO, and Independent unions, resulting the struggle for the Banar day in America in which the May Day ecleiration originated, and taking heart from the new will to fight for their needs shown by the coal miner, railrend workers, restile and packing home workers, and others, will demonstrate this May Day in defense of their basic economic interests. — for higher wage, lower pierce, lower turns, no rent increases, the abolition of the Tale-Bardley Act.

Side-by-side with this hated out-labor law, contrary to our Constitution, the infamous Smith Vert and M. Carrent Law are on the statute brooks, instruments to silence any opposition to the Administration's war program Hedbailing hysteria is whipped on hy government officials, by press, radio, and movies, and in selvous and collectuation drives and in selvous or corrorize fureign team theories. The department faces labor leaders, croll fiberties apolestmen, where, and others who refers to have down to the House His American Cammittee. Not only is the outlawing of a minority publical antity, the Communities Party, three-rened, and its elegent featured and convicted, not the constitutional rights of all are hency trampled.

Open terror is exercised particularly against the Negro people. The Mar thoshills Seven are doed. Lightly brothed, Wills Medec there a similar fate in Mesissippi, the Trenton Six battle for their lives; Mrs. Rosa Ingram languisties in prison; the world-farmous Or, Dullois faces prison for advocating peace—while the policieskiller of the Negro, weream John Derrick remains free, and the Nati morderers are parloned in Western Germans!

In the fighting tradition of May Day, let us turn May First into a day of trainfer the commercial on Negro and white; fan end to Jim Crow and trainers against the Negro people; for the right to speak out for pract; against the danger of fassion and for a retorn to the democratic liberties guaranteed by the Constitution!

A Call To Action on May Day

It is in this apleit of partiolic attuggle for peace, freedom, and economic security; it is with the desire to extend our hand in heroliterhood to the peoples of all lands who want peace, who atruggle against the factor normer, that the Providental Committee for a United Labor and People's May Day hereby shouse this call for a Conference for Ma, Day, 1951, to plan the organization of a great United May Day Denionatesition.

The Conference will be held on Saturday, March 24, from 1 to 5 P.M., at St. Nicholas Sport Center, 53 W, 66th Street. There will be a registration fee of $1.00 for each delegate to defray the express of the Conference Let this May Bay express the wided unity of the working masses of our city, in the chops and communities, regardless of other differences which may divide us, on the fundamental issue of peace, not sure defense of the Bill of Rights, not a gestapa patients; social progress, not deprivation and hunger. Let us murch in trees of thousands on the propt of the barbar of the propt to prevent a world disaster, and to go forward in prace and progress.

Protest Bill AgainstWomen

League Officials Go to Capital to See Rep. O'Connor

Representing the Women's Division of the American League Against War and Fascism, Anna Center Schneiderman, of the National Executive Board, and Jean-ette Stern Turner, Executive Secretary of the Women's Committee, City Division, left yesterday for Washington, D. C. to confer with Congressman James J. O'Connor, Chairman of the Rules Committee, regarding the Cellar Bill H. R. 3408

The bill is an amendment to Section 213A of the National Economy Bill which has come under continuous fire since its passage, as a repressive and discriminatory measure against women.

Priof to their departure, Mrs. Schneiderman stated: "As representatives of more than a million women who are active or affliated members of the American League Against War and Fascism, we feel that Section 213A of the Economy Act is a grossly repressive measure. one that smacks of the laws that have been passed under fascist dictatorships in countries like Germany. Italy and Austria, which have dismissed women in government positions and barred them from participation In nublic affairs.

"This form of discrimination against women is not only reactionary but lowers the political, economic and social status of women. A law of this nature on national statute boks sets the precedent for states to pass similar discriminatory laws. A good many states have already done so. Discrimination of this nature is contrary to our American ideals and traditions.

"While we support the Celler Bill. H. R. 3408, we feel it is only a step in the right direction since it does not remove the principle of discrimination. It would, however, alleviate the great distress occasioned by the dismissals incurred through Section 213A. We will continue to fight for its complete repeal."

Our Nation is in Gravest Peril...

This is not intended to be alarmist.

But, we would be remiss in our duty if we did not sound the warning of the grave threat to the bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States contained in the proposed legislation of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, titled "Subversive Activity Control Act of 1948".

This proposed legislation would destroy the rights of all Americans, would suppress all opposition and criticism of present or future governmental policies, would smash free trade unions.

We, therefore, call upon all liberty-loving Americans, regardless of political creed, to join in a determined effort to protect our most precious heritage, the Constitution of the United States, by defeating this subversive legislation.

Dear friend:

In a year when formation of military alliances and skyrocketing tudgets for war are the order of the day. INTERNATIONAL MONESUS DAY, March 8, assumes a new significance. For on this day, women the world over will dedicate themselves to the task of fighting against the outbreak of another war and for the friendship and unity of all the people as indispensable in the atom bomt age.

The CONGRESS OF AMERICAL TOWERN has planned national ofservance of INTERNATIONAL TOWER'S DAY, through mass teetings, garades, and radio troadcasts, in practically every major city in the United States. This year we are urging women all over the country to speak out for peace--- to call upon President Truman to undertake direct nerotiations with Premier Stalin for the resolution of all US-USSE differences. The cold war may lead to a shooting, tombing war. Negotiations can lead to a lasting peace.

We invite the women of your organization to take similar action by writing letters and sending wires to President Truman. Won't you add your strength to ours by observing INTERNATIONAL WOMAN'S DAY as SAVE THE PEATE LAY?

Sincerely.

Chief Justice of Utah Rips Trial of "12"

JOINS 100 OTHERS TO DEMAND GOVERNMENT HALT PROSECUTIONS

Chief Justice James H. Wolfe, of Utah, yesterday denounced the government's prosecution of the national Communist leaders "for mere advocacy of their political views." In a joint statement with a group of distinguished liberals, released to the press yesterday, Judge Wolfe declared political change may become impossible if the government persists in pressing such actions.

The test of the basic constitutional guarantees is "the defense of persons who disagree," the statement said. Terming the indictment "a most shocking exercise of state power," the signers called upon the Attorney General "to suspend these political prosecutions.

Besides Justice Wolfe, signers include Paul J. Kern, former president of New York City's Municipal Civil Service Commission; Arthur Garfield Hays, outstanding civil liberties attorney; Earl Dickerson, leading Negro member of the Illinois bar; Charles H. Houston, former dean of Howard Law School: and more than a hundred other representatives of professions, arts, sciences, and the labor movement.

Leaders of the group have formed the Committee for Free Political Advocacy. with Mr. Kern in charge, at 11 West 42nd Street, and have named Miss Sydney

Rowen provisional secretary.

TEXT OF STATEMENT

Text of the statement and the names of signers follows: "Free speech, free press, free assembly, and free petition, as guaranteed by the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution, have no meaning if they apply only to political The test of these guarantees is their application to political antagonists in times of controversy, and to the defense of persons who disagree.

"This is the interpretation of free speech applied by Voltaire, Jefferson, and Lincoln, and embodied in our Bill of Rights as the most sacred political guarantee of free democracy.

"In this light, the present indictment in New York City, by the Federal Government, of twelve communist leaders for political advocacy of a domestically unpopular doctrine is a most shocking exercise of state power. The indictments in these cases allege no overt act whatever, except 'teaching and advocating' the principles of 'Marxism-Leninism'. The indictments allege no 'clear and present danger' to . . . and ". . . We maintain, therefore, that since this statute . . .does not make the distinction between advocacy and incitement, it violates the First Amendment. * * *"

The undersigned, therefore, urge that you join us in an appeal to the Attorney General to susp nd these political prosecutions. It is our view that the Attorney General should reserve his energies for cases where his activities may preserve. rather than destroy, the political liberty which comprises our most priceless political possession. Certainly, in view of its sweeping terms, a test case of the constitutionality of the Smith Act should be brought before it is used to outlaw a political party.

CHIANG'S WORLD WAR III GAMBLE

Three days after his former capital, Nanking, had been liberated by the Chinese People's Anny, Chiang Kai shek assued a statement urging his followers to fight on and predicting "final victory in three years."

This statement should not be laughed off just because Chiang has so obviously lost the support of the people of China. It means, simply and granty, that Chang still hopes for other support that he must now try to get Americans to shed their blood to re establish him in the power he could not hold with U.S. arms, dollars and advisors alone. The time, according to Chiang's calculation, is to be during World War III. He thinks that war must come during his three year time limit to be of any help to him. To loment such a war will now be the chief aim of Chiang's remaining military, diplomatic and huan cial power, of the cuvovs he maintains in Washington, in other capi tals and in the United Nations.

What Chiang Hopes For

There is nothing searct about this design. The New York Times, reporting Chiang's statement from Shanghai, quoted the still hopeful exclicator as "blanning China's diplomats for not setting the stage, presumably with more U.S. and for a Communist defeat." What sort of "stage" the diplomats were up braided for not arranging earlier was further indicated by the statement that "the general plan of the Generalissimo and those of his opinion is to light a delaying action southward in the expectation of a third world war."

Much more carefully, the meat est newspapers in America have sketched the same future. When Chrang Karshek Inst "retired" last January, the Republican New York Hould Tribune anticipated editor fally that he would "be seen again in the center of the world stage." The New York Times, the news paper closest to the State Depart ment, refused to bid Chiang good bye. It wrote only that he had "no present prospects" of return to power. Since then the Fines has blinted again and again at a World War III U.S. expedition to recon quer China where, as it wrote on April 18 "some island of resistance will be obliged for the time bery; to resist the focalone."

Propaganda in U.S.

This is the outline. Activities within it already include urgings for "investigations of China policy" and unprecedented intervention in that country by General Clane I Chennault, who has done so well financially in business with the Knomintang regime, and by Sena tors McCarran, Bridges and Know The cternal Congressman Judd is the group's political expert on China. Indd's historic wis dom can be judged from his recent statement that "the lion's share of the collapse of U.S. intervention in China, and the success of the Chinese revolution has been due to the activities of the publishers of Inv Fast Spotlight, the Committee for a Democratic Far Lastern Policy.

Representative Offin Teague Chairman, House Committee on VeteransAffairs House Office blag., Washington.D.C.

Dear Sir:

I have just received a letter from Mrs. Leona Thompson in which she informs me that the pension of her husband, Robert Thompson is to be discontinued because he has allegedly violated Public Law 144.

Since the law permits the veteran to be deprived of his pension only if he is guilty of mutiny, treason, sabotage and giving aid to an enemy of the United States or its allies, I am at a loss to understand this action, or the purpose. Mr. Thomoson to the contrary was willing by his neroic action during the war to give his life for his country and this was recognized by the fact that he received a distinguished service medal.

Unler the Jonstitution-the Bill of Rights in the first ameniment gives every man and woman the right of freelow of thought. If you are prosecuting Mr. Phompson inthis way for his political ideas it aplears to me that it is the Veterans Administration which is violating the Constitutional Rights of a citizen, and a stop should be put to this kind of action for it is a usurpation of power, a typannical printictive act which has no place in a semocractic country.

The Courts are taking a second look at the Smith Act. And Judges are finding that the men who are in Jail now nave been wrongly roun. Builty.

There is such meanness and cruelty shown in punishing a helpless can and depriving his family of their support that such an action dishonors our country and injures its prestige among the nations of the earth.

I ask you to reconsider your action and to restore Mr. Thompson's pension to him.

As I cannot understand why such an action was taken in the first place, I would appreciate an explanation.

Yours sincerely

On Phila. Rallies

Editor, Daily Worker:

We wish to call your attention to the article which appeared in the Daily Worker last Thursday on the Conference held in Pluladelphia on the Walter-McCarran Law.

The story seems to have been confused by your Philadelphia report and should be clarified. There was a conference on sunday afternoon, Ech. 8, at the Hotel Sylvania, called by a group of interested individuals at which Attorney Filindo B. Massino, Dr. William Pearlman, Gene Derrickson, Robert Jones, Morris Cohen, Harry Levitan and Harriet Barron were the speakers.

The meeting in the evening of the same day at the Race Street Forum had nothing to do with the Conference. It was addressed by Clarence Pickett and Earl Harrison.

Philly Judge Frees Two Peace Singers

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 22. - A police frame-up was smashed here Wednesday when two young peace workers were freed on charges of "resisting arrest," in a 15-minute

Judge Lewis Levinthal.

Ralph Ditchik and Raymond Stough, members of a singing and acting peace caravan, had been in jail since last Tuesday morning, first under $20,000 and later under $10,000 bail. Police had stopped their car and arrested them July 25 when they found it contained netitions and other peace material.

Magistrate James Donnelly had dismissed a phony charge of "larceny" last Monday, fined them $10 for "disorderly conduct" but had held them in $10,000 bail each on the "resisting arrest" charge, which threatened them with a year in jail.

The two were freed through habeas corpus proceeding before the efforts of the Civil Rights Congress, who retained attorney Harry Levitan to represent them. Levitan questioned the arresting officers Wednesday, and demanded the canvassers' discharge when police were unable to present any evidence of "resistance.

> Judge Levinthal agreed. . Assistant district attorney Ray-ond Spizer admitted "reluctmond Spizer admitted "reluct-antly" there was no basis for the charge, but regretted there was no ordinance to hold them for transporting "subversive literature '

> Peace leaders, many of whom were in court, hailed the victory as a setback for the attempt of police to intimidate peace crusaders, and predicted it would stimulate the collection of signatures here.

The Honorable Fat McCarran United States Senate

Dear Senator WcCarran:

The McCarran-Malter Immigration and Naturalization Act 19 more encouraged every day over the growing realization of the people of this nation and their elected Senators and Representatives that the McCarran-Walter Act, whatever the motivations of its authors, is really not in the best interests of our country. As we wollknow we do not live in isolation from other mations, and it cannot but affect a seventually if not immediately, if the Povist Union centinues to aggrandize itself. We must, therefore, by our immigration policy, encourage those who would defect from or revolt against Soviet tyranny. Moreover, it seems to us that simple haven kindness directs that we wimit in reasonable numbers deserving people from intolerably over-crowded areas.

. We nincerely note that as a fair-mainded man, our will reconsider your rosition.

Yours sincerely,

Jerome Freston, Jr.

Committee To Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and To Protect the Foreign Born

1001 Chestnut Street, Room 405, Philadelphia 7, Pa.

PRESS RELEASE

The infamous Walter-McCarran Law which has made all foreign born Americans into second-class citizens, received a blow today with the reversal of the decision in the Reba Kessler denaturalization case. This decision was hailed today by the Committee To Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Protect the Foreign Born, as an important set back to those forces who would jeopardize the citizenship of thousands of naturalized Americans.

In its Opinion the court again reiterated the opinion stated in the Schneiderman Case. It stated, ". . . 'In its consequences it (the revocation of citizenship) is more serious than a taking of . . . property, or the imposition of a fine or other penalty . . . But such a right once conferred should not be taken away without the clearest sort of justification and proof and, 'Especially is this so when the attack is made long after the time when this certificate of citizenship was granted and the citizen has meanwhile met his obligations and has committed no act of lawlessness' . . .

The need for repeal of this vicious legislation becomes all the more urgent when the facts are examined in this case and its decision by the United States Court of Appeals. The very fact that such a proceeding could be held under this Law is reason enough for its condemnation. In its totality this Law is a complete denial of the democratic principles on which this Nation was founded. and if Attorney General Brownell has his way, he will move for 10,000 denaturalizations and 12,000 deportations, as he has promised.

In view of such threats, and the arrests for deportation of hundreds of people that have already taken place, the Committee To Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Protect the Foreign Born calls on all democratic thinking people to move immediately to wipe this Law off the books.

The attempts of the Eisenhower administration to stifle the voices of freedomloving Americans for repeal, must be defeated and as the recently passed resolution by the Philadelphia City Council states. Congress has the obligation to "provide a modern and democratic immigration system."

Unite in Behalf of Foreign-Born-150 Ohioans Elect Lamb To Lead Protective Group

An extensive program for the prevention of mistreatment of foreign born was drafted by 150 delegates and observers who attended an organization meeting of the Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born yesterday afternoon at the City Club auditorium.

Edward Lamb of Toledo. State head of the National Lawyers Guild, was named

The group, in resolutions, went on record promising to:

"Voice its support for the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, its parent body.

"Promote better understanding between native and foreign born.

"Counteract anti-foreign-born propaganda.

"Facilitate processes of naturalization. "Secure passage of remedial legislation.

"Maintain American traditions of right of asylum.

"Prevent destruction of American families by deportation.

"Prevent passage of so-called antialien legislation.

"Oppose employers who for one pretext or another discriminate against noncitizens and Negroes.

WILL APPEAL TO OHIO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

"Call upon the Obio Chamber of Commerce to end this abuse and issue a public statement declaring that industry must cease such undemocratic and un-American practices.

"Urge public housing projects be made available to low-income families purely on basis of their need without regard to citizenship status."

No official notice was taken of a recent squabble in which several Clevelanders who had been named as sponsors of the provisional committee resigned suddenly after the phrase "red tinge" was hurled. However, several of the speakers, including Bernard V. McGroarty, Martin A. McGornack and the chairman, Russell N. Chase, sarcastically referred to those who resigned as "prima donnas" and "pseudoliberals." Only one of them, Prof. Henry Miller Busch of Cleveland College, was mentioned by name.

The resolutions committee went into action after the series of talks, chief of which was given by Miss Pearl Hart of Chicago, national vice chairman of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

SOUTHERN CONCRESSMEN BUT

Immigrants were welcomed in the years when they were needed to build up this Nation, she said, adding that now certain quarters, particularly southern Democratic Congressmen, were stirring up hatred and hysteria. If native-born Americans and democratic institutions were to be protected, she asserted, discrimination against foreign born must be put down.

Other speakers were Lamb; Miss Edith Lawrence of the Descendants of the American Revolution; A. E. Stevenson, Cleveland Industrial Union Council secretary; Elmer O. Fehlhaber, CIO-Longshoremen's Union international representative; Henry Weissfeld of the Akron United Hungarian Societies; Manny Schorr of the Cleveland City Council of Youth, and Curt Swinburne of New York, national secretary of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

Besides Lamb, others elected were:

Miss Cornelia Anderson of Akron and Harvey Vahulka, an AFL Machinists' union local president here, vice presidents; Mrs. Minnie Golden, secretary, and Weissfeld, Rabbi Abraham Cronbach of Cincinnati, Wilmer Tate of Lorain, Mrs. Faye Stephenson, Jack Ferline, Chase, McCormack, Fehlhaber, Stevenson, Mc-Groarty, Miss Lawrence, Anton Krechmarek, Walter Meissner, Sam Griff, Rev. C. F. McLennan, Edward A. Crudele, Louis Tarcai, Schorr, Ben Favorito, Miss L. Pearl Mitchell, David Balint, Betty Mondak, Henry Mach, Mary Capenegro of Cleveland, Mrs. Rosa Donley of Akron, Louis Majors of Cincinnati, Edward T.

Busch Cites Communist Tinge as Civic Leaders Ditch "Foreign Born Aid"

A number of Cleveland civic leaders last night asked that their names be withdrawn from any connection with the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born after Dr. Henry Miller Busch, professor of Cleveland College, withdrew his support of the organization and branded one of its statements as being "typical of the Daily Worker and organizations and individuals affiliated with the Communist cause."

Announcing such action in a joint letter issued to the Plain Dealer were Dr. Busch, Rabbi Barnett R. Brickner of Euclid Avenue Temple, Miss Alice P. Gannett, president of the National Federation of Settlements; State Representative Lody Huml, Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Jelliffe, directors of Karamu House; K. Elmo Lowe, associate director of the Play House; William M. Milliken, director of the Cleveland Museum of Art, and Assistant City Law Director

Charles W. White.

The group asked that this newspaper print their "disavowal of our connection and condemnation of the methods used' to organize an Obio conference of the committee at the City Club February 2. They said they believed they were "willfully misinformed" and said their supposed connection with the conference "has been used to give it standing which otherwise it might not have."

Russell N Chase will be chairman of the conference.

Dr. Busch charged that, without authorization, his signature was 1 of 3 used on a 4-page folder advertising the conference and containing statements with which he said he did not agree. The other signatures were those of A. E. Stevenson, president of the Cleveland Industrial Union Council, central body of the CIO here, and Mrs. Minnie Golden, secretary of the Ohio committee.

The educator charged further that, when invited to speak before the conference, he inquired as to the auspices under which it was being held and was given only the names of "liberals."

He accepted the invitation, Dr. Busch said, after being assured by Mrs. Golden that there were in the organization "no Communists, fellow travelers, or individuals whose sympathies seem to be with the Comintern, as evidenced by recent actions suspiciously harmonious with the line of the Third Internationale."

In a letter to Mrs. Golden withdrawing his support of the organization, Dr. Busch said he strongly objected to being associated with at least nine persons whose names appeared in connection with the call to the conference.

In the letter to the Plain Dealer, Busch and the others charged that misrepresentation of membership "is an old device used by people who have neither prestige nor the courage to stand forth in their own right, but who put forth a false front of unsuspecting citizens, behind which they carry on their own activities."

"We, too, believe that the foreign born may need protection against the excessive zeal of some people who may not understand the meaning of civil liberties and patriotism," the letter continued, "but also against certain elements who would use the plight of the foreign born to promote their own causes and purposes."

CALL CHARGE "FALSE"

The letter asserted that the signers regarded as false the following "charge against Federal authorities" contained in the folder:

"Noncitizens are being denied citizenship because they are unemployed or have received relief, or because they have waited 'too long' before applying for citizenship, or for other reasons not specified in our naturalization laws."

It branded as typical of the Daily Worker and Communist-affiliated organizations and individuals another statement in the call to the conference:

"Those foreign-born Americans—citizen and noncitizen—who today are being excluded from the benefits of our society are the first victims of a terror which, unless checked, may engulf all sections of the population."

SAYS DR. BUSCH SIGNED

Mrs. Golden said she "emphatically" denied Dr. Busch's charge "that his name was used without authorization."

"We have a photostatic copy of his signature," she said.

Asked if the authorization was for use of his name on the call to the conference, Mrs. Golden said it was as a sponsor of the conference, for which the call was issued.

She said Dean Carl Wittke of Oberlin College would make a "general statement" of the work of the committee at a luncheon in Hotel Allerton tomorrow. Curt Swinburne, national secretary of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, will speak.

The committee was founded "to combat alien discrimination and promote unity among native and foreign-born Americans," according to Mrs. Golden.

CONFERENCE to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law

UKRAINIAN LABOR TEMPLE 1051 Auburn Avenue – Cleveland, Ohio

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 1953

IMMIGRATION to these United States, under the Walter-McCarran Law is being governed through the application of a discriminatory, racist policy. No longer are prospective residents welcomed. They are subjected to minimum quotas, screening, hardships and police-state practices.

ELEVEN million naturalized American citizens find their freedom curtailed and even their right to continue to be citizens of this country seriously threatened by the denaturalization provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. Already, the Justice Department has initiated proceedings against 25 naturalized citizens in five states, seeking denaturalization on political grounds.

TIPREE million non-citizens find that they are not entitled to freedom of speech or belief and that they do not have the protection of the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution. Already, more than 275 non-citizens in 14 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico have been arrested for deportation under the McCarran Law and, after having lived here most of their lives, face exile from this country and life-time separation from their families and friends. ANY non-citizen can be arrested without a warrant; can be imprisoned indefinitely without bail, in concentration camp fashion; and can be denied due process of law in biased and unfair deportation hearings. All non-citizens must report in writing once a year to the Department of Justice and are subjected to forms of intimidation and harassment by Justice Department agents.

THEREFORE the Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born joins with all who seek repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law and the institution of an immigration and naturalization policy more in keeping with the freedom-conscious heritage and democratic aspirations of the American people. The Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born CALLS you to participate in a Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law.

Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law

"The immigration and nationality law embodies policies and principles that are unwise and injurious to the nation . . . It rests on an attitude of hostility and distrust against all aliens. It applies discriminations against human beings on account of national origin, race, creed, and color . . . It contains unnecessary and unreasonable restrictions and penalties against individuals . . . It should be reconsidered and revised from beginning to end."

-President's Commission on Immigation and Naturalization

"In other regards, too, our immigration laws now upon our statute books should be revised. Aliens should not, except as penalty for a crime and as punishment imposed by the judicial branch of our Government, be subjected to arrest, detention, or banishment. Deportation is a very serious thing for a man who has lived in the United States for three or more years. It is even more serious for an alien who has lived here since childhood or for one who has married here and reared an American family. Deportation deprives them of their homes, their families, and sends them, as it were, into exile."

-Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver, The Temple, Cleveland

"Instead of eliminating racial discrimination with regard to the admission of colored peoples, the bill perpetuates the restrictive features of the 1924 Immigration Act. This is naturally viewed with alarm in our community."

-Charles P. Lucas, Executive Secretary, Cleveland Branch NAACP

"We adamantly oppose the conception that naturalized citizens are second class citizens, and that their rights are less than those of native born citizens. . . . grounds for deportation should not be changed retroactively. . . . the authorities administering the law should have sufficient discretion to enable them to take humanitarian considerations into account."

HOW DOES THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW

AFFECT YOU?

Whether you're a non-citizen, a naturalized citizen, or a native born American, the Walter-McCarren Law affects you.

On December 24th this vicious law went into effect. Not only does it embrace all the evil policy of the McCarran Law of 1950, but adds the racial, religious and discriminatory measures of the quota system. It deepends the harassment and terrorist drive against the foreign born. It reduces the foreign born to second-class status.

Hundreds of organizations and thousands of individuals have gone on record for repeal of this Walter-McCarran Baw. Our Committee joins with them in the FIGHT FOR REPEAL.

DEFENSE OR-GANIZES

Ukrainian friends of John Lovehonke, arrested on Mar. 6 for departation, are organi zing a committee for his dofense.

Levchonko, 56, came to this country as a young man, and has lived here almost 30 years. He is married, and the step-father of two American-born children, Bail is $4,000.

MEETING: The next mooting of the Ohio Provision Committee will be Friday, March 31.

March 10 marked a day of grave orisis for the demooratic rights of the American people, when the Su preme Court handed down two decisions against the rights of 3,000,000 foreign-born Americans, and a gainst the liberties of everyone in this country.

First, by a vote of 6-2, the Court ruled against Peter Harasiades and Dora Coleman, deciding that a person could be deported for membership in the Communist Party. Second, in a close 5-4 decision, they sustained the authority of the Attorney General to hold without bail non-citizens facing deportation. The latter case involved the "Terminal Island Four."

Both of these decisions have nullified the Bill of Rights - and the American people must demand their reversal. The rights of freedom of thought and the right to bail are guaranteed by the Constitution - and this fact was recognized by Justice Hugo Black in a violent discenting opinion against the bail decision

Ho said; "The denial of a right to bail under the circumstances of these cases strikes me as a shocking disregard of the following provisions of the Bill of Rights; Eighth Amendment's ban against excessive bail; First Amendment's ban against abridgement of thought; speech and press; Fifth Amendment's ban a gainst depriving a person of liberty without due process of law." Justice Black further stated that "I have an idea that the liberty of every American is at steke."

Justice William O. Douglas accused the majority in the Court of repudiating " our tradition of telerance and our articles of faith based upon the Constitution.

WHAT DO THESE DECISIONS MEAN IN HUMAN TERMS?

More than 200 non-citizens in 14 states new face the prespect of deportation. Each of these cases must be tried on its merit - but each is joopardized by the Supreme Court Decisions - if they are allowed to stund.

Like Dora Coleman and Peter Harisiades, most of them came to this country as young children. Most are married to citizens & havo American-born children. Harisiados faces deportation to Greece - a country that offers only death to democrats.

In Ohio we have Joe Lukas, an American resident for 42 years: David Schlossberg, for 38; Loon Callow (like Harasiades, facing deportation to Greece) 35 yrs.; John Levohenko, 30 years; Po ter Shikas , 50 years (he was 6 when he camo); Goo. Vasiloff. 37 years. These men have worked in the mills and shops: helped build the country and raised families.

WHAT IS TO BE DONE ?

There have been bad laws and bad docisions before - but the people of this country have never let them stand. Attorneys for the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born have applied for rehearing of these docisions by the Supreme Court. Those will be filed before Mar.

- 1. Sign and mail the en elosed postcard to President Truman demanding that he use his influence for rehearings.
- 2. Send telegrams to Truman and ask your organizations to do the same.
- 3. Step up activities around the Ohio cases, by supporting the Ohio Provisional Committee for Protection of the F.-B.

Jefferson said of the Alien and Sedition Laws, "The friendalready fellowed, for already has a sedition act marked him as proy."

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

The recent Supreme Court decisions against the constitutional rights of the foreign-born may possibly mean a stopping-up of the program of intimidation and harassmont that has been carried out against the non-citizens and naturalized citizens of Cloveland by the Immigration Department for several years.

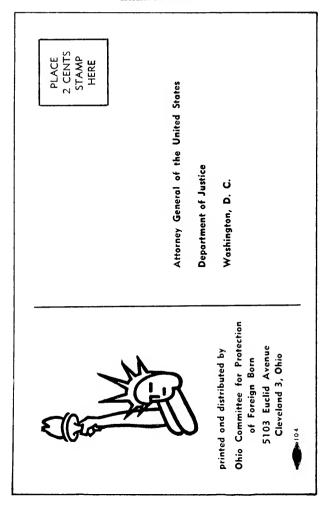

What the Department is looking for is a corps of willing or unwilling stoolpigeons, who will incriminate thomselves and their friends under the thought control McCarran Act. Although they have a pro fessional informer, Charles Baxter, paid full-time by their department to give testimeny in deportation hearings, the immigration authorities evidently don't think that this is enough.

Now very few people in this city would willingly bocomo informers. Yet through innocence or ignorance of their rights, some can be tricked into giving in-formation that can be used against them and friends. There are a few simple rules to remember :

- 1. A LETTER FROM THE IMMIGRATION DEPARTMENT IS NOT A LEGAL DOCUMENT! You can answer it or not, as you choose. If you choose to answer it, remember to con sult an attorney or organization for help and adviso going down to the Immigration Bureau.
- .. 2. NO PERSON, citizen er non-citizen, can be forced to answer any questions put to him by any agency, before he has consulted his atterney or organization. The bost rule to follow is this: Don't answer any questions until you have talked to your attorney or organization. This is your right. Bo firm.
- 3. If you are subpeachaed, you don't have to go anywhere or answer any questions until you have consulted your attorney. The agent delivering the subpoena has no right to take you with him anywhere. Just tell him to leave the subpoena. Don't answer any questions he may ask - he is just a delivery boy who wears a badge.
- 4. If you want any information or help, call us. Contact the PROVISIONAL OHIO COMMITTEE for PROTECTION of FOREIGN BORN, RM. 7, 5103 EUCLID AVE. EX 1-9486. arter 1:00 P.M.

Note: A new flood of letter has recently gone less alion has indeed been se - our to naturalized citizens . A Cleveland attorney lected as the safest subject of who called the Bureau on behalf of a client, was a first experiment; but the city told by Floyd Ault, head of the Department, that "of izon will follow, or rather, hascourse, they didn't have to come down" and " in all probability they wouldn't receive further lotters," As simplo as that 1

Dear Friend:

We cordially invite you to participate in the Conference to Repeal the McCarran-Walter Law, to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, on Sunday, March 15, 1953.

The Walter-McCarran Law is racist and dis - criminatory in its quota approach to immigration. In addition, 11,000,000 naturalized Americans find them - selves reduced to second-class citizenship; 3,000,000 non-citizens lose the protection of the Bill of Rights.

These attacks on the rights of foreign-born Americans can destroy the liberties of all native-born Americans as well.

We therefore urge your organization to send representatives to participate in this vitally important Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. The registration fee for delegate or observer is $1.00. We Also invite unconnected individuals to register as visitors.

Also, because of the great tasks faced by this Conference, we appeal to your organization to make a substantial contribution to help defray the expenses of organizing this Conference and carrying out its vital decisions.

Sincerely yours,

Kenneth O. Gemmill

REGISTRATION OF NON-CITIZENS UN-DER PROVISIONS OF WAITER-MC CARRAN LAW

Bocause of the large number of inquiries reaching its offices, the Ohio Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has prepared the following answers on the registration and fingerprinting provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law:

- (1) Non-citizons who have been registered and fingerprinted at any time in the past do not have to be registered or fingerprinted again. Most non-citizens were registered and fingerprinted in 1940 under the Alien Registration Act of 1940. Non-citizens who have never been registered and fingerprinted in the past are required to be registered and fingerprinted before January 23, 1953.
- (2) All non-citizens are required to have with them at all times their Alien Registration Receipt Card, which is proof of the fact that they have been regis torod and fingerprinted in accordance with the law. Non-citizens who have lost their Alien Registration Receipt Card can obtain a new one by making a special application with the Lumigration and Naturalization Service and paying the required fee.
- (3) During the month of January 1953, all non-citizens must notify the Attorney General of their current address on special forms that will be awailable at all postoffices after January 1st. (This is in addition to the registration and fingerprinting program,)
- (4) In addition, all non-citizens must notify the Attorney General of any change in address within ten days after noving from one place to another. Special forms for this purpose are available at all postoffices.

DO YOU HAVE QUESTIONS ON THE WALTER-MCCARRAN LAW ?
DO YOU WANT TO HELP FIGHT FOR ITS REPEAL ?

FATHER OF 9 ORDERED DEPORTED

LEON CALLOW, father of nine American-born children, has been ordered deported from the United States, and sent into exile in Greece, where he faces a future of political harassment, even death.

On December 24, the day the McCarran Law went into effect, the Board of Immigration Appeals upheld a deportation order issued against Callow by the local district of the Naturalization and Immigration Office here.

Sunday, March 15, has been set by the Chio Committee for a one-day "Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law Conference."

Calls are being sent out throughout Ohio, inviting the many organizations who have gone on record against the infamous law to join in panel-discussion conference on why and how the law can be repealed.

George Murphy, co-Chairman of the American Counittee for Protection of Foreign Born will be the keynote speaker.

All sessions will be held at the Ukrainian Labor Temple, 1051 Auburn Ave., in Cleveland.

Registration will begin at 9:00 AM, and the sessions will end at 6:30 PM, when a banquet will be served the delegates and guests.

Individuals not elected as delegates or observers from an organization may register as visitors.

An order to pick him up has been issued, and at any moment, perhaps even as this is written, Callow will be arrested, separated from his family, and taken to County Jail, or to Ellis Island. There he can be held without bail at the discretion of the Attorney General. This is the Walter McCarran Law in action.

Callow, 57- year old steel worker, lives in Niles, Onto, with his eight sons and daughter, who range in age from four to nineteen. Only Carl, the eldest, can help in the support of the family. The others are either in school, or of preschool age.

Callow came to this country as a young man of twenty-one. He has lived and worked here for thirty-six years. He has never broken the laws of this country; he is a good father to his family.

Why, then, is he deportable? Charge a-gainst Leon Callow is that twenty-four years ago he was a member of the Communist Party. Only evidence against hin is a statement made by himself, many years ago, not in a courtroom, where he would have counsel to advise him, but before an investigator of the Immigration Service.

ABNER GREEN VILL SPEAK HERE TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24th

One day of a nationwide tour will be spent in Cleveland by Abner Green, national accretary of the ACFTB. He will speak at a co-ordinating neeting of the Conference Connittee at 8:00 PM, at the Serbian Hall, 1423 E. 39th St. All nembers of the Chio Connittee are urged to be present.

WHAT THEY SAY

"A law such as the Walter McCarran net could not be amended and must be repealed."

-Hebrew Innigrant Ald Soci (HIAS)

"(The Law)...x contains unnecessary and unreasonable restrictions and penalties against individuals. It is badly drafted, confusing and in some respects unworkable. It should be reconsidered and revised from beginning to end."

-Fresident's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization.

"These provisions are worse than the infanous which act of 1798. Such powers are inconsistent with our democratic ideals.

-Harry S. Truman (June, 1952)

"The CIO urges that the Walter-McCarran Act be repealed."

-CIO Convention, (December, 1952)

"Aliens should not, except as penalty for a crime and as punishment imposed by the judicial branch of our government, be subjected to arrest, detention or banishment. Deportation is a very serious thing for a man who has lived in the U.S. for three or more years. It is even more serious for an alien who has lived here since childhood, or for one who has married here and reared an American family. Deportation deprives them of their homes, their families and sends them, as it were, into exile."

-Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver

During the depression, Callow was active in organizing the unemployed in northern Ohio; during the steel organizing period of the 30's, he helped organize that industry, fighting for better wages andworking conditions.

Although Callow is slated for deportation to Greece, he is not of Greek origin. He is a Macedonian, with a history, and a family background of struggle against Greece for Macedonian liberation. This anti-Oreek struggle, and his more recent democratic activities, make him persona non grata in that country, bound to end up behind the wires of a concentration camp.

Leon Callow has been hit full blast by the undemocratic provisions of the Walter-Mc-Carran Law: deportation for political beliefs; arrest and possible confinement without bail at the discretion of an official.

Can a man be punished for an act committed many years ago, at a time when that act was not unlawful? This principle is now being tested before the Supreme Court, in the case of William Heikkila, a Finnish non-citizen who came to this country when he was two months old, and who has been arrested under the McCarran Law for one-time membership in the Communist Farty.

The President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization issued a report on January 1, 1955, based on public hearings held in Cotoher in 11 cities. The report condenned the bill, especially the deportation of non-citizens who have been members of organizations proscribed by the Attorney General.

WHAT CAN YOU DO?

- 1. Fill out and send in the postcard enclosed with this bulletin.
- 2. Send in a contribution for the defense of Leon Callow, or the aid of his family.
- 3. Write to your Congressman, asking him to support repeal of the Valter-McCarran Law.

Ohio Supreme Court Told 3 Main Backers Of Wallace Are Reds

By the Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 11.— Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel told the Ohio Supreme Court today that three of Henry, A. Wallace's principal campaigners in Ohio were Communists

The sccretary of State, who harbarred the presidential candidate from the Ohio ballot, listed them as:
Nathan R. Zahm, administrative director of the Wallace-for-President Committee: Elsie Zazrivy and David I. Sindell, an attorney, all of Cleveland.

10 Signed Affidavits.

They were among 10 persons who signed affidavits, required by law, stating that they had no connection with subversive organizations, said Leland S. Dougan, assistant secretary of State.

Mr. Summel, in a document filed with the Supreme Court, said the three were found to be Communists in an investigation conducted by George S. Houston, chief investigator of the secretary of State.

Mr. Dougan said the investigator's findings were based on files of the FBI and the Cleveland Police Department.

Law Was Passed in 1941.

The secretary of State filed portions of Houston's report with the Supreme Court in answer to a demand from the Wallace supporters who wanted to know why they were barred from the ballot.

Mr. Hummel barred the Wallace ticket under a law, enacted in 1941, which was designed to keep from the ballot "parties, or groups, engaged in un-American activities."

The Wallace-for-President group yesterday asked the Supreme Court to compel Mr. Hummel to accept their nominating petitions and put them on the ballot. The court instructed Mr. Hummel either to comply with the request or show cause by June 26 why he should not.

WESTERN PRINTAL COMMITTEE FOR ERCTECTION OF THE FOREIGN BORN DEMANDS GONGHESSMAN FULTON TAKE A STAND ON THE WALTER-MCCARRAN ACT!

The Western Pennsylvania Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born in a statement to the press spoke out against Congressman James Fulton's attement to evade taking a stand on the Walter-McCarran Act by attacking the Western Penna, Committee. The statement pointed out that Rep. Fulton's response was to a latter asking that a cate be set for a meeting between a delegation of the Committee and the Congressman to discuss the need for open hearings on the Lahman-Scaler Bill. The statement peinted out "this Bill would repeal the Walter-McCarran Act and restore to the foreign born some of the Constitutional rights now denied them under the Walter-McCarran Act. Of all the answers to a similar latter to our four district Congressman Rep. Fulton's reply stands alone in its viciousness and contempt for the people of Western Fennsylvania.

"To avoide stating a position on the Walter-McCarran Act Rep. Fulton

"To avoide stating a position on the Walter-McCarran Act Rep. Fulton asked U.S. Atterney General Herburt Brownell to citt the Western Funna, Committee for protection of the Foreign Born as 'subversive'. He also asked Senator John M. Butler to call the Committee's officers before a Senata Internal Sub-Committee for questioning.

"This attack by Rop. Fulton is an attempt to intimidate people into silence, to prevent them from expressing their views to their Congressmen on important legislation. One of the many unfulfilled promises of the Republican Party in the 1952 election campaign was the pledge to rivise the Walter-Eccarran act, to remove its un-morrican, un-constitutional provision. This has not been done. Instead, there is a constitutional provision. This has not been done. Instead, there is a constitution in Congress between the McCarthys and McCarrans that the Walter-McCarran act romain untouched. "Me demand that Representative Pulton, instead of avading the issue by his witch-hunting, act to guarantee the fullfilment of his party's election promises."

Of key importance now in the fight to repet the 'Walter-McCarran Act is the need for open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill. Sponsored by thirty-

Of key importance now in the fight to repeal the Walter-McGarran Act is the need for open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill. Sponsored by thirty-two members of Congress the Lehman-Celler Bill would remeal the Walter-McCarran Act. It would put a stop to the persecution and heresoment of the foreign born by the McCarthys in the Justice Department. While our Cocmittée does not agree with all the provisions of the Lehman-Celler Bill it recognizes that the pressage of this bill would stop about 70% of the current deportation and denoturalization cases.

Your Congressman must know that you and your organization want open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Sill. The 'estern Penna. Committee for Protiction of the Foreign Born has received favorable replies from three of our Congressman who have agreed to meet with a delegation from our Committee. However, this must be only the beginning of a mass campaign to demand public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill. We urge that you get your organization to make similar appointments with our Congressman in this area. Write to your Congressman and defeat the conspiracy to kill the Lehman-Celler Bill.

MON-CITIZENS MUST REGISTER BEFORE END OF JANUARY!

MARRIET BARRON TO SPEAK IN PITTSBURGH MAY 2.

Harriet Berron, Administrative Secretary of the American Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born will speak in Pittsburgh at the Jewish Cultural Center, Sunday afternnon, May 2. The meeting, which will begin at 2 o'clock and end at 5, will take up the many important phases of work of the local committee as well as a region that has been done in the peat.

review the work that has been done in the past.

The intensified denaturalization and deportation drive by the Justice Department is an attempt to further whip-up mcCarthyite hysteria in western Fenna. The ourrent wave of denaturalization and deportation proceedings under the fascist walter-wcCarran Act deprives 14 million foreign born Americans of their rights and liberties, and opens the door to attack against all Americans.

Every case that the western renna Committee has fought revealed wide-spread sentiment against these fascist proceedings. —any native-born Americans are beginning to understand the nature of these attacks and are beginning to speak out in defence of the foreign born.

The meeting will clarify future policy of the local committee and plen a program of action for the comming period. Econ one of us must feel responsible for bringing our family and friends to this important meeting.

COMMUNITY-WIDE SUPPORT SHOWN FOR CHARLES SOLDO

Neighbors, friends and fellow-workers of Charles Soldo have rallied to his defense against the fescist-like deportation proceedings brought by the Immigration Department. In a hearing which took place recently in Pittsburgh, petitions circulated by his mine local and in the community were introduced attesting to his fine character. Character witnesses unmasked the lies of the government-hired stoolpigeons. Among the witnesses that appeared for Soldo was a Catholic Priest, a local constable, and fellow miners who have worked with him for over 20 years.

These proceedings have exposed the plot of the mcCarthyites to weaken the trade union movement in this case specifically the mine union of which Charles Soldo is a member. The type of defense that was developed around Soldo has shown that when the workers understand the nature of these attacks they will speak out in defense of their democratic liberties.

Heerings have been suspended pending the court decision on Attorney Hymen Sohlesinger's demand to subpens witnesses who would further discredit the etcolpigeous and disclose the frame-up nature or the government's experiment.

DEFEAT THE ENEMIES OF THE FOREIGN BORN IN THE MAY 18th PRIMARIES.

The western Penna. Committee for Froteotion of Foreign Born is not a political organization. However, the denger of McCarthyism is such that no one can sit on the sidelines. Therefore, we urge all friends of our Committee to defeat all mcCarthyite candidates in the May 18 primeries.

Outspoken enemies of the foreign born are seeking office in the coming elections on both Republicen end Democratic tickets. William McClellend is runing for Governor as a Democrat backed by Musmenno, the most notorious McCarthyite in western Penna. Matt Cvetio, the hated stoolpigeon end finger man for the Department of Justice is seeking the nomination for Congress on the Republicen ticket; and James Fulton, who has openly embraced McCarthyism, is running for reelection to Congress on the Republicen ticket.

We feel that the best guarantee for the repeal of the walter-woCarran Act, the MoCarran Act, the Taft-Hartley Act and other fescist legislation is the defeat of all McCarthy - Musmanno type of candidates and the election of those plodged to repeall anti-foreign born, anti-labor legislation and to stopping further attacks on the Bill of Rights.

STATUS OF SOME OF THE LOCAL CASES

Ursule Paich - Deportation order now being appealed in Washington. Marko Terzioh - Case before Board of Appeale in Washington. No decision. Morris Seder - Court hearing week of April 26 on the right subpens witnesses. Gue Tsantls - Immigration hearing took place in March - decision pending. Joseph Mankin - Judgos's decision on pre-court hearing pending. These and other osses will be discussed more fully in succeeding neweletters.

FLASH - Notice was just recieved that Denaturalization proceedings are to begin again Anne and Steve Devonloh. This brings the local denaturalization cases, including Steve Nelson and Joseph Mankin, to four. Protest should be sent to U.S. Attorney Mollvaine against these un-American attacks upon naturalized Americans.

Collection List

We, the undersigned citizens of the United States, view with alarm and anxiety the increasing use of the WALTER-MCCARRAN ACT against the foreign and native born of our nation.

We are particularly alarmed at the present threat of deportation of Gus Santes to Greece. We allknow only too well the danger this presents to Mr. Santis' very life at the hands of the Greek government. Mr. Santia and 15 others are now under attack in the Greater Pittsburgh area. In addition 9 naturalized citizens are threatened with revocation of citizenship and then with deportation.

We call upon every trade unionist, progressive and liberal to rully to the defense of Mr. Sentia and the 24 additional victims of the WALTER-MCCARRAN ACT. We ask you to donate whatever you can to their defense and the support of the Western Pennsylvania Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born.

October 2, 1954

Dear Friend:

The Western Pennsylvania Committee for Protection of Foreign Born is pleased to invite you to a reception in honor of Father Kenneth Ripley Forbes, Episcopalian minister from Philadelphia, on Friday, October 29 at the Fort Pitt Hotel.

Between 1950 and 1953 Father Forbes served as Executive Chairman of the Episcopalian League for Social Action. He is well known for his support of organized labor in the early days of the CIO and as a leading figure in numerous civil rights campaigns. Having devoted a large part of his church activities to work with many national groups in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Peansylvania, Father Forbes is presently Co-Chairman of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The main theme of Father Forbes discussion will be the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act and the protection of the rights of the foreign born. Taking place just before the crucial November 2 elections this reception can be an important step in the campaign to defeat the lacCarthyites and the election of those who will fight for a speedy repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

Enclosed you will find two tickets. If you can, it would good to send in a $1.00 for the tickets in advance. More tickets are available upon request and we urge that you obtain tickets from our office for your friends.

A large turnout at this reception will serve notice that the people of this area went an end to deportations and attacks on the citizenship of trade unionists and opponents of McCarthyism. Your help can make this reception an outstanding event in the fight for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act.

Sincerely yours.

STOP THE DENATURALIZATION OF THE FOREIGN BORN

DEFEND JOSEPH MANKIN

The Department of Justice has started proceedings to denaturalize Joseph Mankin, a resident of this country for 32 years and a citizen for 13 years. As in other attacks on the foreign born, this is a clear-cut frame-up.

WHY THIS SUDDEN ATTACK ON A CITIZEN AND RESIDENT OF LONG STANDING? The answer can be found in the growing struggles and expressions of all of the American people in protesting the war program of big business and the government. This is the kind of struggle which Joseph Mankin has participated in. In his youth, he helped to organize the unemployed in their fight for jobs and Social Security. He has been a leading trade unionist, active in fraternal organizations and in the movements for peace and civil rights.

YOUR CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS ARE AT STAKE

If you are foreign born, the precedent being set in this case can be used to denaturalize you.

If you are American born, it is clear that denial of citizenship to Jospeh Mankin because of his activities on behalf of the working people, is an attack against you.

FROTECT YOUR RIGHTS AS AN AMERICAN BY PROTECTING JOSEPH MANKIN'S RIGHTS AS A CITIZEN.

Send your protest to Attorney General Brownell, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. and to United States Attorney Edward C. Boyle, Federal Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

EVHIRIT No. 242A

July 14, 1954.

Well, I don't like fascists of any variety. My record in Spain and in the trade union movement for over the past twenty years has confirmed my hatred of informers and dislike of the people who consciously use them. It has become clear through the efforts of the lumigration Service to frame me by use of ten such stoolies and latterly by the sudden production of documents they refuse to permit us to investigate that they are determined to make me pay for the "sin" of being a consistent progressive. I am being penalized for my ideas and for the things I have fought for and defended.

This is a symptom of these diseased times. In Pittsburgh we have had a real concentration of attacks upon us all. Nor are any unions or workers' organizations safe from this assault. This is the period of speed for the Administration with its Brownell "package." This is the time when heat is put on to make a record for the November elections in order to cover up the numerous broken promises and things undone or done to help only Big Business.

The fight back here has drained our resources. May I urge that you send some contribution for the fight we are now waging to defeat this aspect of McCarthyism. Sincerely.

ALLAN D. MCNEIL.

EXHIBIT No. 242B

My Dear Friend: The Republican administration and its Brownell "package" of legislation is directly threatening all of us with—

(a) the loss of personal privacy through wiretapping,

(b) the destruction of our organizations and unions through the theory of Communist infiltration.

(c) the loss of our jobs without recourse to grievance machinery through alleged "subversive" charges,

(d) the loss of our newspapers and magazines through the projected need to control the Communist press.

(c) the loss of liberty and even life through the dangerous theory of alleged "espionage."

We all recognize these dangers and in one way or another we fight to defeat them. But it might be well for us to remember that already some parts of this program has been put into operation. Under the Smith Act people are now in jail, not for having done something evil or antisocial or criminal but for allegedly thinking ideas and teaching that are not in conformity with what the bosses want. Under the McCarran Act, the Smith Act for non-Communists, similar actions are being taken against any organization which fights for the people.

And under the Walter-McCarran Act thousands of foreign- and native-born Americans, citizen and noncitizen, are being persecuted. They are threatened with denaturalization and with deportation. The harassment of these people who were the brains and brawn which built this great nation is unsurpassed in our history.

I have been marked down as you well know under the Walter-McCarran Act. Today it is me. Today, as the above legislative program of the Eisenhower Administration indicates, it could very well be you. It is to bring this realization to you that I am so briefly summarizing the entire scheme as it stands and as it is projected.

The time to stop it is now. The time to act is while McNeil, and not you, is under fire. May I suggest that you join in protests against all such pro-fascist legislation. May I suggest that you protest the attacks upon me to the Immigration Service, Federal Building, Pittsburgh, Pa. And may I finally suggest that you seriously weigh the kind of contribution you can make to my fight. If we can stop them in my struggle, you will have done yourself and the American people a great service.

Fraternally and sincerely,

Send all contributions to the Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, 6328 Forbes Street, Pittsburgh 17, Pa.

MORRIS SEDER - WALTER-MOCARRAN ACT VICTIM DIES

On September 4th, Morris Seder, deportation viotim, died. The following is quoted from a statement issued by the Western Pennsylvania Committee:--

"Although there is as yet no final autopsy report as to the cause of Morris Seder's death, it is well known that it was the hounding and harrassment of the Immigration Department that in the main was responsible for his untimely death.

From his early youth to the day he died, Morris Seder was devoted to the struggle for a better life for the working people. Arriving in this country as a boy, he began work in one of Pittsburgh's sweatshops. It was he and others like him who were responsible for raising the standard of living of the clothing workers by organizing them into trade unions, and to his dying day, he was an active member of his union, the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America.

Morris Seder was a rank and file leader -- one who had convictions, and dreems of a better world. His knowledge and love of Jewish literature and music was an outstanding feature of his life. His readings and drematic presentations of Jewish classics will long be remembered for its enrichment of the oultural life of this community.

It was because of his strugbles on behalf of the working people that this frail, oultured man was hounded for years by the Justice Department. He was denied the citizenship which he so well deserved, and was finally arrested and held for deportation under the vicious Walter-McCarran Act. The resultant worry and harrassment shortened his life by many years.

Morris Seder was not the first person in Western Pennsylvania to be hounded to death by the Justice Department. At least three others who, like Seder, contributed so much to the building of our country, were also driven to their death by this fascist-like persecution.

This persecution was reflected in the Pittsburgh Press on the very dev of Morris Seder's funeral, when two viotims of the Walter-MoCarran Act were singled out for attack for exercising their right to sign a petition to put candidates on the ballot for the November elections. This attempt of the Pittsburgh Press to poison the atmosphere with MoCarthyism, with its hysteria, loss of jobs, hoodlumism, etc., is made possible because of the undermining of our Constitution and Bill of Rights by such fascist laws as the Walter-MoCarran Act.

All of us must recognize that we did not do enough, in whatever way we could, to fight to defend Morris Seder. Now, then, is a time for rededication to the struggle to helt the persecution of the foreign born and to fight for the repeal of the Walter-MoCarran Act."

We urge that you write to Charles Garfinkel, Immigration Department, Federal Building, expressing your indignation at the harrassment and hounding to death of morris Seder.

Dark stage. Laugh in the dark, serio-comic, like the villain gloating over his Innocent Victim before committing his Dastardly Deed.

Spot on The Investigators standing around The Victim seated in a chair. Their attitudes are inquisitorial. Light comes up slowly revealing what could be a Gropper cartoon of the current style in investigating committees. If there are women in the group, they most certainly would look like Grant Wood's concept of DAR's.

Some of The Investigators' lines might be spoken in unison with a choral effect. Others should be broken up among The Investigators, depending upon the number of actors available.

If possible, a simple piano background is desirable for tempo to provide a beat to stylize the delivery. Extemporized chords and a patter rhythm is all that is necessary.

The sketch should be done in a highly stylized manner both in the reading of lines and movement and it should have a nervous, staccato propulsion throughout arising from the characterization of The Investigators.

In contrast, the lines of the other few characters, The Victim, The Witness, The Lawyer, all of whom have very little to say, should be completely different. The Witness (The Rat) should be a broad burlesque of all stool pigeons. The Victim and The Lawyer should be handled simply but seriously and sympathetically, underplayed for effect.

The Victim

But how can May Day come in February?

The Investigators

That remark was quite unnecessary.

The point is he saw you

It makes no difference when

Or where

The ther it was then

Or there

The point is he saw you

And you were undoubtedly carrying concealed thoughts!

The Rat

He certainly was
And they were very fiery
I wrote them all down
Exactly as he thought them
In my diary.

The Investigators

Excellent!

The Rat

And then after the parade
I followed him
I had a sneaking premonition
That some day in the future
I might be of service to my country.

The Investigators

Such devotion.
Such purity.

And then ---?

The Rat

And then -- he went to Madison Square Garden.

The Investigators

Aha!
For shame!
He was watching a --?

The Rat

Basketball game.

The Investigators

(distraught)

No1 No1

The Rat

(stupidly)

No?

The Investigators

It was a meeting. Don't you remember?

The Rat

"Why of course! How could I have missed it. I got my diaries twisted.

The Investigators

Thank you.

(one of the Intestigators slips him some folding money)

The Rat

Thank you.

The Investigators

(Singing)

Thank you for everything.

The Victim

But--

The Investigators

Next witness!

The Victim

But --

The Investigators

We insist. You're dismissed.

The Lawyer

(suddenly appearing)

Why don't you let him question the witness?

The Investigators

(whispering)

That's that?
That's the lawyer.
A lawyer? How odd.

The Lawyer (quietly, with dignity)

Why don't you let him --

The Investigators

Don't shout!
Throw him out!

He's a Red! Off with his head!

Not yet --The stage isn't quite set. Ye'll save him for some future tete-a-tete.

You see what we mean?
A complete undermining of the system
You notice the sly complexity of their thoughts -How they turn 'em and twist 'em
How devious they are and subtle
How they aim to scuttle
The whole framework of the status quo
By attacking the orthodoxy
Of poverty
War
And Jim Crow.

Why if everybody had concealed thoughts It would be a terrible blow And if they thought out loud They might even gather a crowd And then where would our profits go? Goodness! We'd be on the brink!

Imagine what would happen If they all began to think!

Quick! I'm fainting!

We have our own idea
Of the kind of citizen
Who fits into our conception of society,
Somebody very safe
And sane

_ 9 _

With an arrested brain Perfect propriety No connection with Unions...

Unions! Heaven forefend! Encourage Unions And you can't tell
Where it will end!

What will happen to your dignity?

A citizen isn't just a poor slob Torking at a job. There's more than just earning a living, One shouldn't always be receiving, One ought to be giving.

Nothing so sordid As dollars and pence, Just a beautiful friendship And a high moral sense.

From boom to bust Just a simple trust.

No unions No picket lines No mass meetings No delegations

No! No! A thousand times no!

No vacations

Your spirit must be cut in proportion, A sort of intellectual abortion.

Ladies and gentlemen, May we present Our synthetic creation, The perfect citizen Of a perfect Well-regulated nation.

> (A straw man enters, the straw with which he is stuffed sticking out of his clothing -but most of all out of his head)

Speak!

The Straw Man
(in a hollow but sincere voice)

No ifs or buts -When I get enough guts
I'm goin' to start thinkin'!

(The Investigators shriek as the scene blacks out)

New Arrests

On March 23rd, Joe Gastelum, 46, Los Angeles Insurance agent, was arrested in Walter-McCarran Law deportation proceedings on the grounds that he had at one time been a member of the Communist Party. A native of Mexico, Gastelum is, married to a native born citizen and has two citizen children. He came to the United States 35 years ago. Released on $1,000 bond, a hearing in his case has been scheduled for April 13.

On March 26th, Ethel Shapiro, 34, an unemployed Los Angeles diess operator was anrested for deportation. A native of the Ukraine, and resident of the United States for 33 years, she was released on $2,000 bond and a hearing was set for April 4th. In both cases the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born is assisting with defense.

SUPERVISORY PAROLE

"Nukk Et Al.": Argument in the cases of 14 New York City non-citizens who are challenging the Supervisory Parole provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law has been set for sometime in June before a specially convened 3-judge court. It is expected that Federal Judges McGohey, Medina and Weinfeld will hear the case when argued. At issue is whether the Justice Department has the right to limit the travel, associations and activities of non-citizens ordered deported but whose deportation cannot be effectuated. Blanch Freedman and Gloria Agrin are counsel for the 14.

Keller & Withovich Cases: The scheduled March 26th trial of George Withovich for alleged violation of Supervisory Parole provisions has been postponed to May 31st. James Keller, also indicted for such violation is scheduled to go to trial on May 1st. Both men, residents of Chicago, were indicted for refusal to answer questions when reporting to Justice Department agents. Pearl Hart of Chicago is counsel for both.

Sentner Case: No decision has yet been handed down in the case of Antonia Sentner who challenged Supervisory Parole provisions before a 3-judge court of the Federal District Court, St. Louis, Mo.

COLUMBIA LAW REVIEW ANALYZES DEPORTATION LAW

In its March, 1956 edition, the Columbia Law Review takes a serious look at the ills inherent in the deportation provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law. In the 57-page article, written by Will Maşlow, General Counsel for the American Jewish Congress, there is a studious analysis made of the Law as well as 20 proposals to reform its deportation section.

Mr. Maslow sets the tone of his article by stating in part: "The deportation laws of the United States, recently codified into the McCarran-Walter Immigration and Nationality Act, depict us as cruel and vindictive, heedless of the opinions or good will of our allies, and oblivious of the standards of decency and fair play that mark our criminal legislation."

Among Mr. Maslow's 20 proposals are the following:. No non-citizen lawfully admitted for permanent residence should be deportable; no postentry offense or condition should be ground for deportation unless committed within five years of entry; no deportation because of conduct not a cause for deportation when committed; membership in, association with, or support of the Communist or any other totalitarian party should not be a ground for deportation; non-citizens released pending or during a deportation hearing, or because he cannot be deported, should not be subject to any conditions upon his lawful activity, except those reasonably designed to insure his appearance when needed.

Allen McNeil

On March 19th, motions were filed in Federal District Court, Pittsburgh, to dismiss the indictment against James Allen McNeil. McNeil was indicted-on May 26, 1955, for failure to have been registered and fingerprinted. In his motion to dismiss the indictment, McNeil denied willful failure to register and stated that such failure to register was based on his claim to being a native-born United States citizen. Judge Herbert Sorg asked for written briefs and took the motion under advisement.

In Memoriam

On February 17th John Urban, died and on March 19th Joseph Mankin died. Both men, residents of Pittsbugh, were Walter-McCarran Law victims. John Urban was a victim of the Law's deportation proceedings and Joseph Mankin faced revocation of his citizenship. Both had been long-time fighters in the effort to secure the spirit of the Bill of Rights for all Americans despite the fact that they, as foreign born Americans, had that very spirit denied them.

PROGRAM FOR DEFENSE OF FOREIGN BORN AMERICANS ADOPTED BY NATIONAL CONFERENCE

A National Conference of Defense Committees met in New York last weekend under sponsorship of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to discuss current program and problems in relation to the nationwide fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and defend its victims.

Participants included representatives from Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh and New York, as well as from the following national group communities:
Ukrainian, Russian, Greek, Hungarian, Finnish, Armenian, Lithuanian, Polish, Yugoslav.

4. A protest to the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee (Jenner Committee) for its action in subpoending Abner Green for appearance in Washington, D. C., on June 22nd.

The program adopted by the National Conference included the following points in outline:

- 1. A mass campaign for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law, especially as a part of the 1954 Congressional elections.
- 2. Defeat of the frame-up convictions of Knut Heikkinen, of Superior, Wisconsin, sentenced to serve ten years in jail at the age of 64, and Martin Karasek, of Bettendorf, Iowa, sentenced to a twenty-year suspended sentence for "wilful failure" to deport themselves.
- 3. Defeat the attack on the rights of naturalized American citizens, with special attention to the attempt to denaturalize the Hon. Stanley Nowak, former Michigan State Senator, whose denaturalization trial is scheduled to start in Detroit, on July 7th.
- 4. Defeat the deportation hysteria, with special attention to the cases of David Hyun, Korean-American of Los Angeles, Steve Tsermegas, Greek-American, of Chricago, and Nick Tsermegas. Greek-American of New York.
- 5. - 6. Condern the inhuman manner in which the Justice Department treats Mexican immigrants and defeat the mass deportation of Mexicans as a result of which more than 1,000,000 people were described to Mexico last year.
- 7. Fight to re-establish the Aterican right to beil in deportation proceedings and win freedom for eight non-citizens now held without bail in New York and Chicago.
- 8. Defend the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and defeat the Justice Department's attempt to illegalize the Committee because of its consistent and militant defense of the rights of foreign-born Americans.

REDEAL THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW

On August 3, 1953, thirty-two members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives introduced the Lehman-Celler Bill which would repeal the hated Walter-McCarran Law and enact a new immigration and naturalization law, Among its provisions, the Lehman-Celler Bill includes: that any naturalized citizen who has naturalization law. Among its provisions, the Lemman-Ceiler bill includes: that any naturalized citizen who has been an American citizen for ten years or more could not have citizenship revoked for any reason; that, if a non-citizen has lived in this country for 20 years or more, he could not be deported for any reason. It was the people's protests against the Walter-McCarran Law that resulted in the introduction of the Lehman-Ceiler Bill. people's profess against the water-weckeron law that resolved in the introduction of the terman-celler bill.

However, on September 24, "The New York Times" reported that a pact had been entered into by Congresslonal leaders to kill the Lehman-Celler Bill and prevent consideration of any changes in the Walter-McCarran Law when Congress reconvenes in January 1954. This conspiracy seeks to frustrate the people's determination to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. YOU CAN HELP. Join the fight to win public hearings for the Lehman-Celler Bill. Write to your Congressmen. Sign this Petition to Congress and get others to sign.

The Walter-McCarran Law is being used by the Justice Department to persecute and terrorize thousands of non-citizens and naturalized American citizens. The Attorney General has announced that the Justice Department is preparing to initiate 10,000 denaturalization proceedings and 12,000 deportation proceedings.

In addition, the Walter-McCarron Low Imposes police-state conditions of living on 14,000,000 foreign born Americans, It is a racist and discriminatory immigration law. it violates basic democratic principles and threatens to destroy the Bill of Rights for all Americans.

The Walter-McCarron Law has been condemned by the over-whelming majority of the American people. Following is a partial list of the organizations which have spoken out against the Walter-McCarran Law

A PETITION

We, the undersigned, respectfully call upon the United States Senate and House of Representatives to hold public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill, which would repeal the Walter-McCarran Law.

The announced intention of certain Congressional leaders to kill the Lehman-Celler Bill without public hearings violates basic democratic principles. Congress, as an agency responsible to the people, must provide the American people with an opportunity to be heard concerning the provisions of the Lehman-Celler Bill.

The growing interest and concern about our immigration and naturalization policies prompts us to circulate the enclosed pamphlet. It is a plea for a democratic and humane immigration and naturalization law to replace the present Walter-McCarran Law. It describes the main features of the Act and their harmful effects on our civil liberties and democratic traditions.

We trust it will be helpful to all those who feel as the author does that "it is surely time for the American people, through their representatives in Congress, to make fundamental changes in the law which controls the immigration, deportation and citizenship policies and practices of this nation."

TOWARDS REPEAL OF THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW .... we urge consideration of the following:

- In Congress support to pending legislation which calls for elimination of the racist immigration quota system, a statute of limitations on deportation and denaturalization proceedings, and other important modifications and revisions.
  - H.R. 501 introduced by Rep. Victor Anfuso of New York. In order to get this Bill onto the floor of the House, a discharge petition is now being circulated which requires the signatures of the majority of the House members.
  - S. 1206 The Lehman Bill now pending in the Senate.
  - In our State Legislature Senate Resolution No. 123 introduced by Messrs. Schmidt, Weiner, Weyler and DiSilverstro calls for "memorializing Congress to repeal the provisions of the McCarran-Walters Immigration Act" was referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations last April. We urge support by all legislators for adoption of this resolution.
  - In City Council Two years ago, the Philadelphia City Council passed a resolution calling for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act. We urge similar resolutions by Pittsburgh and other City and Borough Councils.

EISENHOWER RECOMMENDATIONS AND MORE ARE IN THE ANFUSO BILL

Pres. Eisenhower's proposals for revision of the Walter-McCarran Law recognize the racist character of the immigration provisions and recommend changes. But no recommendations were made to correct the police state measures directed against the limillion foreign-born Americans living here. Instead, Eisenhower proposed an additional abuse — an end to court review in deportation cases.

Over 40 bills have been introduced in the current session of Congress for revision of the present law. Many of them carry quota provisions similar to Eisenhower's proposals. Some of them, such as the Anfuso Bill, also provide for a statute of limitations on deportation and denaturalization, which would make it impossible to deport or take away the citizership of those who have lived here for many years. It would end the present practices of arrests without warrart and detention without bail. It would take the Immigration Service away from the Dept. of Justice and establish it as an independent agency.

Dear Congressmen:
most americans are opposed to the Walter Malarran Law.

Fourtien million foreign born americans are being deprived of their rights.

Won't you help repeal this law by signing the discharge petition to allow the Anguso Bill, H. R. 501, to come up for a note in the House.

Sincerely your,

Cong. Victor Anfuso of New York is trying to get this bill out of the House Judiciary Sub-Committee. But Cong. Francis E. Walter, author of the present law, is the Chairman of this Sub- Committee and has refused to release a single bill for debate and vote. Therefore, Cong. Anfuso is circulating a discharge petition, which, if signed by the majority of the House, will bring this Bill onto the floor for a vote. Letters and resolutions will help.

- Legislative Action -

Cong. Herman P. Eberharter introduced a bill on Feb. 9th in the House of Representatives for the relief of Gus Santes, 69-year old food worker and father of three, who has been ordered deported to Greece on the testimony of paid informers Mazzei and Stazer. If the Bill is acted on favorably, it will stop the deportation of Mr. Santes. If it remains in the Judiciary Committee, it will stay his deportation until the Bill automatically dies when Congress adjourns.

Penna. State Senators Jos. M. Barr and John H. Dent, in response to a letter from our Committee, expressed their support to Senate Resolution 123 which calls on the State Legislature to memorialize Congress to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law.

HE DUG #16 TONS# for LO YEARS - NOW FACES DEPORTATION

Joseph Tolsti, 67, of Wheeling, W. Va., had an opportunity to get counsel if a short delay were granted. In one invorked as a coal miner all his life and stance, only one day's delay was needed now lives on a pension he gets from the United Mine Workers Union. He was arrested on February 9, 1954 and held in Alle-gheny County Jail for three months becausa he didn't have $500 to post as bond. The charge against him is membership in the Communist Party at some time after he entered the United States.

On March 15 a rehearing, ordered by the Board of Immigration Appeals, will be held on his case at the Federal Building. This is the second time the Appeals Board has ordered a rehearing. In two previous hearings, Mr. Tolati was forced, without benefit of counsel, to take the stand, cross examine witnesses and defend himself. In both instances, Mr. Toleti short delay were granted. In one in-stance, only one day's delay was needed. But the Service refused.

In contrast to this indecent haste, the Service found it could wait more than a year to set the date for this rehearing ordered by the Appeals Board in December, 1954.

Continued efforts to deport Mr. Tolsti will only multiply the grave injustices and unfair punishment he has already suffered. We urge letters to Attorney-General Herbert Brownell in Washington. D. C., and to Charles Garfinkel, Officer in Charge of the local Immigration Service, Federal Building, Pittsburgh, to stop these deportation proceedings against Mr. Tolati.

JOSEPH MANKIN IS ILL

Joseph Mankin, well known rank-andfile trade unionist and fraternalist, is in the Allegheny General Hospital for observation following a severe illness. Joe, who spent most of his life in this country, was the first one in this area to face cancellation of his citizenship. Letters and cards can be addressed to him at the hospital, Room 607, North Side. Pittsburgh, Pa.

Supervisory Parole Relief Sought

The San Francisco Immigration Service Director has advised those on supervisory parole to report to the Service twice a year instead of every month. This applies to all those ordered deported who were unable to find a country to accept them.

Those on Supervisory Parole are requirod to submit to medical and paychiatric examination, to answer all questions concerning their activities, associations, habita, etc., and to stay within a 50-mile radius of their home These and other restrictions are in force for the rest of their lives.

All of the deportation defendants our Committee is assisting who are on supervisory parole would find the twice-ayear reporting a welcome relief. All of them are over 55, most of them are over 60. There is no reason why they should be subjected to the tension and policestate repression of monthly reporting.

Efforts are being made to have the local immigration office adopt the San-Franciso procedure. We urge letters to the District Director, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Philadelphia and to the local Officer in Charge, Federal Bl1, , Pittsburgh, calling for this change in the Pittsburgh area.

JOHN UPBAN - 6th WALTER-MCCARRAN VICTOR TO DIE

John Urban, 66, spent the last few years of his life as a deportation victim of the Walter-McCarran Law. All of his life, like millions of other foreign born Americans, ne worked in the basic industries, contributing to the wealth of our nation. He worked in the sugar refining industry and as a packinghouse and steelworker. John Urban was well known as a militant trade unionist. helping to organize trade unions whereever he worked.

John Urban came to the U.S. in 1906 to escape the oppression of his native country, Lithuania. After spending almost half a century here, working and raising a family, he was singled out as one of the first viotims of the Walter-McCarran Law.

Instead of persecution, Americans like John Urban should be honored for their contributions to the welfare of our nation. We are diagraced in the eyes of the world when our Justice Department uses an instrument like the Walter-McCarran Law to harrass and persecute old men and women as "dangerous aliens" because of their trade union and fraternal activities.

We mourn the untimely death of John Urban and those others who were harrageed to death in the last few years by the Immigration Service -

Constantine Dupeshko - Mike Dudash Stanley Spanovich - Morris Seder Nathaniel Wolfe

We pledge our continued efforts to end the persecution of the foreign born. In their name, we call for greater ef-forts to repeal the Walter-McCarran Lew in this session of Congress.

- An Editorial -

Necded: An End to Cong. Walter's One-Man Rule

Cong. Francis E. Walter has decreed that there shall be no changes in the immigration law which he wrote. As Chairman of the House Judiciary Sub-Committee on Immigration, he has arrogantly refused to permit a single bill for revision of the Walter-McCarran Law to be brought onto the floor of Congress for discussion or vote.

By such arbitrary action, he has turned a deaf ear to the overwhelming sentiment for ravision expreased by every section of American life. He even denounced Pres. Eisenhower's mild recommendations for change in the Act. Yet, no other piece of legislation has received as much public discussion and demand for action as the Walter-McCarren Law.

Walter's disregard and contempt for the will of the American people is also expressed in his derogatory references to various nationality groups. (See previous issues of "Newsletter") His contempt for judicial process is expressed by his abuse of his duties as Chairman of the Judiciary Subcommittee.

Can an issue that is so important to the welfare and security of the American people and to the dignity and honor of our nation remain the private plaything of one man?

It would be particularly appropriate for the people of Pennsylvania to protest against such un-American conduct by a representative from our State. It is time, too, that the Democratic Party on a national, state and local level repudiste Walter, who is seeking re-election in November.

Charles Soldo's Son Testifies

Pater Soldo testified before the SACB Board in Washington at a hearing involving the American Comm. for Protection of Foreign Born. He told the Board how the Western Penna. Committee helped his father, Charles Soldo, get counsel and other assistance in his deportation case.

He was asked by SACB counsel whether his father got a fair hearing. This question has been answered by the Appeals Board which ordered deportation proceedings in Soldo's case dropped because of the character of such hired professional informers as Cvetic, whose testimony was pure fantasy. Is a fair hearing possible when the Immigration Service uses such degenerate liars who in many cases never even met the defendant until they stepped into the hearing room.

Greatings to the Negro People

"As a nation we began by declaring that 'all men are created equal.' We now practically read it 'all men are created equal except Negroes.' When the Know Nothings get control, it will read 'all men are created equal except Negroes and foreigners and Catholics.'"

-- Abraham Lincoln, in a letter to Joshua F. Speed, Aug. 24, 1855

The Western Penna, Committee for Protection of Foreign Born greets the Negro people in their heroic struggle for first-class citizenship. In Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and elsewhere, their courageous fight for the right to vote, for desagregated schools and other elementary rights inspires the foreign born who also seek equality and an end to discrimination.

In support of this citizenship fight, we urge letters to your State Assembly-men to help get out of Committee and to vote for a resolution introduced by Mrs. Susis Micros to memorialize the Justice Dept. to apprehend and punish the murderers of young Emmett Till.

Birds of a Feather . . . .

Cong. Francis E. Walter will share the same platform with Joseph McCarthy on February 22 in New York City at a "patriotic rally" sponsored by "For America".

Alan McNeil Fights for Right To Defend Civil Liberties

On March 6, a hearing is scheduled before Federal Judge Marsh to determine whether McNeil must comply with Supervisory Parole conditions which interfere with his efforts to defend civil liberties.

Mr. McNeil is Secretary of the Commitet to End Sedition Laws which is seeking support to the Penna. Supreme Court's decision reversing Steve Nelson's conviction on sedition charges. The nature of McNeil's work requires him to meet with Mr. Nelson and other Communist leaders prosecuted under the Penna. Sedition Law.

The Pgh. Press, 2/26/56, undersoores the undemocratic and victous character of Supervisory Parole conditions under the "falter-McCarran Law, which prohibits association with Communists under penalty of imprisonment and fine. If McNeil refuses to sign this prole condition, he also can be thrown into Jail.

Mr. McNeil who was born in Minnesots 52 years ago was found deportable on the contention of the Immigration Service that he was born in India.

Dear Senator:

Senate Resolution, Serial No. 123, calls for "Memorializing Congress to Repeal the Provisions of the McCarran-Walters Immigration Act. It was introduced on April 18, 1955 by Messrs. Schmidt, Weiner, Seyler and DiSilvestro.

Because of the widespread interest in our immigration and naturalization policies, we are writing to all State Senators from Western Pennsylvania to urge their support in getting this Resolution out of the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations and in getting this Resolution adopted by the State Senate.

Please advise us as to whether or not you support this Resolution.

"A SHAME AND A DISGRACE..."

The record of the first two years of the Walter-McCarran Law is not a pretty one and the threat of still greater excesses is a serious danger to the liberties and welfare of the American people. Despite the clearly-voiced demand of the American people that the Law must be repealed or revised because of its racist, discriminatory and police-state character, the Justice Department continues to use this Law to harass and intumidate thousands of foreign-born Americans.

This inhuman treatment of good and honest people who have devoted their lives to this country is a shame and a disprace.

The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born is dedicated to the fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. At the same time, the Committee feels that, until such time as the Law is repealed, full support and assistance must be extended to all those victimized under the Law's provisions.

The Heikkinen and Karasek cases are on appeal before the U. S. Court of Appeals in Chicago; the Hyun case in the U. S. Court of Appeals in San Francisco; the Tsermegas cases in the Federal District Court in Chicago and New York; the Nowak case before the Federal District Court in Detroit: 12 Los Angeles deportation cases before the Federal District Court in the District of Columbia; a challenge of the constitutionality of Supervisory Parole conditions in 14 cases before the U. S. Court of Appeals in New York.

These are only some of the challenges of Walter-McCarran Law provisions that are being pressed in the Federal courts. Public support of these court challenges is essential if they are to be carried successfully. Greater public protest is essential also if the Walter-McCarran Law is to be repealed and a sane and decent immigration and naturalization law adopted for the United States.

YOU CAN HELP

- Communicate with your Congressmen to urge that they introduce legislation and work for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

TWO YEARS OF THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW

On June 26, 1952, Congress passed the Walter-McCarran Immigration and Naturalization Law over the President's veto.

President Truman, in vetoing the Law on June 25, stated that it would "intensify the repressive and inhumane aspects of our immigration procedures." In discussing the deportation provisions of the Law, the President declared, "To punish undefined 'activities' departs from traditional American insistence on established standards of guilt. To punish an undefined 'purpose' is thought control. These provisions are worse than the infamous Alien Act of 1798 . . . Such powers are inconsistent with our democratic ideals."

During October 1952, the President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization held public hearings on the Walter-McCarran Law, taking the testimony of some 600 witnesses in 11 cities across the country. The Commission reported that, "Comparatively few of the organizations and individuals appearing before the Commission were in favor of the Act of 1952."

The Commission stated, in its Conclusions:

"The immigration and nationality law embodies policies and principles that are unwise and injurious to the nation.

"It rests on an attitude of hostility and distrust against all aliens.

"It applies discrimination against human beings on account of national origin, race, creed, and color.

"It contains unnecessary and unreasonable restrictions and penalties against individuals."

'a shame and a disgrace"

These warnings are a stark reality in the daily lives of millions of Americans.

Since its enactment two years ago, the Walter-Mc-Carran Law has been condemned as racist, discriminatory, and police-state legislation. Thousands upon thousands of organizations and individuals have spoken out against this Law and demanded its revision or repeal.

Despite these clear expressions of the popular will, the Department of Justice persists in its efforts to legitimatize the police-state provisions of this hated Law.

Thousands of non-citizens and naturalized American citizens — and their American citizen families — are being hounded and persecuted by the Justice Department under Walter-McCarran Law provisions.

83-year-old man arrested for deportation . . . Mother of 8 children to be torn from her family . . . 64-year-old man sentenced to serve a 10-year jail sentence . . . Architect being deported to his death in South Korea . . 1,000,000 persons deported to Mexico in 1953 . . . 14-year-old left orphaned while mother and father are held without bail . . . Former legislator faces loss of American citizenship . . .

These are some of the Walter-McCarren Law outrages discussed in the inside pages of this brochure.

Report of Program Committee

Recommended adoption of a six point program:

I. Repeal of the Walter-McCerran Law. The publicity surrounding Edward Corsi has exposed to the American people the workings of the Walter-McCerran Law. As a result greater activity has been stimulated for drastic changes in the Law. The demand for public hearings on all pending legislation to revise or repeal the Law has increased considerably. Although there are only six weeks remaining before the adjournment of this session of the 84th Congress there are still possibilities to mobilize activity especially around the Discharge Petition on H.R. 501 introduced by Rep. Victor Anfusc, of New York. Communications should be directed to Congressmen to sign the Discharge Fetition. It was suggested that the COFFB issue a Petition directed to Congressmen on a Congressional basis unging them to sign the Discharge Petition; that the area defense committees assume responsibility of getting these petitions out in their communities and report progress of the petitions to the ACPFB; that the National Conference of the ACPFD in December develop a campaign for public hearings.

It was recommended that the ACTFB reissue material on the racist provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law and that a special pamphlet be issued on the treatment of West Indians in the United States; that the New York Committee assume the responsibility for the research.

- II. Removal of the Immigration and N-turalization Service from the Justice Department. The inhuaman treatment accorded immigrants and foreign-born Americans has been amply demonstrated. The recent militarization of the Immigration and Naturalization Service can only add to this outrage. The very character of the Justice Department as a police agency of government is such as to create suspicion against the foreign born. The recommendation is to initiate a campaign to remove the Immigration and Naturalization Service from the Justice Department. It is proposed that in addition to the postcards already issued by the ACPFB addressed to President Eisnhower, that an Open Letter be prepared on this subject by the ACPFB.
- III. Supervisory Parole. With the challenge of Supervisory Parole now before the U. S. Supreme Court, the ACFFB has the responsibility of initiating a campaign on a national basis in order to educate the people as to the nature of supervisory parole. Every defense committee is urged to initiated action. It is recommended that amicus curiae be prepared one, with the signatures of prominent Americans and, two, with the signatures of all those now on supervisory parole. It is also recommended that the month of September be designated as Supervisory Parole Month during which time affairs be held in every area around this issue and that financial assistance be given to the New York Committee which is carrying the full burden of the Supreme Court Appeal.
- IV. Deportation. It is recommended that national campaigns be conducted around the cases of Cedric Belfrage, David Hyun, Leon Callow and Claudia Jones; that special material be issued around these cases, as well as other deportation cases throughout the country.
- V. Denaturalization. None of the defense committees have developed any real campaigns around the issue of denaturalization, despite the fact that there is considerable public interest and that there are an increasing number of cases, some of which have already been lost. It was recommended that the ACFTB issue a pamphlet on denaturalization and that the campaign around denaturalization be intensified in every area.
- VI. Mexican deportations. There is need for more material on this issue. the Los Angeles Committee has assumed responsibility for preparing more material. An educational and research committee has been established in Los Engeles for this purpose.

Recommended that the National Conference of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born be held in Detroit on December 10 and 11, 1955.

Dear Friends:

We invite your organization to participate in the National Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend its Victims, which is to be held at Walsh's Hell, in Chicago, Illinois, on December 12 and 13, 1953.

This Netional Conference will give serious consideration to the fight for repeal of the Walter-McCerran Law, which has been made all the more possible by the introduction of the Lehman-Celler Bill under the sponsorship of 8 members of the U. S. Senate and 24 members of the House of Representatives. The Lehman-Celler Bill must be made one of the first items to be considered by Congress when it reconvenes in January 1954.

With more than 350 persons arrested in deportation proceedings or threatened with revocation of their American citizenship under the police-state provisions of the Walter-McCarran Lew, this National Conference takes on great signific-ance in the fight to preserve the liberties of the American people.

Your organization can cooperate by:

- 1) Sending delegates or observers to the Conference. (Registration Fee for each delegate or observer: $2.)
- 2) Sending a Greeting to the Souvenir Journal of the National Conference. (Greeting List and Contract Form, indicating rates, enclosed also.)
- 3) Voting a substantial contribution to help defray the great expenses of organizing this National Conference.

ERFFROM DOESN'T JUST HAPPEN...

I T was fought for, bled for, died for.

It was born in the struggle of men and women imbued with the ideal that

It grew ond was nurtured upon the spirit of Thomas Jefferson who said, "Resistance to treanny is obedience to God."

It received new life at the hands of the Great Emancipator.

It flowered in the fertile soil of Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal.

It had its mortal enemies at every step of the way but at every decisive battle they were beaten back.

BUT THINGS HAPPEN TO FREEDOM . . .

IN the four short years since the death of Franklin Roosevelt, strange things have happened to our liberties.

Negroes are lynched in Georgia for exercising their right to vote, shot down in the cities of New York, Chicago and Los Angeles, merely because they are Negroes.

The Mason-Dixon line now encircles our entire nation.

The entire leadership of the Communist Party, a legal political party, has been indicted for teaching the social science of Marxism.

Members of minority political parties are persecuted, jailed, harassed, intimidated and set upon by hoodlums.

Trade Unions are treated by law as conspiracies.

The blacklist, the injunction, the open shop are the order of the day.

The First, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments are a dead letter for millions of Americans.

SO THAT IT CAN'T HAPPEN HERE . . .

WE, the Americans of this generation, cannot and will not be lesser men than our forefathers in the fight for freedom.

The opening of the 81st Congress must signalize an offensive by the American people that will end forever "second class" citizenship for the Negro people, trade unions, Communists, Progressives, liberals and all other racial, religious and political minorities.

To launch this offensive, we, the signers of this call to ortion, men and women and youth of differing political faiths, of all religions, Negro and white, Jew and Gentile — Americans all —

Statement on the May 18th State Primary Elections

Rarely have the people of this state faced greater issues than in the May 18th primaries. The country is confronted with a growing depression, higher taxes, higher prices, and a continued atomic and H-Bond foreign policy. McCarthyism stalks our land. Labor faces Taft-Hartley attacks and layoffs. Farmers face bankruptcies. The Negro people face more repression. The Nationality people face deportations and attacks on their rights as citizens by the McCarran-Walter type of legislation. These and other issues confront the citizens of Pennsylvania in the primaries.

The Republican Party in Pennsylvania has been saddled by a notorious McCarthyite, antilabor crowd, headed by Roy Wood and Attorney General Truscott. Wood, Fine, Fulton, and Corbett are the open representatives of the Pews and the Mellons.

In the Democratic Party there is now going on a struggle between new dealers, middle of the roaders and anti-McCarthy democrats, headed by George Leader, the Democratic choice for Governor. The danger in the Democratic primaries is that the Musmanno stooge, McClelland, may cut down the plurality for Leader and weaken the Democratic party, thus paving the way for a victory of the Republicans in November. The Democratic chance of success in this state depends on the kind of program and candidates they put in the field and how energetically they fight McCarthyism.

The "wage tax" issue is being used by the McClelland and Musmanno forces as a false front to cover up their real purpose. They hope to split labor away from the anti-McCarthy Democratic candidates and thereby take over control of the Democratic Party state organization. We too, are opposed to the wage tax. Mayor Lawrence did much harm by imposing it on the people of Allegheny County. But a Musmanno profascist victory is a greater menace to the people than the wage tax itself. As long as democracy is safe we can fight to change the wage tax; but if democracy is destroyed, any efforts to make improvements for the common people will be delayed for a long time.

Thus while we are opposed to the wage tax and the Republican-engineered sales tax we feel that McCarthyism and an H-Bomb war, Taft-Hartley antilabor policies and the Walter-McCarran deportation mania are the greater menace, since they destroy the Bill of Rights and pave the way for fascism.

Dr. McClelland is making much use of the so-called wage-tax issue. But why doesn't Mr. McClelland condemn the Walter-McCarran Act, Taft-Hartley Act and other antiunion measures? Isn't it because he is tied up with Senator McCarthy, Congressman Walter, Senator McCarran, and others of their ilk? The Nationality people would like to know if Senator McClellan rejects the position of Congressman Walter that Italians and Slavs and other central Europeans do not make good Americans.

On the other hand State Senator George Leader, the Democratic choice, has condemned the Loyalty oaths (the Pechan Bill) and supported all prolabor measures in the State Assembly.

We Americans of various nationalities, through our work and sweat helped build America. We are concerned with its welfare. We take our duties of citizenship seriously. For that reason we have set up the Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania, a nonpartisan committee made up of people of varied political affiliations. The Committee calls upon all people to help defeat Musmanno's stooge, McClelland, in the May Democratic primaries and to work for the election of State Senator George Leader.

What You Can Do!

1. Speak to your Democratic leaders—ask them to campaign and speak out for George Leader. 2. Call meetings of your nationality groups immediately to discuss how best to defeat these enemies of the foreign born. 3. Urge your organizations to communicate with George Leader, pledging their support for a real people's program. 4. Help us get out more of these statements. Send a donation to the Nationality Committee of Western Penna., Box 10781, Pgh. 3, Pa.

Gentlemen:

Reference is made to your communication of August 8th, requesting to be furnished with a photostatic copy of the application for Post Office Box 10781, Pittsburgh 3, Pa. It was stated that the application in which your Committee was interested applies to the lessor of Box 10781 in the year 1954, and that same could have been executed in the name of the Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania and signed by either Joseph Rudiak or Joe Mankin.

I regret to advise that the application, Post Office Form  $1092\frac{1}{2}$ , which was completed at the time the box was originally assigned, is not now on file at our Carson Station (Zone 3), where the box is located. It is evident that this application had previously been destroyed with obsolete records. However, the records of payment for the box, which was rented in the name of the I.W.C. Policyholders Protective Committee showed the following:

- The box was originally rented on March 10, 1953 at which time payment was made for the rental for the balance of that month which completed the calendar quarter. Payment for the next quarter (April, May and June 1953) was made on March 30, 1953.
- The box was closed on July 1, 1953 for the reason that the rent for the quarter beginning that date had not been paid.
- On September 28, 1953 the box was rented for the last quarter (October, November and December 1953). On December 24, 1953 the rent was paid for the ensuing quarter (January, February and March 1954).

EXHIBIT No. 265B

- 4. The box was closed on April 1, 1954, as the rent had not been paid for the quarter beginning that date. However, on April 19, 1954 the rent was paid and the box was reopened for that quarter (April, May and June 1954).
- 5. The box was closed July 1, 1954 as the rent had not been paid for the quarter beginning that date. On August 2, 1954 the rent was paid and the box was reopened for that quarter (July, August and September 1954).
- 6. The box was closed on October 1, 1954 as the rent had not been paid for the quarter beginning that date, and this organization has not since rerented a post office box at our Carson Station.

Under present instructions applications for rental of post office boxes are required to be held for two years after the surrender of the box. As the box was finally closed on October 1, 1954, the application should have been retained two years from that date before being disposed of as obsolete records. From the foregoing it will be noted that the box was originally rented March 10, 1953 and was first closed July 1, 1953. It is considered possible that, at that time, the application was removed from the current records and placed with the records of boxes which had been surrendered. When the box was reassigned on payment of the rental, evidently this application was not again placed in the current records, which would account for it having been destroyed. Unfortunately it is not possible to verify this information, as the Assistant Superintendent of the Carson Station, who was charged with the handling of financial matters, died on June 22, 1956.

The employees now assigned to the Carson Station state that the only person they can recall as having received mail through the box and having made any payments for the box rental is Mr. Joseph Rudiak, whose residential address is 1908 Jane Street, Pittsburgh 3, Pa.

I regret that it is not possible to comply with your request.

Respectfully yours,

hanes C. Smith, PM

STATEMENT OF THE NATIONALITY COMMITTEE OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

In a move unprecedented in our history Congress has outlawed a political party. In an atmosphere of hysteria and confusion Democrats joined with Regulations to pass the anti-Communist, anti-labor bill fathered by Martin Dies, Jud e Musmanno. Senator Butler and other anti-labor, pro-fasoist forces.

This bill outlaws the Communist Party by depriving it of all legal rights accorded other political parties, and would license and undermine trade unions held to be "Communist infiltrated or influenced" by the Subversive Activities Control Board. It is an enabling act for the outlawing of any political party or organization which the administration in power decrees is "subversive."

Opposition to this bill has been mounting steadily. Such newspapers as the New York Times, Chicago Daily News and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, as well as such organizations as the American Civil Liberties Union and the Americans for Democratic Action have spoken out against this fascist bill. Many prominent individuals, including the editor of the Jewish Criterion, have voiced their opposition.

Our Constitution and Bill of hights were never in greater danger. Just as in Nazi Germany and fascist Italy, the labor movement is the main target. Any union, A.F. of L., C.I.O. or independent, seeking an anti-depression program or militantly fighting the grievances of the workers, can be accused of "parallel action" with the Communists. As Charles Hayes, District Diroctor of the C.I.O. Peokinghouse Workers in Chicago said, this bill would give employers "a free hand to blacklist and fire leaders and members of labor organizations."

The rights of all nationality people, already under severe attack by the Welter-McCarran Act, are in even greater danger under this new law. Any expression of opinion by any fraternal organization or individual against the Walter-McCarran Act or to improve their economic standards can be branded as "Communist front" activities.

Traditional liberal, pro-labor Congressmen were stampeded into support of this bill. This was their answer to the big lie of McCarthyism that the Roosevelt New Deal was "20 years of treason." To prove that they are tougher on Communists than the Republicans, and in the mistaken belief that this move was a vote-getter in November, the Democrats surrendered to McCarthyism. This surrender will not guarantee immunity for Democratic Party candidates against attack by the McCarthys. Neither will it win the votos of the millions of Americans who have rejected McCarthyism and indicated their desire to return to the personal security and freedom of thought of the Bill of Aights. As Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee expressed it: "This time it is the Communists. But maybe ten years from now Congress may decide it doesn't like some other group or political party."

This bill, together with other bills such as the "immunity bill", which soraps the Fifth Amendment, is a cover-up for the Eisenhower Administration's pro-depression, pro-war, pro-McCerthy progrem. President Eisenhower's mid-yeer economic report proclaimed the end of the recession and the soundness of our economy. The nationality people, concentrated in industries and communities hard hit by layoffs, will recognize this report for what it is -- a publicity build-up by the coverrment to influence the elections and undermine the efforts of the workers, farmers, the Negro people and small business men to obtain an anti-depression program. Instead of more jobs, we are given more war talk. Instead of more democracy, we are given more fascist legislation to go along with Walter-McCarran and Taft-Hartley. The people will not accept this as an answer to their problems.

We must utilize the election campaign to stop McCarthyism and for setting our country back on the road of the New Deal policies of Franklin D. Roosevelt. Pro-labor candidates must be returned to office; but they must be shown that to surrender to the "Communist conspirecy" hoax of McCarthyism is to pave the way for thoir own defeat. Those who sought to appease the Nazis of Hitler Germany by pointing the finger at "Communists" were themselves destroyed when they could no longer provide new viotims. The courageous stend of Senator Kefauver and Congressmen Arthur Multer ami Usher Burdick, the only Congressmen to vote against these bills, is the true expression of the feelings of the American people.

In view of the passage of this bill, the Nationality Picnic at Henoz Grove on August 29th assumes special significance. We have the opportunity to make the picnic a real demonstration against this McCarthyite hysteria and in defense of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. We urge you to make a special effort to guarantee a huge turnout. Bring your family and friends and urge others to do the same.

STATEMENT OF THE NATIONALITY CONSISTED OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA ON THE STATE AND FEDERAL ELECTIONS IN NOVEMBER, 1954.

The results of the May 18 primary elections indicate a new trend in Pennsylvania politics. The nomination of George Leader on the Democratic ticket gives the voters of Pennsylvania the opportunity to defeat the McCarthy Republicans headed by Wood and Truscott, and to stop the growth of McCarthyism in our State. This is the most important task facing us in the Fall elections.

In our statement on the May 18 primaries, we stated, "Rarely have the people of this State faced greater issues than in the May 18 primaries. The country is confronted with a growing depression, higher taxes, higher prices and a continued atomic and H-bomb foreign policy. McCarthyism stalks our land. Labor faces Taft-Hartley attacks and lay-offs. Farmers face bankruptcies. The Negro people face more repression. The Nationality people face deportation and attacks on their rights as citizens by the Walter-McCarran type of legislation. These and other issues confront the citizens of Pennsylvania in the primaries." These issues confront us oven more sharply in the November elections.

Not since the days of the Roosevelt New Deal have the voters of Pennsylvania had a better opportunity to elect a pro-labor, liberal administration than this year. But to make such a victory possible requires the maximum unity of all forces within the Democratic Party, regardless of differences in the primaries. Those anti-Musmenno voters who were misled on the wage tax issue by Dr. McClelland's candidacy, as well as those who supported George Leader, expressed their desire for a change in Pennsylvania politics.

A victory in our State over McCarthyism can be assured if the growing ranks of anti-Pew, anti-McElon, anti-McCarthy Republicans repudiate wood and Truscott and give their support to Leader, despite party affiliation. Such a victory is possible only if the Democratic Party rejects the McCarthyites Musmanno and Walter, and makes the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act, Taft-Hartley and other anti-labor legislation a part of its program. Such a bi-partisan rejection of McCarthyism, based on a program of economic security, jobs, civil liberties and peace will rally labor, the Negro people and the farmers, the small business men and the National groups. Such a bi-partisan coalition, based on a program of defense of our civil liberties, will help rid our State of the Pew-Grundy-Mellon anti-labor, anti-democratic administration in Harrisburg.

Of equal importance with the State elections are the Congressional elections this Fall. The new Congress must cope with such issues as peace, civil liberties, joba, social security, the repeal of the Walter-McCarran and Taft-Hartley Acts, and similar anti-democratic legislation. To accomplish this requires our sending to Congress such Representatives as Herman P. Eberharter, Very Buchanen, Thomas Morgan and Augustine Kelly. The defeat of Mati Cvetic in the May 18 Congressional primeries was a rejection of McCarthyism by the voters of the 28th Congressional district. Our contribution to the defeat of McCarthyism can best be expressed by turning out the greatest popular vote for those candidates who will steedfastly fight for the New Deal program.

Statement Presented to the Democratic Party Platform Committee on Behalf of the Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania

P. O. Box 10781, Pittsburgh 3, Pa.

August 16, 1954.

The Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania, in the interest of advancing the welfare of labor and the people generally, feels that the defeat of McCarthyism in the coming elections is of paramount importance. We feel that the Democratic Party can best rally the people for victory in November by advancing and campaigning for a prolabor peoples' program. The Nationality Committee therefore proposes for your consideration the following:

Repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act

1. This Act negates the principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence and the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution, placing not only 14,000,000 Americans of foreign birth, but all nationality people under the police-state provisions of the Act.

- 2. This Act deprives 3,000,000 noncitizens of all democratic rights, subjecting them to arrest without a warrant and denial of bail. It provides for deportation for exercising freedom of speech or belief, for finger-printing and registration. requiring all noncitizens to carry at all times their Alien Registration Card. The Walter-McCarran Act seeks to establish as a part of American life the hated Nazi principles of setting apart one section of the population as a scapegoat.
- 3. The provisions for denaturalization under this Act are completely unprecedented in the history of our country, containing serious threats to the rights of naturalized American citizens and thereby the rights of native-born citizens as well. For the first time in our history naturalized Americans are threatened with loss of citizenship for reasons other than "fraud" or "illegal procurement." The Walter-McCarray Act establishes second-class citizenship for the nationality people.
- 4. The Walter-McCarran Act is racist in character, asserting in effect that immigrants from southern and eastern Europe are not as desirable as those from northern Europe.

To rally support of all nationality people, the Democratic Party must make repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act one of the major planks of its program.

Repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act

People of every national origin, concentrated in the main in industries such as steel, coal, etc., have also felt the effects of the union-busting Taft-Hartley The weakening of unions through intimidation, injunctions, etc., through this Act makes it imperative that the law be repealed, and that the Wagner Act becomes again the basis for labor relations.

Special Session of Legislature

The nationality groups are especially hard hit by "creeping Hooverism," with unemployment in mill towns, coal fields and other communities mounting steadily. The Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania urges the Democratic Party go on record for a special session of the State Legislature, to consider the

1. Public-works projects in areas where private industry is unable to provide jobs.

2. Revision of the unemployment compensation law to provide for increased benefits.

3. A State FEPC with strong enforcement provisions.

We feel that a program along the lines of these proposals will bring out the "stay home vote," those voters who can be decisive in turning the Republican Administration out of office in November. Only a fighting program, which offers the people some hope for the future, can turn their apathy, as demonstrated by the light turnout in the primaries, into active support.

Respectfully submitted.

STATEMENT OF THE NATIONALITY COMMITTEE OF WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA

ON THE CASE OF ALLAN D. MONEIL

The attempt by the Immigration Department to deport Allan McNeil, District Representative for the United Electrical Workers, is a threat to the trade union movement and both foreign born and native American people of this district.

We, of the Nationality Committee, wholeheartedly support Mr. McNeil's refusal to sign the vicious anti-labor, un-democratic statement provided by the Walter-McCarran Act. This statement sets up the Immigration Department as the sole judge of which organizations he can participate in and the individuals with whom he can associate; it also requires anyone who signs it to become a stoolpigeon.

Allan McNeil faces this frameup because he has devoted his life to the fight for democracy, not only in our own country but also in Spain where he risked his life to fight for the democratically elected government against Franco, Hitler and Mussolini.

The use of the Walter-McCarran Act against Allan McNeil is an attempt of the McCarthy, McCarran forces to intimidate and gng the foreign-born population of Western Pennsylvania. A great number of foreign-born people have already been harrassed by letters from the Immigration Department and visits from their agents. In their eagerness to put into effect the Walter-McCarran Act, they have already caused the deaths of Michael Dudash and Constantine Dupeshka, hard working respected citizens of their communities. This attack means the forced separation of families, the weakening of the nationality organizations, and above all a blow at the trade union movement.

We call on all nationality organizations, trade unions and other organizations to support Allan McNeil by doing the following:

- Write Charles Garfinkel, Officer in Charge of the Immigration Department of Western Pennsylvania, 707 Federal Building, Pittsburgh 19, Pa., demanding an end to this frameup.
- Contact other organizations and individuals in your community to speak out against the persecution of Allan McNeil.
- Contribute financially to the Nationality Committee of Western Pennsylvania to help carry on the fight for Allan McNeil and other local victims of this un-American law. Send contributions to:

STATEMENT ISSUED TO THE PLATFORM COMMITTEE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF PENNSYLVANIA BY THE COMMITTEE FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE FOREIGN BORN, WRETTEN, DEMONSYLVANIA CHAPPER.

Today in Western Pennsylvania, over twenty-five people are facing deportation and denaturalization as a result of the Neticnal Immigration Act of 1952 which is more widely known as the Walter McCarran Act.

We are aware that today this Committee will deal with many questions affecting the lives of the peoplo. However, we request that special consideration be given to the repeal of the Walter-McGarran Act. In the words of Atterney General Brownell, these twenty-five are just a beginning -- 12,000 deportations and 10,000 donaturalizations is the premise of the Department of Justice to the foreign bern in this country.

In addition to deportation and denaturalization provisions, the Walter-MoCarron Law ereates legal fiffells for all foreign born by designating the simplest of violations as crimes. The distinctory defines "crimes" as "many outrage or great wrong. Failure to report current address during the menth of Jenuary is a crime. Failure to report a change of address is a crime. Failure to report a change of address is a crime. Failure to report a change of address is a crime. Failure to report a change of address an "outrage or great wrong?" An outrage against when? A great wrong to whem? No one is hurt, no one is hermed by the non-oitizens failure to have an alien registration cord on his person. But it is designated as a crime, and these crimes are traps set by the Justice Department to ensanger non-oitizens in court proceedings and frame-upes.

The Walter McCarran Act, with its deportations, denaturalizations, fines and imprisonments, has created a special intense McCarthytte atmosphere for the farcign born. It has created a fear in the foreign born community. Many of the foreign born are affected to participate in their trade unions or even to exercise their democratic right to perticipate actively in election compaigns. This fear is based upon the proceedings which have already begun against active trade unionists and others who built the industries of this state.

Charlos Soldo, now 65, is a rotired coal minor. Big Charley, as he is known throughout the coal mining community, has always been an active rank and file trade unionist. He has six sons; two faught in World War II and two are vetorans of the Korean War. Charloy Soldo who has given all of his energy to producing coal and whose sons have faught in wars for this country new faces the prospect of being term from his family and deported to a land which he left when he was little more than a child, Another exemple from Western Pennsylvania is the case of Anno and Stove Downich, naturalized citizens, who now face denaturalization proceedings. They came to this country from Canada as a young married couple to build a new life for themselves. Both are of Croe time beokground and were intersely interested in the struggles of others of their nationality who had come to this country and were facing the difficult problems of adjustments. Thus, they were very active in their national fraternal ergenizations, Now, under the Walter-Mocarran Act.

they face loss of citizenship. This is of significance not only to the Devuniehos but to all naturalized citizens. If citizenship can be taken away from the Devuniehos, is any naturalized citizen safe? In effect, the sweeping donaturalization provisions of the Waiter-McGarran Act places on the naturalized citizens forever the fear that if the efficials do not like his politics or his participation in his trade union, his citizenship can be taken away. In effect, it states that the foreign bern can never became full fledged citizens but must be placed in the category of second-class citizens.

There a re many reasons why the Pennsylvania State Democratic Party must include the repeal of the Walter-McCarren Act in their platform. Its repeal is necessary in order to restree and repair the democratic way of life which has been soriously imperilled by this form of McCarthyite logislation. Secondly, if the foreign bern are to participate in this clottien campaign, they will only be rellied to do so by a political Party which is actively protecting their rights as well as the rights of all of the American people. Cortainly, the wide-spread movement regiment this Act which includes the najor trade unions and nationality organizations shows the determinations of the people for repeal of this Act.

We therefore urgo that the Domecratic Party make the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act one of its main campaign ploages and that it work to replace this Act with a fair and domecratic Immigration and Naturalization Law.

Respectfully submitted,

We have celebrated a special event in Western Pennsylvania which we leef merits some attention, Joseph Rudiak our ASC president accently honeymooned at the Progressive Party convention with his wide the loriner Regima Bakowski of Pritsburgh. They were married the day before the convention opened and left for Philadelphia to begin not only their new file together, but to pun with thousands of progressive Americans in forming a new political party.

Mr. Rudiak, Jorine COO railroad workers staff representative, is viry active in both the Pennsylvania Progressive Porty and the American Slay Congress. Dear Sir:

We were recently advised by Lt. Arthur Baker of the Pittsburgh Police Department that he had read a newspaper article concerning hearings by a sub-committee at Youngstown, Ohio, wherein certain people questioned claimed that records pertinent to the inquiry were lost as a result of a fire at the Forbes Building in Pittsburgh, Penna.

Lt. Baker states that he was on duty at the fire and saw Steve Nelson removing the records from the building at the time of the fire. He stated further that information concerning this was turned over to Assistant Superintendent of Police Lawrence Maloney.

This information is transmitted to you for such use as you may deem appropriate.

Arms and the Men: Poland and the Western Front: A Military Expert Analyzes Battle Lines in Europe

A COMPARISON of the strength of the combatants in the European arena must include manpower, preparedness in material, morale, strategic position and line. The manpower of the British, French, Polish forces roughly approximates that of the Germans: about six million men in the field on each side with a slight advantage for the Allies. Undoubtedly the Germans are better prepared from the point of material. Their whole program has been centered on the development of their army. The advantage of morale among the population must lie with the Allies. Hitler's conquered nationalities at this time portend a grave danger for German inner unity. But even this factor will not be of decisive importance unless the Nazis suffer military defeats.

Hints that are emanating from British and French quarters regarding internal dissension in Germany should be cautiously accepted. The revolutionary forces within Germany will be active. But no one should be prematurely persuaded of immediate disintegration.

On the other hand, the vacillating tactics of Chamberlain and Daladier must have confused many workers in France and Britain. This would tend to weaken morale in both these countries. Popular confidence in government leadership has had to be bolstered by the inclusion of new members in the cabinets. The Poles are fighting for national independence. Although their large army is among the weakest, materially and technically, in Europe, they will undoubtedly give a good account of themselves.

Strategically Germany is blockaded by sea. Except for some of her ocean-going submarines, the bulk of her small naval forces are doomed to lie in their ports, targets for the Allies' aviation. On land, however, the situation is advantageous for Germany. The Limes Line is probably as strong as the Maginot Line in France. Even in a normal position military commanders estimate that the attacker requires a three-to-one preponderance of forces. On the Limes Line the British and French will in all probability require a considerable preponderance of forces. Hitler has without doubt about a million in the Limes front. Flanking attacks may be partially successful and partial infiltration may be made but the Limes defenses are organized to thirty miles in depth and can hold out for an indefinite period.

The time element here is of vital importance for Poland. Unless considerable German forces can be drawn to the west, Poland is doomed. The Allies' strategy should at once base itself upon this necessity. Hitler has met with considerable resistance. But his rate of advance has been rapid nevertheless. Barring certain episodes (for example, d'Esperey's advance in the Balkans during the First World War, the advance of the Red Army on Warsaw in 1920) it would appear that the Nazi forces have reached their objective on schedule. Should Hitler's forces occupy Poland within a few months he will undoubtedly be ready to discuss the terms of peace with the Allies. He will already have obtained what he wants. Italy's de facto neutrality should be suspect at this time. Huge supplies cannot reach Germany from anywhere but Italy, Hungary, and Rumania. From the Soviet Union Germany can receive only a very insignificant amount of supplies under the new trade agreement [See page 13] while Poland, on the other hand, is in a position to use the USSR as its chief external source of raw and war materials. Voroshilov indicated clearly that the Soviets are quite willing to sell to the Poles.

Air bombardment without correlation with ground troops cannot win a war. Germany knows this, hence she has concentrated her air attack upon Poland in conjunction with her troop movements. Britain and France may seriously disturb the German people by air attacks, but they will not defeat Hitler that way. And as long as Italy, Hungary, and Rumania sell him materials which they themselves can import, possibilities of starving him out are lessened. His strategic position is strong although it-centains within itself the seed of ultimate defeat. In the meanwhile a few German long-range submarines can make British shipping uncomfortable. Submarine bases no doubt already exist along the Spanish coast, the Canary Islands, Rio del Oro, and in South America.

In one respect Hitler's tactics for the whole phase of the war are questionable and are probably responsible for the fact that his motorized divisions have not made more rapid progress. The advance of the German army was too widely dispersed in its initial phases. In other words, Hitler's General Staff disregarded the Blitzkrieg for the much more conservative plan of feeling out the weak spots on a wide front. Had Hitler centered very powerful columns on three points-for example, Pomerania, Upper Silesia, and Slovakia-and driven forward on concentric lines toward Lodg, his progress would have been much more rapid. In all probability he would have cut off and surrounded large bodies of the Polish army which could hardly have outdistanced his motorized columns. The main objective of the East Prussian drive with aid from Pomerania could have been the Corridor. This failure may cost him dearly in the time factor. It will undoubtedly cost him a great deal more in material and casualties.

DEFEND LABOR! DEFEND UE! DEFEND MC NEIL!

The growing attack upon the entire labor movement has made many of us aware that the bosses who tried to stop the organization of the mass production industries have not given up the idea of doing away with unions entirely. The bitter fights by the miners, the steelworkers, many AFL unions and UE for wages, hours and working conditions during the past months were evidence of the plans to destroy labor. At a time when labor needed unity as never before, there were labor leaders helping the bosses by advocating and inciting raids and union busting.

Certain unions were picked to be guinea pigs by the government agencies under the Taft-Hartley Act, the Smith Act and the McCarran-Walters Act. Threats were made to de-certify CIO and independent unions; fines were levied against the Mine workers and the Longshore unions; individual leaders and members of the Packinghouse-CIO, Woodworkers-CIO, Steel-CIO, Auto-CIO as well as independent unions like American Communications, Fur, Office and Public Workers, Mine, Mill and UE were by one means or another smeared, red baited and harrassed.

Recent threats of the National Labor Relations Board to de-vertify UE and other Unions, although all were in compliance with Taft-Hartley, clearly indicates the beginning of a new technique for destroying labor unions wholesale. The fishing expeditions by U.S. Attorneys and grand juries supposedly investigating the truth of non-Communist affidavits is another sample of the attempt to disrupt unions. We ask you to tear out the slip on the back page addressed to Chairman Paul Herzog of the National Labor Relations Board. Sign it and mail it to him. The action of the Federal Courts in permanently stopping the NLRB's game must get your support. Regardless of your union affiliation, we urge you to join us in this defense of UE and your own union!

'The men who wrote the Bill of Rights said straight out that there shall be no restriction of the right of the people peaceably to assemble. They did not grant to self-appointed vigilantes the right to harry and assault those who gather to espouse unpopular causes......

STOP THE ATTACKERS

The giant steel, electrical, auto and coal trusts have but one objective in mind: that is to smash the American labor movement and substitute company unionism. Company instigated strikes, scab herding use of police to smash picket lines, Taft-Hartley injunctions and fines, all failed and the labor movement remained strong. Union strength resulted in higher wages and better working conditions.

Then the giant corporations, using their stooges within the labor unions, split the labor movement. Although they achieved some success by this, big business still did not bust the labor movement.

Their attack then turned on individual leaders of a few of the most militant unions with cries of 'reds' 'subversives' 'enemy agents'. They hoped to turn the members of these unions away from their struggle for wages and working conditions. Again, the trusts failed.

In their drive for super profits and toward fascism and war, the giant corporations established themselves in all key posts of government. So it is now that government agencies are the tools big business now uses. The list of union members attacked grows daily. No unions are missed: Kerley Larsen, Woodworkers-CIO; Bill Sentner, UE; Valentino, Packinghouse-CIO; Matles, UE; Travis, Mine, Mill; Emspak, UE; Bridges, ILWU; Tom Quinn, UE and many others from many unions are attacked.

EXHIBIT No. 276C

McNEIL OF UE

The record of UE in our District as a fighting militant union is known and hated by the corporations. The struggle for labor unity and solidarity in the Pittsburgh area has found UE in the forefront. Every struggle of miners and steel workers has been actively supported by UE in terms of food, money and help. Closely identified with all these activities has been Allan McNeil, UE District Representative.

McNeil has been the chief negotiator for dozens of UE local unions in Western Pennsylvania for the past ten years. His record of service to the labor movement is an outstanding one. Earlier as an organizer for the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, he brought the message of unionism to metal miners in Birmingham Ala., and in states all over this country. He was a fighter against Franco fascism in Spain along with 3500 other Americans, the majority of whom gave their lives for democracy in that fight.

The bosses drive against militant labor leaders became specific for McNeil. In a company which had long been troublesome, the threat was made a year ago that the UE local in the plant would get an 'unpleasant surprise' in the next negotiations. The beginning of those negotiations, October 15, 1952, was the date of McNeil's arrest as an 'alien'. All the companies UE deals with and with whom McNeil normally negotiated applauded.

Allan McNeil was born in Mankato, Minnesota on October 25, 1903. He did spend time abroad as a child with his family. He did serve in the United States Army for over ten years with a splendid record. He did organize and negotiate contracts in many states. It is because of this splendid record that Brother McNeil is added to the list of those labor leaders under attack by the big business 'government agencies'.

These desperate attacks of the corporations on the labor movement will fail as the entire labor movement with unity as their banner will rise up to resist.

Add your voice to the swelling protest by filling out the form printed below urging this latest attack on the labor movement through Allan McNeil be stopped.

As an individual trade unionist or with the support of your local union, we urge you to contribute for legal fees and other expenses to the defense of Allan McNeil. Send your contribution to the Committee to 'Congress operates on the principle of perpetual jeopardy. No matter how often a man may have been investigated and cleared by its committees...he can always be hauled up before some other committee and compelled to go through it all over again. Anyone who expects a fair investigation from any of these three chairman (McCarthy, Jenner and Velde) is living in a dream world...What we can expect is a parade of discharged employees, divorced wives, people who didn't get the job--all backed up, of course, by the professional former Communists.'

'The real explanation of this threat to American traditions of freedom is in the ruthless exploitation of the Communist scare by politicians who know that fear is a potent force...

'The ultimate aim of most of these congressional inquisitions is to confuse and divide the American people. '(The Walter-McCarran Law) rests upon an attitude of hostility and distrust against

President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization

EXHIBIT No. 277C

They Threaten 40 Million People

The Walter-McCarran Act has only just begun to function and already U. S. Attorney General Brownell brags that hundreds of thousands are being made ready for concentration camps. But even he does not tell the whole story. Actually this vicious law threatens 40,000,000 native and foreign born Americans. Thousands of resident aliens are in the first line of fire; hundreds of them have already been arrested and persecuted. Hundreds of thousands of naturalized citizens are next in line; hundreds of these naturalized Americans have already been investigated and threatened with loss of citizenship. Millions of nativeborn children of the aliens and the naturalized citizens are also affected by these procedures. Nor are native citizen Americans immune from frameups. Thousands of native-born citizens who may have trouble proving their birth dates and places, because it has only been in recent years that adequate records were kept, are also threatened.

As pointed out in the Army's Orientation Fact Sheet 64, dated March 24, 1945, "They (the fascists) maintain themselves in power by use of force combined with propaganda based on primitive ideas of 'blood' and 'race,' by skillful manipulation of fear and hate, and by false promises of security." Yes indeed, the Walter-McCarran Act does precisely that. "By use of force" it speeds along the "skillful use of fear and hate" and develops the "propaganda based on primitive ideas of 'blood and race." This is the sort of thing the Army warned soldiers of during the Second World War and yet today, 8 years later, we find it an abhorrent part of the law of the land.

Have you forgotten-

Charlie Doyle of the Rubber Workers-CIO is being deported?

Gonzalez of the Packinghouse Workers-ClO died the day after being forcibly deported to Tampico, Mexico?

Harry Bridges of the ILWU?

Weinstock of the Fur and Leather Workers or Karley Larsen of the Woodworkers-CIO or Matles and Lustig and Sentner of UE? Or have you forgotten the deportation of Ferdinand Smith of the NMU-CIO? Or that of Harisiades of the Restaurant Workers-AFL? Or the attack upon Hugh Bryson of the Marine Cooks and Stewards? Or the deportation proceedings upon Stanley Novak of the Auto Workers-CIO? Or don't we know about Joe Dumas of the Mine Workers in Charleston, W. Va. or Vince Kamenevich of the Steelworkers-CIO, Pittsburgh or Leon Callow of the Steelworkers-CIO in Niles, Ohio? All of these have had "force" used against them in arrests and jailing. All of them are good trade unionists. Nor should we forget the "force" used against Mine Workers in Clearfield, Pa., or in West Virginia recently. Nor can we lay aside the constant attacks upon our Negro brothers which have never stopped. It is all a part of this picture.

WHAT DO THEY WANT WITH MC NEIL?

Allan McNeil is the District Representative of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America. He was also one of the leaders of the American XVth Brigade in Spain where he fought against fascism. After these many years, the Immigration Service, using the vicious Walter-McCarran Act, suddenly charged McNeil with being an alien and a Communist. Now McNeil was born in Mankato, Minnesota, where somewhat ineffective records were kept back in 1903 when McNeil was born. So on the basis of flimsy evidence of a hearsay character by an ex-wife of twenty-seven years prior and the lies of a list of six stoolpigeons. McNeil is suddenly found to be a dangerous alien who must be deported forthwith to Scotland. But since he has proof that he was not born in Scotland, the problem arises; was McNeil born? What are they to do with him? Or is the object just to seize people like McNeil, who are trade-union leaders and long-time anti-Fascists, and hold them in jail or concentration camps?

Once again we refer to the Army's Orientation Fact Sheet to set us straight. It says, "If we permit discrimination, prejudice or hate to rob anyone of his democratic rights, our own freedom and all democracy is threatened. In other words if the things that are being done and are threatened by the Walter-McCarran Act are not stopped forthwith, every American, native and foreign born, regardless of sex, race, color, creed, or political belief has already lost his freedom, too.

Ехният Хо. 277D

Is it not enough that trade unionists are persecuted? Or do we have to wait until some more Mike Dudashs die from persecution? Or some more Constantine Dupeshkas commit suicide after being hounded? Or do we think that some unions will be attacked and others left alone? If we do think these things, we need to stop and look around us. Members and leaders, Negro and white, native and foreign born are under attack in every union.

WHAT SHOULD THE UNIONS DO?

The first step in beating off all vicious laws is trade-union unity. To fight well, we must be united. We have only one opponent—that is the boss. Nor does it make much difference when the boss puts aside his suit jacket and puts on the striped pants and the swallowtails of a diplomat—be still is the boss. Charlie Wilson of General Motors did not stop being a boss when he 'sold' his stock in GM and became head of the Eisenhower Administration's Defense Department; he did not stop thinking in terms of what he could squeeze from the workers. Why should we expect these bosses in striped pants and swallow-tail coats to stop frameups against labor? Why shouldn't we expect them to continue stuffing Taft-Hartley, Walter-McCarran, Smith Act, McCarran Act, Rhodes-Goldwater Bill viciousness down our throats? If we let them.

The only way to stop all this—is unite. The only way to defeat and wipe out these vicious laws—is unite. The only way to defend union members and leaders under attack—is unite. Talk comes cheap from guys who are not yet attacked. The proof of whether they understand how dangerous the situation is for themselves is whether they unite to beat off these attacks. Nor will redbaiting other unionists help. For that is the dirty job the stoolpigeons of McCarran and McCarthy, Jenner and Velde do. No decent trade unionist can allow himself to join in that kind of game. To do so strengthens McCarthyism. It makes the Walter-McCarran Act stronger so that it can hurt all trade unionists even more. Can we beat them? Sure we can. Harry Bridges just did. But after 14 years of attack, it took the united support of his own union plus the support of 90 percent of West Coast labor.

These are the facts of life. What we need is unity to chauge the situation, to defeat Walter-McCarran, Taft-Hartley, Smith Act, to stop the persecution and arrest of decent people. We should ask these bloodhounds of the Justice Department why they don't arrest a few Nazis, Fascists, Klu Kluxers. We should ask them why they don't make the bosses who are so strong for Taft-Hartley toe the line on union busting and scab herding.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

Every trade unionist should actively talk over these questions with his buddies. Every trade unionist should demand that his local and his international union take a stand against these vicious laws.

Every trade unionist should come to the support of any other union or trade unionist under attack as a result of these laws.

Every trade unionist should himself raise within his local a protest against the frameup against Allan McNeil.

BEWARE OF ALL STOOLPIGEONS

Dear Allan:

Well, the encampment and Commemoration are over. What stood out for both was the larger number of our guys who turned out for both. More than we have seen at one time together since I've been in the office. Even more than participated in the fight around Steve.

And the guys really pitched in. Not only ideas - and good ones - but agreement to particppate actively in our activities. "ill try to give you a picture of the convention in the next Volunteer.

The point you make of giving more of what the finks say and analysis of why they soured - or to put it another way to give more ammunition to our own guys concerning what is happening in wash. - is well made. Made at the encampment as well and we'll try to do it in the next report on what is happening in the hearings.

Gladnick already appeared on the scene last week and was the last witness before the recess till June 7th. "e used some of the material he had testified too at your hearing and have only now - a little late - become aware that there may be some trouble on that since it seems you are not supposed to use material from immigration hearings someone told us. "e are checking further - but am aftaid the milk has been spilt since Milt(who won the right to cross-examine) indicated the material was from those hearings. "ill let you know if anything develops on this here - but fear it may be used against your attorney in Pitts. Let me know if anything develops.

So far, every stoolie down there has tied your name into the picture. Harvey, Mickenberg and Gladnick have you on a commission on the 5th floor with Fred Prown and Paul Grosby and some others which okays recruits for Spain. They have you as second in command to Parris in short order dill in a downtown hall - and then place you at the front in Jarama. Interesting that with all the ground they have to cover - they do not single you out for special attention - that is, no more than others. Thought sure that Gladnick would do so - but no. Ed Palega or Horan - has you at the training camp in Tarrazona.

But you'll get more on this in the next Vol. also - I hope. "e've got so much ground to cover and so much to do that the pace is truly hectic around here.

Head a part of your message to the guys. The spritit was truly wonderful - and more the participation not only in discussion but the volunteering to do work. Will make many more things possible - if we don't run out of gas via the money aspects of the campaign which is the major danger at the moment with plans to collect dough - but it better happen fast.

"hat the heck are you doing for a living? Don't know if it will help any - but they just broke through in N.Y. with some kind of legal hokus-pokus whereby relix and the others do not have to report to filis Island or Imm. authorities at all for the tie being. ### DRAFT

My Dear Friends:

A year has passed since my third hearing by the Immigration Service on charges of being a "subversive alien." During those previous hearings a number of informers, amateur and professional, were produced at great expense to the Government to swear under oath that I was a dangerous character, that I had always fought for democracy and trade-union rights, and that I had been born in Scotland, India, Australia. The stoolies used by the Immigration Service were: Paul Crouch of Washington, now under investigation for perjury by the Justice Department: Mrs. Ann Richardson, my exwife of twenty-eight years ago brought to Pittsburgh from Winnipeg, Canada; Gladnick, organizer in Cleveland for the Garment Workers-AFL: John Butler, KKK-er and expelled officer of Mine, Mill & Smelter Workers from Birmingham, Ala.; Harris, anti-Communist specialist for the American Legion in Indianapolis, Ind.; Richard McClelland, organizer for the IUE-CIO from Erie, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Mazzei of Pittsburgh and local infamy as peculiar characters of local infamy; and attorney Harry Allan Sherman, notorious in Pittsburgh for his use of red-baiting as a source of milking funds from unions or individuals.

For a year I have had to report by order of Federal Judge Marsh to the Immigration parole officials every Tuesday and Thursday, when even the worst criminals are never required to report more than once a month. This form of harassment has finally cost me my job and made it practically impossible to obtain other employment. At long last a fourth reopening of my case has been set for hearing on June 24, 1954. There can be little doubt that (a) an attempt will be made at this time to button up all the loose holes in the Immigration Service's case to complete the frame, and (b) that we may expect anything at all, including the sudden production of more professional liars to earn another dirty thirty pieces of silver. Nor should we be surprised if an effort is made to use all these falsehoods, prior and present, for the purpose of pursuing my harassment under other McCarthy-like legislation.

You have supported me before. You know my record in the fight for trademion benefits and unity; my constant struggle for liberal and progressive laws is personally known to many; my fight for the rights of the Negro people and all minorities is well known; my opposition to racism, fascism, war, and McCarthyism is a fact. It is because of this record in support of the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and democracy that I am again under attack. I ask that you support me again. I ask that you again send protests to the Immigration Service to call off this senseless and vicious attack. Again the expense of this fight have to be borne by me and the Committee supporting me. Will you please contribute generously toward my fight for our freedom, yours and mine?

STATEMENT IN THE MCNEIL CASE

After a lapse of a year, from July 1953, to June 1954, Allan McNeil was suddenly ordered by the Immigration Service to present himself for a fourth hearing on the deportation proceedings against him. At these hearings the Government introduced three documents alleging to be sworn statements taken by a consular officer in India. One was a statement by an alleged aunt, later withdrawn by the Government as obviously weak and full of hearsay; the second was a statement by an officer of the Indian Government to the effect that data in their possession indicated McNeil's birth in India; the third a baptismal certificate.

At this hearing the introduction of these documents were protested. Upon their admission for identification only McNeil's attorney requested and obtained thirty days time in which to file questions to substantiate their genuine character and validity. This questionnaire would have had to be submitted through State Department consular channels.

Suddenly McNeil was recalled to another hearing a week later. At this time the Special Hearing officer completely reversed himself. At his suggestion one document offered by the Government was withdrawn. But no interrogatories of the other two were to be permitted. Motions to subpoen at the records of the US Army, the Immigration Service and any other pertinent material were denied in rapid succession. McNeil was again asked to take the stand under oath to answer some questions. For the same reasons as previously effered, i. e., McNeil did not intend to be used for the purpose of a witch hunt against other people with the alternative of being cited for contempt if he refuses to answer, McNeil's attorney refused. Despite that the Hearing Officer proceeded to ask questions of McNeil which remainder unanswered.

On July 6 a story appeared in the Pittsburgh papers, stating that the Special Hearing Officer had found McNeil to be deportable as an alien. No such decision had yet reached McNeil or his attorney at the time this story appeared. But even more curious is the haste with which the entire procedure was conducted. The fourth hearing occurred on June 23, the next hearing on June 30, a holiday week-end intervenes yet the decision was handed to the newspapers on July 6. This spectacular speed plus the refusal to investigate the documentation upon which the final procedure was completed raises a strange aroma. Why the sudden and unseemly haste?

THE REASON FOR THE ATTACK ON MC NEIL

The reason for the original attack upon McNeil is based upon his long record of a struggle for democratic rights both within the ranks of the International Brigade in Spain and within the ranks of the trade-union movement in the United States. One of the curious facts in this entire situation is the non-recognition of McNeil's excellent United States Army record which was never alluded to by the Government at any time. But to the prosecution the main consideration seemed to be that McNeil was an anti-Fascist, he fought against Franco and that he had organized workers in many states of the United States into good unions and had obtained many benefits for them as a result of such struggles.

Can it be possible that the reason for this unseemly haste to imprison or frame McNeil into deportation is in any way related to the deteriorating economic conditions within the United States? Can it be that people with such tenacious records of fighting for democracy and F. D. R.'s "four freedoms" is a menace to those who care nothing for the welfare of the American worker? Can it be that this type of McCarthyite attack is what is intended for every American with the courage to speak up by using the new "Brownell package" of legislation pending before Congress? Do they intend it for you next?

SOME BACKGROUND IN THE CASE

McNeil was originally arrested on October 15, 1952, immediately prior to a series of important negotiations he and a number of union committees were to begin with companies in Western Pennsylvania. He was released on an unusually high bond of $5,000. No action was taken until the spring of 1953 at which time a series of three hearings were held. In these hearings a contemptible crew of stoolies appeared for the Government and testified that they all knew McNeil well, that he was a "red," that he had contended according to some that he was born in Scotland, to others that he had been born in India, to others that he had been born in Australia. The facts are that this crew of degenerates were traitors of the Spanish fight against Franco or trade-union pariahs or of the questionable veracity of people like Paul Crouch. A number of them had never spoken to McNeil nor been spoken to by him at any time.

As a result of all this filth and now accepted hearsay and misrepresentation by Government witnesses a red-baiting campaign in some local unions which McNeil represented led to just what the original charge intended—a weakening of the union by raids. That ghastly lies grew out of the original stoolies' testimony is a fact. That all this was done with the purpose of injuring the solidarity of the workers became obvious as the gains they could have made were discarded along with the growth of hysteria created by this McCarthylte villification.

The Government's case was weak. Although McNeil had been promised a decision thirty days after the July, 1953, hearing, no decision was handed down at that time. Instead McNeil was suddenly presented with a purported "parole" bond. In this document he was requested to report to an immigration official all his contacts, who he associated with and all about them; he was further to agree to disassociate himself from anyone he knew or might think were radicals. McNeil refused to sign such a document. He refused to become a stool pigeon for anyone. He was immediately arrested and detained in the Allegheney County jail until a cash bail bond could be posted under a Federal Court order. This order frees McNeil until such time that a final determination is reached in this case. At the same time for a year McNeil has been required to report like the basest criminal every Tuesday and Thursday to the immigration Service.

As a substantial result of all this harassment McNeil has suffered serious personal insult and economic damage. It has resulted in the loss of his employment, the inability to obtain new employment, hardship and expense in the very fact of frequent reporting downtown and the annoyances of inaccurate and highly colored publicity.

Committee To End Sedition Laws

Room 212, Forbes Building, Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

NOVEMBER 19, 1954.

DEAR BROTHERS: This is sent you to bring to your attention afresh a report issued by the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor. During the past year the dormant "sedition" law in this state has been used to impose twenty-year sentences upon two men with another pending. The State Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, however, nullified the decision of the lower court and at the same time the sedition law itself.

State Attorney General Truscott of Pennsylvania then petitioned the U. S. Supreme Court to review this decision. He succeeded in getting twenty-seven other states' attorney generals to join him in amicus briefs before the high Court. These states are: Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kansas, Lonisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, Maine, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Michigan, Montana, Nebraska, New York, Ohio, Washington, Wisconsin, and Illinois. It is of interest that Truscott was soundly defeated for Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania in the last election although he campaigned on this issue. The organized labor movement played a major role in his defeat.

It has been noted that over forty states now have sedition laws on their books. Of these some seventeen also have right-to-work laws which affect the union shop contracts of innumerable unions in those states; other states have such bills pending. A number of states also have antipicketing laws.

The attached quotation from the Report of the American Federation of Labor's Executive Council, September 30, 1954, indicates the dangers to labor in the action of Representative Smith (D., Va.) and Senator Jenner (Rep., Ind.) in presenting bills in the House and Senate to validate all such state repressive legislation. Nor, the AFL Council makes clear, is this danger removed. It may very well recur in the 84th Congress.

This Committee exists for the main purpose of assisting in the fight against these sedition laws and fully supports the position of the Executive Council of the AFL. We want to bring the warning of the danger to circles within and beyond the ranks of labor. Inseparable from this activity is the defense of the three men, Steve Nelson, Jim Dolsen, and Andrew Onda, again threatened by the possibility of a reversal of the Pennsylvania's Supreme Court decision.

The suggestion has been offered that, since the Nelson case has willy-nilly become the focal point of decision on such state legislation, protests by organizations within those states which joined in the Truscott amicus briefs to the U. S. Supreme Court might be an effective method of offsetting the pressures placed upon that high court by twenty-eight states' rights attorney generals. The purpose of such protest would be to get withdrawal of these states from support of the Truscott petition. This is especially so in view of the change in the political picture as a result of the elections November 2.

We will be glad to supply any further information we possess. Would it be possible for you to send us any resolutions or newspaper material which results from actions in this matter taken by your organization or its affiliates?

Fraternally yours,

ALLAN D. McNeil, Secretary.

Room 212, Forbes Building, Pittsburgh 13, Pa.

Report of the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor, September 30, 1954, From page 169

"STATES RIGHTS" SLEEPER

An attempt was made in the House to slip through a bill, H. R. 8211 (Smith, Virginia) which would have made all State laws affecting labor which are more stringent than the Federal Laws take precedence over Federal legislation. The bill was introduced ostensibly to validate the Pennsylvania Anti-Sedition Law which had been invalidated by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in the case of the Commonwealth v. Nelson on the grounds that Federal antisedition legislation preempted the field. Close examination showed the bill would also validate various State antipicketing laws which have been thrown out in the Garner case. Conversely there is also reason to believe it might imperil the union-shop amendments to the Railway Labor Act. The House Judiciary Committee held a quick hearing on the bill about 1 week after it was introduced, but after we lodged a protest against the bill no further action was taken.

but after we lodged a protest against the bill no further action was taken.

An identical bill S. 3745 (Jenner, Indiana) was introduced in the Senate during the closing weeks of the session. It is probable a similar effort will be made in the next Congress. Should such legislation become law there is a real danger that bad State Labor legislation of various descriptions would supersede favorable Federal legislation. (See Report on Taft-Hartley Law under Federal Legislation.)

Dear Sir and Brother:

This is in reference to your letter of May 11 and the subsequent letter which we received from Brother Allan McNeil, dealing with his arrest by the Immigration Service.

The Executive Board of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union in its meeting held in San Francisco on June 22 and 23, voted to protest to the Immigration Service this action against Brother McNeil.

Unfortunately, in view of the attacks against the ILWU and its membership, our own position is such today that we can not make a financial contribution.

You have our strong support in this fight against the Immigration Service which has become a leading anti-union organization in America. I am enclosing copy of a letter which I have sent to Mr. Charles Garfinkel today.

Fraternally yours,

Louis Goldblatt Secretary-Treasurer

NEW YORK WAR

want to turn the clock back

ITTSBURGHERS READ in their newspapers on March 17 that a Congressional investigation was scheduled for their city on March 23.

Many reading the headlines wondered: Which one now?

It was a logical question. It could be Senator McCarthy, the most publicized investigator of all. It could be Senator McCartan or Congressman Velde, of the un-American Committee. It might even be Senator Jenner or Senator Taft, out to plan new restrictions on the rights of organized labor. Then again, it could be a grand jury probe—or some new case under the Walter-McCarran Act, which has decreed second class citizenship for 14 million Americans.

Others wondered who now? Another logical question. Was some trade unionist who fights vigorously for his members to be called . . . or an educator, or teacher who had spoken out for more schools and scholastic freedom . . . or some churchman who was an outstanding spokesman for peace . . . or a naturalized citizen who protested the inroads on America's traditional civil liberties?

It's the tragedy of America these days that such a headline could be read in any city and such questions could result.

The forces of great wealth, the giant corporations of our country, who are firmly entrenched in the seat of government in Washington today, are bell-bent on turning the clock back . . . back to the way things were before there was a Franklin D. Roosevelt in Washington.

And to those who resist the wholesale invasion of the economic well-being of the people—the swollen prices, taxes, rents and narrowing of the rights of labor that has resulted in profits double that of World War II—the forces of wealth want to quash and still these voices of protest, of resistance, of struggle.

There was a time, not too many years ago, when investigations meant sincere efforts to devise legislation bent on improving the operation of government on behalf of the people.

But now, as Congressman Herman Eberharter of Pittsburgh said on March 21: "The current crop of investigations and proposals," Eberharter was quoted in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, "are in the main aimed at creating fear in the minds of Americans who love their country.'

A far cry from Roosevelt's: "The only thing we need to fear is fear itself."

The particular investigation Pittsburghers read about on March 17 was to be by the Jenner Committee to further hamstring and restrict the rights of labor with Senator McCarran as the chief investigator of officials and members of the United Electrical, Radio & Machine Workers of America (UE).

Those who were subpoened by the committee included Stanley Loney, UE District Six President; Allan McNeil, UE District Six Representative; Thomas Flanagan, UE International Representative; Harold Briney, UE Local 610 President; Robert Kirkwood, UE Local 610 Business Agent; John Nelson, UE Local 506 President; Willard Bliss, UE Local 506 Editor; Alex Staber, UE Local 506 Shop Steward; and the following shop workers from the Westinghouse East Pittsburgh plant: Tom Quinn, Campbell Beveridge, Lottie Leib and Peter Lyden.

Just as Americans nationally have vigorously protested the projected investiga-tions of churchmen and educators, so did widespread protest greet the announcement that this organization of workers was to be subjected to the witch-hunt treatment.

The hearings, as a result, were called off "indefinitely."

Only an aroused protest and defense of democratic and constitutional rights can halt those who want to turn the clock back.

STATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE P

The Story of An Investigation

T'S NOT ALWAYS employers or their politician representatives that directly start a witch hunt. Sometimes short sighted people willingly play the employer's game, hoping to reap some partisan advantage, while at the same time encouraging those who want to weaken, undermine and destroy the labor movement.

When on February 5, 1953, the IUE-CIO began a raid on the Union Switch & Signal Plant in the Pittsburgh suburb, Swissdale, Pennsylvania, represented by UE Local 610, that afternoon Stanley Loney, UE District 6 President, was subpoened to appear before a grand jury to testify on his Taft-Hartley non-communist affidavit. Everything was in order and a Federal Judge ordered an end to the witch hunt, but IIIE-CIO leaders tried to capitalize on the publicity.

During this same raid, Harold Briney, Local 610 President and Robert Kirkwood, Business Agent, were hailed before a secret hearing of the Jenner Committee in Pittsburgh as a build-up for open hearings that were set for March 23 for many UE officials and were "postponed indefinitely" after mass protest.

An example of open aid to employers by the un-American Activities Committee was in Chicago last year. When 30,000 International Harvester workers were scheduled to strike last June against proposed wage cuts, the un-American Committee scheduled hearings against leaders of UE.

When the strike was postponed 60 days, the Committee called off its hearings. When the strike began on August 20, the leaders were summoned that afternoon for hearings. When hundreds of trade unionists in Chicago picketed the hearings in protest over this open strike-breaking, the Committee hurriedly left town.

One of the most revealing examples of how such "investigating" committees are at the service of any move to divide and weaken workers was the sworn affidavit on August 28, 1952, of a former Pittsburgh official of IUE-CIO. William Peeler had been publicity director and executive board member of the IUE-CIO local in East Pittsburgh, largest Westinghouse plant in the country.

Peeler told of 1949 when one faction in the local, IUE-CIO leaders, went to the un-American Committee to help them. Peeler said:

"Since we were about to have an election in the union we decided at that meeting (with un-American Committee officials) that the investigators should summon certain UE leaders to Washington and to charge them with Communist affiliation and activities ..."

Pecler tells how IUE-CIO leaders "Presented the investigator with leaflets, photostatic copies of letters and generally what they called 'documentary' evidence of the actions of certain UE leaders to take back with him.

"We knew that if we could get the cooperation of the Committee against the UE leaders, it would be easier to defeat them on any issue as well as to defeat them for office. The members would be afraid to claim them as leaders of their Union . . . So Father Rice and Ernest Vida from our our shop, their so-called chairman of the Westinghouse Vets at that time, made a trip to Washington to urge action from the Committee.

Vida came back to the Valley and told us that they had met and the Committee had agreed to help. In about one week a call came to the Union Office that we were to meet at the William Penn Hotel on a secret mission.

"A man named Russell; chaired the meeting, and I later found out that he was a senior investigator for the House un-American Activities Committee . . . There were four un-American Activities Committee investigators present, and we talked freely of our plans and what we needed to defeat the UE leaders.

"The call came as arranged and the men were summoned to appear before the House Un-American Activities Committee in Washington on August 9, 1949. Our ... gang, ... got to Washington by arrangement a day earlier than the UE bunch.

"When we entered the Committee chambers, we were met by three of the same investigators that had talked to us in Pittsburgh . . . we were handed a list of questions by this same Louis Russell and his two helpers. After studying the questions, we were asked how we would answer them . . . and proceeded to a 'trial run.' When our answers were not satisfactory, we were told just how to give the "right' answer and how to emphasize the points the Committee needed. We were well rehearsed.

"The deal was completed and it really paid off. The newspapers and radio commentators, all by pre-arrangement, had a field day. . . . The UE men were branded for good.

"I love life and liberty and I fear no reprisals, thus I am presenting this statement in the hope that it will in some small way help to correct the abuses of our people's rights and help re-establish honest militant unionism in our plant and deeney in our community."

An example of how the activities of these Committees is a danger to all of labor was revealed last year in Cleveland when Jake Epstein, president of the IUE-CIO local at White Sewing Machine Co., was discharged from his job because he refused to cooperate with a congressional Committee and used the Fifth Amendment of the U. S. Constitution to protect himself. This was written by our forefathers to "protect the innocent" from just such inquisitions and witch hunts.

Many questions are being asked by the workers in the shops, concerning the attacks upon our Union. It is the intent of this article to try and provide the officers and stewards with the facts so that they will be better equipped to answer questions.

In 1947, when the Taft-Hartley Act was put into effect, the UF warned at that time that it was a law for the employers only and that the many anti-labor features of Taft-Hartley would not be felt, by the workers, for some time after its passing. We made this prediction because we were sure that the bosses would not use their law until such time that they felt they had the stage set for an all-out offensive against the unions. With the change in the administration in Washington at the last election, and the stepped up drive to make super profits out of a war economy, the last prop was completed and the employers were in a position to go "all-out" against the trade labor movement in this country.

It is true that attacks on unions were begun by the Truman Administration, but these were more or less preliminary moves which were designed to "set-up" unions so that there would be a weakening when the final drive was made to eliminate all unions. That is why we saw raids, which came about through the cooperation of the boss and some labor leaders. If it had not been for Taft-Hartley, these raids would not have been possible. These actions, of course, helped only the employer. This was Taft-Hartley in action.

We saw, too, the fantastic fines leveled against unions, especially the Mine Workers. The records show that the injunctive procedures under Taft-Hartley were used against the CIO and the AFL many, many times even to the extent of forcing workers to return to their jobs and thereby deliberately breaking strikes. The most recent was the injunction against the Steelworkers-CIO at American Locomotive at Dunkirk, N.Y. These actions against workers who were on the picket lines fighting for better wages and working conditions and in many cases fighting to hold on to what they had been able to win, through their unions, could not have happened if it were not for the Taft-Hartley Act. Here again, all these anti-labor actions helped the employer.

Another form of Taft-Hartley attack against unions is the use of the un-American Committee and grand juries. We in the UE know more about this use of Taft-Hartley, by the bosses, than any other, because we have been confronted with it more often, however it is not confined to UE. The use of grand juries to harrass unions was used in the CIO Packinghouse Wockers Union. Here, Valentino, an officer of the local, was questioned and later convicted because he supposedly falsified his non-communist affidavit. The most important lesson to be learned here is that immediately following the conviction, the NITH moved in and decertified the CIO from holding bargaining rights with the company. This is what the boss was after. He had accomplished, with the help of the government, using Taft-Hartley, something he had never been able to do before--wipe out a union. Was this a so-called left wing union? No, this was Packinghouse-CIO. At present, Ton Quinn of IUE Local 601-East Pittsburgh, is still awaiting trial for contempt of Congress and Julius Emapak of UE has appealed a conviction on the same charge.

EXHIBIT No. 285C

From this and many similar cases, we have learned how to fight back, not only to protect the individual who may find himself being smeared and slandered, but more important, how to protect the union that the workers need so desperately in their struggle to increase their standard of living for themselves and their families.

Two other forms of union busting, begun by Truman and being stepped up under Eisenhower, is the use of the Smith Act and the Walters-McCarran Act. Under the first, a union leader is charged as a Communist, smeared and his union put in danger. Two of the best examples of this are the cases of Karley Larsen of the Woodworkers-CIO in the state of Washington; the second is that of UE's Bill Sentner from St. Louis. Both of them are well known, honest trade unionists but neither that nor their union affiliations prevented the attack.

The Walters-McCarran Act has been very widely used. At present the roster of those attacked by the Immigration Authorities under this and similar laws continue to grow. Harry Bridges of the Longshore and Warehousemen, Tony Sentner of St. Louis, James Matles of UE are all in this category. Around Western Pennsylvania Mike Dudash, Mine Workers, was hounded to illness and death by this means within the past few months. Vincent Kaminavich of the UMWA is being harrassed. Joseph Mankin of the Steelworkers-CIO is threatened. Allan McNeil of UE is smeared. The bosses hope by this means to limit the effectiveness of the unions and their leaders.

One of the most frequent questions asked is, "Why doesn't a person answer 'no' when asked whether he is a communist?" We have learned that to answer 'no' to this kind of questioning leads to a jail sentence for perjury for the individual and the wiping out of the union as a whole. Here is how it works. When you answer 'no', you are immediately confronted by a "witness" who will identify you as a member of the Communist Party or having attended a secret meeting or of knowing someone who is supposed to be a communist. It is true that this professional stoolpigeon has never seen you at a communist meeting; he does not know you to be a member, and in most cases he has never even seen you. Yet, you are faced with this kind of deliberate lie and because of the communist hysteria that has been promoted by the press and others of big business, this professional liar is believed and you are on your way to jail and your union is on its way out. This despite the fact that a Federal Judge can say with a straight face, "The Communist Party is legal. It is not illegal to belong to it." Sounds fantastic doesn't it, but this is what is happening in our country today. And this too, is Taft-Hartley.

It is because of this kind of an inquisition against the people and their unions, that many of us who have been called upon to answer such questions use the privilege of the Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States. This privilege simply says that a person shall not be compelled to be a witness against himself. Here again, because of the "red scare", the press generally writes that a person must be guilty or they would not use this privilege. That is why it is important to understand why and how the privilege got into the Constitution. Briefly it is as follows:

EXHIBIT No. 285D

Many years ago. in England, a group of people known as the Puritans were being persecuted because of their religious beliefs. Because of the existing laws at that time, they were forced to answer questions that compelled them to be witnesses against themselves. Needless to say many of them were executed because of this. As a result this inquisition against religious belief became very unpopular in England and a law was passed that did away with forcing a witness to answer questions that could be used against him. Later when our forefathers were drawing up the Constitution and the Bill of Rights for the United States of America, they understood the necessity of including such a feature in the Constitution because of what had happened in other countries. As a result the "privilege" was made an important part of the Constitution. More important, it became a part of the Constitution in order to protect the innocent as the same law had done years before in England. It is probably true that in succeeding years some guilty persons have hidden behind this privilege but on the whole the innocent people who have been protected by it have far outweighed the guilty.

You can see, therefore, that anyone who takes the position of trying to "get around" this privilege or tries to force a person to answer questions that would compel him to be a witness against himself, is in effect trying to tear down the Constitution. On the other hand, a person who uses this privilege is at the same time protecting the Constitution of our Country and all the rights and privileges that go with it. Only those who stand to profit by union busting and the red smear seek to do away with these inherent rights and privileges. It is those people who see the return of religious and political bigotry and persecution who want to eliminate protections that guard the rights and freedom of the common people.

The UE has dedicated itself to the fight to protect these rights. Year after year, through the democratic procedures of our Union, we have voiced and demonstrated our opposition to such un-American procedures as Taft-Hartley, the Smith and Walters-McCarran Acts. It is because we speak out so forcibly that we are attacked. However, we intend to continue this fight and with the help and unity of the rest of the free thinking labor movement as well as all freedom loving people in this country we will win.

In order to win, however, we must have discussion in our unions on this subject. We cannot hide from the red issue. The bosses and their government agents won't let us hide from it in any case. We must get the subject into the open, discuss it so that our members understand it. We must continue our demands to our Congressmen and our Senators to repeal the Taft-Hartley, Smith and Walters-McCarran Acts so that labor can go forward free and unshackled. We must join in the defense of every person and trade unionist persecuted under these laws. This is UE's program adopted by democratic Convention action. For us the job is to implement it.

YOUR RIGHTS ARE IN DANGER!

The Attorney General recently said that 12,000 were being investigated for possible revocation of citizenship and deportation. This is only the first step in wholesale attacks on millions of American citizens.

YOU have a stake in defending Gus Polites' right to remain a citizen. By defending his rights, you are striking a blow at the Walter-McCarran Act and securing your rights.

WHAT YOU CAN DO —

- 1. Write your Congressmen and Senators. Urge them to REPEAL THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW.
- 2. Contribute and get your friends and neighbors to contribute to the fight to defend Gus Polites. His trial starts soon YOU can help win his fight. Send your contribution to:

GUS POLITES DEFENSE COMMITTEE 5258 Calhoun, Dearborn, Mich.

Protect YOUR Citizenship!

DEFEND HIS!

EXHIBIT No. 287B

The Walter-McCarran Act threatens the rights of every naturalized citizen in the United States. The new law makes its possible to take away citizenship no matter how long ago that citizenship was secured. No wonder this law has been condemned by all sections of the American people, including Catholic, Protestant and Jewish religious groups, the AFL and CIO, and all major groups like the AHEPA, the Polish American Alliance, etc.

Only recently Pres. Eisenhower called upon Congress to change the law.

To understand what can happen to all naturalized citizens, see what is happening to GUS POLITES, 54, who has lived in this country since 1916 when he came here as a young man from Greece. He became a naturalized citizen 11 years ago. Now, after 37 years in this country, without a blemish on his record, he faces loss of his citizenship and deportation to Greece. Why? Because the government claims he should not have been granted his citizenship in 1942 because of his activities ten years before then! Sounds fantastic? It is even more unbelievable when you know Gus Polites, who has devoted himself to his family and the interests of his community.

Married to an American citizen, he has two American-born daughters, and two grandchildren. His son-in-law is an overseas veteran of World War II. His youngest daughter goes to high school.

What were Gus Polites' activities? Here is his record: Since he came to Detroit in 1925, he has been involved in activities benefiting the Greek-American community. He helped organize the Restaurant Workers Union, rasing wages and bettering conditions for thousands of workers in the industry. During the war, he helped sell $50,000 worth of war bonds and was active in war relief and securing blood donations to the Red Cross.

He organized a theatrical group which put on plays which made a valuable contribution to Greek cultural life and helped build better understanding among the American people.

At present he is the president of the Samian Society, a member of the Executive Board of the Greek Federation of Societies in Detroit, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Greek Educational Committee of Detroit.

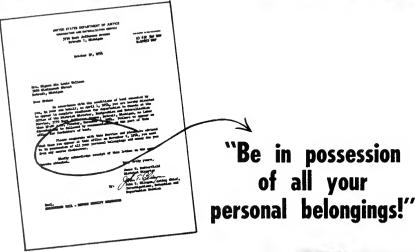

He is an active participant in the fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Act and thus protect the rights of all the people. He is a fighter for peace and has spoken before many organizations calling for an end to the war in Korea. EXHIBIT No. 288A

WILL THEY DEPORT HER?

Ехнівіт №. 288В

SUPPOSE YOU GOT THIS LETTER?

Does that mean that Mrs. Peggy (Mignon) Wellman is to "be in possession of" her two children, 14-year-old David and 12-year-old Vickie, when she reports for deportation to a land from which she came in her mother's arms?

Is she to "be in possession of" her husband?

No, certainly not her husband. He can't leave the United States. Saul Wellman is appealing a 4-year-8-months sentence under the controversial Smith Act, and is free under $22,500 bond.

Did Mrs. Wellman commit some heinous crime that she is to be shipped off with such haste, ordered to pack up her life in the United States, her entire conscious life, and to leave her loved ones, perhaps forever?

No, no crime is involved. She has not been accused or convicted of any crime. She was sup-was unaware until recently. Both an older and a younger brother were born in the state of Washington, where her parents lived, and she assumed she had been born there, too.

Under threat of indefinite imprisonment for contempt of court, Mrs. Annie Hobson, Peggy's 70-year-old mother, was forced by Immigration officials to testify that Peggy had been born during a visit to Canada. (Now Mrs. Hobson is to be exiled to her native England). "The respondent (Mrs. Wellman) was born while her mother was temporarily

"The respondent (Mrs. Wellman) was born while her mother was temporarily residing in Canada and she was brought to the United States while still only a few mouths old. ### THIS IS THE FAMILY THE GOVERNMENT IS TRYING TO DESTROY . . . WHY?

Perhaps appearances are deceptive. Perhaps this normal, happy-seeming family is grouped around a mother who deserves to be deported as an "undesirable alien".

Undesirable?

Was Peggy Wellman undesirable when, single-handed, she raised and supported her two small children while their American paratrooper father lay in a far-away hospital, perhaps dying from the heart wound he had suffered in the Battle of the Bulge? Was she undesirable when she shared heartbreak and gnawing worry with tens of thousands of other American wives and mothers during the World War?

Was Peggy Wellman undesirable when she started work at 15, became active in trade unions, in movements for relief, unemployment insurance, the very right to live? The legal authorities did not regard her as undesirable. She was never arrested or jailed; and surely Americans would not accuse her of "guilt by association" because of her husband's conviction under the controversial Smith Act which is still under appeal and awaiting final judicial determination.

Or is her "undesirability" reflected perhaps in her main life work — her children?

No, despite the difficult war years, despite the arrest of both parents, Vickie and David, avoiding all pitfalls of delinquency, have emerged as a credit to their parents.

On Oct. 19th, David was elected president of the Student Council by a 3 to 1 majority.

The reason behind this possible tragedy—if reason it can be called—is the Walter-McCarran Immigration Act.

Passed in 1952 over President Truman's veto, this act makes it possible to deport any non-citizen who at any time was active in a long list of frowned-upon organizations, to which it was perfectly legal to belong before passage of the Act.

it was perfectly legal to belong before passage of the Act.

After holding hearings throughout this country, a presidential commission made up of Philip B. Perlman, Chairman (formerly Solicitor General of the United States); Earl G. Harrison, Vice-Chairman (Attorney, formerly United States Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization); Monsignor John O'Grady (Secretary, National Conference of Catholic Charites); Rev. Thaddeus F. Gullixson (President, Lutheran Theological Seminary of St. Paul, Minnesota); Clarence E. Pickett (Honorary Secretary, American Friends Service Committee); Adrian S. Fisher (Legal Advisor to State Department); Thomas G. Finucane (Chairman, Board of Immigration Appeals); recommended: a statute of limitations on deportations.

This idea has been embodied in the Lehman. Celler Bill introduced by 32 Congressmen

This idea has been embodied in the Lehman-Celler Bill introduced by 32 Congressmen in 1952 which provides a 20-year statute of limitations on deportations, and allows no deportations of individuals who came here before the age of 14.

Wouldn't that be just and proper? Surely Peggy, with 42 years in the U. S. A., is more American than Canadian, though an accident of birth may have placed her in Canada for a few early months.

In the long run, Peggy Wellman—and 10,000 like her whom Attorney General Brownell has threatened to deport under the Walter-McCarran Act—can be saved by repeal of this widely-condemned legislation.

BUT THERE MAY NOT BE A LONG RUN FOR PEGGY WELLMAN UNLESS WE ACT QUICKLY RIGHT NOW

- 1. Urge Attorney General Brownell, Washington, D. C., to revoke this order to deport Mrs. Peggy Wellman.
- 2. Write or phone James Butterheld, 3770 E. Jefferson, Detroit 7, Mich. (see his heartless letter on page two of this folder), to ask that he halt the deportation proceedings against Mrs. Wellman.
- 3. Send a contribution which will be used to get this folder to all who can help win this fight to save an American family from destruction.

"Banishment is punishment in the practical sense. It may deprive a man and his family of all that makes life worth while. Those who have their roots here have an important stake in this country. Their plans for themselves and their hopes for their children all depend on their right to stay."

An American Family

Faces Separation or Exile

An Appeal to You...

As a native-born citizen of America, I have been amazed to see the recent development in our country of an intolerant attitude toward certain political and economic views.

The principal cornerstone of the American structure is the right of free expression. This conception involves not merely the right to express popular or conventional ideas but also opinions however unpopular they may be.

The case of Stanley Nowak is in the federal courts for adjudication. The sitting Federal Judge, Honorable Frank A. Picard, has entered a judgment revoking the citizenship of Stanley Nowak. From that decision, Mr. Nowak has appealed to the United Court of Appeals.

For the proper and effective presentation of the arguments to set aside the revocation order, there will be a serious burden of legal expense. I do hope that everyone who still believes in the fundamental liberties of the American people will contribute generously to this worthy cause.

Much

An American Family Faces Separation or Exile

BY MARGARET NOWAK

THE FAMILY is one of the most sacred of institutions, but many forces tend to undermine or break up families in America today. One of these forces is the Walter-McCarran Law, which threatens my own family.

In July, 1955, Federal Judge Frank A. Picard of Michigan revoked the citizenship of my husband, Stanley Nowak. We are appealing this decision to the U. S. Court of Appeals. If we lose, my husband may be deported to Poland.

Must my daughter and I permit our family to be thus broken up and her father and my husband sent alone to the country of his birth, where he no longer has any family or roots? Or must we give up our precious heritage of American citizenship, leave our native land, our beloved families, and all that we know and cherish, in order to remain with Stanley and preserve our family?

What would you do?

I know what I am doing! I am fighting in every way I know to keep my family together HERE IN AMERICA WHERE WE BELONG,—and to make it possible for other families, similarly threatened, to remain TOGETHER in this, their country.

HAS STANLEY NOWAK COMMITTED A CRIME?

No! He has never committed a crime in his life and has no criminal record of any kind!

THEN WHY IS HIS CITIZENSHIP UNDER ATTACK?

Today in America one does not have to be a criminal to lose one's citizenship. Many people are being deprived of citizenship and deported simply because of their ideas!

WHAT ARE STANLEY NOWAK'S IDEAS AND WHERE DID THEY COME FROM?

He was brought here as a child of ten. America has made him what he is through its schools, its playgrounds, its factories and unions, its legislative halls, and its opportunities for leadership in the Polish-American community. His ideas and ideals are products of American life, just as yours are! His are the ideals of Benjamin Franklin, Tom Paine, Thomas Jefferson, Abraham Lincoln, Frank Murphy, and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

14 YEARS OF HARRASSMENT:

For 14 years my husband has been subjected to a constant fire of sniping and aggravation, with repeated threats to revoke his citizenship. These malicious attacks began with his successful attempt in 1938 to break the Ford Empire's political monopoly in the 21st Senatorial District, where the Ford plants were located and where the Ford family lived. In spite of the most unethical and vicious barrage of tricks and propaganda, Stanley was elected to the State Senate with the help of organized labor and of former Governor and Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy and other New-Dealers.

With the exception of Harry Bridges, President of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, no other labor leader has been singled out for such constant harrassment, some of the high spots of which are listed below:

- 1938—Featured articles in the press concerning "testimony" of anti-union spies IN AN EFFORT TO DEFEAT STANLEY'S FIRST CAMPAIGN for election to the Michigan Senate.
- 1942—Just after his election for a third Senate term, Stanley was picked up on the way home from work, held incommunicado overnight, and indicted in the FIRST ATTEMPT TO REVOKE HIS CITIZENSHIP.
- 1951—Stanley was called before the Un-American Committee for 8 hours of questioning.
- 1952—Indictment issued in SECOND ATTEMPT TO RE-VOKE STANLEY'S CITIZENSHIP.

This continuous process of annoyance was always intensified during election campaigns, with glaring headlines and columns of space in the daily papers, branding him "subversive" or "communist" because of his association with the UAW and the CIO.

These attacks upon him always failed, and the people returned him to the Senate for five successive terms (ten years), for they knew that the CIO and the UAW had brought them better wages and conditions and some measure of security. And they remembered that Stanley had walked their picket lines with them and had headed the organizing drives in many of their shops.

Further, the people knew that he represented them in the Michigan Senate as no one had ever done before, and that this was why he was being persecuted.

WHAT WERE THE REASONS BEHIND THESE CONTINUOUS ATTACKS UPON NOWAK?

- He was the most militant of the New Dealers in Michigan and among the nationality groups throughout the nation.
- 2. He had not only broken the Ford Empire's political monopoly in the 21st Senatorial District by his 1938 election, but he further aggravated the Ford interests by introducing Senate legislation to outlaw the jobselling racket at Ford's and elsewhere.
- 3. He continued his ties with labor after his election, in the face of warnings by powerful anti-labor and anti-New-Deal forces, and even continued as an organizer for the UAW, serving on the Ford Organizing Committee until after the 1941 strike.
- 4. He promoted better race relations by close friendship and collaboration with former State Senator Charles

"We are all immigrants or the descendants of immigrants."

-Franklin Delano Roosevelt

- C. Diggs, Sr., on labor and New-Deal measures both in and out of the Senate, and they jointly sponsored the first Fair Employment Practice Bill ever introduced in the Michigan Senate.
- 5. He was acknowledged by both friend and foe as the voice of labor on the Senate floor, where he introduced many labor and New-Deal measures and fought for the passage of similar legislation introduced by others.
- 6. He was labor's "watch-dog" throughout his ten years in the Senate, alerting the people to danger whenever anti-democratic bills were introduced, so that delegations and letters could be sent to Lansing in protest.

BIDDLE & BROWNELL—A CONTRAST

The proceedings instituted in 1942 to revoke Stanley's citizenship were withdrawn in 1943 by U. S. Attorney General Francis Biddle on the grounds that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant such action.

U. S. Attorney General Herbert Brownell renewed the same charges in 1952, and this time the court ruled against Nowak.

WHAT HAD CHANGED SINCE 1942?

1942 was the period of the New Deal, with a growing and vigorous labor movement making itself felt. The strong pressure of organized labor and New-Deal and liberal forces resulted in the quashing of the indictment by Biddle in 1943.

1952, the year of Stanley's second indictment, was the period of cold-war hysteria, McCarthyism and its drive against labor and the foreign-born, and finally, it was the time when the Walter-McCarran Law was born along with other oppressive and restrictive legislation aimed at the constitutional rights and privileges of labor and the American people in general, particularly the foreign-born.

WHAT WAS INTRODUCED IN AMERICA FOR THE FIRST TIME BY THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW?

Up to this time the only difference between citizen and non-citizen was the right to vote. In all other respects they were treated alike under the law and enjoyed the same constitutional guarantees and privileges.

With the passage of the Walter-McCarran Law this was changed. For the first time in America, foreign born citizens were placed in the status of second class citizens, with their citizenship subject to revocation if they dared to exercise the traditional American freedoms and privileges and to have independent political ideas.

"With regard to freedom of political choice, we point out that the distinction now created between the native-born and naturalized citizen places in the hands of an administrative tribunal absolute discretion to determine what is a political or social group or 'subversive' and in addition subjects the membership of these groups indiscriminately to denaturalization and/or deportation."

—Michigan Departments of American Veterans of World War II, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans; Wayne County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

NON-CITIZENS ARE NOW TREATED LIKE CRIMINALS

The Walter-McCarran Law ushered in a police-state atmosphere in America.

All non-citizens are fingerprinted and registered. They must report every change of address within ten days and must register annually. Failure to do these things can bring cruel fines, imprisonment, and subsequent deportation.

The Walter-McCarran Law places the non-citizen completely outside the law and the U. S. Constitution, stripping him of every constitutional protection or right. He can be arrested without warrant, held in jail without bail, deported for exercising freedom of speech or assembly, or can be sent to "Repeal the Walter-McCarran Act or tear down the Statue of Liberty, because the two simply don't go together."

-Walter P. Reuther, UAW President prison for ten years for failure to deport himself once he has been ordered to do so.

This law closes the door to the poor and oppressed from other countries on the basis of race, religion, and nationality. The national quotas established under this law discriminate against Slavs, Italians, Jews, Hungarians, Negroes, and Asians, on the theory that they are of a lower race, poor and ignorant.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS AFFECTED FOR THE FIRST TIME:

Soon after the Walter-McCarran Law went into effect, Attorney General Herbert Brownell announced that he intended to deport 13,000 non-citizens and to denaturalze 10,000 naturalized American citizens. This means that 14,000,000 foreign-born and their American-born descendants must live in constant fear.

THE WALTER McCARRAN LAW IN MICHIGAN

In Michigan alone, 59 people face deportation—13 women and 46 men. Their average age is 58, the youngest being 42 and the oldest 74. Of these 59 people, 25 are over 60 years of age and 56 have lived in the U. S. 30 years or more, while 36 have lived here for 40 to 49 years. All the 13 women are married, having children and grandchildren.

From these figures you can see that ours is not the only family threatened by the Walter-McCarran Law. Its oppressive measures touch many families in Michigan and the United States.

Recently you read in the newspapers about Thomas Dutton, who at the age of 70 is ordered to be deported to England, leaving behind his 70-year-old wife.

Some of you will remember Monica Itryna, a Polishborn woman who lived in the U. S. since the age of 11, married and had 7 children (2 of them veterans of World War II) and 5 grandchildren. In 1952 she was torn from her family and husband and deported to Poland.

What were the charges against her? She was active in the Detroit Unemployed Councils of the Depression of 1930, trying to get food for her hungry children. That was considered "subversive" by the Immigration authorities and the court.

These are just two of the many cases of cruel and inhuman treatment under the Walter-McCarran Law.

THE WALTER McCARRAN LAW THREATENS NATIVE-BORN AMERICANS!

- 1. It strikes at the foreign-born parents and grandparents of thousands of native-born Americans.
- 2. It strikes at foreign-born leaders of American labor unions, hampering their efforts to fight for labor's rights and demands.
- 3. It serves as a weapon to intimidate and silence the entire American population while their rights are taken from them.

This is not just the fight of the foreign-born victims of the Walter-McCarran Law. This is YOUR FIGHT, TOO!

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO REPEAL THE WALTER-McCARRAN LAW

- 1. You can raise the question at meetings of your union local, or social or political club, or church groups. Most of these groups have already placed themselves on record in opposition to the Walter-McCarran Law.
- 2. You can set up defense committees to help the victims of the Walter-McCarran Law. Defending its victims is one of the most effective ways of beating down this law.
- 3. You can write or wire your U. S. Senator and Congressman asking them to demand that the Judiciary Committee both in the House and the Senate report out the Lehman-Celler Bill, which calls for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act and its replacement by a new, humane law.
- 4. Send letters, wires, and resolutions to SENATOR HER-BERT H. LEHMAN, and REP. EMANUEL CELLER, Chairman House Judiciary Committee asking them to do all in "The Act reflects attitudes which are offensive to our historical role as the land of tolerance and liberty."

-Governor G. Mennen Williams their power to get the Lehman-Celler Bill reported out of committee

HOW DOES STANLEY NOWAK'S CASE AFFECT OR CONCERN YOU?

During the trial of Stanley Nowak, it was brought out in the testimony of two Naturalization Examiners for the Bureau of Immigration that anyone connected with the organizing drive of the UAW and with the sit-down strikes was automatically considered by them to be a communist.

This means that every active member of the UAW, everyone who has participated in the organizing of the UAW or in its militant strikes, can have denaturalization proceedings started against him on the grounds that he is a communist, and can be denaturalized and deported—unless this thing is stopped—NOW!

If the anti-labor elements succeed in denaturalizing Stanley Nowak and deporting him, this will open the door to denaturalization cases against thousands of other UAW people.

You can insure your own citizenship by helping Nowak to save his.

WHAT YOU CAN DO TO HELP STANLEY NOWAK:

We may have to take his case all the way to the Supreme Court. Our good friends have raised the thousands of dollars which Stanley's defense has already cost—and thousands more will be needed for the appeals to the higher courts.

- 1. Send your dollars to the STANLEY NOWAK DE-FENSE COMMITTEE, 39 Massachusetts Ave., Highland Park 3, Michigan.
- 2. Come and volunteer your services in getting out mailings, leaflet distribution, etc. Much of this is done from our home, 7525 Wykes Avenue, Detroit 10, Michigan, Phone TE. 4-0073.
- 3. Arrange meetings in your home where Stanley can some and speak about the Walter-McCarran Law and how it affects you and your friends, OR, ask that he be permitted to speak before your union local's membership meeting, or before your club or church group.

Gov. Williams
Calls for Repeal of Immigration Law

"Our present immigration laws are violating our oldest national principles . . . while the whole world watches . . .

"A fair and just immigration law must do more than remove the discriminatory quota provisions. It should provide a statute of limitations against deportation and remove retroactive or ex post facto enactments... Most lawyers will agree that it is unfair to deport a man, under legislation passed in 1956, for an offense which was non-deportable when it was committed 20 years ago. Most lawyers will therefore share the view that these injustices of the McCarran-Walter Act should be removed...

"Deportation, according to the Supreme Court, is at times the equivalent of banishment or exile. Deportation is penal in its effects on individuals . . .

"My interest, I believe, and your interest is the same. As a public official, the Governor of a State in which thousands of our citizens, as things now stand, have no assurance whatsoever that their citizenship may not be yanked out from under them, many of them forever separated from their families by the injustices of our immigration statutes, I am interested in doing all that I can do to assure that the present statutes be either repealed or drastically revised."

Governor Williams, in a speech delivered January 21, 1956, before the Association of Immigration and Nationality Lawyers.

Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore,
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed,

BRAIN-WASHING Walter-McCarran Law Style

The Justice Department is trying to put into effect its own OPERATION BRAIN-WASH by using the Walter-McCarran Law to force non-citizens:

- To submit to psychiatric examinations
- To submit to medical examinations
- To report once a week in person to an immigration agent
- To give information under oath as to associations and activities
- To disassociate from the labor and progressive movement

The American people expressed their hatred of "brain-washing" when it was tried on ex-Korean P.W.'s upon their arrival in the United States. Public reaction defeated Operation Brain-Wash for former P.W.'s. It can—and must—defeat Operation Brain-Wash now intended for 3,000,000 non-citizens.

The Walter-McCarran Law

SECTION 242 (d)

"Any alien against whom a final order of deportation . . . has been outstanding for more than six months, shall, pending eventual deportation, be subject to supervision under regulations prescribed by the Attorney General. Such regulations shall include provisions which will require any alien subject to supervision (1) to appear from time to time before an immigration officer for identification; (2) to submit, if necessary, to medical and psychiatric examination at the expense of United States; (3) to give information under oath as to his nationality, circumstances, habits, associations, and activities, and such other information, whether or not related to the foregoing, as the Attorney General may deem fir and proper; and (4) to conform to such reasonable written restrictions on his activities, as are prescribed by the Attorney General in his case. Any alien who shall willfully fail to comply with such regulations, or willfully fail to appear or to give information or submit to medical or psychiatric examination if required, or knowingly give false information in relation to the requirements of such regulations, or knowingly violates a reasonable restriction imposed upon his conduct or activity, shall upon conviction be guilty of a felony, and shall be fined not more than $1,000 or shall be imprisoned not more than one year, or both

Rights of All at Stake

The Justice Department seeks to use the Walter-McCarran Law to terrorize all non-citizens in the United States, to force them to conform to McCarthyite standards of reactionary political and social uniformity.

The non-citizen, however, is only a scapegoat, a testing-ground used by American reaction to see how far it can go in destroying the liberties of the American people. Once these police-state conditions have been imposed on the non-citizen, the legal and political precedents will be set for imposing similar restrictions on all Americans, native born as well as foreign born

Operation Brain-Wash Can Be Defeated

Most non-citizens are refusing to submit to the Justice Department's Operation Brain-Wash. They insist on exercising their liberties under the Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution.

All Americans concerned with the preservation of democratic rights can support this fight by protesting against Operation Brain-Wash and participating in the nationwide fight for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law, which serves as the legal basis for this assault on the liberties of the american people.

Defend the rights of foreign-born American'!

Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law!

YOU CAN RELP

The Justice Department is seeking to use the foreign born as the testing ground for destruction of the liberties of the whole American people. You can help stop these police-state tactics:

- 1. Write your Congressmen and Senators. Uzge they introduce and support legislation to repeal the Walter-McCarran
- 2. Order more of this leaflet for discitation among your friends and associates to help them know what is in the Wilter-McCarran Law. Leaflets may be had at 100 for $2.00.

SAUL GROBSMAN EXECUTIVE BECRETARY

July 12, 1954

Dear Candidate for Public Office:

Passed over the President's veto in 1952, the Walter-McCarran Act, governing immigration and naturalization, has met widespread criticism and opposition. It has been condemned as racitst, discriminatory, and undemocratic by the major Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish religious organizations; by the CIO and AFL; and by leading fraternal, civic, veteran, and nationality groups. In the last election campaign, both the kepublican and Democratic parties pledged changes in the law. A number of bills have introduced by both parties which would repeal, revise, or drastically amend the Walter-McCarran Act.

Although you are not running for a Federal office, we feel that most people are keenly interested in your opinion on this vital legislation. We enclose a poll form, together with a brief fact sheet comparing some features of the Walter-McCarran Act and the Lehman-Celler Bill (one of the many bills introduced in "ongress as an alternative.) Please fill out the form and return to us by reply mail. We plan to publish and circulate the results of this poll as a primary election service to civic, fraternal, veteran, religious and labor groups for distribution to their memberships and to mail it to several thousand individuals.

Replies already received to a preliminary poll indicate the strong interest aroused by the effects of the Walter-McCarran Act. Former Senator Blair Moody wrote to suggest that "all community organizations unite to retire from Congress this year those who voted for the McCarran Law."

James H. Lincoln, councilmanic candidate the polled over 150,000 votes for Mayor last year, wrote that if elected "I shall be very glad to do what little I can to pressure congressmen to repeal the act." Rep. John D. Dingell attacked "loose, reckless application" of denaturalization as "dangerous." Rep. Thaddeus M. Machrowicz sent a copy of his bill, similar to the Lehman-Celler Bill. Rep. John Lesinski expressed himself in favor of amending the present law "so that it will be equitable and proper."

Thanking you for your cooperation, we await an early reply.

Sincerely yours

Saul Grossman

Since the passage of the Walter-McCarran Immigration and Nationality Law in 1952, both the depublican and Democratic

REV. CHARLES A. HILL. PROF. C. L. MEADER,

Parties have gone on record favoring major changes in the law.

Ann Arbor Executive Secretory SAUL GROSSMAN Condemned by the major religious, labor, civic, and fraternal organizations in the United States as racist, discriminatory, and undemocratic, the law has also been attacked by the Michigan Departments of American Veterans of World War II, Catholic War Veterans, Jewish War Veterans, and the wayne County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

In the last session of Congress, more than 40 bills were introduced proposing. various changes in the present law. One of these, the Lehman-Celler Bill, was a complete revision of the Walter-McCarran Law, and was co-sponsored by Senator Patrick V. McNamara and Rep. Charles C. Diggs, Jr., among others. No hearings were held on any of these bills. In the House, the opposition of Rep. Francis Walter (D-Pa.) co-author of the Walter-LicCarran Law, was sufficient to block consideration; in the Senate, hearings started under Senator Harley Kilgore were never concluded after his untimely death.

The failure of Congress to act on this vital matter has led to numerous personal tragedies, the separation of families, and the lowering of American prestige in the eyes of the world.

Although only Congress can pass immigration legislation, other public officials can exert considerable influence by expressing themselves on such national issues. The State Legislature, for example, had before it this year a resolution, which was not acted on, memorializing Congress on the Walter-McGarran Law. Similar resolutions, introduced and acted upon in the State Legislature and other governing bodies, as well as public statements by elected officials, may well favorably influence such legislation in Congress.

As we have done in the past, we are conducting a poll of candidates for public office on this question. The results of this poll will be made available to hundreds of organizations and thousands of individuals as an election year service. We urge that you fill out and return the enclosed form immediately. We would especially appreciate any comments you care to make.

Sincerely yours,

Saul Grossman Executive Secretary

AN OPEN LETTER TO...

JOHN FEIKENS, CHAIRMAN, Republican Party

NEIL STAEBLER. CHAIRMAN. Democratic Party

The leaders of both your parties have spoken out against the Walter-McCarran Immigration and Naturalization Law. President Eisenhower has asked for major changes; Gov. G. Mennen Williams has called for its repeal; Senator Pat McNamara and Rep. Charles C. Diggs have introduced a bill to replace it. The UAW and CIO oppose it.

Only recently 19-year-old Otto Weyer was saved from deportation and the injustices of the Walter-McCarran Act, when public protests caused the Attorney General to halt his deportation. Senator Charles Potter introduced a bill to correct this injustice.

We want to call to your attention the case of hrs. Peggy Wellman, Detroiter, mother of two children, who has also been ordered deported under this law.

Mrs. Wellman,44, has spent her entire life here and knows no other country. She grew up as an American. Both her older and younger brothers were born here. Her husband and children are American-born.

Now she is told that she was born while her mother was isiting in Canada and was then brought back to the U.S. in her mother's arms. This accident of birth makes her an. "alien", according to the law, and deportable 44 years later.

The Michigan CIO Council, in a letter signed by August Scholle, Pres. and Barney Hopkins Secy-Treas., urged U.S. Senators McNamara and Potter to intervene in this case, and said in part;

"We can see no good cause served by the deportation of Ars. Wellman. In fact, we are convinced that in this case deportation would only cause a lot of people to have a feeling of sympathy toward Ars. Wellman, her mother, children, and other relatives, which, in the long run, would be a disservice to Democracy and our country!

Mr. Feikens and Mr. Staebler, we call upon you to intervene with the Attorney General of the United States and congressmen of both parties to urge that deportation proceedings be cancelled in this case.

Sincerely yours.

Peggy Wellman Defense Committee 2033 Park Ave. Detroit 26, Mich.

P.S.

Other readers of this letter may also wish to write the Attorney General and their Congressmen to ask them to intervene in this case.

ACT ON THE

MCNAMARA-DIGGS BILL

We urge that Congress Act on the McNamara-Diggs Bill (S.1206) introduced by Senator Patrick V.McNamara and Rep. Charles C. Diggs Jr. and also sponsored and endorsed by many other congressmen to replace the Walter-McCarran Law which has been condemned by all major religious, labor, civic, and fraternal organizations in the U.S.

The McNamara-Diggs Bill eliminates the racist immigration quota system; establishes a statute of limitations in denaturalization and deportation proceedings; and establishes fairer deportation hearings.

Memorandum—Campaign to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law

The immediate objectives of the campaign are to bring about the introduction of a bill in the U. S. Senate, which has already held hearings on the law, and to pass the Anfuso resolution, H. R. 501.

The following program was adopted in January 1956:

- (1) Influence Congress through: (a) Delegations, (b) letter-writing, (c) resolutions.
  - (2) Issue a basic piece of literature. Distribute it widely.
  - (3) Concentrate on involving labor unions and their membership.
- (4) Contact local political clubs, Democrats and Republicans, to include issue in local programs.
- (5) Seek resolutions by State and City legislatures memorializing Congress.
- (6) Establish lobbies at State Conventions of Democratic and Republican Parties.
  - (7) Attend statewide labor conferences and conventions.
  - (8) Stimulate parallel movements in other organizations.
- (9) Establish special "Committees to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Act" in every national group community. Issue piece of material in own language or distribute the general piece. Contact other organizations and leading individuals in the community. Popularize activities in the press. Organize letter-writing campaigns and delegations to Congressmen.

Activities to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Act by Special Committee of Five People:

- 1. 10,000 copies of the folder "Why the Walter-McCarran Act Should Be Repealed" have been printed.
- 2. Lobbying was carried out at UAW-FEP Conference in Grand Rapids on January 13–15 which attracted 800 delegates. Folders were distributed.
- 3. Similar activities were carried out at a statewide PAC Conference in Lansing on January 20-21.
- 4. Folders were distributed at GOP meetings on February 5 organized on a congressional district basis to build a PAC precinct organization. Meetings were attended by 1,200.
- 5. Folders were mailed to 200 UAW presidents and officers in Wayne County by the Fred Williams Defense Committee.
- 6. Every UAW local union meeting is being systematically covered with folders. Each individual defense committee (Fred Williams, Stanley Nowak, etc.) is assigned at least one meeting a week. The objective is to reach the most active trade unionists.
- 7. 1,500 folders are being mailed to precinct delegates to the Democratic Party with a cover letter urging support for Governor Williams' call for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.
- 8. Ministers listed in the Church Directory are being mailed the folder with a cover letter signed by our cochairmen suggesting it for discussion in committees and other congregational groups as well as for mention in sermons.
- 9. Five UAW presidents have mailed a letter to all UAW locals in the area calling for followup action on the resolution adopted at the 15th UAW Convention.
- 10. Local 208 UAW adopted a resolution which is being forwarded to all other locals asking for similar action.

Fourteen million foreign born Americans are menaced by the Walter-McCarran Law. Over 400 non-citizens have been arrested in deportation proceedings for their political views. 65 naturalized citizens face court proceedings on similar grounds leading to possible loss of

Citizenship Hearings Ordered—Trio Facing Quiz All Born in Italy

Three Detroit Italian-born men were named by Federal authorities as members of organizations advocating overthrow of the United States Government by force.

E. E. Adcock, district director of immigration and naturalization, ordered the men to report next week for deportation hearings.

The men are:

Angelo Pagotto, 55, of 547 Waterman Avenue South, admitted to this country Angust 8, 1920

William Gava, 52, of 8601 Olivet Avenue, who entered April 6, 1938.

Giovanni Mastrandrea, 58, of 2641 Hale Avenue, admitted May 15, 1909.

Pagotto's hearing will begin Monday, with Gava's set for Wednesday and Mastrandrea's for Thursday.

SINGLER HEARING OFF

Deportation proceedings against Stephen Singler, former president of the DSR drivers union, were adjourned Thursday until August 16 to permit the defense counsel to prepare for two new charges.

Added to the original charges that Singler returned to Detroit from Windsor without visa or passport March 15, 1947, are those that Singler gave false and misleading statements at the time of entry and was a member of a party teaching the overthrow of the Government.

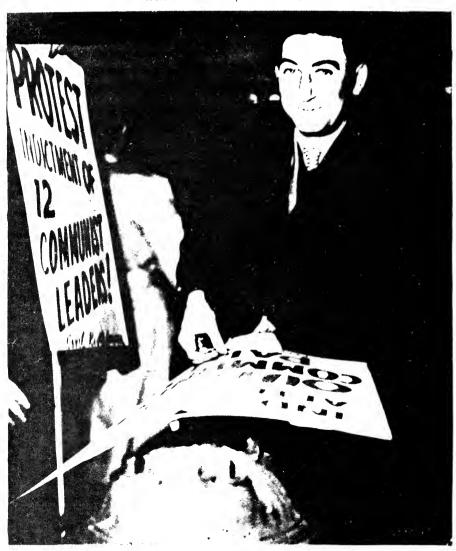

Another immigration hearing was adjourned today until next Thursday.

SEEKS DEPOSITION

The attorney for Joseph Knerly, a native of Hungary, asked the adjournment to get a deposition from Communist Party officials that the party did not advocate overthrow of the Government during Knerly's membership.

Knerly, who lives at 12222, Asbury Park, has admitted being a Communist from 1925 to 1932, but denies being taught the overthrow of the Government.

DP's Jeer Fund Rally for Writer-500 Pickets Fail To Halt Meeting

By John J. Najduch

Nearly 500 pickets demonstrated Sunday against a rally to raise funds for a Lithuanian writer accused in deportation proceedings of being a member of an organization advocating the overthrow of the United States Government.

The pickets included Lithuanian displaced persons, members of several Lithuanian and Polish organizations and University of Detroit students.

They surrounded the Hispanos Unidos Building at 24th Street and Vernor Highway, blocking the two entrances. Police cleared the way into the hall.

150 ATTEND MEETING

Target of the demonstration was Vincas Andrulis. Leaflets passed out by pickets applauded the decision of the Government to deport him, and repudiated him as a spokesman for the Lithuanian community.

The 150 who attended the meeting called the pickets fascists and Nazis. They urged the deportation of "displaced persons who brought with them a bit of nazism, rather than loyal Americans like Andrulis."

Andrulis denied that he was disloyal to this country or belonged to a subversive group.

Saul Grossman, executive secretary of the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born, praised a Supreme Court ruling that the deportation proceedings have been improperly conducted.

PICKETS HOLD MEETING

"The decision has disrupted the Justice Department's and Immigration Bureau's timetable; this will give us time to fight back," he said.

After the rally started, the pickets held a meeting of their own in the auditorium of St. Anthony Church, across the street from the hall.

A Committee of American Citizens of Lithuanian Descent was formed to expose the subversive members of the nationality group.

"A Communist fifth column has long been busy in this free country," said a resolution that was adopted. "With deep regret we admit that among the Moscow agents are some individuals of Lithuanian origin. We repudiate these traitors, and will work to expose them."

JOIN THE FIGHT!

The persecution of citizens and non-citizens by the Justice Department seriously endangers the freedoms and liberties of all the American people. The present deportation hysteria — designed to terrorize the foreign born — is in reality a direct attack upon the Bill of Rights.

Just as discrimination is used against the Negro and Jewish peoples, the Taft-Hartley law against organized labor, and loyalty investigations to intimidate government employees, so the deportation hysteria is used against the foreign born.

Along with deportation proceedings and attempts to revoke the citizenship of naturalized citizens, new oppressive legislation is pending in Congress. The Hobbs Bill, H.R. 10, would empower the Attorney General to:

- 1. Detain anyone arrested for deportation for an indefinite period WITHOUT BAIL.
- 2. Deport persons to any country in the world willing to accept them —regardless of their original birthplace.
- 3. Detain deportees in Federal custody until such time as they are actually deported—Concentration Camps in America!

This program of intimidation and terror can be defeated, and must be defeated, if the people are going to move along the road to peace and democracy. This is everyone's fight — regardless of race, color, political belief or national origin.

You can join this fight by participating in the Michigan Conference. Organizations and individuals are invited to attend this important gathering in which a minimum of speech making and a maximum of actual work will be the order of the day.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Agents of the Immigration and Naturalization Service are using all kinds of tricks and threats to deprive non-citizens, naturalized citizens, and even native-born citizens of their rights. Foreign-born Americans should be aware of the laws of the United States and refuse to permit anyone to violate these laws by depriving them of their liberties. Only in this way will the American people be able to preserve their democratic rights and defeat those who would undermine the Bill of Rights of the U.S. Constitution.

NATURALIZED CITIZENS

Naturalized American citizens have the same rights as native-born American citizens. Naturalized citizens and native-born Americans need not answer any questions put to them by anyone until after they have an opportunity to consult a lawyer or organization.

NON-CITIZENS

Non-citizens have the right to consult an attorney or organization before they answer any question put to them by anyone. Non-citizens have a right to refuse to answer questions put to them by representatives of the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

Dear Friend:

It was the Night Before Christmas and all was peacefull when there came a pounding at the door ... this could be the lead for a news story on Christmas Day. This could be your door or the door of a friend or relative, arrested and held without bail, while the Immigration Department agents. "determine" the status of the persons citisenship. Think this sounds fantasticeee like a wartime movie about Nazi Germany? This is no story, our foreign born parents are threatened ... . Over 3 1/2 million nonditizens and 11 million naturalized citizens face denaturalization and deportation under the Un-American McCarran Walter Act, which ironically enough becomes effective on December 24, 1952.

After December 24, 14 year old children not born here will have to register, be fingerprinted and photographed under the Act-Younger children must also be registered by their parents or guardiens. Penalty for the failure of these children to register is $1,000. fine and six months in jail.....Immigration agents can arrest, without warrant, any alien or "person believed to be an alien" and hold them without bail ..... Italian or Polish immigrants may come to this land until the year 2000.....a citizen can be denaturalized for joining a "subversive" organization within 5 years after naturalization ... a non citizen can be deported for something that happened 50 years ago.

It is in the best traditions of American freedom that we, sone and daughtere of the foreign born, regardless of our political opinions, must stand up and defend the righte of our parents, and thus defend ourselves.

We invite you to join other sons and daughters of foreign born Americans in the fight-back campaign. Come to the Youth Panel of the National Conference of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, at 3:00 P.M., Saturday, December 13, 1952 at the Jewish Cultural Center, 2705 Joy Road, Detroit, Michigan. JOIN HANDS with youth from all over the land to discuss how to best aid our parents and to organise to ward off efforts of the Justice Department to deport them to lands unknown to theme

We are defending 21 deportees who face jail without bail under the new fascist "conditions" demanded by the Justice Department. We are handling hundreds of cases of people who come into the office with other problems.

These activities, along with the absolute necessity of developing a broad campaign to repeal the Walter-NucCarran Act, deserve the utmost support.

Congress Urged To Declare Moratorium on Deportations and Denaturalizations

Detroit.—Congress was memorialized to declare a moratorium on deportation and denaturalization cases pending action on the Lehman-Celler Bill in the next session of Congress. The demand was voiced in a resolution unanimously adopted by the Michigan Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans, which met November 22 at the Hotel Tuller in Detroit. Michigan.

The program of action adopted by the Conference, which was attended by 153 delegates, observers, and visitors, representing 37 trade unions, civic and fraternal organizations, included a campaign to force open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill at the forthcoming session of Congress and a concentrated fight to defend former State Senator Stanley Nowak, facing loss of his American citizenship.

Speakers at the Conference included George W. Crockett, Jr., who is defending many of the 68 local victims of the Walter-McCarran Law; Saul Grossman, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, sponsors of the Conference; and Carl Marzani, author and film producer, who received a standing ovation at the end of his fighting speech which hailed the tremendous scope of the anti-McCarthy movement.

"Your fight to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law is an important part of this broad movement," said Marzani. "The wheel has turned, the American people are on the march, McCarthyism will be defeated."

The campaign to secure open hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill includes visits to local Congressmen by delegations consisting of trade unionists, ministers, civic leaders, and victims of the Walter-McCarran Law. Congressmen will be asked to take a public position on the Lehman-Celler Bill and to support a resolution calling for a moratorium on deportations and denaturalizations.

The defense of victims of the Walter-McCarran Law was made a key issue by the Conference. Plans were made to build defense committees in trade unions, neighborhoods, and fraternal societies. The case of Stanley Nowak, who was Democratic Party whip for two of the ten years he spent in the State Senate, was adonted as the major defense campaign.

Unanimous support was voted for Saul Grossman, Executive Secretary of the Michigan Committee, who faces trial in Washington, D. C., on December 21 for contempt of Congress. Mr. Grossman was indicted for his refusal to become a stoolpigeon for the House Committee on un-American Activities by turning over the books and records of his organization.

Other resolutions adopted included one pledging "wholehearted moral and financial support" to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born in its fight against forced registration by the Subversives Activities Control Board. Registration was condemned as "an attack on the right to defend," and the Attorney General was charged with a plot to destroy the American Committee in order to put into effect a repressive program against the foreign born. Organizations and individuals were urged to send representatives and attend the National Conference to Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law, sponsored by the American Committee, which will be held in Chicago on December 12 and 13, 1953, at Walsh's Hall, 1014 N. Noble Street.

Summary proceedings and the program of action adopted at the Conference are available. Requests should be sent to the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, 920 Charlevoix Bldg., Detroit 26, Michigan.

TO: Trade Union Officers, Editors, Educational Directors

The enclosed analysis of the Walter-McCarran Act was prepared primarily for use by union officials and editors of labor publications as source and background material. It highlights those sections of the law which have the most direct impact on the trade union movement.

Necessarily brief (the law itself is over 300 pages long), it is hoped that the analysis will prove useful in preparing articles, editorials, and speeches. Additional information is available upon request.

We firmly believe that the widespread dissemination of facts on the Walter-McCarran Act will help translate into reality trade union resolutions calling for repeal of the law.

December 28, 1954

Dear Friend:

In response to a pre-election request by the Michigan Committee PFB for hie views on the Walter-McCarran Law, Governor G. Mennen Williams wrote that he favored repealing the law and then added:

> "The Act in question reflects attitudes which are offensive to our historical role as the land of tolerance and liberty. . . (I) believe that the security of our institutions can be preserved without abandoning, as does the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, our traditional concept of what constitutes due process in the administration of law and perpetuating in more severe form the discriminatory quota system adopted in the 1920's."

we believe the Governor has succinctly expressed the major reasons for the repugnance felt by Americans of all shades of religious, social and political opinion to the provisions of this iniquit ous law. Denounced by leading Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish religious groupe, by the AFL and CIO, by major local veteran's organizations, and characterized as "worse than the infamous Alien Act of 1798" by the President of the United States when he vetoed it in 1952, the Walter-McCarran Law has fulfilled the worst fears of its opponents in the two vears of its existence.

The recent elections have reflected a fresh wind blowing in our land -- a wind that will sweep away such undemocratic legislation as the Walter-McCarran Law.

Election promises to work for the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law must be fulfilled. To help achieve maximum participation of the people of Michigan in a campaign to repeal the present law, to replace it with one more consistent with democratic ideals, and to defend the many victims of the law, a State-wide Conference has been called for February 27, 1955, in the Wolverine Hotel, Detroit, by the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. Only those issues raised in the enclosed Draft Call will be acted on at the Conference.

In recognition of the importance of the issues involved, we have agreed to act as Honorary Co-Chairmen of the Conference. We invite you to join us as honorary sponsors in order to encourage the widest participation in the important work of the Conference.

Sincerely yours.

TO ALL CAMDIDATES FOR OFFICE 15TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Dear Candidate:

Prior to the 1954 elections, we polled all local candidates for public office on their views on the Walter-McCarran Act. More than 100 replies were received. Reflecting the widespread dissatisfaction with the present law, with but one exception all candidates favored basic changes in the law.

As you are aware, the Walter-McCarran Law was passed over the President's veto in 1952. It has been condemned as racist, discriminatory, and undemocratic by the major Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish religious organizations; by the CIO and AFL; and by leading fraternal, civic, veteran, and nationality groups. The Republican and Democratic parties plidged changes in the law, as did President Eisenhower.

On November 21, the Senate sub-committee on Immigration and Naturalization will hold public hearings on the Walter-McCarran Law.  $W_{\theta}$  invite you to make your views known to that committee by joining in signing the enclosed open letter. We will reprint and circulate this letter as an election service to civic, fraternal, labor, veteran and religious groups as well as to several thousand individuals in the 15th Congressional District.

The recommendations in the open letter are based on the report of the President's Commission on Immigration and Maturalization; they are also included in the Lehman-Celler Bill, sponsored by 21 congressmen including Senator Patrick V. McNamara and the late Rep. John Dingell of Michigan.

To meet early printing deadlines, please sign and return the enclosed card by reply mail.

The Walter-McCarran Law - A short statement and comparison:

Many Michigan families are today threatened with break-up through the deportation of a parent. Most of these persons who are threatened with deportation or denaturalization under the Walter-McCarran Act are elderly people who have spent their whole adult lives here and raised their families here. They are law abiding working people who have made substantial contributions to this country. They have no ties to the country of their birth and are too old to start life over again. Some fourteen million foreign born persons in the United States, with families numbering perhaps forty million people, are intimately affected by this law.

In a joint statement opposing the Walter-McCarran Act, the Michigan Chapters of American Veterans of World War II (Amvets); Catholic war Veterans; Jewish War Veterans; and endorsed by the Wayne County Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), they said:

"With regard to the freedom of political choice, we point out that the distinction now created between the native-born and naturalized citizen places in the hands of an administrative tribunal absolute discretion to determine what is a political or social group or 'subversive' and in addition subjects the membership of these groups indiscriminately to denaturalization and/or deportation."

Draft Call to a Conference To Repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and To Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1955, HOTEL WOLVERINE, DETROIT, MICHIGAN

All sections of the American people have expressed opposition to the Walter-McCarran Law. Opponents of the law's provisions have condemned them as racist, discriminatory, oppressive, and conducive to police state practices.

14 million foreign born Americans find their rights threatened as the Justice Department attempts to implement the law. The Department boasts that its first victims will be 12,000 non-citizens who are to be deported after living here most of their lives; and 10,000 naturalized citizens, whose citizenship is to be revoked.

75 Michigan men and women, who have lived here an average of 40 years. have already been arrested for deportation—some have since been deported. including a mother of seven American-born children.

25 naturalized citizens have had their citizenship attacked in our local courts—some have already been deprived of their citizenship and deported. including a 67-year-old pensioner.

Their "crime" under the Walter-McCarran Act? They are foreign born and hold, or have held at any time in the distant past, minority political opinions or affiliations. Among them is Mrs. Peggy Wellman, 42, mother of two school-age children.

who faces deportation to Canada because she allegedly came to this country as an infant. Fred Williams, 48, pioneer organizer of the UAW-CIO and a grandfather, who faces deportation to Wales despite his lifelong residence here. Former State Senator Stanley Nowak, known as "labor's Senator" during his ten years in Lansing, faces loss of his citizenship.

More than 500 noncitizens nationally have been arrested for deportation. Many have been held without bail; convicted and sentenced to jail terms of as much as 20 years for the "crime" of not deporting themselves; sentenced to jail and ordered deported for failure to register, report a change of address, or file an annual report with the Attorney General.

During 1954 more than one million persons were deported to Mexico after having been arrested without warrants, denied hearings or the right to counsel, and treated in an inhuman and undignified manner.

This treatment of foreign born Americans is a violation of our American traditions and endangers the liberties of all Americans, native as well as foreign born,

The widespread opposition to this law was clearly expressed in the last elec-Prior to the November, 1954, elections, a poll of candidates for office conducted by the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born showed an overwhelming endorsement by Democrats and Republicans of measures to repeal and replace the present law. Successful candidates included those who came out most strongly against the law, including Gov. Williams, Senator McNamara, Congressman Diggs, Councilman Lincoln, and other federal, state, and local officials.

Therefore, we call for the participation of all individuals and organizations opposed to the Walter-McCarran Law in a State-wide Conference to be held on February 27, 1955, by the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. It will be the purpose of this Conference to discuss and develop a program to defend the rights of the foreign born and to bring about the repeal of the Walter-

McCarran Law in 1955.

VICTORY: RIGHTS OF CITIZA'S UPHALD /

The U. S. Supreme Court ruled on Jan 16 that the Immigration Service cannot subpoems naturalised citizens to ask them questions that might lead to their denaturalization and deportation.

This also means that the letters they have been sending out "requesting" people to appear for interviews cannot be enforced. This is a big victory and another blow at the Walter-bcCarran Law. NNON YOUR RIGHTS!

This issue of The Defender features a number of victories that have been achieved in the past month. They are impressive signs of the strength of the movements for peace and civil rights in our country. They forstell the posibility of a successful fight to repeal the Walter-hcCarran Law, source of the second-class status of foreign born Americans and threat to the liberties of all. To make this possibility a reality, we call on every reader to join this fight.

Sunday, February 26 at 2 P.m., the Michigan Committee will present something new and different for our repular meeting. Harking the half-way point in our Frund Drive, we have rented beautiful Nowak Hall, at 15703 Chene, corner Falmer, for a combined meeting land social featuring various netionality delicacies, movies, and a report by our Executive Secretary on the status of the campaign to repeal the Walter-McGarren Law.

A sis-year fight to prevent the deportation of Chimasoon and Choon Cha Kink to South Morea ended recently when they were granted a wise to Casello-aloyakia enabling them to leave this country on the first lap of their journey home to Ne Korea.

At an interview prior to departure the couple said

VICTORY: SUPRIME COURT TO REVIEW - "confidential information".

A review by the Supreme Court was granted to Geeil Jay of Seattle recently. Mr. Jay was denied suspension of deportation to England by the Immigration Service because of "confidential information". The fate of many hundreds of foreign born who are in similar jeopardy is at stake including Thomas Dutton of Detroit and Peggy Wellman's mother, also of Seattle.

A LATTER PHON SENATOR LONADIARA

Dear .r. Grossman:

Thank you for your letter of January 17 asking for my position on the hecarran Walter Act.

You will be interested to know that I am sponsoring two bills — one of these, S. 1206, is intended to repeal the act and replace it with a more equitable one; the other, S. 1315, would at least change some of its most objectionable features.

Thank you for your interest in this matter.

Sincerely,

Pat. McNamara, U.S.S.

Hev. Hill, pastor of the hartford Avenue Baptist Church for the past 35 years, is a native of Detroit. He stated that he was interested in, and supported the work of the A.C.F.B. because, "the foreign born suffer to some extent the same injustices that the legro has suffered throughout all these years."

He testified that the program and work of the ACPFB was fully consistent with the Gospel, that in his view it never took any stand inconsistent with Judaism or Christianity. Mev. Hill testified about the work of the Michigan Committee and emphasized that it was an independent organization. He stated that the ACPFB was being attacked because it sought to defend the rights of the foreign born in much the same way that the NAACP was branded as "subversive" in the . ### REPEAL ACTIVITIES

Our committee is visiting each national group helping to organize community activities around the campaign to repeal the W-LCC Law.

We had active lobbies last month at the UAW - EER conference in Grand Rapids, attended by 800 and at the PAC-CIO State legislative conference in Lansing attended by 700. We also distributed our new folder at six SIO Precinct organizing meeting on Feb. 5. Folders are being distributed at local union meetings.

VICTORY: DEPORTATION CASE DROPPED /

The Los Angeles Committee .P.F.B. announced a victory in the case of Steve herges, who been notified by the Immigration Service that deportation proceedings against him, pending for over two years, had been dropped.

VICTORY: DEMATURALIZATION CASE DISMISSED /

Hilliam Shewchuk of Detroit, a naturalized citizen since 1931 and a veteran Ford botor Co. employee, had the satisfaction of seeing U.S. District Judge Frank Picard kick the Justice Dept's denaturalization case out of court Jan. 19.

/EISENHOWER'S PROPOSALS SHORT OF NEEDS /

Pres. Disenhower's recommendations for changes in the W-McC Law fall far short of the needs of the American people. Welcome increases in the number of immigrants to be admitted are joined with acceptance of the racist and discriminatory national crigins system in the law.

The repressive sections of the law are to be further strengthened and the Court appeal rights of non-citizens curtailed. No proposals were made for a statute of limitations in deportation and denaturalization proceedings, thus continuing the policy of deporting long-time legal residents like Thomas Dutton, Peggy Wellman, Fred dilliams, Otella Brown, Stanley wowak, etc.

We urge that letters and resolutions be sent your Senators and Horresontatives calling on them to work for the repeal of the --xcC Act and its replacement by a democratic law based on the needs and traditions of the wherean people.

New folders on the cases of Gus rolites, facing deportation to Greece, and harry pavis, who is fighting denaturalization, will be ready soon.

THE TWELVE INDITMENTS AND DEFENSE ACTIVITY

The trial of our National Committee leaders hasbeen set for October 15th. It is therefore of immediate importance that our members and friends set towork to arrange and participate in activities that will inform the people of the indictments. This activity is a prerequisite for an adequate defense in the courts. A recent editorial in the Michigan Worker, quoted as follows, the need for an intensive and immediate struggle in defense of our Party leaders. This editorial, entitled "DEMOCRACY'S DEFENSE": stys "Americans by the thousands are responding to the defense of the 12 indicted Communist leaders.

DEMOCRACY'S DEFENSES

Americans by the thousands are responding to the defense of the 12 indicted Communist le aders. Workingmen andwomen, Negrose, people from religious minorities and other progressives, they are not, in the main, Communists.

ous minorities and other progressives, they are not, in the main, Communists.

"They smell fascism in the air and they won't tolerate it.

"They recognize, as the Civil Rights Congress hasdeclared, that: "the issue is not Communism versus Democracy. It is Democracy versus fascism. The honest and courageous Americanshave learned something from World War 11 and the fall of democracy in Germany and France."

"They have learned the lesson that is written indelibly. In blood. They know that reaction struck first at the Communists, and that this is fascism's classic pattern. It follows, hen, that the first line of deportacy's defence is the defense of the civil rights of the Communist Party.

This conviction impelled the Civil Rights Congress to organize the defense of the 12, and to head it. It has assumed the t remendous task of raising $250,000 for that defense in the brief period between Sept.1 and Oct.15, when the trial is scheduled to open.

"Ordinary judicial procedure has been flung to the winds. Summarily rejected wasthe plea of defense counsel for a reasonable period of preparation of this enormously important trial.

The reason for the refueal wastransparent. The bi-partisan government wants the defendants in court before the presidential election. It plots to use the trial as a Roman holiday to divert the people's attention from the bankrupt policies of the Democratic and Republican parties.

"Instead of homes, they give the people the red-scare; instead of lower prices, they offer the red herring. The orgy of red-baiting is their substitute for adequate w ages, peace and security of the people, black as well as white.

EXHIBIT No. 322 -Continued

"The venom of the authorities is further revealed in their refusal to allow the defendants the right of free movement. The police-state official dom hasn't dared _5 yot - to issue ukases for "house-arrests," but they're next door to it. The defendants are restricted to their home districts, denied the right to go to the nation, to explain the issues, to raise funds for the defense. There goes the vaunted principle of "Anglo-Sexon jurisprudence" - that a man is innocent until proved guilty. These 12 are pre-judgod,

"But the authorities reckon without their hosts. The people, in their full might, heven't spoken yet.

"First, of course, tons and hundreds of thousands of decent Americans must - and - w ill - be enlisted in this historic strugglo. The nature and cause of the arreste must be explained. For the "force and violence" charge is as heary as Alexander Hamilton's tembetone. That exponent of wealthy privilege reared this charge against the democratic followers of Thomas Jeffers on which led to the monstrous time of the Alien and Sadition laws.

"Because the people sense this, they will find new forms of defending the 12 Communists. Their genius will find new weys of reising funds, new methods of bringing the defense to the millions, new ways of combatting warmongering and red-baiting.

- -> "As the CRC assorts, these trials hold in balance the fate of democratic procedure and democratic institutions in our land. For these reasons Communists once again must prove their undying devotion to both principles.
- "Every Communist has a transcedant responsibility to support, levally and tirolessly, the activities of the CRC. This means active membership in the CRC; this means onlighting your friends and neighbors into the defense organization. This means raising funds for it.

"For the CRC is heir to a beritage of veliant struggle: for Sacoo and Vanzetti, for Tom Mooney, for the Soottsboro boys who were saved from death by a monumental struggle.

"This heritage must become the property of millions. But no time can be lost. The trials of the 12 will be one of the greatest tests of strongth between the progressives of America - regardless of their political affiliations - and reaction - regardless of the label it cerries at the mement.

"This is the issue, and it is of paremount importance to Americal"

The State Committee has decided upon the following immediate tasks:

- 1) Continue to circulate the small 2¢ pamphlet by Eugene Dennis enetitled "Eugene Dennis Indicts the Wall Street Conspirators".

  Some pamphlets have been supplied for distribution at our industratel concentration points free of charge. Clubs should buy additional supplies for further sale and distribution from the Litterature Department.
- 2) Full assistance in the $250,000 fund drive of Civil Rights Congress. The Michigan Civil Rights Congress has agreed to mise $10,000 towward this Def onse Fund. Our Party is participating wholehoartedly and energotically in this fund raising to help guarantee adequate defence funds to fight the 12 indictments.

$10,000 must be raised in Michigan by CCTOBER 15th.

- 3) Got postcards sont to Attornoy General Tom Clark demanding that the indictments be dropped.
- 4) Secure speaking ongagements for Carl Winter and the other indictees at local unions, Executive Boards, verious civic and community organizations. Help CRC organize community public moetings, both open air and hall meetings. Consider non-time shop gate meetings.

  Use the Michigan Worker consistently every wook at a hop gates and in communities to help publicize the basic causes and the status of the defense fight. Continue the dellar subgetting ($1.00 for 5 months), the offer for which will be good until election day, (November 2nd.)

Plan of Work

Adopted at Conference of Clubs in 16th Cong. Dist. April 1950

The conference of West Side Clubs was held for the purpose of establishing a West Side Community Section of the Communist Party.

In line with the State Committee's policy of Ford concentration, this Section organization would work in conjunction with the established Ford Section. Its specific task is to work in the community outside and around the Ford Plant, reaching Auto workers in general and Ford workers in particular.

Such a Section organization would in every way strengthen the concentration policy at Ford by extending and developing the political and economic struggles of Ford workers in the neighborhoods where at present our Party is weakest.

The following program shall act as a guide to all our activities in the 16th Cong. Dist. It is based on the most important issues confronting the workers in this community.

1. The fight for peace

This is the main political task today. All other issues facing the people are related to and dependent on the struggle against Imperialist War. Such activities as mass meetings, petitions against the H-Bomb, leaflets by the National Group Clubs, etc., must be organized. The Section Committee shall work out in detail specific activities in this connection.

2. Economic struggle

The Party shall establish relations with the existing Mass organizations of the people in 16th Cong. Dist., to help organize and wage the fight for jobs, increased unemployment compensation, public housing, etc.

The Section Committee shall cooperate with the Ford Section on all economic struggles developing in the Ford plant. An example in point is the need for developing a broad peoples fight against the Ford runaway shop plan.

Civil rights

The 16th Cong. Dist, is made up of many large Nationalities. A great percentage of these people are foreign born.

There have been several arrests and many threats of deportation against militant, progressive elements among these nationality groups and foreign born. This is part of a national pattern of terrorization and intimidation conducted by the Government and reactionary groups. This policy of the Government flows from the general policy of American Imperialism, i. e., of preparing for a war of world conquest and domination. The ontlook is for even sharper and more frequent attacks against the foreign born.

Therefore a more effective relationship must be established between the National Group Organizations, the Michigan Committee for the protection of Foreign Born and the Civil Rights Congress.

The growing influx of so-called "Displaced Persons" and their organized participation in fascist like demonstrations against progressive organizations of foreign born; and signs of Tito influences penetrating liberal and progressive Nationality Groups, makes it necessary for the incoming Section Committee to work out with our National Group Comrades such activities as will strengthen our fight against these fascist sources.

4. The struggle for Negro rights

The struggle against White Chauvinism has too long been neglected in our Party in the 16th Cong. District.

Our National Group Comrades in particular must begin to in all their activities, social political, etc., wage a relentless fight against White Chauvinism.

The Section Committee shall conduct an ideological fight in and outside our Party against White Chauvinism.

The Section shall examine with the Party clubs possibilities of organizing action against Negro Discrimination in the 16th Dist. in public eating and drinking places, Boys Club, Kronk Community Center, etc.

With Negro people buying homes in greater number in the 16th, our Party must be more alert to any signs of hoodlumism and attempts by reactionary groups to bar Negroes from purchasing homes in the 16th Cong. Dist.

The Section Committee in cooperation with the Ford Section shall organize a Section Inter-racial Dance. National Group Clubs shall organize similar affairs.

The McGraw Club will have the special duty of bringing to the attention of our whole Party Section any discriminatory acts.

5. The role of Communists in the progressive evalition

The 16th Congressional District is a key district in local and national political struggles. It is a community of many nationalities and mass organizations, with a rich tradition of united front struggles.

The central task of every club and the Section shall be to work in such a manner as to establish joint activities and struggles with the mass organizations of the people around such local and community issues as unemployment, adequate unemployment compensation, relief housing, transportation, etc., and to tie these up with the main struggle for peace.

On the political front to move in the direction of building a united front of all peace loving people for an effective campaign to defeat reactionary Congressman John Lesinski and the election of a progressive pro-labor candidate in the coming Congressional elections around the main issues of peace, jobs and democracy.

Individual members and clubs have the political responsibility of building and strengthening the Progressive Party in the 16th Cong. District.

The Section Committee shall make definite assignments of individuals and clubs to work in this field as their major task. The Section Committee shall also work out methods of approaching mass organizations in working out United Front activities in relation to political activities.

6. To improve the ideological work

- A. For the next two month period the major part of Section and Club meetings shall be devoted to the discussion of the reports of the recent plenum of the National Committee of our Party which will appear in the May issue of Political Affairs, with special attention to the following:
  - 1. White Chauvinism and the Negro Peoples Liberation movement.
  - 2. Titoism.
  - 3. The role of the Party and Mass Organizations.
  - 4. Socialism.

Propose following for execution:

B. Press

The role of the Michigan Worker as an effective organization instrument of our Party has been amply demonstrated on a number of occasions, particularly around the issue of speedup at Ford. Therefore, all clubs on the West Side should give greater attention than in the past, to the building of the circulation of the Mich. Worker with the Section Committee giving special attention to the following:

1. National Groups: In cooperation with the Party clubs in the various national groups, steps must be worked out to reach the English speaking youth with the Michigan Worker, with special emphasis on Ford workers.

with the Michigan worker, with special emphasis on Ford workers.

2. Propose that the McGraw Club and the Down River areas be considered as concentration points for mass bundle sales.

3. Propose that this Section make a major contribution in the field of renewals, with Mich. Ave. Club taking main organizational responsibility.

4. Section Committee shall give assistance to the various national group clubs in building the circulation of their respective language paper, with special attention to reaching Ford workers.

C. Literature

1. Propose setting up a committee of three, whose task shall be the compiling of a list of the many organizations of workers in the 16th Cong. Dist., for the specific purpose of working out methods of reaching leaders and key people of these organizations with specific pieces of literature dealing with key and timely issues.

2. Assistance to be given to the National Group Clubs to work out similar system with respect to material issues in foreign languages.

3. Propose Literature director to be elected or appointed for entire section to guarantee issuance of Party literature at all meetings.

4. Immediate serious effort to be made to encourage and obtain a large registration of members for the Spring Term in the Michigan School of Social Science. Objective shall be a minimum of ten.

5. To cooperate with the Ford Section in organizing and carrying thru of proposed series of Lectures and Forums on the West Side.

6. With assistance of Ford Section, to encourage and assist establishment of regular Forums and Lectures in various National group homes.

6. Build and strengthen the party

Conditions of the day demand a greater vigilance on the part of every member and club to safeguard and secure the membership and the Party organization from being infected by any anti-Party ideologies and foreign anti-Marxian theories. The Party leadership and program must be defended at all times. Vacillations, weaknesses and submissions to any anti-Party propaganda must be checked and rooted out.

Building and strengthening the Party is a two front job. Every member and in the first place every leading active member is obligated to devote considerable amount of spare time to self study, concentrating on Marxism, Leninism and in the second place to recruit into the Party on the basis of personal attention to the most class conscious, militant and honest workers of whom there are plenty in every shop and community.

Propose following objectives

(a) Establishment of regular club meetings.

(b) Every leading active member to subscribe to the Daily and Michigan Worker and read regularly Political Affairs.

(e) Propose the new Section recruit 25 new members by July 4th. Major portion are to come from Steel, Packing and Negro Ford workers.

(d) McGraw Club on basis of community activity with special attention to Ford workers to recruit a goodly portion of the 25.

(e) Section to cooperate with National Group Clubs to work out methods of reaching the younger generation with emphasis on Ford Workers.

(f) Michigan Ave. Club with help from Section Committee, assigned to establish a Kelsey Hayes Club of the Party. This applies also to other shops in community where there is no Party club and where contacts exist.

(g) Section to develop independent activities of all kinds based on community issues and life. To be on the alert and respond to important community issues with statements and leaflets.

7. Defense of the 12

The defense and freedom of the 12 must be connected and tied with every campaign, struggle and issue conducted on the West Side. It is the key issue in the struggle for the legality of our Party and the mass organizations of the people. It is tied with the struggle for peace.

Propose following action:

(a) National group clubs must give greater attention to this issue than has been the case in the past. Organization of mass meetings in the national group homes must be attempted and a greater effort and better response to the question of finances must be considered and organized.

(b) More effective organization of defense campaigns dealing with leaflets, telegrams, letters, resolutions, etc.

(e) For consolidation of forces for more effective work and a better Party Life, propose that the new Section Committee at its early meetings review all clubs, their organizational status and membership with the perspective of strengthening clubs through possible mergers, shifting of forces, etc.

The State Committee submits the Matienal Committee Draft Resolu-The State Committee subtract the military committee fact resolution to the membership for discussion as the lasis for election of delegates and submitting of proposals to the forthcoming 15th National Convention of our Party. Ine National Draft Resolution sets an example of self-critical examination of our Party's work and furnishes the framework of formulation of our State Convention Resolution and decisions as well as for discussion of all matters to come before our National Convention.

In line with the National Draft Resolution, there are submitted herewith the main considerations based on our District experience, which it is proposed should enter into the State Committee report to the District Convention, and which should form the casis of the resulting District Resolution.

October 17, 1951

Dear Sir & Brother.

The Lichigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born will stage its annual State Conference at Local 600 UAN-CIO Auditorium on Saturday, October 27, 1951. Please find enclosed Call containing information as to registration, time, etc.

The ever increasing attacks upon the rights of foreign born members in our unions represent a real danger, of course, to the future existence of our organisation and the fighting principles of democracy and freedom upon which it has been built. Every union leader, every union member has a stake in the struggle to defeat the present deportation drive and should recognise an attack upon one of its numbers as a threat against all.

Tou, I am sure, realise that the current attacks against union members because they are non-citizens or because they are militant fighters for peace and jobs is only a part of the general assault upon the people, citizens as well, because they refuse to accept speedup, rising prices, and lower standards of living.

The future of our unions and our American heritage of freedom and democracy depends upon our acting now. Will you join many of your fellow union members at Ford Local 600 Auditorium on Saturday October 27th and add your voice and fighting spirit to this cause?

Come, and bring as many of your shopmates as you like. Visitors and fraternal delegates are welcome to attend, either in the name of their local unions or as individuals.

Hoping to see you there. I am

Sincerely and fraternally,

For the Trade Union Committee of the Lichigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Bc:

Emmett McCormicke Emmett McCormick, Chairman

- 3. Special assistance will be given Michigan in the Party Building Drive through Metional Board members of the Communist Party and other leaders of our movement who will tour the country. Elisabeth F. Flynn, Henry Winston, Shul Wellman, Betty Gannett and others have been assigned to Michigan.
- Political Integration of New Members: Learning from past experiences, the political integration of every new member must start simultaneously with the opening of the Party Building Drive. We must make clear to all prospective recruits what the duties and requirements of membership in the Communist Party are. The following points are most important:
  - a) Inform the applicant about the initiation fee and monthly dues payment; about the Club Sub to the Daily Worker and a regular subscription to the Worker and attending club meetings.

Applications for new members must be reviewed and voted upon at Club meetings. The sponsor for the new member is responsible to introduce the applicant.

- c) New member's classes shall be organised. In large clubs this may be done by the Club. The State Educational Department is responsible to organise one of more centrally located classes for new members going into smaller clubs.
- d) The National Committee is preparing a special pamphlet for every new member.
- 5. Party Building cannot be separated from the constant improvement of EVERY Party member through Merxist-Leninist study. We must plan to qualitatively strengthen the Party's older cadre as we integrate the new members recruited. The following objectives should be set as goals for the campaign:
  - a) Each Club Executive Board to see that every Board member is a regular reader of the Daily Worker, The Worker and Political Affairs.

The Club Executive Board to assure that each club meeting has an organised educational period of not less than an hour.

- c) To further the self-study of club members by each club Executive Board with the essistance of the State Literature Committee to acquire for the use of club members a Little Lenin Library. To follow through on this, the Club Board should check on its own members to encourage the reading and study of such classics as "What is To Be Done", "The Teachings of Karl Marx", "History of the CPSU", etc.
- d) Each Club should organise a new members circle using Foundations of Leninism as a text. These circles to be organised in addition to any regularly organised classes. Such circles to include older members who have not attended Party classes.
- e) The issuance of leaflets on local issues, the sale of Party literature and the circulation of the press is also to be considered Party Building. Wherever possible quotas and plans should be worked out whereby our work can be checked.
- 6. Michigan has been decided upon as one of the three page-metters for the drive among the larger districts. The other two districts are Brooklyn, New York and Illinois. We have a real responsibility, therefore, in this respect. A Party Duilding Committee is being established by the State Board. You will receive information about this committee through the Drive Bulletin.

$35,000 for PEACE and CIVIL RIGHTS (March 18 - Mey 7)

goo,000 for reach and civils atomic (march is - mey 7)

Nineteen percent of our all or over $6,500 was turned in the first night of our fund drive which was launched at a successful celebration of International Women's Day on March 18.

Outstanding performances were registered by the Flint, Dave White and Auto Sections and by the Rumanian and Treek Clubs, each of which raised at least a third of their quotas.by the opening date of the drive.

This is a good start for the main push, which must bring us to our three-quarter goal by Sunday,  $April\ 16$ .

THREE-QUARTER GOAL - APRIL 16

To achieve the three-quarter goal in the three weeks until "pril 16 requires each section and club to increase the tempo of fund raising.

We urge that every club that has not already done so, have a thorough POLITICAL DISCUSSION on the Fund Drive, analyzing our program for 1950 with respect to the Communist Party, the Press and the Defense of the "12"

LATEST FUND RAISING METHODS

There are now available: Defense collection books (#10 in certificates, Press collection books (#20 in certificates) and Press stamp books (#4.20 in stamps). Try to sell a whole book at a time, possibly telling the person who buys it that they can raise money on the individual certificates or stamps and keep What they raise. Thus we get the whole sum at once, and another person is put to work on our fund drive.

The last fund drive bulletin fave a detailed description of how an individual, as distinct from a club, can run a party and a Sunday breakfast and make at least $30 towards their quota thereby.

#3 ON FIGHTING BACK FUND OF $15,000 -- OVER $8,000 REACHED

Over $2,000 was turned in at the Peace Rally bringing the total in State Office to $8,166. Due to the fact that some sections started late and others are still raising money at a good tempo, the State Board has decided to extend the Drive to December 1, which will be the final date.

Failure to complete quotas by December 1 will jeopardize the plans of our Party:

The fact that over $8,000 has already been reised in so short a time and in the midst of the election and anti-pension sell-out campaigns is a credit to the Michigan Communist Farty.

We urge all sections to energetically follow up their financial plans so their quotas can be fulfilled before Decomber 1.

the objectively revolutionary character of the emancipation movement, thus sowing illusions in the bourgeoisie, cultivating illusions in gradualism, etc.

The Attacks Against The Foreign Born

The attacks against the foreign born, launched at the close of World War II, have increased with particular intensity during the past few years. With the passage of the McCarran Act (1950) and the Walter-McCarran Act (1952), police-state persecutions and harrassment of men, women and children for the sole "crime" of being born outside our shores, has become an every-day occurrence in the America of today.

Registered and fingerprinted, compelled to keep on their person a Gestapo-like Registration Card, and to inform the Department of Justice of every change of address, the foreignborn non-citizen lives today in daily fear of arrest and deportation. Already, more than 300 men and women, among them many national and district leaders of our Party, including John Williamson, Jack Stachel, Irving Potash, Claudia Jones, Alex Bittleman, and Betty Gannett, face the threat of deportation.

The Eisenhower Administration has clearly indicated that it intends to broaden the dragnet and to extend it to the naturalized citizen. In one of his first statements upon assuming office, Attorney General Brownell callously announced that his Department of Justice would move with speed to deport 12,000 non-citizens and initiate 10,000 denaturalization proceedings. This McCarthyite assault on the foreign born, citizen and non-citizen, is to be carried out through the instrumentality of the 1952 Walter-McCarran Act. This Act, replacing all former immigration and naturalization measures, contains the most vicious racist, chauvinist, police-state provisions, our country has yet witnessed.

Foreign-born men and women who once came to our country to escape persecution and the poverty of the "old country," now find that the former asylum from tyranny has become a land of F.B.I. night-raids, F.B.I. surveillance, police-state intimidations and inquisitions, long-term incarceration in local jails or on Ellis Island, and ruthless breaking-up of families. The threat of deportation for the non-citizen also confronts the naturalized citizen today, who, on the basis of perjured and manufactured testimony from bought-and-paid-for stool-pigeons, can not only lose his citizenship, but eventually also be deported.

Self-critically we must say that we have seriously underestimated the scope and character of the deportation mania that has swept our country. What is more, from the beginning. we did not fully grasp the significance of these attacks. As a result we did not, on a consistent day-to-day basis, show that the attacks on the democratic rights of the foreign born were an inseparable part of the whole reactionary drive to destroy the democratic processes in our land. For it is an established fact that when the liberties of the foreign born are endangered, this threatens the liberties of all Americans. Thus, the foreign-born victims of reactionary thought-control legislation found the struggle in their defense limited to narrow circles, primarily among progressive national group elements. and the fight was not brought into the unions, the communities and people's organizations, with the aim of enlisting broad support, in the first place the support of native-born Americansi Clearly, a change must be brought about in this situation. Every foreign-born American faced with deportation or denaturalization, Communist and non-Communist, must see a rallying of forces in their defense so that every possible activity is developed to prevent his or her deportation or loss of citizenship. In this connection, the American Committee for the Protection of the Foreign Born earns the support of every progressive in our country, for its tireless work on behalf of the foreign born has endeared it among tens of thousands of men and women.

For the Repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act

As is known, the Walter-McCarran Act, which became law December 24, 1952, has aroused the opposition of broad public opinion, cutting across every section of the population. The official labor movement, bourgeois-led organizations in the national group field, religious, political and community figures, have all denounced the Act. So vocal has been this opposition, that the President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization, which conducted numerous public hearings at the end of last year, expressed surprise at this "widespread and rather determined opposition." In many parts of the country, united front movements in the main initiated by, and embracing exclusively, Right-led organizations, have sprung up, devoted to the task of bringing changes in the Act, or securing its complete repeal. These movements have great potentiality and are of the utmost importance. While they concentrate primarily on the discriminatory immigration features of the Act, and as yet accept the rigorous provisions directed against "subversives", against Communists", the struggle tends more and more to become a struggle aimed at the repeal of the Walter-McCarran Act and for the adoption of new legislation. This must be borne in mind.

It is hard to understand why the progressive-led organizations—the unions, national groups and other organizations, including our Party—have not thrown themselves with full force into this struggle, giving support to the various movements that have arisen, helping them to more vigorously unfold the fight for the repeal of this fascist-like legislation. This is an important phase of the fight against McCarthyism and McCarranism, and cannot be relegated to a second-rate position.

It is our understanding that new legislation is being prepared to be introduced in Congress to replace the Walter-McCarran Act. We should be on the alert for this, and actively engage in the discussion to support such legislation if it meets the requirements of the day, to introduce amendments, and to activate in this process the various broad movements that now exist.

Defense of the Party's Legality

The defense of our Party's legality is not and, must not be allowed, to become a partisan concern of Communists. The history of the post-war drive of reaction in the U.S. confirms

Don't you think that it would be nice for us to send her a card signed by all the "21'? we have the card here at the office ad if you'll call us or write, we'll put your name on it.

If we all gave just a little, we could send her a gift of a plant, so she'd be constantly aware of our sympathy and support. Lould you like to contribute? If so, please call me at the office.

Anna is at the Mt Carmel Mercy Hospital, 6071 M. Outer Drive, room 290, the visiting hours are: 2:30-4:00 and 7:30-8:30. It would be real nice if we all arranged to visit her during this long stay in the hospital.

Best personal regards

We are happy to tell you that so far there has been no decision on our "case".

Saul Grossman goes to trial in mashington on the 25th of this month, and if you'd like to help in some way in his ddfense, please let us know.

April 17, 1953

Dear Friend.

Our Conference, originally planned for this month, has been postponed. The Banquet honoring the 45 men and women threatend with deportation or loss of citizenship under the provisions of the Walter McCarran Law, will be held as scneduled on Saturday April 25th.

In addition to Professor John Shepard and George W Crockett Jr, as the main speakers of the evening, there will be excellent entertainment. A steak dinner will be served. We are planning to have dancing after the program.

At this Banquet we are launching a drive to raise the necessary funds to continue with the fight against the Walter McCarran Law end it's provisions. Under this law the Attorney General can at his own discretion put people in jail indefinitely without a trial or Mearing. 21 Detroiters are so threatened unless they agree to leave their families and life-long friends and live in a self-imposed jail.

rr Saul Grossman will also be honored. As you know, the executive secretary of our Committee has been indicted for contempt of Congress. he faces jail because of his activities in defense of the rights of the Foreign Born.

Obviously, this fight against the walter incCarran Law is the res ponsibility of every American and needs the support of all. Thousands of dollars are needed avery month, just for defense activities. Knowing how you, as a thinking person, must feel about this fight, we would like to surgest that if you cannot be at our Banquet in person, you send your denation to the Committee.

with best regards,

Sincerely yours,

An American family faces destruction.

This week, a deportation hearing will be held in a small room on E. Jefferson Ave. which will decide the fate of the family of Wr. and Wrs. Saul Wellman and thear two echeplage children, David, 13, and Vlotaria, 11.

Firs. Peggy Wellman, who has lived in the United States all of her life, faces departation because the Immigration Dept. Claims that she was actually born in Gundh and brought to the United States as a Baby, while both her older and Twinger brothers were bern here.

Mer husband, Saul, is one of the five man in jail after their recent conviction under the Smith Act. Held on $107. 000 bail, they are fighting for a reduction of this enormous bond pending appeal of their conviction.

Mrs. Wellman faces deportation because of her labor and progressive activities over many years. She is a victim of the infamous Walter-NcCarran Act, under which more than 350 men and women face deportation for their past political beliefs despite their long years of legal residence in the United States.

This law has been condemned by every major religious, labor and civic group. The Lenman-Celler Bill, which would repeal this vicious law, has been introduced by 32 members of Congress, including Congressmen Machrowicz and Rabaut of Michigan.

Motherhood and the H-Bomb

To the Editor: The time-is past when thinking Americans can remain silent in face of the potential national suicide symbolized in the recent H-bomb explosions and in the cobalt bomb as described in your article.

We cannot continue to explode bombs and talk of seeking peace. Logic tells me it is one or the other. It has become very clear that another war is absolute insanity.

We must, regardless of our differences with the Soviet Union, sit down as intelligent humans and discuss these differences over a conference table and talk until accord and permanent peace are finally attained.

I will shortly become a mother, for the first time, and this more than any single factor dramatizes to me the need for world peace. My child and all children must be guaranteed an America free from the fears faced by my generation. A first requisite to this happy America is abolition of the threat of world annihilation.

America's heritage of freedom is endangered by the persecution of the foreign born for their ideas. Human dignity, the sacredness of family life and raditional American hospitality for all are violated by the horassment and threatened destruction of American families through the arrest and deportation of their foreign born members. #### A most fateful choice confronts the American people, and especially the workingpeople, today:

WAR OR PEACE!

Shall American boys and Korean people continue to die in Asia, as our country drifts towards World War III—

OR shall the major powers halt the bloodshed and settle their problems around the conference table?

Shall the people suffer wage-freeze, inflationary prices, and high taxes while the profits of billionaire corporations soar—

OR shall we raise the standard of living through higher wages, price and rent rollback, lower taxes and the promotion of trade with all nations?

Shall the wealth of our country be squandered in a mad armaments race that will bring disease, hunger and misery to millions in every country throughout the world—

OR shall labor build hospitals, schools, roads and improve the health, education, social security and well being of the people?

Shall we allow the precious democratic liberties of the American people to be destroyed through Taft-Hartley and McCarran laws, through lynchings and persecutions of the Negro people, through hysterical witch-hunts and a system of thought-control—

OR shall we defend and preserve our sacred Constitution and Bill of Rights and traditions of democracy and freedom?

WE SAY—Let us choose PEACE! Let us choose DEMOCRACY! Let us choose SECURITY!

Peace can be won. War is not inevitable. Disputes among nations can and must be settled through peaceful negotiations.

We know that this is the hope of the American people and the people of all countries

Let us lay aside all differences and pool our resources for a plan to save America by saving the peace.

With your help and active participation we can, must and will win peace.

"Peace" Poll Is Under Fire—Pastor Denies Reds Back Detroit Balloting

By Robert H. D'Arey

"Peace ballots" being distributed here under the auspices of the American Peace Crusade (APC) are Communist-inspired and follow the Communist Party line, authorities said Saturday.

The APC is called a "Communist front" and an "organic part of the Communist peace offensive" by the House Committee on Un-American Activities

The ballots are being distributed in Detroit and Michigan by the Michigan Council for Peace (MCP), which is not on the subversive lists of the committee or the United States Attorney General. However, the ballot itself carries the name of the APC

PASTOR HEADS MCP

Police point out that MCP's chairman, the Rev. Charles A. Hill, Negro pastor of the Hartford Avenue Baptist Church here and twice a city council candidate, has been affiliated with the Civil Rights Congress and the Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, which are on the subversive lists.

Moreover, MCP's headquarters are in room 502 in Hotel Roberts, 5725 Woodward, whose occupants are Dr. Verne and Mrs. Leonora Piazza, who were delegates to an APC-sponsored "peace crusade" in Washington earlier this year. The House committee called this "crusade" a "march of treason."

The MCP was local sponsor for the APC "crusade,"

OBJECTIVES GIVEN

The ballots ask prospective voters whether they favor (1) calling American troops out of Korea and settling the war there, (2) Big Five negotiations for long-term world peace, and (3) keeping Germany disarmed.

Mr. Hill Saturday called the poll "a sincere effort for peace," and declared that "although there are some questionable folks in any movement, our Michigan Council for Peace balloting is purely an American movement."

161 Protestant Church Leaders Ask Truman To Amnesty Communist "11"

One hundred and sixty-one church leaders representing 15 major Protestant denominations laid before President Truman at Christmastime their appeal for amnesty for 11 leaders of the Communist Party convicted under the Smith Act, it was made known this week.

Release of the letter to Truman with its signers was made by the Rev. Edward D. McGowan, minister of Epworth Methodist Church, Bronx, N. Y., one of the 10 clergymen who initiated the appeal. Reverend McGowan stated that, if affirmative action is not taken by President Truman, a similar appeal will be presented to General Eisenhower when he becomes President.

Seven bishops of the Protestant Episcopal are in the list of signers, including one of the letter's initiators, the Right Rev. Normand B. Nash of Massachusetts, as well as Bishop Arthur W. Womack of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church and Bishop G. W. Taylor of the Reformed Zion Union Apostolic Church.

Among the signers are 12 clerics who are professors in theological schools or universities, and an equal number of national officers, State and district superintendents in several denominations together with the executives of the local church federations. The majority on the list are parish ministers of 15 denominations in 33 States.

A BASIC RIGHT

The church leaders declared in their appeal that conscientions advocacy is a basic democratic right and the glory of a free society. The letter contends:

"Many Americans feel that imprisonment for conscientious advocacy is not only incompatible with our whole philosophy of government but is an indication to countless observers abroad of lack of confidence in our American institutions." Citing a long tradition of Presidential amnesty for political prisoners, the church leaders appealed to the President "in the spirit of Christmas and in harmony with justice" to exercise his executive power in granting amnesty to the Communist Party leaders in jail, that they may return to their wives and children. By the exercise of amnesty "we shall be stronger in the eyes of the world," the appeal concluded.

McCarran Law Repeal Urged by 93 Notables

Ninety-three prominent Americans have signed an Open Letter to the U. S. Congress calling for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law, it is announced by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

"We recommend," said the letter, "that, in adopting a new immigration and naturalization policy, consideration be given to the following democratic principles:

- 1. Any non-citizen who has lived in the U. S. for two years or more, if entry was in accordance with law, should be permitted to become an American citizen by appearing in open court and taking an oath of allegiance to the Constitution.
- 2. Any non-citizen who has lived in the U. S. for five years or more should not be threatened with deportation for any reason whatsoever.
- 3. A naturalized citizen should not be threatened with cancellation of citizenship for any reason whatsoever, unless it was obtained by fraud; and denaturalization proceedings should be started only within five years of the granting of naturalization.
- 4. Immigration should be without discrimination as to country of birth, race, color, creed, or political belief, with full utilization of quotas based on the country's social, economic and cultural requirements.
- 5. At no time should a noncitizen be denied the protection of any provision of the Bill of Rights, especially sections dealing with the right to bail, and freedom of belief, speech and association.

My Indictment Hurts War--Nowak

(Special to the Dally Worker)

DETROIT, Dec. 14.-State Senator Stanley Nowak, of Michigan. indicted by Attorney General Biddle's Department of Justice, for allegedly opposing "organized Government" when he became a citizer. in 1937 today branded the indictment "an attempt by reactionary forces to use the Dept. of Justice to disrupt the unity of the people for the war effort."

Nowak issued a statement condemning the move and listing his activities behind the war and his fight to expose pro-fascist fifth coumnists in this country. His full statement follows:

This indictment against me is an attempt by the reactionary forces to use the Department of Justice to disrupt the unity of the people in the war effort. "I have been active in organizing workers into labor unions: I have been active to the campaign among Detroit workers to increase war production; I have sold thousands of dollars worth of war bonds: I have been agitating for blood donations

"In the American Blay Congress I have been active in uniting Americans of Slav descent in support of the government and the war effort. Further, I am chairman of the Committee to investigate and expose fifth column activities among

Clave

During my present term in the Michigan State Senate I was resnonsible for introducing and obtaining the passage of a resolution in both Houses of the Legislature supporting the foreign policy of President Rooseveit.

"I have introduced during my two terms in the Senate many progressive measures, including one to prohibit injunctions against strikes and picketing, another to prohibit the employment of minors under sixteen years of age, and still another to protect men in the armed forces against mortgaged foreclosures because of debts. I introduced and was successful in passing in the Senate a bill to prohibit racketeering in the sale of jobs. I fought successfully for an increase in the henefits of unemployment compencompensation sation. workmens and old age pensions. During bota terms in the Michigan Senate I have fought bitterly all anti-New Deal, anti-labor, and anti-democratic bills which were introduced and I played a major part in the defeat of such measures.

"By all these activities I have brought down upon my head the anger of anti-labor employers, reactionaries, and anti-war forces. It is regrettable that certain forces in the Department of Justice apparently have yielded to the pressure of the above mentioned groups.

"I see this not as an attack upon me personally, but as an attempt to disrupt the unity of the pro-war forces and to deprive the people of Michigan of a progressive State the different groups of American Senator. How otherwise can the thousands of workers who have been active with me in the labor unions, the American Slav Congress, in my legislative work and in the many phases of the war effort, understand this attack upon me at this time?

"The oharge made against me in the indictment, that I am a disbeliever in organized government, is ridiculous in the face of my many activities on behalf of and as 3 part of organized government.

"The charge of Communism has been raised against me by my political enemies in every campaign, yet the people of my district have elected me for three successive terms to the Michigan State Senate. Each time with a greater margin than ever before. The very fact that this charge is now brought against me in this indictment is further proof of the elements who are behind this move. Since I could not be de feated at the polls, they have chosen this method to remove me from the political scene.

"This attempt of appeaser and anti-war forces to slience me and to annihilate me politically will be fought by me with the same vigor and determination with which I have fought for the rights of the people against every anti-labor and anti-democratic measure in the past.

"I feel confident that the people. not only of my district, but also of the entire state and the nation, will back me up in this fight until we have smashed this appeaser move and have brought victory against the reactionary and fascis' forces

Foreign Born Conference Elects DeLacy President

(Special to the Daily Worker)

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 30.—Hugh DeLacy, of Seattle, Wash., president of the Washington Commonwealth Federation and a member of the AFL Ship Scalers Union, was unanimously elected chairman of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign-Born for 1941 by 300 delegates at the final session of the committee's fifth national conference meeting here. Delegates attending the conference represented 142 organizations with a total membership of almost 9,000,000.

In accepting the chairmanship, DeLacy pledged that the committee will carry on its fight to prevent discrimination against the foreign born with renewed "The American people reject all attempts to split the country between native born and foreign born, because they see in such attempts an assault on civil liberties and constitutional rights," he said. "The leadership of the American committee will enable the people to combat discrimination and those who foster it as a means of preparing the country for war."

Dr. Max Yergan, president of the National Negro Congress, Prof. Walter Rautenstrach of Columbia University, State Senator Stanley Nowak of Michigan. Edward Lamb of Ohio, and Rev. Edgar A. Lowther of San Francisco, were elected committee vice chairmen.

In a resolution summarizing the conclusions of the 2-day meeting, the conference reaffirmed its belief in the principle of equality as "the very heart of democracy and its greatest protection" and directed the country's attention to "the grave dangers to our democratic rights created by the existence of widespread discrimination against the foreign born.

This discrimination, the resolution declared, has been aggravated by the "fundamental reversal of policy on the part of the Roosevelt Administration in dealing with problems of the foreign born." As instances of the reversal, the resolution cited the attack on trade union organization through encouragement of job discrimination against noncitizens and foreign born, endorsement of the Hobbs concentration camp bill, efforts to deport Harry Bridges, the attempt to revoke the citizenship of William Schneiderman, secretary of the Communist Party in California, enactment of the Alien Registration Law; and the barring of Harold Pritchett, president of the International Wood Workers Union, from entering the United States to undertake his union duties.

CITE WAR DRIVE

"These and other expressions of discrimination and intolerance," the resolution stated, "stem directly from efforts of the Roosevelt administration to involve Americans in the European war by using the foreign born for the stimulation of a spirit of hysteria and intimidation in order to divide the people and to prevent the expression of their opposition to America's war involvement."

Pointing out that one of the results of the Government's policy would be to weaken the organizations to which the foreign born belong, particularly the trade unions, the resolution called all labor and progressive organizations to join in opposing the spread of hysteria and discrimination.

"The urgency of the hour, the grave importance of the issues at stake, the need for prompt, effective action demands every bit" of the traditionally militant response of the American people to crucial questions, the resolution asserted.

All organizations and individuals were asked to take immediate action to defeat the Hobbs concentration camp bill which comes up for consideration by the House of Representatives tomorrow.

The resolution also urged the establishment of action committees in every community and in all organizations to organize appropriate action, the organization of regional conferences on questions of discrimination against the foreign born, and to make effective the work of the conference.

In a series of other resolutions, expressing the conclusion of the conference, the delegates went on record "indignantly" disapproving efforts to revoke William Schneiderman's citizenship. Denouncing the Department of Justice for instituting deportation proceedings against Harry Bridges demanding that the Federal Government and the governments of the southwestern States accord full civil rights to the Spanish speaking people of that area.

The conference also went on record condemning the House Judiciary Committee, under the chairmanship of the poll taxer Hatton W. Sumners of Texas, for reporting out the Hobbs concentration camp bill without a public hearing. A delegation was elected by the delegates to present their protest on this score to Representative Sumners personally. Another delegation was selected to protest to Attorney General Jackson against the Harry Bridges deportation hearings, and against the Government's attempt to cancel Schneiderman's citizenship. The conference pledged full support to all efforts to defend both Schneiderman and Bridges.

In another resolution, the delegates specifically denounced the practice of job discrimination by the Government and by private employers in defense and non-defense industries against the foreign born and called for a widespread campaign of protest against this increasing practice.

At panel sessions last night and this morning, delegates discussed problems arising out of the present situation in detail. Speakers at the panel on the foreign born and labor last night were State Senator Stanley Nowak of Michigan, and Douglas McMahon, vice president of the Transport Workers Union.

At the dinner preceding the session Dr. Max Yergan, vice chairman of the American Committee, presented the committees 1941 award, a special medal by Rockwell Kent, to Congressman Vito Marcantonio for his work during the past year in defending and protecting the rights of the foreign born in the United States.

At today's panel the speakers were Donald Henderson, president of the United Cannery, Agricultural, Packing and Allied Workers Union, who described the discrimination and terror being practiced against the Spanish speaking people of the Southwest, the migratory workers in California and the fishermen on the west coast, the great majority of whom are foreign born.

PANEL SPEAKERS

Other speakers at the panel on legislation and citizenship, under the chairmanship of Clifford T. McAvoy of New York, were Jean Horie, of the American Youth Congress, Irving Schwab, a member of the American Committee's Board of Directors, Emmet May of the Harlem legislative conference, Isidore Englander of New York City, and Hugh Delacy, of Washington State.

At the panel on discrimination and deportation problems, under the chairmanship of George Murphy, Jr., of the National Negro Congress, speakers were Dr. James Gavin of the National Maritime Union, Frederick V. Field of the American Peace Mobilization, and Karl Seidenberg of the Federation of German American Clubs.

All-Day Detroit Vigil

By William Allan

DETROIT, March 2.-As I write it is striking 4 p.m. on the City Twelve hours ago-4 Hall clock. a.m. in a blinding, sleeting, snowstorm 25 labor, civic and political leaders began a 24-hour continuous nicket line before Immigration Of-They are demanding fices here. bail and freedom for John William-Eisler. Ferdinand Gerhart Smith, Clarence Doyle and Irving Polash. The picket line is sponsored by the Michigan Civil Rights Congress. The line was led by Josh Lawrence, NMU, Coleman Young, CIO. Fred Williams, UAW, Hal-Shapiro, Fur and Leather Workers, Jack Raskin, Michigan CRC.

At 4 a.m. shop workers manned the line with the labor leaders. Then came ffloce workers, and afternoon workers, CIO organizers from the Fur and Leather, Food and Tobacco, Public Workers, Packing House and Auto unions.

At 3 p.m. came leaders of the CIO led by Tracy Doll, with State Senator Stanley Nowak. At 4 p.m. came working women with their children and then Wayne University students.

After 5 p.m. were the day shift shop workers. Ford workers will then man the picket line for the last two hours till 4 a.m.

And the huge torch of liberty carried by the leading picket, with the sign which says, "Keep the torch of liberty burning" will light up the sidewalk where the pickets march through the ankle deep snow.

Thousands have seen this torch of liberty, stopped, taken leaflets and then watched the pickets trudging, heads bent to meet the blinding sleet and snow.

Former state attorney general, presiding probate judge of Detroit, Patrick H. O'Brien today denounced the imprisonment without bail of Smith, Eisler, Williamson and Doyle as "an outrage not only against our traditional, but against common decency."

Sam Sage, secretary of the Wayne County CIO Council, announced to-day that he would ask CIO leaders in other parts of the nation to agree to set the date for a solidarity hunger strike with the five men in Ellis Island. Sage suggested as participants, himself in Detroit, Saul Mills, CIO secretary in New York and one leader each in Los Angeles, Cleveland and Chicago.

DRFRAT THE HOBBS BILL!

The House of Representatives passed the Hobbs Concentration Camp Bill, H.R. 10, on July 17.

The Hobbs Bill is a vicious attack on the rights of all Americans.

The Hobbs Bill would destroy the right to bail.

The Hobbs Bill would establish the principle of concentration camps for non-citizens. Once that is established the legal and political basis would exist for the erection of concentration camps for citizens as well.

Under the Hobbs Bill, the Justice Department could detain indefinitely non-citizens ordered deported but whose deportation cannot be carried out. This would mean life imprisonment without trial.

The Justice Department could dany bail to non-citisens held for deportation. This would destroy the right to bail for citizens also.

In addition, the Hobbs Bill would require non-citizens to report regularly, to submit to medical and psychiatric examinations, to give information under oath as to their habits, associations, and activities, and to conform to other "reasonable written restrictions."

It would permit the Attorney General to deport non-citizens to any country willing to accept them. Anti-fascists could be sent to Franco Spain - to be shot!

WHAT YOU CAN DO

- 1. The Bill is now in the Senate Judiciary Committee. Write or wire Senator Pat McCarran, Chairman of the Committee, Washington D.C., and ask him to kill the Bill in Committee. Wire and write Senators Homer Ferguson and Arthur Vandenberg and ask them to do likewise.
- 2. Have your lodge, union, or organization send resolutions opposing the Bill to the above Senators.

Fifteenth Anniversary NATIONAL CONFERENCE

CONGRESS HOTEL, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

December 11 and 12, 1948

Dear Priend:

For the past 15 years, the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has helped non-citizens and naturalized American citizens with their special problems.

We have helped thousands to become American citizens. We have saved hundreds from deportation and made it possible for them to remain here with their families and friends. We have fought against discrimination because of non-citizenship or national origin. We have fought against "anti-alien" bills in Congress and prevented the establishment of concentration camps and defeated legislation that would have meant the deportation of thousands of persons.

For these 15 years, we have always fought to defend the rights of the American people. President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in greeting our organization in 1941, stated: "(Your Committee) has undertaken the task of assuring fair play to the foreign born within the United States. Every American wishes it success. ... We welcome the work to maintain the rights of the foreign born."

Today, our Committee is fighting against the deportation of more than 50 non-citizens. As a part of our campaign to defeat the current deportation drive, we are holding our Fifteenth Anniversary Hational Conference in Chicago on December 11 and 12, 1948.

We appeal to you for your support and cooperation to help make this Mational Conference a success and to help make possible an effective fight against the pending deportations. Funds are needed urgently for lawyers, for literature, for bail, and for all other phases of defense work.

You can help by sending your contribution. You can help also by using the enclosed Greeting Collection List to get contributions from your friends and associates.

We are depending upon you for your assistence in this emergency. The lives of many people depend on your occuperation. The freedom of the American people is at stake. We hope that we will hear from you as soon as possible.

Dear Supporter of the former NATIONAL FEDERATION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES.

George Marshall, who was chairman of the National Federation for Constitutional Liberties before its merger with the Civil Rights Congress, goes on trial March 8th in the federal district court in Washington, D. C.

His offense is "contempt of Congress." It consists of his refusal in 1946 to turn over to the Un-American Activities Committee for blacklist purposes the names of thousands of Americans who had supported and contributed to the campaigns of the Federation.

We turn to you as one familiar with Federation activities during the war years; as one who responded frequently to the Federation's action letters calling for public support at critical points of FDR's wartime FEPC, of the bill for the soldier ballot, of poll tax repeal.

During these years the organization headed by Mr. Marshall exposed the anti-Negro, anti-Semitic bias of the Dies-Wood-Rankin committee, and its sheltering of the wartime seditionists. Many citizens like you made the Federation campaigns possible by signing open letters, occasionally contributing to the financial cost, mobilizing public sentiment in your community and writing your congressmen.

We feel you will want, now, to stand by Mr. Marshall. For he dared to challenge the power of this un-American thought control committee to intimidate thousands of Americans who, like you, were actively supporting the defense of civil freedoms. He faces a year's jail sentence, plus $1,000 fine.

Won't you help the Civil Rights Congress carry through this fight for George Marshall? Testing the constitutionality of the committee through Mr. Marshall's defense, presenting the issues to the public and pressing for abolition of the committee have become very costly.

Please give as much as you can as quickly as you can.

Sincerely yours.

Joseph Cadden Executive Director

Victory Hailed Through Nation

DETROIT.-Following are statements from notables here on the granting of bail to the 11 Communist leaders: JUDGE PATRICK H. O'BRIEN, chief probate judge and Michigan's oldest jurist:

The only thing I would criticize is that this is still excessive bail, and still a violation of the Constitution. These men are not criminals. These are men of the highest intellectual type, they are fighting for principles.

There can be no doubt that the Communist Party is a legal party in our nation, and while it disagrees with capitalism it is highly debatable if that and talking against capitalism can be considered a conspiracy.

These men should be placed on their own recognizance because they are men of principle and they hold views that many worldwide figures also hold.

On the lawyers, I would say they are men to be admired, they fought for their clients without fear or favor. As a judge they have my respect and I believe and respect of all lawyers. There is no case for contempt against them."

REV. CHARLES A. HILL, candidate for City Council: "Every American, yes, the ordinary people of the whole world, rejoice at this bit of justice. Now the people will hear from the 11 men the true story of Foley Square, which America's so-called free press concealed and distorted. The bail is still excessive. Now to win freedom for the attorneys.

"I would like to add that the decision on the amount of bail shows that the higher judges see, like many Americans, bias in Foley Square and its decision.

STANLEY NOWAK, candidate for City Council: "It's an inspiration that they are out. When the people demand, democracy wins. The people had lost confidence in courts after what hap-pened at Foley Square. This decision to grant bail wins back in away the honor of the courts. Now the attorneys' freedom has to be won."

LAWYERS HARRY S. ANBENDER, MORTON EDEN, ERNEST GOODMAN, JACK TUCKER, N. L. SMOKLER, BEN-JAMIN J. SAFIR, associates of George Crockett, Jr.:

"Every supporter of democracy will welcome this reversal of Judge Medina's refusal to respect the constitutional rights of the defendants, as a much-needed vindication of the Bill of Rights.

The same type of vindication must now be extended to our associate George Crockett and his colleagues, Isserman, McCabe, Sacher, and Gladstein, whose fearless championship of the rights of their clients will in due time inspire the admiration of the great body of fair and conscientious attorneys throughout the country."

JAMES MONTANTE, president of the Detroit Chapter, Na-tional Lawyers Guild: "Now I hope the Circuit Court of Appeals will view the record with dispassion and not allow the hysteria that played such a role in the Foley Square situation to influence them.

J. W. SMITH, president, Downtown Tenants Council: "Resistance by these men and the people has scored a great victory."

GENEVIEVE SMITH, Tenants Council woman leader: "I and every other citizen feel freer today with the news because all people can feel the right to bail has been won, even though I think the bail is still too high.

100 Delegates Map Defense of Foreign Born

One hundred delegates representing 30 labor and civic organizations met Wednesday night in Yugoslav Hall and mapped plans for a mass campaign to reverse last week's Supreme Court ruling upholding denial of bail in deportation proceedings.

The conference, held under auspices of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, also launched a fight against the court's ruling that noncitizens could be exiled from the United States on charges of being either past or present members of the Communist Party.

A rehearing before the High Court of the cases of Peter Harisiades, Dora Coleman, John Zydol and the four Terminal Island, Calif., noncitizens—cases on which the Court made its thought-control rulings—was demanded by the conference

A program outlined by Mrs. Harriet Barron, secretary of the American committee, and adapted by the delegates, called for:

A heightened campaign for bail for Martin Young, former trade union officer jailed on Ellis Island for 5 months.

Nationwide protests against the effort to deport Harisiades to Greece, where he would face imprisonment and death.

Repeal of the Smith and McCarran Acts and defeat of the pending McCarran bill which would write a Jim Crow policy into the immigration law.

Cooperation in setting up trade union defense committees.

"When the boss wants to break a union he joins hands with the Justice Department and uses deportation as a weapon," Margaret Starnes, of the Greater New York Negro Labor Council, told the delegates.

Dr. Louise Pettibone Smith, professor of biblical history at Wellesley College, was chairman of the conference.

John McManus, editor of the National Guardian, said the current attack on the foreign born is part of an attempt "to silence the peace movement."

Former Michigan State senator, Stanley Nowak, said the House Un-American Committee's attack on Negro leaders in Detroit aroused the entire Negro community.

Blanch Freedman, immigration attorney, said: "Just as the Dred Scott decision marked the beginning of a concerted struggle for Negro rights, so these March 10 decisions mark a new beginning in the struggle for rights of the foreign born."

"Rights of the native-born Americans will be secured to the degree that the fight is waged for rights of the foreign born," Harisiades told the delegates.

Jack Goldman, president of the Manhattan Jewish People's Fraternal Order, told how the deportation threat was being used in an attempt to destroy progressive fraternal organizations.

Dear Friend:

Jail without bail! It happened in Denver. In that city Mrs. Jane Rosers was subpossed by a Federal Grand Jury, denied her Constitutional Fight to bail, and not permitted to see her three children, one of them a seven months old baby, for thirty-five days. She had refused to become an informer on the politics of her friends!

Do you believe in the fundamental American concept of political freedom? Twelve men in New York City are facing trial, not for any alleged acts, but for supporting the IDEA of a socialist society.

Do you believe in the right to vote? Isaiah Nixon, a Negro in Georgia,

And do you believe minority political parties have the right to appear on the ballot in Illinois? ..... And fifteen youth were arrested in Chicago - they were holding a Progressive Party meeting in a home..... And the Chicago Tribume is shouting for a purge of school books..... And candidates running for office have been stoned in Frankfort and arrested in Chicago.

Hundreds of people all over the United States are already victims of this pro-fascist offensive against our Constitution and Bill of Rights hostages of the 60th Congress, Tom Clark's Department of Justice, Thomas' un-American Committee and the Federal "loyalty" purge.

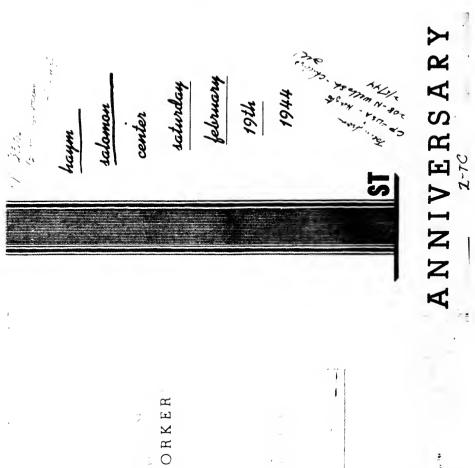

WILL YOU HELP STOP THIS GROWN OF PASCISH NOW!

Homey is needed to KEEP AMERICA FRAME. You surely should be glad of the opportunity to send sense of your money to the front to be used in FEMILIES FOR FRAME. To arouse the people to their present danger, to defray legal costs, will take lots of timey,

We must raise $250,000.00 makingally. Whatever you give will help greatly. And giving what you can will help you, will help protect DOUR REMETS - and you will have participated in fighting for them as a democracy loving Assertan. HERRE FILL OUR THE ENCLOSED CARD AND MAIL TODAY.

Enclosed with this letter and the accompanying leaflet are two tickets to a Public Meeting on the Walter-McCarran Law. The meeting will be held Friday, January 30, 8:00 P.M., at the United Electrical Workers Hall, 37 South Ashland Blvd.

Under the Walter-McCarran Law, 14,000,000 Americans of foreign birth are subject to police-state conditions of living. Over 3,000,000 non-citizens are subject to a Gestapo pass system; already some 275 non-citizens have been arrested in deportation proceedings because of their political beliefs. More than 20 naturalized citizens face revocation of their citizenship, as a first step toward their deportation, on the same grounds.

These victims of Walter-McCarran law police-state practices are to have their homes shattered. Their families to be broken because they have exercised their democratic rights of freedom of speech and freedom of thought.

HELP REPEAL THE WALTER-McCARFAN LAW and END POLICE-STATE PRACTICES!

Attend the meeting yourself, and bring relatives, friends and neighbors with you. By defending the Rights of Foreign Born Americans you are protecting yourself.

Sincerely yours,

Can a man go to jail for refusing to become an informer against his family, friends, and shopmates?

Such a question is new and strange in America. But this is the issue in the case of James Keller.

James Keller is on trial under the "supervisory parole" provision of the McCarran-Walter Law. Every democratic American should know the meaning of his case.

FOREWORD

Guest, host, stranger — all these meanings were attached to the old Latin word "Hospes", from which also comes our word, hospitality. Whatever its defects, the Roman Empire was humane in its idea of citizenship, which it applied to all its subjects from the Pillars of Hercules to the Nile and Asia Minor. Civis romanus sum — I am a Roman citizen — could be claimed in pride by Gauls, Iberians and Cilicians as well as by the inhabitants of Rome itself.

If the quality of a civilization is to be measured by the treatment of the stranger, the alien, the immigrant within its gates, then ours has suffered a sad decline in recent years. For hospitality we have substituted hatred; for friendliness an unreasoning fear. Where once the Statue of Liberty welcomed "your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to be free" from across the ocean, now we have erected barbed wire entanglements known as the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. This, coupled with the Alien Registration Act of 1940, has brought us back to the America of 1798, of the hated Alien and Sedition Acts. Fortunately in those days the people arose under the leadership of Thomas Jefferson and swept the Federalists and their alien-sedition laws into the ashbin of history. So widespread is popular revulsion against the cruelties and crudities of the McCarran-Walter Act that we may hope that this too will be swept away.

In the meantime we find ourselves fighting to keep from being deported people who are in every sense Americans. A child brought to this country at the age of three is to be sent back to a land he can't remember, whose language he never knew. James Keller, brought to this country as a lad of 12, is slated for deportation to a country of which he can only have shadowy memories.

What can possibly be the purpose of this harassment of men and women who in reality are as American as those of us who can claim no credit for the accident of being born in Chicago, Kankakee or Kalamazoo? The Federalists enacted the Alien and Sedition laws because they feared the spread to these shores of dangerous democratic ideas from the French Revolution. Our people, themselves democratic even before the French Revolution, buried the Federalists so deep they never reappeared.

Fifty years later, when milions of Irish and Germans — in those days caricatured as the "shanty Irish and the dirty Dutch" — came to our shores, the Know-Nothing movement spread across the country, fanning "hang the foreigner" riots, burning churches and schools, killing immigrants, disgracing once again the reputation of our country. The Know-Nothings went the way of the Federalists while the Irish and Germans rose to a sturdy and respected place among Americans. Forgotten was the religious intolerance which had been fanned against the Irish, the fear of the radical republican and socialist ideas of many of the Germans.

Now, when ideas of freedom are spreading around the globe and the colonial peoples are shaking off the chains that bound them in exploitation and condemned them to illiteracy, disease and poverty, the old Federalist, Know-Nothing fears once more creep across this country. Our fathers could say, How I vote, to what church I belong, who are my friends — that is all my business and nobody else's. Today in this Age of Cringe and Fear, it is the FBI's business to scrutinize the thoughts and associations of those whose ideas don't jibe with the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

That is the meaning of the James Keller case, and the sconer we snap out of it, the better it will be for the United States, for us, and for every concept of democracy and freedom we cherish. For that reason we must help to win the fight for Jim Keller to be a recognized accepted American, and for all the other Jim Kellers from California to Maine. So long as Jim Keller hounded, none of us is safe, none free.

HARVEY O'CONNOR

Turn informer and we'll free you.

The Arrest

It happened on November 3, 1955. He had just come home from work when the bell rang. He opened the door and saw two husky men coming up the stairs. Instinct, born of previous experience, told him the men were deputies. He sensed that they were coming to arrest him, but as yet he did not know why.

His first thought was of his wife. How would she feel, coming home and finding no one? He stalled for time, bickering with the deputies over every detail. He asked to see their credentials. He took his time dressing. He insisted he would not leave the house hungry, and made himself a meal. Still she had not come. He said. "I want to read the indictment."

By the time he was through reading, he heard the welcome click in the door-lock. She had come home in time, and now he could go to jail without the sense of deep anxiety.

The Indictment

The background of the case takes us back some twenty-six years to 1930. At that time, Keller had been charged with Communist political beliefs and ordered deported. But since the country of his birth had undergone a change of government after his departure, the deportation order against him could not be carried out.

For fifteen years the deportation proceedings lay dormant. Then in 1945, with the opening of the "cold war", the Justice Department reopened the case. In 1952, with the passage of the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act, the Department of Justice acquired a new instrument for harassment of so-called "undesirable" non-citizens.

A section of that law makes it obligatory for a sizeable group of non-citizens to appear at hearings and answer any questions the Attorney General deems "fit and proper". In December, 1953, James Keller was summoned before an Immigration examiner.

Here is a sample question (of the many asked him): "Will you please name one friend with whom you have associated since September 9, 1953?"

The indictment — issued two years later — charges that Keller "did willfully fail to answer and reply to questions by an immigration officer."

There is no other charge.

Wanted: A New Way to Recruit Informers

Recent efforts to force unwilling witnesses to "name names" have run into difficulties. The Supreme Court has upheld the right of a person "not to be a witness against himself".

No doubt the court reflects the public's growing contempt for the paid political informer. The Justice Department campaign to make the stoolpigeon into a national "hero" fell flat, and the sordid exposures of Matusow, Crouch, Bentley and other professional informers dealt it a further blow.

Today, the Attorney General, armed with provisions of the McCarran-Walter Law, is trying this new approach to get around the Bill of Rights. Two Chicagoans, George Witkovich and James Keller, are the first intended victims.

The McCarran-Walter Law and Supervisory Parole

The McCarran-Walter Law has been widely condemned for its immigration quota provisions which are openly based on the theory of a "master race". Not so well known, however, is that feature of the law which attempts to strip foreignborn Americans, including naturalized citizens, of their constitutional protections.

The law grants the Attorney General the power to carry through deportation proceedings as prosecutor, judge, and jury rolled into one. The vague, catch-all charge of "Communist affiliation" is grounds for denial or revocation of citizenship, and for deportation. It sets up a permanent state of house arrest, politely called "supervisory parole", for persons who have been ordered deported, but whose countries of birth do not accept deportees. They are forbidden to travel beyond a fifty mile radius of their homes, forced to submit to medical and psychiatric examinations, and compelled to report at frequent intervals to their "parole officers". Among its many onerous restrictions is the requirement — challenged by James Keller — that the parolee must answer any and all questions of the Immigration officer.

For each refusal to answer, the law provides a maximum sentence of one year in jail and a $1,000 fine.

"Go Back Where You Came From!"

These provisions of the McCarran-Walter Law are justified by their backers on the theory that "national security" requires that "American" ideas need to be protected from contamination by "foreign" ideologies. History shows this "theory" to be a thinly disguised excuse for suppressing the basic rights of dissent. Department of Justice attorneys frankly state that the McCarran-Walter Law was drafted "by conscious analogy to the Alien Enemy Act of 1798".*

The Alien Enemy Act was the first of the notorious "Alien and Sedition Laws" passed by the reactionary Federalists to crush the rising movement of Jeffersonian Democracy. Then, the leading Jeffersonian congressman, Edward Livingston, warned prophetically: "For let no man vainly imagine that evil is to stop here, that a few unprotected aliens only are to be affected by this inquisitorial power. The same arguments which enforce this provision against aliens, apply with equal strength to enacting them in the case of citizens."

Yet the prosecution of James Keller rests upon this discredited "theory" and the assumption that he is a carrier of injurious "foreign" influences.

The Education of James Keller

Jim, as a boy of twelve, came here from Czarist Russia full of dreams of the fabulous land of promise and democracy. In 1914, Jim and his family settled in Chicago, where he graduated from Edmund Burke Grammar School, and later attended Hyde Park High School. American history was his favorite subject, and on his own he studied and memorized the speeches and writings of the founders of our democratic heritage — Patrick Henry, Tom Paine, Thomas Jefferson.

Poverty at home forced him to quit school and get a fulltime job, but his eager self-education continued in every spare moment. He soon found the writings of Jack London and Eugene V. Debs, which opened up new vistas for his thinking.

"In this country," wrote Debs, "the most favored beneath the bending skies — we have the vast areas of the richest and most fertile soil, material resources in inexhaustible abundance, the most marvelous productive machinery on earth, and millions of eager workers ready to apply their labor to that machinery to produce in abundance for every man, woman, and child. . . . I believe, all Socialists do, that all the things that are jointly needed and used ought to be jointly owned — that industry, the basis of our social life, instead of being the private property of the few and operated for their enrichment, ought to be the common property of all, democratically administered in the interest of all. . . . "

The socialist teachings of Debs and London seemed to Jim to be confirmed by the pattern of his own early struggles to add to the meagre family income — as a newspaper boy, a milkman's helper, a machinist's helper, and a steel-mill hand. He soon joined the Young People's Socialist League.

Thus it was the influence of America, through Patrick Henry, Paine, Debs, and London, which shaped Jim Keller's ideas — which the Immigration Service classifies today as "foreign" and "subversive".

The Call to Action

Hard times, which forced him to leave Chicago to take a job as a traveling typewriter repair man, delayed his application for citizenship. He was twenty-five before he was able to file for his first papers.

Along with many of his Young Socialist friends, he joined the newly formed Communist Party, which had grown out of the split between the left and right wings of the old Socialist Party. He gave his spare time to help organize workers in coal mining, needle trades, shoe and other industries.

At this time, following the smashing blows of the great open-shop drive after World War I, the leadership of the American Federation of Labor limited its efforts to trying to hold together the remnants of its unions of skilled craftsmen. The great majority of semi-skilled and unskilled workers in industry and agriculture had no organization to shield them from the savage speed-up, drastic wage cuts, and endless lay-offs which soon followed the stock market crash in 1929.

In the state of California, where Jim Keller had moved, conditions were becoming intolerable for many workers, especially in the agricultural fields. They attempted to fight back in spontaneous strikes, without a union, without funds, and without experienced leadership. The top leaders of the AF of L ignored them. As Paul Scharrenberg, top AF of L spokesman, put it: "Only fanatics are willing to live in shacks or tents and get their heads broken in the interests of migratory labor." But Keller, as a leader of the California Communist Party, which was helping to organize a new group of industrial unions, felt otherwise. He was soon deep in organizational work in the Imperial Valley.

Frame-up in Imperial Valley

In Carey McWilliams' book Factories in the Field, we find the story of this pioneer effort at unionism, and what happened to its leaders:

During the strikes in January and February, organizers of the T.U.U.L. [Trade Union Unity League] entered the valley and succeeded in establishing a union known as the Agricultural Workare Industrial League, which . . . set up headquarters in Brawley, and began to enroll hundreds of workers. The organizers, during the strikes, were arrested on suspicion and their activities cerefully watched, but no prosecutions resulted at the time. After the strikes — which were lost — the union sent out a call for a conference of all agricultural workers of the valley to be held April 20, 1930. Every ranch and shed was asked to send delegates to the conference.

On April 14, residences and public-meeting places were raided throughout the valley. Over a hundred workers were arrested in this general round-up and held for trial with bond fixed at $50,000. Later, certain individuals were released, but a large group were placed on trial, charged with violation of the Criminal Syndicalism Act—the first use of the Criminal Syndicalism law against farm organizers in California. Eight defendants were convicted and the convictions, with exception of one defendant were confirmed on appeal. . . The convictions were obtained, of course, by use of stool pigeons and agents provocateurs, and by methods on the part of the prosecution which have characterized all Criminal Syndicalism prosecutions in California. The effect of the prosecution was to cripple the union, but at the same time, it aroused considerable solidarity and gave workers some experience in organized action.

Jim Keller was one of the eight convicted and sentenced to five years. He served two and a half years in Folsom Prison, and 15 additional months on parole. As a result of this crude anti-labor frame-up,* he now had a "criminal record" with a felony conviction, which made him ineligible to get his second citizenship papers.

*The strictly anti-union character of the Criminal Syndicalism law is shown by the fact that it never has been used in California since the passage af the National Labor Relations Act, which spells out labor's right to collective bargaining.

Unemployed Relief -- Equal Rights For All

For workers with jobs, unionism gave greater security and higher wages. But millions could find no work; Herbert Hoover advised them "to sell apples". Jim Keller and his co-workers gave another answer — organize to fight for relief! Tens of thousands responded to the call for "hunger marches"; unemployed councils battled to win concessions from relief agencies, and blocked evictions. In these countless struggles, large and small, Keller was a tireless leader. Victories were won in the emergency measures of the New Deal — WPA, PWA, NYA — followed by the enactment of permanent laws for unemployment compensation and social security.

From his childhood memories of Russian czarism, Jim hated discrimination, as one of its victims. From his experience in the labor movement, he saw its role as a weapon of reaction which divided the working people among themselves and undermined their collective strength for progress. He fought against it in the agricultural fields, where it drove down the wages of Mexican, Filipino, and Japanese field workers; and in industry in the Midwest, where Negro workers were its chief victims.

Akron -- The CIO's First Great Victory

Some time after his release from parole, Jim Keller went to Akron, Ohio, to become the county secretary of the Communist Party. It was here, in the rubber plants, that the great CIO organizing drive was born. Thousands of rubber workers poured into the newly created United Rubber Workers of America; the rubber companies countered with brutal reprisals.

In this historic contest, which laid the base for the organization campaigns in auto, steel, packing, and other industries, Jim Keller played a modest but important part. As a well known labor historian has declared: "The fact is that the Communist Party made a major contribution to the organization of the unorganized for the CIO." *

Ruth McKenney, in her on-the-spot history of the decisive Goodyear strike, records the role of Keller. Here is one brief excerpt which gives a vivid picture of the feeling of the picketcaptains toward him and their estimate of his role. The incident occurred on the 32nd day of the strike at the picket-captains' caucus prior to the decisive union meeting which ended the victorious strike

The U.R.W.A. announced an armory meeting for Saturday, to consider Goodyear's latest peace proposals.

The picket-captains settled down on their familiar orange crates. Strikers filled the old storeroom. Men sprawled on a dusty counter in the back, and squatted shoulder to shoulder on the floor.

"OK, fellows," Bill said. "This meeting is hereby called to order!" The soft burr of mountain speech died away.

Bill hesitated. He swept his big hand across the side of his face, fingered his nose nervously.

"Now you have voted to hear what Jim Keller, the secretary of the Akron Communist Party, has so say about this here settlement that's going to be voted on tomorrow at the armory. Some of you guys were against having Keller come here, but I know you ain't going to object after a big majority voted for him to speak to this meeting. I know you're going to show him every politeness."

Bill paused. "Bring him on," a striker near the store-front window yelled.

"O.K.," fellows," Bill said loudly. "I introduce to you my good friend, and the best friend the Akron working class ever had, Jim Keller."*

Test of Democracy

Today, social security, unemployment compensation, and collective bargaining are accepted American institutions which few will challenge. The Supreme Court has declared in its recent historic decisions that "equal protection of the law" for all is mandatory under the Constitution.

Yet it was Jim Keller's role in the long pioneering struggle for these objectives which blocked his citizenship papers, led to his deportation order, subjected him to "supervisory parole", and culminated in his present indictment.

Today, James Keller is a man of 54, who since his early childhood, has been part of the United States. Below average height, but with broad shoulders and strong hands, he has retained the reflective look and manner of a serious student. He earns his living as a skilled machinist, and lives quietly with Evelyn his wife and constant companion for thirty-one years.

Nothing about him — his looks, his ideas, his deeds — fits the propagandist's stereotype of a "subversive foreign agent".

Today he is the focus of a crucial test of American democracy, which will affect every American. An Akron rubber worker, who went through the strike and vigilante terror to build his union, wrote of Keller's indictment: "If this sort of thing is permitted to go unchallenged by the labor movement, I verily believe we are in gross danger of fascism in our beloved country. This must not happen."

It's up to you!

You — the reader — may be a native-born or foreign-born American. You may be a factory worker, a housewife, a professional, or a small business man. You may disagree with some or all of Jim Keller's ideas

But if you believe in America as a land of liberty, you have something to say. The Attorney General has said to Jim Keller, "Turn informer or go to jail!" If Keller goes to prison, you could be next.

The case of James Keller is one of many test cases in the U.S. today. The Taft-Hartley Law, the Smith Act, the McCarran Act, and the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act were spawned in a period of "cold war" hysteria, when "national security" was used as the excuse for reducing the Bill of Rights to a meaningless historic relic.

Today, this series of test cases, of which the Keller case is one, are forcing a judicial review of each of these repressive laws. The American people are taking a second look at what has been happening to American democratic liberty. In the last analysis, this public opinion is the highest court of appeal.

This is how you can help:

- 1. Help spread the facts about the Keller case to your friends, neighbors, and co-workers.
- 2. Write or wire—as an individual or with others—to Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Washington, D.C. to express your opposition to the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act and its many repressive features, including "supervisory parole".
- 3. Get in touch with the James Keller Defense Committee for further information on the Keller case.
- 4. Contribute to the defense of James Keller. Financial help is urgently needed to meet the costs of an adequate defense.

Freedom of the Press

A special Petition concerning the use of the Walter-McCarran Law by the Justice Department to undermine freedom of the press has just been issued. One copy is enclosed. If you can use additional Petitions, please let us know. Petitions, in quantities of 1,000 or more, can be printed with your imprint, if you wish at $15 per thousand.

Grossman and Gonzales Cases

Area Defense Committees have been asked to assist in the cases of Saul Grossman and Fred Gonzales. Saul Grossman, executive secretary of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, was sentenced to one year in jail and fined $1,000 for contempt of Congress because he refused to provide the House Un-American Activities Committee with the books of Michigan Committee. In the Gonzales case, now before the U.S. Supreme Court, the Washington State Committee requested financial assistance in covering expenses. The Gonzales case tests whether the Justice Department can deport persons who entered the U.S. from the Philippine Islands as nationals before 1934. The Minnesota and New Jersey Committees have fulfilled their pledges for these two cases. (See page attached.)

Abner Green Tour

Abner Green will make a special tour during March, in observance of PEFFND ACFFB Month. Mr. Green's schedule is: February 25-March 1 - Los Angeles; March 2-5 - San Francisco; March 6-9 - Cleveland; March 16-17 - Detroit; March 18420 - Minneapolis; March 21-22 - Chicago.

Nick Silas Tsermegas

On February 2, the Justice Department arrested and held without bail in deportation proceedings Nick Silas Tsermegas, Greek-American leader. Tsermegas' brother, Steve, has been held without bail at Cook County Jail, Chicago, since December 11th. Messages of greeting and solidarity should be sent to Nick Silas Tsermegas, Ellis Island, New York, N. Y.

Freedom of the Press

The right of the nation's press to express dissatisfaction with any phase of American life, as it is ear, received another blow with the initiation of denaturalization proceedings on May 7 against Leo Fisher, of Chicago, editor of the American-Criatian weekly, "Narodin Glainshi" Mr. Fisher, who received his citizenship after serving in the U.S. Army in World War II, is the third person associated with that paper to face denaturalization or deportation under the Walter-McCarran Law

Matthew Brzovich, former correspondent for Narodni Glasnik," whose immediate deportation by Yugoslavia where he faces physical persecution was prevented in March by a Court order, appeared before Federal District Judge Walter LaBuy, in Chicago, on May 27 in a court review of the legality of his deportation order issued by the Board of Immigration Appeals.

Tuteur Case

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the 7th Gircutt, in Chrago, heard argument on June 7 by attorneys for Charles A Tuteur seeking reversal of the Federal District Court's summary judgment revoking his American citizenship. The denaturalization proceedings are based government charges that Tuteur concealed his receiving and reading of progressive periodicals before he became a cutzen.

WALTER-McCARRAN LAW DEPORTATION DRIVE RESULTS IN ISSUANCE OF ANTI-SEMITIC ORDER

Mrs. Anna Taffler, of Brooklyn, N. Y., mother of two sons, has been ordered by the Immigration and Naturalization Service to apply for permission to enter Israel solely because she is of Jewish descent, or go to jail for ten years under the Walter-McCarran Law. "The California Jewish Voice," of Los Angelea, "The Jewish Examiner," of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the monthly magazine, "Jewish Life," have featured reports of the order given Mrs. Taffler. "Jewish Life," in an editorial, stated, in part: "To compel her to apply for entry to Israel is discriminatory treatment of a Walter-McCarran Law victim simply because she is Jewish. Non-Jewish victims will not be ordered to apply for entrance to Israel. This directive is therefore anti-Semitic."

COURT OF APPEALS UPHOLDS DECISION ORDERING BAIL RETURNED TO DEPORTE

On June 16, the U. S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit, in St. Louis, statained the decision made by the Federal District Court in Minneapolis holding that the $4,000 bail posted by Charles Rowoldt in deportation proceedings must be returned. The Justice Department has taken the position that it can hold bail indefinitely. The ACPFB has always contended that this action by the Justice Department is illegal and in violation of the law. The Court held that the Justice Department as six months following a final order of deportation in which time to deport the non-citizen. If deportation cannot be effected, the non-citizen is placed on Supervisory Parole and, at that time, bail must be returned. The suit for return of bail in the Rowoldt case was instituted in the Federal District Court in Minneapolis with the help of the Minnesota Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. Kenneth Enkel, Minneapolis attorney, represented Mr. Rowoldt.

THE DENATURALIZATION DRIVE

The Attorney General initiated denaturalization proceedings against seven naturalized American citizens, bringing the total number of proceedings initiated to 55. Proceedings initiated were: Pittsburgh—Steve Nelson, facing fiveyear sentence under Smith Act and recently acquitted on appeal on a Pennsylvania State Sedition Law sentence of 20 years; Stephen Devunich and his wife, Anna, well-known leaders in the Croatian-American community; Alex Roth Rakosi, former business manager of "Magyar Jovo," Hungarian-American daily newspaper. New York—Allan Ross, a printer, father of three children; Louis Candela, Italian-American ness, a printer, father of three children; Louis Candela, Italian-American newspaper. Appeals were filed with the U. S. Supreme Court in three Detroit cases, Sam Sweet, George Charnowola, and Nicholas Chomiak. The denaturalization trial in the case of the Hon. Stanley Nowak, former Michigan State Senator, was set for July 7th, in Detroit.

APPEAL COURT DECISION IN MIAMI ORDERING CITIZEN ANSWER QUESTIONS

An appeal to the Federal Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, in New Orleans, on April 29, challenged the decision by Federal District Court Judge John W. Holland, of Miami, Florida, ordering an American citizen to appear before the Immigration and Naturalization Service to answer questions concerning his beliefs and activities before he became an American citizen in 1928. The challenge was taken in the case of Maurice Carroll, manager of the Jewish Cultural Center of Miami Beach. The Immigration Service's attack on Carroll's rights is part of a concentrated campaign by the Service in recent months against naturalized citizens and non-citizens in the Jewish community in Miami. Interested organizations and individuals in Florida are organizing to defend the rights of foreign-born Americans in the state and a special conference is to be held in Miami Beach this month.

MIDWEST COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

431 South Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

DEAR FRIEND:

Because of your support in the past of the work of the Midwest Committee, we feel certain you will be interested in the enclosed material which was sent to the delegates at our recent annual Conference, held on April 30, 1955.

There is a much healthier political atmosphere throughout the country; our legal and public campaigns will be greatly benefited. We would like to utilize this atmosphere to bring our 16 mm. sound-film, "The Walter-McCarran Law Story," before as many community and civic groups as possible. If you belong to such an organization—or just have some interested neighbors—it would be helpful if you would arrange an invitation for a showing of this dramatic film.

I hope to hear from you soon. With many thanks for your support, I am

MIDWEST COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

431 South Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

DEAR FRIEND:

Enclosed is a copy of the Summary Proceedings of the Midwest Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans, held in Chicago on April 30, 1955.

We wish to thank you for your participation. Never before in any annual midwest conference has there been such a ready interest and deep understanding of the issues and tasks before the Conference on the part of the delegates and observers. This, we feel, is a reflection of long years of hard and consistent attention to defending the rights of the foreign born, coupled with a sharper demand by the general population for drastic revision of U. S. immigration and citizenship policy.

Good advantage must be made of this upswing in the movement to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law. Special meeting should be called to hear reports on the Conference program of action. The enclosed post card should be sent immediately to your own Representative in Congress, whose name can be found on the map.

Other materials for the various defense and repeal campaigns are being prepared. Funds are needed. We would appreciate a contribution from your organization to be be appreciated as a contribution of the property of the pro agnization to help carry out the program.

Once more, thank you. Sincerely yours.

Carlson and Prof. Robert Morss Lovett: executive secretary, Nathan Caldwell, Jr. A message was authorized to Lillian Goodman, former executive secretary of the Midwest Committee who is now ill.

Banquet

Miss Pearl M. Hart, general counsel of the MCPFB, was chairlady of the Banquet which was given in honor of the men and women in the midwest who face deportation, denaturalization, or imprisonment under Walter-McCarran Law provisions because of their political opinions or activities in the labor and progressive movement. She spoke of the rare courage shown by the foreign born in fighting back at the "faceless informer" and endless bureaucratic harassment of the noncitizen and naturalized citizen, and called upon all the American people—native born and foreign born—to match their example to end quickly the current encroachments upon Constitutional liberties.

The mood of her remarks were matched in inspiring poems read by Fred Pinkard, Negro actor. Other speakers were the Rev. William T. Baird and Mrs. Harriet Barron. Paul Dauder, Lithuanian tenor, presented a selection of folk songs.

Victims of the Walter-McCarran Law were introduced by Nathan Caldwell, Jr., and each was presented with a gift as a token of appreciation for their part in the fight to preserve traditional civil rights. James Keller, who faces deportation, spoke in the name of those victimized.

The financial appeal resulted in a cush collection of $1,471.37 and $160.00 in pledges. Two hundred seven people attended. Messages were received from the Western Pennsylvania Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and Lillian Goodman, former executive secretary of the Midwest Committee.

PROGRAM OF ACTION

1. Individuals and organizations are urged to send letters and telegrams at once to their own Representative in Congress, urging them to sign Congressman Victor Anfuso's petition to discharge H. R. 501 from the Sub-Committee on Immigration for debate and action on the floor of the House. H. R. 501, introduced at the beginning of this session by Mr. Anfuso, is similar to the Lehman bill introduced in the Senate and would repeal and replace the Walter-McCarran Law. Signatures of two-thirds of the Representatives are necessary to bring a bill onto the floor for debate if there is no recommendation by a legislative committee. Congressman Walter, cosponsor of the Walter-McCarran Act, is chairman of the House Subcommittee on Immigration.

2. Defense of the right to hold American citizenship: large-scale attendance is urged at the denaturalization trial of Anthony Minerich, which is scheduled to begin June 6th in Judge Walter LaBuy's courtroom, U. S. Courthouse, Chicago.

Organizations should mobilize widely to insure public support at his trial.

Additional plans will be announced by the Midwest Committee.

3 Defeat the Justice Department's attempt to outlaw 23 years of service of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born! All organizations and individuals are urged to give fullest support to a series of actions to defend the American Committee's right to defend Walter-McCarran Law victims:

Fight-back rallies protesting the SACB hearings. Already scheduled: Friday, May 27th, Chicago, at Milda Hall under the sponsorship of the Lithuanian Committee for Protection of Foreign Born: Saturday, May 28th Chicago, at Mittleman Culture Center, under auspices of the Chicago Jewish Committee for Protection of Foreign Born. Abner Green. executive secretary of the American Committee, will be featured speaker.

Delegations to Washington, D. C., to coincide with the opening of the hearings on June 13th. Additional delegations from time to time as long as the hearings continue.

- 4. Campaign for $10,000 defense fund to be raised by November 1955, utilizing picnics, house parties, meetings and other activities. Speakers from the Midwest Committee and a special film on the Walter-McCarran Law are available and can be used in this campaign as well as for general activity on repeal and defense work.
  - I. Repeal and Congressional Action on Legislation.

1. Post-card campaign to chairmen of House and Senate Judiciary Committees urging that public hearings be held on all pending legislation which would repeal or amend the Walter-McCarran Law.1

2. Weekend delegations to Congressmen at home urging them to sign the Anfuso discharge petition on H. R. 501 and to use their influence toward achieving public hearings on all immigration bills.

3. Lobby in Washington, D. C. during the month of June,

II. Defense of the Rights of Foreign Born.

1. Campaign around deportation case of Matthew Brzovich, now before the U. S. Court of Appeals, to expose the use of political informers by the Justice Department in Walter-McCarran Law proceedings.

2. Develop action to alert the American people to the brutal harassment of deportees on parole supervision, supporting the 14 noncitizens in New York who are challenging the supervisory parole provisions before the U.S. Supreme

III. That every effort be made to stimulate independent and parallel action by trade union, church and community organizations toward Congressional action on all pending immigration legislation and in behalf of victims of the Walter-McCarran Law.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

Defend the rights of the foreign born

Attacks on the rights of 14,000,000 foreign-born Americans violate the democratic traditions of the American people and endanger the liberties of all Ameri-A major threat to the civil and human rights of noncitizens and naturalized citizens is contained in the many repressive police-state provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law.

The Walter-McCarran Law provides more than 125 grounds for the deportation of noncitizens without any regard to the length of time the noncitizen may have lived here. More than 340 noncitizens throughout the country have been arrested and face deportation on political grounds. Of this number, 36 reside in the Mid-

The Walter-McCarran Law provides numerous grounds for the denaturalization of naturalized American citizens regardless of the length of time the person may have been a citizen.

Noncitizens can be subjected to all kinds of harassment and persecution under this Law. They can be arrested without a warrant and denied bail if arrested in deportation proceedings. They must report their address and supply other required information once a year to the Attorney General. They must report any change of address within ten days to the Attorney General. They must carry on their person at all times their Alien Registration Cards, which serves to establish a Gestano pass system in the United States. Violation of any of these provisions is punishable by jail sentences, fines and then deportation.

The status of three million noncitizens living in the United States today, denied all democratic rights and denied the protection of the Bill of Rights creates serious dangers to the liberties of all Americans.

We call for an end to the Alien Registration provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law, as well as for the provisions ordering noncitizens to report annually, report any change of address, or carry on their persons at all times their Alien Registration Cards. We call on the American people and their organizations to fight to reestablish the democratic rights of all noncitizens in the United States as essential to the preservation of American liberties. We call on the American people to defeat the attempt to force naturalized Americans into the status of being second-class citizens. We demand that the Bill of Rights of the United States constitution apply to all within our borders.

Reneal the Walter-McCarran Law

The Walter-McCarran Law has been condemned by the overwhelming majority of the American people as racist, discriminatory and repressive. It seeks to use the noncitizen as a scapegoat in order to legitimize police-state conditions of living for the American people. It discriminates against most of the peoples of the world in its immigration sections. It jeopardizes the status of American citizenship by making second-class citizens of naturalized Americans.

Due to its general repressive and discriminatory character, the Walter-Mc-Carran Law is totally unacceptable. Each section of the Law reflects the bias of those who were responsible for drafting it and securing its enactment by Congress over the President's veto in June 1952.

Therefore, we call on the Congress of the United States to repeal the Walter-McCarran Law and to adopt an immigration and naturalization Law that would be in keeping with our democratic traditions and liberty-loying heritage. We propose the following principles serve as a guide for the major provisions of a new immigration and nationality law:

1. Any noncitizen who has lived in the United States for two years or more. if entry was in accordance with law, should be permitted to become an American citizen by appearing in open court and taking an oath of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States.

2. Any noncitizen who has lived in the United States for five years or more should not be threatened with deportation for any reason whatsoever.

3. A naturalized citizen should not be threatened with cancellation of citizenship for any reason whatsoever, unless it was obtained by clear fraud; and then only if denaturalization proceedings are initiated within five years of the granting of naturalization.

4. Immigration should be permitted without discrimination as to country of birth, race, color, creed, or political belief, with full utilization of the established quotas.

5. At no time should a noncitizen be denied the protection of any provision of the Bill of Rights, especially those sections dealing with the right to bail and freedom of belief, speech and association.

Congressional Action on Walter-McCarran Law

In 1954, the House and Senate Committees on the Judiciary failed to hold public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill, which was introduced by 32 members of Congress for repeal of the Walter-McCarran Law.

Today, there are some 45 bills pending in Congress for repeal or revision of the Walter-McCarran Law. It is the responsibility of the House and Senate Judiciary Committees to give serious consideration to this proposed legislation. Failure of these Committees to act would be an attempt again to frustrate and deny the will of the American people in an undemocratic and reactionary manner.

A discharge petition has been filed on H. R. 501, introduced by Congressman Victor Anfuso, of New York. Signatures of two-thirds of the members of the House of Representatives are required to bring this bill to the floor of the House for debate and action.

This Conference calls on the House and Senate Judiciary Committees to hold public hearings on legislation pending before Congress for repeal or revision of the Walter-McCarran Law.

This Conference urges that the delegates visit or wire their Congressmen to sign the discharge petition on H. R. 501, and urge their friends and the organizations with which they are associated to do similarly.

This Conference urges that messages be sent to Senator Harley M. Kilgore, urging that public hearings be called by the Senate Judiciary Committee on all bills pending in that Committee to revise or repeal the Walter-McCarran Law.

Denaturalization

The Walter-McCarran Law seeks to establish two classes of citizenship—one for the native born and one for the naturalized citizen. Provisions of the Law decree that naturalized citizens can lose their citizenship practically at the whim of the Justice Department on grounds that a material fact was concealed at the time of naturalization; that the citizen was guilty of misrepresentation at the time of naturalization; and for refusal to testify before a Congressional Committee within 10 years after naturalization if that refusal results in a contempt conviction.

Citizenship, according to Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr. is "precious." It should not be something easily taken away. Yet we find that more than 65 naturalized citizens in this country, active participants in trade union, fraternal and community organizations, are today faced with revocation of their citizenship despite the fact that they have been citizens of this country for many years.

This Conference condemns especially the denaturalization proceedings initiated against Anthony Minerich, whose case is set for trial on June 6th; Leo Fisher and Arthur Barth, all of the staff of "Narodni Glasnik"; and Charles Tuteur.

We reject this attempt to use the Walter-McCarran Law as a vehicle to establish a status of second-class citizenship for naturalized Americans as a threat to the citizenship rights of all Americans, native as well as foreign born.

Freedom of the Press

Sixteen editors and members of staffs of foreign language and progressive newspapers and publications throughout the country have had denaturalization or deportation proceedings initiated against them. The proceedings initiated against these editors are an attempt to use the Walter-McCarran Law to harass and punish editors of publications for expressing their views and opinions. We view these proceedings, in this respect, as a clear threat to the freedom of the press.

In this area, seven of the victims of the Walter-McCarran Law are being persecuted because of their association with progressive foreign language newspapers. They are Vincent Andrulis and Leon Pruseika, of the Lithuanian-American daily newspaper, Vilnis: Moses Resnikoff, of the Jewish newspaper, the Morning Freiheit; Knut Heikkinen, of the Finnish-American daily newspaper, Tyomies-Eteenpain of Superior, Wisconsin; and Leo Fisher, Anthony P. Minerich and Arthur Bartl, of the Croatian-American newspaper, Narodni-Glasnik.

Because of the clear threat these Walter-McCarran Law proceedings contain for the American concept of freedom of the press, we register our protest. We call on the Attorney General to cancel these proceedings endangering the freedom of the press and thereby keep open the avenues of expression to all peoples and groups within our land.

Supervisory parole

Under the Walter-McCarran Law, noncitizens whose deportation the Justice Department cannot effect are placed on parole supervision. They are compelled to report each month to immigration officers; questioned about their activities, personal opinions, associates; can be given medical and psychiatric examinations; are restricted in travel.

Be it resolved that the Midwest Conference to Defend the Rights of Foreign Born Americans declares these provisions to be of a fascist-like character, common only to a police-state. Parole supervision violates every principle of American democracy, destroys human dignity and subverts our Constitution and its guaranties to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

In face thereof, we call upon those subjected to this parole supervision not to compromise with their conscience, and keep their faith in and devotion to the democratic constitutional processes upon which this Nation and its institutions were founded.

Those of us who are not immediately and directly forced to endure the bitter experiences of this parole supervision, must assume the burdens of leadership and support of this struggle to remove the scourge of this law from its present and future victims.

This we pledge to do in the first instance, by making it known in all ways possible, to the largest number of American people, the ugliness, brutality and un-Americanism of this legislation. We shall do this through meetings of our friends, neighbors and shopmates, at our homes and churches, in union halls and community centers. We shall circulate literature and by word of mouth explain again the fatal consequences of this parole supervision to our American institutions and freedoms.

Should the government proceed with indictment and imprisonment of those who refuse to betray the democratic, freedom-loving principle of their adopted land, we promise to come to their aid, to organize and help finance their legal and public defense.

This we declare to be our responsibility and toward it we pledge our material.

financial and moral resources.

Mexican people in the United States

The Walter-McCarran Law has been used against the Mexican people in the United States in the most brutal and uncivilized manner. During 1953 and 1954, one and one-half million Mexicans have been deported, mostly from the Southwest, but many also from the Midwest. The methods used to round up hundreds of thousands of people are the most dastardly ever used. Airplanes, and horse-back riders seek them out in the fields where they are employed. They are pulled out of offices and factories and from their homes. They are denied due process, right to counsel and the barest legal protection. Many an American citizen has been thrown across the border in this ruthless roundup.

We condemn this outrageous attack against the Mexican people in the United States and pledge our efforts to protect those Mexican people who come to us for assistance. We shall also do whatever is in our power to expose this inhuman treatment of Mexican people to the American people in whatever means at our disposal.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service

The Immigration and Naturalization Service is part of the Justice Department of the United States. This places noncitizens under the supervision of the police agency of the government, which is incapable of dealing with millions of noncitizens in a humane and decent manner.

This Conference calls on the President of the United States to remove the Immigration and Naturalization Service from the jurisdiction of the Justice Department and to set up an Immigration and Naturalization Service as an independent agency of government.

The Case of Knut Heikkinen

Under the Walter-McCarran Law it has become a criminal offense, punishable by ten years in jail, for failure to cooperate in carrying out one's deportation. If a noncitizen, against whom an order for deportation is outstanding for six months, has not made the efforts which petty immigration officials demand of him to deport himself, he is liable to indictment.

Knut Heikkinen, 65-year old editorial writer of the Finnish-American daily newspaper, Tyomies-Eteenpain, has been convicted of such a so-called crime and has been sentenced to ten years imprisonment.

The recent unanimous decision of the United States Court of Appeals, in Chicago, reversing this decision and remanding Knut Heikkinen to a new trial, represents an important victory.

This Conference condemns the provision of the Walter-McCarran Law under which Kaut Heikkinen was convicted, and pledges full support to him in the new trial.

new triai.

Subpoenas

The Immigration and Naturalization Service has issued administrative subpoenas to United States citizens to ferret out information that could be used to initiate deportation or denaturalization proceedings against Americans of foreign birth. We regard this as an illegal abuse of power whose only aim is to sow distrust among the American people and turn friend against friend, neighbor against neighbor. Its legality is being tested in various federal court actions.

This dragnetlike action has proceeded in such a manner that the Midwest Committee is compelled to aid in the defense of native born citizens against these Walter-McCarran attacks.

With the discrediting of professional witnesses, the Immigration Service is seeking to create informers of decent and honest people with threats of imprisonment and fine.

This Midwest Conference pledges full support to all those who are defending their rights of privacy against the Immigration and Naturalization Service and who refuse to become informers.

Defense of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born

For twenty-three years, the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born in New York has faithfully served the American people and the cause of human liberty by defending the democratic rights of noncitizens and naturalized American citizens, and helping foreign-born Americans with problems resulting from their foreign birth. The program and work of the Committee has been commended and supported by Americans in all walks of life, including the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the Hon. Cordell Hull, Wendell L. Willkie, the Hon, Harold Ickes, and many others.

We regard the work and program of the American Committee as vital to the existence of democratic liberties in the United States. We view with great concern, therefore, the hearings which are scheduled to be held in Washington, D. C., on June 13th before the Subversive Activities Control Board on the Attorney General's petition to force the American Committee to register as a Communist-front organization.

It is our feeling that these proceedings against the American Committee are an attempt by the Attorney General to outlaw the organization because it defends the rights of noncitizens and naturalized citizens, against whom the Attorney General has initiated deportation or denaturalization proceedings under the Walter-McCarran Law. We are aware of the fact that the Attorney General announced his intention to initiate proceedings to deport 12,000 noncitizens and denaturalize 10,000 naturalized American citizens. It is our opinion that the Attorney General seeks to outlaw the American Committee in order to make possible the success of his widespread attack on the Bill of Rights in these proceedings against foreign-born Americans.

We therefore resolve to give our fullest support to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born in its defense against the Attorney General's fantastic charges. We pledge to rally all forces we can to protect these unjustified proceedings. To this end, we shall organize protest meetings, rallies, and delegations to Washington to attend the hearings and call upon the Attorney General to withdraw the petition he has filed against the American Committee.

Since the hearings will be long and costly we pledge to raise $1,500 to enable the American Committee to carry the legal and public campaign to defend the right to defend. We fully realize that the continuance of our work depends in a large measure on the successful fight to be carried on by the American Committee.

We resolve also to call on all organizations and individuals to protect against those SACB proceedings and to support fully the American Committee's defense against these unfounded charges.

Saul Grossman and Rose Chernin

This Midwest Conference pledges its support to Saul Grossman and Rose Chernin who today face jail sentences as a result of their outstanding leadership in, and devotion to, defending the rights of the foreign born and their opposition to the Walter-McCarran Law.

Saul Grossman, executive secretary of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born was convicted of contempt of Congress for failure to produce books and records of the Michigan Committee to the House un-American Committee. His appeal to reverse the one-year sentence is now pending before the Federal Court of Appeals in Washington, D. C.

Rose Chernin, executive director of the Los Angeles Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has been convicted under the Smith Act and sentenced to five years imprisonment and is now preparing an appeal to the United States Supreme Court. Simultaneously, she is fighting a Walter-McCarran Law attempt to deprive her of her naturalized American citizenship.

MESSAGE

Sam Manercitz

A greeting and get-well message was approved to Sam Manewitz of St. Louis, Mo., who is lying in the Mt. Sinai hospital in St. Louis after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Manewitz, now 72, and his partially blind wife, Fanny have both been arrested and face deportation after 42 years of peaceful and productive residence in this country. His serious condition is in great part attributable to the persecution he and his wife have been forced to endure at the hands of a vindictive Justice Department.

We call to your special attention those paragraphs which set forth the purpose of the Committee hearing:

"You are hereby commanded...to bring with you... (1) All letters and copies of letters and all leaflets and documents...designed to revise, repeal and influence the revision or repeal of the (a) Smith Act; (b) Internal Security Act; and (c) Immigration and Nationality Act. (2) Excerpts from the Minutes of all meetings...showing all action taken and all consideration given to proposals to revise, repeal, and influence the revision or repeal of the (a) Smith Act; (b) Internal Security Act; and (c) Immigration and Nationality Act."

It seems evident that the projected hearing goes far beyond the limits authorized by Congress, and violates the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution which guarantees "freedom of speech, press..and to petition the government for a redress of grievances."

If the Committee is permitted to attack the right to criticize existing legislation and to work for its modification or repeal, it will set a precedent which jeopardizes the right of any citizen or organization to work for legislative changes.

We bring this information to you in the hope that you will take such action as you deem appropriate in the interests of civil liberties.

SUGGESTED ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN IN RESPONSE TO UNAHERICAN COMMITTEE VISIT.

Dec. 3rd & 4th

Keeping in mind that the most potent weapon against the anti-democratic Un-American Committee is the searching, pitiless light of public opinion, the suggestions below may be adapted to the needs of your organization.

- 1. Pass a resolution characterizing the Committee's visit and its purpose, as shown in the "production" subpoena, as: a) clearly violating the First Amendment; b) violating the limits of Congressional authority under which it operates; c) as an attempt to smear and sidetrack the growing movement to demand revision of the Nc Carran-Malter Law in the 85th Congress.
- 2. Pass a new resolution, or re-affirm an earlier one, calling for revision of the Mc Carran-Walter Law by the 85th Congress. (This may be combined with #1 above.)
- 3. Encourage public attendance at the Committee hearings Dec. 3rd &  $\mu$ th, 10 A.M., Room 209, Federal Bldg., corner Clark & Monroe Sts., Chicago.
- $\mu_{\bullet}$ . Elect a delegation to present Congressman Valter with your resolution on the mornings of Dec. 3 &  $\mu_{\bullet}$
- 5. Ask those of your members who belong to other organizations to initiate similar action, if possible, in those organizations.
- 6. Send copies of your resolution to Rep. Walter; also to the Congressman from the area in which your organization functions and your members live. Presentation to local representatives would most effectively be done by an organizational delegation.
- 7. Reach the County and Chicago leaders of both Democratic and Republican parties (which, in their election platforms called for Mc Carran-Valter Law revision) by delegation visit, resolution and/or letter. Demand they speak up in opposition to the Committee's apparent effort to "scare off" the opposition to that law.
- $\delta_\bullet$  Publicize, via press releases and letters to newspapers and your organization's bulletin, the actions taken.

Demo Platform Body Hears People's Needs

(By Michael Singer)

A vigorous demonstration of people's organizations urging a fight for prolabor. antidiscrimination and civil liberties highlighted an all-day public hearing at the Hotel Biltmore vesterday by the Democratic State Platform Committee. Chaired by former Air Secretary Thomas K. Finletter, the committee received an avalanche of electoral recommendations which ranged from plugging prolandlord loopholes in the State rent control law and extending unemployment insurance benefits to proposals that the Democratic Party act against the deportation drive inspired by the McCarran-Walter immigration law. The atmosphere in the empire lounge of the Hotel Biltmore reflected a mood of strong resistance to Mc-Carthyism and a growing unity by organizations of diverse political backgrounds and for immediate social, labor, and welfare legislation in Albany.

Among the organizations which testified were the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, the Americans for Democratic Action, the Women's Trade Union League, the Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born, the East Side Tenants Council and the Manhattan Tenants Council, the Consolidated Tenants League. the New York Lawyers Guild, the Citizens Union, the League of Women's Voters, the New York Joint Board of Government and Civic Employees, CIO, the Citizens Housing and Planning Council of New York, the New York State Committee on Discrimination in Housing, the Teachers Union, and dozens of other civic, labor, and community groups.

Others were the CIO Local 100 of the Transport Workers Union, Bedford-Stuyyesant Health Congress, Consolidated Tenants League, and New York State Council of Churches.

The platform committee, which included legislative minority leaders Assemblyman Eugene F. Bannigan and Senator Francis J. Mahoney Borough President Hulan Jack, Congressman Emanuel Celler of Brooklyn, and Legislative Counsels Saul Kaplan and Bernard Nadell, showed keen interest in the evidence presented.

For the first time in the memory of veteran reporters who covered the proceedings, both major camps of labor were represented on the platform committee. Harold Garno, State CIO secretary-treasurer, and Harold Hanover, who holds the same position in the State AFL, sat with the committee.

A vigorous plea for a Democratic Party plank against McCarthyism was presented by Clark Foreman, of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. "Rarely, if ever, in our history have the rights of individual citizens been so abused as today," Foreman told the committee.

Foreman, a former aide of President Roosevelt, urged that the platform committee repeal the Feinberg law "with its cumbersome machinery and deleterious effect on the teaching profession and academic freedom generally and include strong antidiscrimination measures.

Miss Ruth Heit of the New York Committee for Protection of the Foreign Born, called on the Democratic Party to strike back at the "mass deportation drive" being threatened by the McCarran-Walter Act.

Miss Heit pointed out that the Massachusetts Democratic Party had said in its election plank that "we want no second-class citizenship in America" and that it was "unalterably opposed to the McCarran Act."

Asked by Representative Celler if her committee would support the Celler-Lehman bill to substitute for the McCarran Act, she said, "Yes."

A presentation dealing with antibias extension in housing laws was given by Will Maslow, chairman of the State committee on discrimination in housing, and Ira S. Robbins, executive vice president of the Citizens Housing and Planning Council of New York.

Robbins' seven-point program proposed a State commission to study "rapidly deteriorating residential neighborhoods and devise methds for their conservation and improvement."

Mrs. Francis Goldin, of the coordinating committee for four East Side Tenant Councils, engaged in a spirited discussion with Democratic platform committee members over several of her proposals,

Mrs. Goldin gave the committee a list of landlord violations of the State rentcontrol act, cited addresses of homes on the East Side where the reconversion statutes of the act were being "circumvented" and pointed out how landlords were getting away with rent of $115 for a $23 a month apartment.

Mrs. Rose Russell of the Teachers Union, along with others, urged repeal of the Condon-Wadlin no-strike anti-labor law and the Feinberg Law.

This happened in Nazi Germany to Charles A. Tuteur—because he was a Jewl Affer involuntarily leaving his native Germany in 1938, he went to Shanghei, China, as a refugae, weiting for a visa to enter the United States.

He arrived here in the fall of 1940, admitted to permanent residence. He became a naturalized citizen in January, partment doesn't like.

If naturalized citizens can lose their citiship for reading books, native-born citizens can likewise be persecuted and harassed at the whim and fancy of an arbitrary Justice Department.

Charles Tuteur was born in Cologne, Germany, in 1915. He is a clerical worker, married to a Chicago-born American citizen who is a social worker. They have a young daughter, born in January, 1949.

During the war years, the Tuteurs moved to Vancouver, Washington, where they worked as welders and shipfitters in the Kaiser shipyards. Mrs. Tuteur joined the WAC while he remained in defense work and donated two gallons of blood. He was rejected from serving in the armed forces due to an old knee injury.

In 1946, they returned to Chicago to resume a normal life, concentrating on raising their family. But today, because the father of this family had the audacity to read books which don't conform to the thinking of the listice Department, he faces loss of citizen.

here!"

The story of Charles A. Tuteur, naturalized citizen of the United States, proves that it can-and is-happening here.

In Nazi Germany, because he was a Jew Tuteur was a second-class citizen. He was prerested, thrown into jail, forced to leave his aged mother, never to see her again. Deprived of his citizenship, he was forced to fee his native homeland.

Persecuted For Having Books

Why did Charles Tuteur have to ttee Germany? When visited by the Nazi Gestapo, he was found to have three books in his possession which were branded "Verboten" by the Hilter regime.

Today, in the United States, Charles Tuteur faces denaturalization. Why is he faced with loss of American citizenship? The United States government no w charges that Charles Tuteur, when applying for naturalization in 1945, had in his possession three books deemed "subversive" by the present administration.

The legal charge is that Charles Tuteur is "not of good moral character," because he failed to disclose, when applying for citizenship, is access and reading of progressive periodicals.

70 Defend James Keller and other McCarran-Walter Law victims

MAR 18 1956

JAMES KELLER DEFENSE COMMITTEE 431 SOUTH DEARBORN ST., RM. 325 - WE 9 - 3552

Suggestions for Action-what you can do

The trial date has been set. On May 1st,1956, James Keller will go on trial for his refusal to act the role of informer.

Because this is a test case of Supervisory Parole provisions of the McCarran-Valter Law, hundreds of other non-citizens will virtually be "on trial" with James Keller.

Supervisory Parole, on its face, violates the First and Fifth Amendments of the U.S. Constitution. As a test of the Bill of Rights, the Keller case effects every American.

THE BATTLE OF DEFENSE NOW BEGINS IN EARNEST. This battle must be waged on several fronts:

PUBLICITY - FINANCES - SUPPORT BY ORGANIZATIONS -- INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT

Publicity

This is one of our main defense weapons. The truth about this case must be brought to ever wider circles of people. As public understanding grows - so also will grow the base of the defense in this case. Publicity means - leaflets, newspaper ads, pamphlets, letters, mass meetings, and similar activities. To make this possible, we must turn to the next front:

Finances

In addition to publicity costs, money is vitally needed for lawyers' fees, legal records, and court expenses. All officers and members of the Defense Committee are volunteers yet daily overhead (telephone, postage, stationery, etc.) is substantial. The extent of the total defense effort is determined by the financial resources.

Support by Organizations

This means action and public expression by unions, lodges, clubs, churches, fraternal, and similar organizations. If you belong to any of these, you can try to get a resolution or a motion passed for the repeal of the McCarran-Walter Law, and where possible, in defense of James Keller and other non-citizens. Such motions and resolutions should be forwarded to President Eisenhower, Att'y General Brownell, Congressmen and the public press.

Individual Support

You can take part in any or all of the above mentioned defense activities. As an individual, you can do some or all of the following thin;s:-

- Volunteer to give a regular monthly donation for defense
- Give spare time help to the Weller Defense Committee
- Organize a house party to enlist support of your friends
- Obtain material on this case and help circulate it around. Write personal letters to friends and acquaintances.
- Encourage others to actively join in defense activities.
- Invite a smeaker from the Defense Committee to address a meeting of your organization.

Resolution on McCarran-Walter Law and Supervisory Parole

- WHEREAS: the McCarran-Walter Law has aroused most extensive opposition in the ranks of organized labor, church, and civic groups and other sections of the population, which in their sum total represent a vast segment of the public sentiment of this country, and,

- WHEREAS: through its discriminatory racist provisions this law seeks to foster disunity between native and foreign-born Americans, and through its onerous Supervisory Parole section aims to undermine the Constitution and Bill of Rights for the foreignborn and eventually for all Americans as well,
- BE IT RESOLVED: That this meeting go on record as expressing its opposition to the McCarran-Walter Law and particularly its insidious and anti-democratic section providing for Supervisory Parole, and,

Dear Friend:

"To you have any friends with whom you have been associated since September 3, 19532"

This question is part of a criminal indictment. The man who refused to answer it faces one year in jail and $1,000 fine for alleged violation of the supervisory parole provisions of the Walter-McCarran Immigration Law.

In the enclosed REPPINT FROM THE "NATIONAL GUARDIAN," James Keller describes this fantastic situation in which he and another Chicagoan find themselves — a situation arising from the Justice Department's efforts to deport them for their political beliefs. They are the first non-citizens anywhere in the country to be indicted under the parcle sections of the immigration law.

Next month, Jim Keller's attorneys begin the opening rounds in the Federal District Court in Chicago of what will be a constitutional test of the most evil and vicious espect of the Walter-McCarran Law: the power given the Attorney General to regulate arbitrarily the activities, the associations, the thoughts --yes, the daily lives -- of non-citizens in America.

We urge you to help defeat the criminal prosecution of Jemes Keller lest supervisory parole become a way of life for the native born as well as the foreign-born.

PLEASE SEND A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION TODAY.

Sincerely yours,

Dorothy Weber, Secretary

FIRST AMENDMENT, CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

December 15, 1791

Will the High Court BRAKE the Witchhunt?

By ERNEST De MAIO

CONGRESSIONAL witch-hunters down to size. Or they may be given the signal to go full steam ahead with their reckless hit-and-run smears designed to wreck the labor movement, intimidate all Americans, and bring about, as Harry Truman said, "the rise to power of the demagogue who lives on untruth."

The issue is before the U.S. Supreme Court in a case of historic importance. For the first time in seven years, the Court has agreed to hear arguments on—and possibly deternine—whether witch-hunt investigations are illegal under the First Amendment to the Constitution.

The First Amendment states that Congress cannot make laws limiting free speech, free religion and free political association. This cornerstone of American liberty has been brazenly violated by McCarthy, Velde, Jenner and Co., who have marched up and down the land denying individuals their freedom of speech, attacking religious, labor and political groups and making millions fearful of joining together in political movements.

At stake in this decision is the right to speak your mind out; to fight for jobs, peace and higher wages; to oppose the big money grabbers in Washington; to belong to a free union and to make it an effective weapon against speedup, depression and wage cuts. For by upholding the First Amendment, the high court can toss a monkey wrench into the McCarthyites' plan to destroy these fundamental rights, or it can speed the McCarthyites on their way to national disaster by ruling that the Constitution doesn't apply to Congressmen.

THE CASE involves a trade union leader, Julius Emspak, secretary-treasurer of the 320,000-member United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers. He is appealing a conviction and six-month sentence for refusing in 1949 to finger UE officers and members for the House Un-American Activities Committee and to answer questions on political beliefs and associations.

Emspak told off the Committee in no uncertain terms. "I think it is my duty to protect the rights guaranteed under the Constitution, primarily the First Amendment," he asserted. "I don't think this Committee has a right to pry into my associations."

Back in 1947, other witnesses—Hollywood writers and officers of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee—laid down a similar First Amendment challenge to Congressional inquisitors. But the high court at that time refused to decide the issue and the uncooperative witnesses went to jail. Many more have since been hounded, fired and blacklisted as reactionary Congressmen, spurred by the court's failure to rule on the First Amendment, have moved from one out-

FEBRUARY, 1954

PLANNING labor's contribution in World War II. Emspak (r.) served on FDR's Labor Victory Committee with George Meany (AFL), the late Alvanley Johnston (BLE), the late William Green (AFL) and the late Phillip Murray (CIO) eign-born, political minorities, and the to say: living standards of all Americans.

WHEN THE EMSPAK case came up, however, the Supreme Court fi-nally moved. They agreed to review the conviction on several grounds, including two which clearly involve the issue they ducked seven years ago: the legality of (ongressional inquisitions under the First Amendment. The questions before the Court include whether the House Un-American Committee violates freedom of speech, press and assembly, and whether the First Amendment protects a witness from being forced to name union officials and discuss his nolitical views

The case, therefore, is significant to all Americans and certainly to all branches of the labor movement. It has aroused widespread comment among individuals and groups of different and even opposing political opinions

For example, America's oldest lib-rage to another against labor, for- eral magazine, The Nation, had this

"McCarthyism may well stand or tall upon the Supreme Court's decision in this case."

The Free orl League for Social Action adopted a resolution in No-vember supporting Emspak's appeal and declaring "We seriously quastion the right of Congressional Conwitters to set in judgment on the political oninions of Americans.

The American Civil Liberties Unon said that the high court "may now decide some of the thorniest civil liberties problems to confront the nation in recent years."

TO UNION MEMBERS the case involves more than a troublesome but faraway logal issue: it involves bread and butter. American workers won their right to build powerful unions only by insisting on and fighting for the broadest interpretation of the First Amendment to in-Tude guarantees of the right of workers to oran niza

It is no accident that some of labor's most historic court cases go down in the law books as "free speech" cases. The right to picket, for instance, was written into the law as a right included in the First Amendment generantee of tree speech and as sembly because, the courts held, picketing is a form of speech. The right to handbill a plant comes under the same heading. CIO organizers in the late '30's were able to crack the oven shop dictatorship of Boss Hague in Jersey City only after they carried a successful fight against Hague's edict that unionists couldn't hold a meeting. As recently as 1945, CIO's R. J. Thomas tested and knocked out a vicious anti-union law in Tayas an free speech grounds.

THE FIRST AMENDMENT. therefore, is essential to everything a union does and hopes to do. If Met aithy has his way, however, it will become a dead letter on the books and labor will be the first to suffer

In its own way, the Emspak case raises the same bisnes that confront labor in the legislative field where a new Big Business steamroller to deprive workers of their right to choose their own prious and their own leaders is in the making. Measures like the Goldwater-Rhodes Bill or the But ler Bill have the same objective as McCarthyite "investigations." They seek to destroy the free labor movement and substitute a labor front supervised by the government on behalf of Big Business.

CIO's Latin American Bulletin graphically describes another First Amendment challenge to McCarthyism-the case OCS carin American Bulletin graphically describes another risk American Intellegent in McCarthy's questions. Cartoon in Sept.-Oct. issue shows arm of Fascism pulling strings of puppet who asks: "What are you thinking?" O'Connor, pointing to the Bill of Rights, replies: "It's none of your business."

Chicago Unionists Protest Jailing of Gil Green

CHICAGO, June 21.—Unionists and community leaders here have protested against Judge Medina's action in failing Gil Green. Ernest DeMajo, district president, CIO United Electrical Workers: "Judge Medina's court is obviously no courtroom of justice. This latest jailing of Green is intended to prejudice the jury and cripple the defense from putting forth its case." Sam Park, secretary, district council, CIO United Packing House Workers: "To me as a Negro trade unionist the courtroom in Foley Square appears very similar to courts I have seen dishing out so-called justice to Negroes in the South. The jailing of Green and interference with the defense is hitting at the basic liberties of all the American people."

Mrs. Alice Belester, secretary, Chicago Federation of Consumers: "What Judge Medina is doing is taking away the rights of Communists, which means eventually the rights of all people will be taken away and we won't be free to speak on anything.

Rev. William Baird, Essex Community Church: "I certainly object strongly to the methods being employed against the defendants. They are being denied the ordinary, customary practices adopted in other cases. Undoubtedly, it will place the defendants in a very difficult position and in so doing denies to them the rights we all claim as Americans."

Rev. Armand Guerrero: "I don't believe in prosecuting people for their political ideas. The only thing I can see is that the judge is trying to punish the defendants because he sees the futility of attempting to convict them.

"Many of us in the church don't think they can be found guilty, but if they are I believe it will become a big issue in the church because it will mean the beginning of the end of freedom.

Milton Burns, political action director, CIO United Farm Equipment Workers; "Judge Medina's action in jailing the defendants makes a mockery of the principle of justice that I and millions of other veterans fought for in the war."

NATIONAL NONPARTISAN COMMITTEE To Defend the Rights of the 12 Communist Leaders, 23 West 26th Street, New York, N. Y., October 17, 1949.

DEAR FRIEND: We are enclosing a copy of the trial abstract dealing with bias of Judge Medina which was circulated to the legal profession. We emphasize that the entire conduct of the trial, the attitude of malicious prejudice towards the defendants and their attorneys, puts the stamp of sham upon the trial and reflects on the verdict recently issued.

We are also sending you a report of a delegation of prominent Americans who conferred with Mr. Campbell, Assistant to Attorney General McGrath, dealing with the trial as well as the outlook after the trial.

Enclosed you will also find our Statement on the Verdict Against the 11 American Communist Leaders and the Sentences Against Their Attorneys. Everyone is urged to send letters and telegrams to President Truman and to release a copy of same to the press. The American people must demand:

1. Immediate release of all defendants on reasonable bail.

2. An immediate halt to arrests and prosecution of individuals throughout the country for alleged subversive activity, and to the holding of persons in excessive bail or no bail at all.

3. An immediate public pledge by the United States Attorney General that his Department will take no steps to use the conviction of the Communist leaders as a precedent in the arrest or prosecution of other persons until the issues in their case have been finally determined by the highest authority in the land.

4. The use of the good offices of the President and the Attorney General to seek the setting aside of Judge Medina's contempt citations against defense counsel.

1300 Plan Fight To Save Bill

By Joseph North

Thirteen hundred front-line fighters against repression mapped a historic counter-offensive against monopoly's rush toward fascism at the Bill of Rights Conference in New York this weekend. They converged here from 33 States, fighting mad, impelled by the police-state ambitions of the administration, yet the earmark of the conference was a stanch confidence that an alerted people could successfully safeguard the Bill of Rights.

HUNGER TO RESIST

As Ernest De Maio, Midwest CIO United Electrical leader said, "There is a hunger of the people to resist. What we see here, this mobilization, could not take place 6 months ago." As Abram Flazer, CIO United Public Workers leader, said: "People are becoming aroused and are fighting back."

This was the tenor of the reports by rank and filers, as well as nationally prominent labor leaders, college professors, political figures.

Quit Korea, Say Warehouse Local Leaders

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Top officers and staff members of the large Warehouse Local 6, International Longshoremen's and Warehousemens' Union have demanded that President Truman "stop American intervention in Korean civil war."

"Dont' make the Korean war a global war," a wire by the local officers declared.

"The American people want peace."

In the union's local 10, right wing leaders who moved to support Truman's intervention were balked by the membership. The membership voted instead for a resolution introduced by Harry Bridges, international president and member of local 10, urging settlement of the war through the United Nations.

The original proposal, sprung by the rightwingers at the meeting of about 1,000, would have committed the local to oppose any demonstrations against war. The substitute by Bridges and the original resolution were discussed for an hour. On a vote the substitute, according to reports from both sides, had a majority. But chairman Phil Sandin, a rightwinger, ruled it lost.

After a strong protest, a division of the house was called. While the counters were being appointed, a rightwinger seized the mike and moved for adjournment. The chairman accepted the motion and banged the gavel, adjourning the meeting before the vote could be counted.

More Against Aggression

Chicago, July 6.—Additional union leaders here today joined in support of the statement of the National Labor Conference for Peace urging the withdrawal of American military forces from Korea.

Latest union leaders signing the statement included:

Ernest De Maio, district president; William Smith, district vice president; Grant W. Oakes, district secretary-treasurer, and Alice Smith, district recording secretary, all of the United Electrical Workers Union.

Emil Muelver, president, Local 1113, UE, Wausau, Wis.: William Burch, president, Local 1119, UE; Pat Amato, president, Local 1150, UE; Arthur Peterson, recording secretary; Frank Mingo, financial secretary, and Matthew Bednars, treasurer; all of the big Harvester Tractor Works Local 101, FE-UE,

Britain Forces Abandonment of Leftists' Peace Congress—Barring of Unwanted Parley Delegates Compels Organizers To Switch to Warsaw—One-Day Token Session to Be Held

London, November 11.—Without actually banning the Communist-dominated World Peace Congress, the British Government has made conditions so difficult that the organizers virtually abandoned today the meeting scheduled for Monday in Sheffield.

The British immigration authorities turned back so many delegates and notables that the congress was divested of any pretensions of speaking for the peace-loving people of the world. The sponsors have decided to hold a 1-day token session in Sheffield. Then, if the delegates can get there, the congress will resume in Warsaw on Thursday.

The second World Peace Congress was to have had a 7-day run in the British steel city. All that the sponsors have to show for their intensive preparations will be a meeting of delegates Monday for informal discussions and a public meeting at night.

The change of plans was aunounced tonight by the British Peace Committee, host to the congress, after a day of continued screening of foreign delegates.

Permission to enter was denied to more than 50 delegates, including Prof. Frederic Joliot-Curie of France, president of the World Peace Movement.

Others to whom entry was refused included Louis Saillant, general secretary of the Communist-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions; Pietro Nenni, secretary of the Italian pro-Communist Socialist Party and leader of the Italian delegation; Pierre Cot, former French Air Minister; and Louis Aragor, French poet.

The barred Russians included writers Alexander Fadeyev and Ilya Ehrenbourg, Metropolitan Nikolai, and Composer Dimitri Shostakovich

Pablo Picasso, the Spanish artist, was about the only notable whom the British permitted to enter.

The Home Office notified the organizers that 43 of the 46 persons on the World Peace Committee had been rejected as unacceptable for entry. When this became known, the decision to transfer the congress to Warsaw was taken in Prague, Czechoslovakia, at 2 a. m. today.

The British Peace Committee protested tonight that the Government, by its action, had betrayed British traditions of freedom of speech, and had made it impossible to hold the congress here as a fully representative and authoritative body

The British Government can reply that as promised by Prime Minister Attlee, it had not forbidden the holding of the congress or had denied entry to any but unacceptable persons.

Nevertheless, by temporizing and keeping the organizers in the dark as long as possible, the Government has broken up the congress. It did not refuse the visas, but when the prospective delegates arrived at the sea and air ports they were told that a visa was not a permit to enter, but merely to travel in this country.

The Government so toyed with the congress that interpreters and stewards still were arriving in Sheffield. Few foreign delegates had arrived there yet.

The Sheffield City Hall had been hired for the meeting, and elaborate catering arrangements made for the expected 2,000 delegates. These facilities will serve a few hundred delegates only on Monday.

The State Department has denied a passport to Paul Robeson, Jr., son of the singer, to attend the Second World Peace Congress in Sheffield, England, Prof. Joseph Fletcher, acting chairman of the American Sponsoring Committee for Representation at the Second World Peace Congress, announced yesterday.

Professor Fletcher, who is on the faculty of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, Cambridge, Mass., denounced the Department's action as "a form of house arrest." He said a passport also had been denied to Ernest DeMaio, a district director of the United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers, an independent union.

Minutes of Sponsors Meeting-American Peace Crusade

1702 12TH STREET, NW., WASHINGTON, D. C. MARCH 15, 1951

Present: A full list of those attending is attached to the minutes.

Dr. Philip Morrison presided. He proposed the following agenda, which was accepted by the meeting:

I. (a) Progress Report on Crusade's Activities

(b) New Political Developments in the Fight for Peace

(c) Program and Preparations for the Pilgrimage

II. The Ballot Campaign

III. People's Peace Congress

IV. Proposals for Organizational Structure of the Crusade

1. (a) Report by Dr. Morrison

In mid-December, a group of people interested in peace met at the Hotel Brevoort in New York City and discussed the need for a new peace organization. Out of this discussion came the Statement of Principles and the Proposals for setting up the American Peace Crusade which envisaged three concrete actions to implement this program for peace: (1) A ballot campaign; (2) the peace pilgrimage to Washington; and (3) a People's Peace Congress in the Midwest. Initiated by seven people—Dr. Clementina J. Paolone, obstetrician and chairman of American Women for Peace, New York, N. Y., Mr. Ernest DeMaio, vice president, United Electrical, Radio, and Machine Workers, Chicago, Ill.; Dr. Philip Morrison, nuclear physicist, Cornell University, New York, present today, as well as Dr. Lucius C. Porter, former professor of philosophy at Yenching University, China; retired Congressional missionary, Beloit, Wisconsin; Dr. Linus Pauling, chairman, department of chemistry, California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, Calif.; Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, historian, sociologist and anthropologist, New York, N. Y.; and Mr. Charles Howard, attorney and publisher and former member of Republican State Committee, Des Moines, Iowa—invitations were sent out to a number of prominent Americans. The first public announcement was made on the 1st of February. To date nearly 300 sponsors have joined in supporting our program and activity. More than 120,000 copies of the Call to this Pilgrimage have been distributed; more than 500,000 copies of the Ballot (including those reproduced locally as well as the more than 200,000 printed nationally) are in circulation; more than 27 city and State committees and councils of the Crusade have been formed; and above all the presence here in Washington of upward of 2,500 delegates indicate our growth.

(b) New political developments in the fight for peace

Dr. Morrison indicated his belief that we are not far from some kind of settlement in Korea as a result of the military situation, among other factors. And there is a new development since the launching of the Crusade. This is the insistence among the American people and arising in Europe that there be a settlement within the Big Powers of the differences among them, and that every opportunity be seized upon by the State Department and the Administration to negotiate such differences. The Conference of Deputy Foreign Ministers now being held in Paris must not fail. This is the time to insist that negotiations be continued until agreement is reached. With this in mind, we propose that the following letter (copy attached) be submitted to Secretary Acheson by the delegation which has an appointment with the State Department at 1:30. In addition, our program for the next 2 months should emphasize the urgency of insisting on negotiation as a major issue.

DISCUSSION

Dr. Paolone indicated her fundamental agreement with Dr. Morrison's position. The dozens of people she sees every day have a deep desire for peace and insist that somehow war must be averted. Although there is confusion on some political issues, the desire for peace is so real that it should not be difficult for us to win support of our program if we present it simply and directly to the people themselves.

Mr. DeMaio stressed the point that we must not be fooled by the talk about stopping war preparations, and that there might be peace. We want peace, but we will get it only if we continue fighting for it vigorously.

Proposals for the slate for the planning committee included the following:

Prof. Philip Morrison
Ernest DeMaio
Dr. Clementina J. Paolone
Dr. Lucius Porter
Dr. Linus Pauling
Abbott Simon
Bishop Arthur W. Moulton

STATELET OF THE DELEGATION OF THE AUTRICAL PEACE CRUSADE SUBJUTTED TO THE HOU. DEAT ACRESCU, SECTY OF STATE OU. ARCH 15, 1951

Our country has never stood in so great power as she stands today before the world. More productive than any land, richer in all the goods of the world than any nation, armed with the most terrible engines of war, we move to a still fuller mobilisation every day. Our bases spot the continents, our officers advise the staffs of half the world, and our doctrine spells actions for a score of states, small and great. The "situation of strength", whose development is your stated goal of policy, seems to have come into real being.

But in your charge is nothing less than the meace end walfare of our country in her dealings with the world. To observer can feil to see-you yourself have said it—that chance is the way of history today in at least two continants. Our country cannot ignore that change, as we cannot blindly oppose it. We must try calmly and earnestly to understand that time of change, and so to act that our strength increases the chance for men everywhere to gain the inalienable rights with which we know all men to be endowed. This means that a simple recourse to our strength, to our enormous force of men, machines and money, or even, it may be, a blind acceptance of our leaders' firmest convictions that their actions are in the right, carnot be adequate for a great and free nation. It is good to have a gient's strength, but to use it as a gient is tyrannous. The one key to peace in an atomic age is negotiation. Everything else is sure to feil in the end, Statesmanship means conciliation -- self-righteousness, military might, aconomic advantage are not adequate substitutes for give-and-take discussion. We have elsewhere made clear, in all candor, our feep dismay with many of the most firmly fixed and cherished policies of the Department of State today. Our present concern is not to arms these matters in the length and detail which their importance demends, but to lay mon you, i'r. Secretary, the mayest remonsibility to allow no chance, no possibility, no even dimly-seen o mortunity for a general negotiation with the Soviet Union and with the Paling government, to escene your efforts. "e especially remind you that the eyes of the meonle of Asia and Africa as well as of our own Tegro fellow citizens are upon Meanington in this time of war against an Asian nation.

There is a steady and terrible drift to war in our land; the burden of arms in dollar cost, and in mental and moral surrender to war as an instrument of policy is heavy and day by day it (rows, Me must not allow ourselves to drift in this current past the point of no return. "S believe that we sheak for very many millions of our countrymen when we say we find not hope but fear in the policies which your mental carries out today.

But there is in the month ahead a na inificent opportunity. This very day Dr. Jesup, your deputy in Peris, is engaged in preparations for negotiations, we urge with maximum force and concern that you and the whole Dempthent make as the first and most essential task the carrying out of a successful conference. Such a conference may avoid the fatal irony of our sponsorship of German rearmement only five years after land-won victory over the militarists of the Third Reich. However fruitful, it cannot solve all the deep troubles of the world; but we are sure that the only way to begin is to begin. kr. Secretary, the generations of Apericans yet unborn may have to regard this spring as a turning point: they may know either that the drift to the third and most terrible war was then made a torrent, or that the beginning of the way to a long peace was then opened. More than any other American, you and a few others in this city, can make that choice. That is why we have come to "ashington, men and women of every kind of background and ominion, to urge upon you the utter and terrible necessity of petient negotiation, soon and late, There is no other way. He nation today can rule the world, as no nation can isolate itself from change and flux. The recognition that a way of living together in peace is necessary and possible is the first fact of dinlomacy of today. We sait today that you place the success of the Conference of Foreign Khnisters, even a nartial, gradual, stereby-step success, as your first responsibility to the American people, and that you undertake promytly to tall them how important and how hopeful such a Conference night be.

STATEMENT OF THE DELEGATION OF THE AMERICAN PERCH GRUSADE SUBNITTED TO THE HOM. GEORGE MARSHALL, SEC'Y OF DEFENSE ON MARCH 15, 1951

The national Willit my entablishment of the United St tes is tody one of the most powerful creams the world has ever seen. It disposes of the fruits of the labor of some fifteen million of our countrymen, equipped with the most productive technic I reducted in the history of men. Its men can fly eight miles high or plumb deep into the see. It can release the terror of the atomic bomb; it has studied the means of creating postilence. This power of life and de th it holds in the name of defending the rinciples and the very lives and home. Of the American people.

We wish to bring before you our grave concern about the misuse of this mreat power. We do not here wish to argue in the domain of foreign policy; we have elsewhere stated our conviction that international conferences, negotiations and agreements replace the use of American military strength in workers as means of settling disagreements between nations.

You know, as we do, that the trial of trus which has desol ted two-thirds of Korea can be longer be regarded as a "police action," of a fulfillment of a charter of world law, as an appropriate senation coinst those deemed wiltly of international crims, or indeed, as saything also thanks are of bitter attrition, here not only thousands of Americ as die but whose claurest victims are the people of Kore, themselves.

A major purpose of the last terrible was not to content and vanquish a bitterly inhuman phiscophy, a philosophy identified then with Hittor Germany, but no stranger to turn country, which made held a tenth of our people in all very, and which still denies the Negro people full colleaghi; in fact, to about all many. This is the accurring front inequality, thich denies our best traditions and is contradicted by living groof of ordere and history. Today the order recoils in horror at the performance of our traces against the solored perjets on the tribefield of Korea.

Today the ratter in lacot out of hand. Unrestrained bomburdment of civilian homes and undefended points, regriscal against divisions, a e of adequate of mass lectracting, like angular and filme projectors against tones, naval shelling of open cities — those are the rule and not the exception. In it of necessity cruel and terrible — that is shy we appose it. A great suggistion grows that against the enemy in Rarea we are willing to employ our most turner trained setheds, because he is not of the white rate. Our any madeny that our planes and our ships reason, that today? The run and their officers breathe contempt when they geak of Operation Filler than they refer to the Chinese and Kure a geode. This is me of mind can mean a wrending monity, no part of a sound only real strikety. We are mining the secondary and december indied mantime every here.

Urge President To Meet Malenkov

The American Peace Crusade yesterday released a message which a number of prominent Americans sent to President Eisenhower urging him to begin immediate overtures looking toward a meeting with Premier Malenkov, as a step that can contribute to achieve permanent peace in Korea, lessening international tension and halting the drive toward world war.

The message pointed out to the President that the American people will support you in every effort for the peaceful solution of differences with the Soviet Union and that now is the propitious time to launch such an effort. The message added that to delay this effort would increase the danger of spreading war in Asia and of dividing Germany into two armed camps.

Those signing the message on behalf of the APC today:

Thomas Richardson, director, APC: Robert Morss Lovett, former secretary of the Virgin Island and Professor Emeritus of English literature at the University of Chicago; Prof. Philip Morrison, nuclear physicist, Ithaca, N. We the undersigned, call all lovers of peace in the Chicago area, individuals and organizations, including trade unions, church groups, women's and youth organizations, and other civic groups, to meet in a CONFERENCE FOR WORLD PEACE THROUGH NEGOTIATION, to take place in Chicago on Oct. 17, 1933.

OCTOBER 1963 will be a month of great decisions. The peace conference on Korea will be convening; the problem of the threatening recession and consequent memployment will have greater urgency than ever; the question of unification of Germany will confront the world with new emphasis, the proposal for a meeting of the Four Great Powers will have reached maximum urgency, the United Nations General Assembly will be in the midst of a crucial session. The influence of the great mass of Americans for world peace must be exerted them if it is to be effective in determining government policy.

THE TRUCE IN KOREA, ending the bloodshed and destruction, has been warmly welcomed by millions of Americans and peoples of other countries as positive proof that despite all difficulties, differences between nations can be resolved by peaceful negotiation.

SIMILARLY, peaceful negotiation among the major powers could solve most of the great problems confronting the world, the problem of strengthening the United Nations as an instrument of nego-tiation and arbitration of international issues; the problem of maintaining wages and full employment in a peace-time economy, including the restoration of trade between East and West, the problem of a just and stable peace in Asia; the problem of German unification; the problem of assuring freedom and self-determination for the peoples of Africa and of aid to the industrially undeveloped nations; the problems of world disarmament and the outlawing of weapons of mass destruction; the problems of militarization, Universal Military Training and conscription. The Conference will include panels on these and other problems.

WE DEDICATE this Conference to the patriotic task of combating the dangerous idea that war is inevitable. For this Conference we will work for and welcome the participation of all individuals, regardless of affiliation, and of all organizations working for peace or interested in any aspect of world peace problems. We have ourselver on a firm belief that the fullest cooperation and interchange of ideas among peacelovers is essential, and that the assurance of a lasting world peace can come only with the united effort of all believers in peace

NATIONAL DELEGATION VISITS WASHINGTON IN DEFENSE OF FOREIGN BORN AMERICANS

On June 5, a national delegation, sponsored by the ACPFB, visited Washington to seek a veto of the Walter-McCarran Bill, to win hail for Martin Young, and to protest the threatened deportation of Peter Harisiades to Greece. Prof. Louise Pettibone Smith, of Wellesley College, and Ewart Guinier, chairman of the Greater New York Negro Labor Council, headed the delegation. which held conferences with the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, representatives of the Justice Department, Congressmen and Senators. Participants in the delegation came from California, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Connecticut, New Jersey, and New York.

CAMPAIGN FOR RELEASE OF MARTIN YOUNG INTENSIFIED BY COMMITTEES IN ALL AREAS

Martin Young, held for nearly nine months on Ellis Island, denied bail pending deportation proceedings, is receiving added support in the campaign for his release. Hon. Vito Marcantonio, former member of Congress, has agreed to serve as legal counsel while throughout the country telegrams, letters and protests of all manner are being collected in increasing numbers. A new leaflet setting forth facts in the case and a protest postcard are in the process of being distributed, and a special Birthday Greeting will be in circulation very shortly.

PETER HARISIADES HELD ON ELLIS ISLAND THREATENED WITH DEPORTATION TO GREECE

On May 29, 1952, Peter Harisiades surrendered to immigration authorities and has been jailed on Ellis Island, denied bail, since. He was ordered deported on the basis of a United States Supreme Court decision handed down on March 10, 1952. Attorneys for Mr. Harisiades have appeared in the U. S. District Court in New York to apply for a hearing on the question of his suffering physical persecution if deported to Greece, his native land. When a request for bail pending the outcome of such hearings was made, Judge Leibell referred the application for bail to the Attorney General and on June 4th such application was made. Originally arrested for deportation in May, 1946, Harisiades had been released on his own recognizance and later on bail. Denial of hail and threat of deportation to Greece, where he faces certain death, is indeed cruel and inhuman punishment. Harisiades is married to an American citizen and the father of two American-born children of school age.

Three Stories To Which You Can Write the Happy Endings

These are the simple stories of three men, neighbors of yours in Minnesota, all of whom have lived in this country for over 30 years. America is their home. It is here they have their families and friends; it is here they work and pay their taxes and join in the life of the community. One of them is a veteran of World War II, having served in the European theater. All of them are fighters for democracy, speaking through their newspaper or in their shops and unions, for peace and freedom and a higher standard of living for all Americans. They have broken no law; they have harmed no man. Yet today these three men, because of their political opinions, face deportation from their homes in America to countries where they will come as strangers. It will mean separation from their families and friends; it may mean poverty, persecution and even death.

What have these men done that they should be denied their inclienable right to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness?" These are their stories:

1. Knut Heikkinen's story

Knut Einar Heikkinen is 61 years old. He has lived in the United States for 35 years, arriving from Finland as a young man in 1916. He is the father of three daughters and a son, who is deceased. Formerly the editor of Eteenpain, a Finnish-American daily newspaper which was published in New York, he is now on the editorial staff of Tyomies-Eteenpain, in Superior, Wis.

Knut Heikkinen was first arrested in deportation proceedings on November 21, 1949, released on bail of $5,000, and then rearrested in the midnight McCarran raids during the week of October 22, 1950. He was held in the county jail in Duluth, Minn., without charge for almost 3 months. During this time he was given no opportunity for exercise, and due to this forced inactivity and deficient diet, his eyesight was seriously impaired. But Knut Heikkinen's spirit never failed, nor did his friends fail him. Hundreds of letters of greetings and good wishes poured into the jail, until the jailers were weighing it by the pound instead of counting it by the piece.

He was finally released by order of the district court on bail of $2,500. Deportation hearings are scheduled to be held in his case in Dulnth, Minn. Despite the fact that Knut Heikkinen's attorney is in New York City, the Justice Department has refused to transfer the hearings and insists on denying Heikkinen his right to counsel and holding the hearings in Duluth. This is another illustration of the manner in which the Justice Department violates the democratic procedure and persecutes honest and decent noncitizens.

2. Peter Warhol's story

On a Sunday morning in October 1950, Peter Warhol was working outside his house, getting ready for the winter. Indoors his wife, Helen, was busy preparing a birthday party for their eldest daughter, who was 12 years old that day. She looked up suddenly to see her husband in the doorway in the custody of two Federal men. Scarcely giving him time to collect his things and say goodbye, he was jailed without bail on a warrant from the Immigration Department. This was his second arrest on the same warrant.

Peter John Warhol was brought to this country at the age of 3. He is the father of three American citizens; the husband of another. He is buying a home in Minneapolis where he has always lived and worked. Always an active trade unionist, he is a member of the CIO Woodworkers Union, with a seat in the CIO council of his city. Cited for his work in civil defense, and declining a deferment secured by his union, he joined the United States Army along with his four brothers, and served overseas for 15 months during World War II. He was honorably discharged and afterwards was arrested for deportation to Czechoslovakia.

From the time of his arrest in 1947, and the subsequent hearings which were later declared illegal by the United States Supreme Court, he and his family have never been free of the anxiety of continued persecution. The passage of the infamous McCarran Act intensified this anxiety, which was realized in his second arrest.

Warhol's deportation hearings are now in process. Deportation would mean, separation from all he holds dear and exile to a country he has never known.

This is happening to your neighbor, Peter Warhol. It could happen to you.

3. Charles Rowoldt's storu

Charles Rowoldt, 67, has been a legal resident of the country for 37 years. Born in Mecklenburg, Schwerin, Germany, he came with his wife to the United States in 1914 to escape the growing militarism in Germany that culminated in war. Saddened by the death of his wife and the little son that had been born to them, he worked as a farm laborer, as a clerk, as a traveling salesman, as a railroad man and in hotels and restaurants. As secretary of the Workers Alliance in Minneapolis in 1935, he helped organize the fight for relief of the unemployed. For 10 years he has been a member of Hotel and Restaurant Workers Union No. 665, A. F. of L.

He was first arrested and held for deportation in 1936, but the case was dismissed for lack of evidence. In November 1949, he was rearrested, and as a result lost his job as elevator operator at the Minneapolis Club. A hearing was held in 1950 and later declared illegal as the result of a decision by the United States Supreme Court. Nevertheless, he had to sell his 4-acre farm, where he had raised victory gardens during World War II, to pay his attorney. In October 1950, his little one-room shack burned down, and all his worldly possessions went up in smoke.

When Judge M. M. Joyce heard Charlie Rowoldt's appeal last year he said, "I am convinced that Mr. Rowoldt is a better man than many citizens who are walking the streets today." Mr. Morris Levy, Sr., of the Hotel Dyckman, said Charlie Rowoldt was the best houseman he had ever had.

Rowoldt's deportation hearings are pending in the near future.

The final chapters to these three lives are yet to be written. Today these foreign-born Americans are being threatened because of their political beliefs and associations. Tomorrow it will be native-born Americans. Democracy, threatened with the vicious realities of a McCarran law, is facing a deadline. It is not only the future of these three men and their familes that is at stake. It is your future and the future of all Americans as well. It is up to you to put an end to political persecutions—to midnight arrests—to the destruction of family life. We, the people, still have the last word.

STOP THE DEPORTATION DRIVE

1. Write to President Harry S. Truman, Washington, D. C., protesting the deportation drive and urge that those noncitizens arrested for deportation be permitted to become American citizens.

2. Have your union or organizations go on record as opposed to the deportation of noncitizens for their political opinions.

- 3. Write your Senators and Congressman to go on record for repeal of the McCarran law.
- 4. Circulate this pamphlet among your friends and neighbors. Send for a bundle—order at 100 for $1.
- 5. Send contributions to the Joint Defense Committee, Alma Foley, Secretary, 2290 County Road J, Minneapolis, Minn.

Hathaway's Statement on Expulsion From the C. P.

baily worker p. 5

Clarence A. Hathaway yesterday issued the following statement on his expulsion from the Communist Party:

"Answering many speculative newspaper stories on the possible causes and significance of my expulsion from the Communist Party, I state:

- "1) My expulsion was justifiable. It was made necessary by my failure to live up to the exacting personal standards properly demanded by the Party of its leadership.
- "2) All stories suggesting political disagreements between myself and the Party leader-ship, now or in the past, are wholly false—as all Party people know.
- "3) Now, as always, I have the greatest regard and admiration for Comrades Browder, Foster, Miner and the other members of the National Committee.
- "4) I repeat: My expulsion was due to my own personal shortcomings, which I recognize and which I hope to overcome as a preliminary to a request for readmittance."

(Signed)

CLARENCE A. HATHAWAY.

inn. Meeting Pledges 100,000 Peace Ballots

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 15. — Workers, farmers, youth and women at a conference here, voted to obtain 100.000 ballots in the next 60 days on America's Peace Roll "to bring our boys back from Korea and negotiate peace with China," in the next 60 days.

The conference, which included 150 delegates from all parts of the state, cheered Elmer Benson, former Governor, when he said. "We are the real American patriots. Peace is not subversive. The people are questioning the wisdom of the Washington leadership, the Truman doctirinc, the North Atlantic Part, the new ties with France, the rearming of Germany. The trend is against sending our boys to fight and die for Big Business."

big pitsiness. Clarence Hathaway, in the keynote address, analyzed the so-called national debate on foreign policy in which the Triman adherents quarrel with Hoover, Taff, Kennedy and Supreme Court Justice Douglas on when and where and how to start World War III. He pointed out war is not inevitable. Fear is being evercome. The people are speaking out for peace.

The delegates set themselves up for the dimersolans for Peace, issued a policy statement, set up speakers and publicity committees. and called upon all degates to organize peace committees for the ballot campaign in neighborhoods, shops, towns, churches, PTA, and trade unions.

The conference heard reports on the fight for the Martinsville Seven, for the building up of a campaign of wires and protests to save Willie McGee from execution March 20, and the defense of the Trenton Six. Resolutions and wires were sent from the conference to the Governors of Massissippi and New Jersey and President Truman.

A resolution was passed protesting the action of Attorney Ceperal McGrath in indicting Dr. W. E. B. DuBois and his associates in the Peace Information Center. The conference also protested the moves in Iowa for the threatened disbarment of Charles Howard, Negro attorney, publisher and delegate to the Warsaw Peace Conference.

An organizing committee of some 40 people was elected. Benson was elected honorary chairman. Dr. Forrest Wiggins, state chairman, and Virginia Buercki, secretary-treasurer.

BULLETIN

AMERICAN COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

23 WEST 26th STREET . NEW YORK 10, N. Y. . MUrray Hill 4-3457

ACTION ON LEEMAN-CELLER BILL

The information in this BULLETIN is not to be publicized in any public document, press release, leaflet, Bulletin, etc. It is intended solely for your information and suidance.

Clarence Hathaway, native-born husband of Vera Hathaway, of St. Paul, Minnesota, arrested in deportation proceedings under the Walter-McCarran Law, wrote to all members of Congress from St. Paul and Minneapolis concerning his wife's deportation case, the provisions of the Walter-McCarran Law, and urging the Congressmen to seek public hearings on the Lehman-Celler Bill.

Three Congressmen answered Mr. Hathaway. None of the three are Sponsors of the Lehman-Celler Bill. Extracts from their replies follow:

REP. EUGENE J. McCARTHY: "It have received your letter including the statement relating to the deportation case involving your wife. I share your concern over the harsh effects of this law and I do hope that hearings will be held on the Lehman-Celler Bill so that the objectives set forth in the report of the President's Commission, as well as the earlier veto message, may be met, and the basic Immigration Act may be corrected."

REP. JOHN A BLATNIK: "Thank you for your letter of January lat relative to the McCarran Immigration Law. I appreciate hearing from you in this connection. I was opposed to the passage of this Law from the beginning and I am still opposed to the measure. It is my contention that the Law should be either completely repealed or drastically amended and I would like nothing better than to vote for a repealer."

REP. ROY W. WIER: "Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of January 1, 1954, and I want to thank you for your concern and interest in the so-called Walter-Mc Carran Subversive Law which I have felt right along is a very stupid and dangerous piece of legislation, that is, at least to those of us who believe in and love our traditional and constitutional form of government. It threatens the civil rights of any or all minority opinions, many of our rights of association or free speech and right down through any of our so-called Bill of Rights.

"Yes, I was opposed to it when first proposed. I voted against it when it was before the House for passage and I again voted to sustain the President's veto of it. Furthermore, I shall continue to oppose it so long as its provisions are so broad and sweeping. I shall support any action for its repeal and, if that fails, i shall help to remove from it some of the provisions I have referred to above."

Mr. Hathaway's example in sending letter to Congressmen in his State can be duplicated in every area. We suggest that you work out similar action.

We repeat: The letters received by Mr. Hathaway cannot be publicized in any way in any general piece of literature since there is no authorization for release of the correspondence to the public. ftul/1283

Communists Expel Hathaway, Editor—One of Party's Three Leaders Headed the Daily Worker Staff for 10 Years

Expulsion from the Communist Party of Clarence A. Hathaway, former editor of the Daily Worker and one of the party's three top leaders in this country, was announced yesterday by the Communist national committee. Hathaway, who is out on bail pending appeal from a 30-day jail sentence for criminal libel, was relieved of his editorial duties 6 months ago, but there was no public announcement of his separation from the staff he headed for 10 years.

The official notice of his ouster, as published in the Sunday Worker, said Hathaway had been expelled for "failure to meet personal and political responsibilities assumed by him, for desertion and for failing and refusing to take steps to rehabilitate himself." The national committee said it had given Hathaway 3 months in which to "clear" himself, but that he had continued to "default his obligations."

Secrecy shrouded the incidents leading up to the break. Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist Party, and other party functionaries declined to discuss the case, and Hathaway could not be found to present his version. Inquiry at his old address, 126 Hoyt Street, Brooklyn, disclosed that he had moved without leaving a forwarding address, and the police and the district attorney's office said they had no idea where he had gone.

Hathaway was reported by one informant to have turned against the party line, of which he was formerly the principal exponent, but others familiar with the affairs of the party noted that he had been a stanch supporter of the Stalin-Hitler pact and had sought to justify the Soviet invasion of Finland in editorials and speeches.

His departure from the party was the most spectacular defection in the series of expulsions and resignations that began with the signing of the pact in August 1939. Hathaway was a member of the Politburo, the party's supreme council, and served as chairman of the Communist national campaign committee in 1932, when William Z. Foster, national chairman of the party, was its presidential candidate.

Born in Minnesota 46 years ago and a machinist by trade, Hathaway became interested in communism in 1919 and helped organize the party in the United States. He ranked just behind Browder and Foster in the councils of the party and was regarded as one of its ablest speakers and writers.

Despite his public endorsement of all policies followed by the party, Hathaway was said to have disagreed privately with Browder on several occasions and at one time, many years ago, to have led a movement within the organization to depose Browder as general secretary. Hathaway's wife, once a party organizer in Brooklyn, was said to have found it more difficult than her husband to accept the Stalin-Hitler pact and it was suggested that pressure from her might have caused Hathaway to modify his own views and fall from party favor.

If he was assailed by any doubts about the wisdom of Communist policy at the time he stood for trial for criminal libel in General Sessions last June, Hathaway gave no sign in his courtroom demeanor. After he had been convicted, along with the publishers of the Daily Worker, of having libeled Mrs. Edith Liggett and the memory of her husband, Walter W. Liggett, the Minneapolis editor who was slain by gunmen in 1935, Hathaway charged that the indictment was meant as a "disgraceful and slimy attack on communism." Hathaway's attorney said the conviction would be appealed to the United States Supreme Court if necessary.

In August 1939, Hathaway was locked up in the civil section of Brooklyn city prison for 4 days for failure to pay a judgment of $2,672 obtained by Mrs. Liggett in another libel action. He was released under bond of $5,600 on condition that he stay in Brooklyn for 6 months. He sent his editorials to the Daily Worker by messenger and spent much of his time at Ebbets Field watching the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team play.

When the offices of the Daily Worker were bombed mysteriously on June 20, 1940, Hathaway said the act was committed by "the fifth column that draws its inspiration from the war parties high in Wall Street" and that it was "beyond doubt related to the systematic campaign of hysteria for war."

DEPOSED AS EDITOR

In the next month Hathaway was deposed from his editorship. When title to the Daily Worker passed from the Comprodaily Publishing Co. to the Freedom of the Press Co., Inc., owned by three elderly women, on July 31, Hathaway was no longer a member of the staff. The new editorial board was made up of Louis F. Budenz, Benjamin J. Davis, Jr., and Howard C. Boldt.

Hathaway's career as a writer for other Communist publications and as an orator at Communist functions stopped at the same time. Efforts to obtain information about his whereabouts or doings were unsuccessful.

His expulsion from the party was made effective as of October 10. At the offices of the Daily Worker a spokesman said two sections of the party constitution has been invoked by the national committee as authority for the ouster. They read as follows:

"Breaches of party discipline by individual members, financial irregularities, as well as any conduct or action detrimental to the party's prestige and influence among the working masses and harmful to the best interests of the party may be punished by censure, public censure, removal from responsible posts, and by expulsion from the party.

"Party members found to be strikebreakers, degenerates, habitual drunkards, betrayers of party confidence, provocateurs, persons who practice or advocate terrorism, sabotage, espionage or force and violence, or members whose actions are otherwise detrimental to the party and the working class, shall be sumarily dismissed from positions of responsibility, expelled from the party, and exposed before the general public."
